This is a recent case, which I have come across.

Recently, one of my friends contacted me to ask about the marital discord his daughter was undergoing and wanted me to analyse, what is the cause of the discord and whether it was remediable?

Since, I had known the girl very well I preferred to assess the situation of her marital discord by the time chart, so I prepared the chart on 17-03-2008 at 19:09:15 Hrs IST at Bangalore for analysis. The chart was rotated by 11th house, as I knew the native very well. The chart is being analysed as follows:

The Query

In the un-rotated chart, Moon falls in the 11th house and in the star of Sat lord of 5th cusp, indicating his concern about her.

In the rotated chart, Moon falls in the star of 7-8th lord Saturn in lagna indicating something painful going on in the life of the native. It was thus sufficient to proceed with the query.

The co-ordinates for judgment

In a prashna chart, the harmonious life with spouse is promised if 5th and 7th cusp get involved with the 11th house in any way. The healthy marital life shall be realized only if the 11th cusp indicates its linkage with the Lagna, 5th and 7th house without getting linked to the adverse houses.

The marital discord starts from the 6th and 12th house involving the 7th house. If a discord is indicated, we must observe which planet as star lord sets it in. The relations indicated by the cusps are instrumental to cause the marital strife whose sub-lord gets placed into the said planet as star lord causing the strife.

Analysis of the chart

Before the cause of marital discord is identified, it is necessary to ascertain, if it is a case of marital discord to start with.

1. Look at the 11th cusp, which indicates the outcome of the query.

11th cuspal sub-lord is Jupiter, which falls in the star of Venus in the 7th house close to 8th cusp from behind. As the Venus is prominently the 4th lord, its placement in 7th house is not welcome as it creates disharmony and stagnation in marital life. As Venus is placed in the sub of Saturn (weak 7-8th lord) placed in lagna, it supports more towards the marital discord. Since, Venus also lord the sub of the 6th cusp, the indications of Venus get confirmed for affecting marital discord.

2. Now, the query was to find out the cause of marital strife, which was attempted as below.

It was noticed that Venus as star lords were the planets not in favour of marital felicity, as analysed above. Having noticed it, it was evident to me that the cusp whose sub-lord falls in the star of Venus would be the cause of the problem and some inference could be derived from the relations indicated by the said cusps.

(A) - Planets in Occupant's stars
(B) - Occupant of house
(C) - Planets in Owner's stars
(D) - House Owner

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars.

This aspect is analysed as follows.

Note that Mars, Mercury and Venus are placed in Rahu star out of that Mars does not hold any cuspal sub-lordship. Out of the remaining planets, Mercury lords the sub of 4-8th cusps whereas Venus lord the sub of 6-10th cusps.

Similarly, Jupiter is the only planet placed in the star of Venus. Incidentally, Jupiter lords the sub of 3-11th cusps and also lords the 6th house of discord. Considering the Jupiter as 3rd cuspal sub-lord causing the discord, it flashed me that 3rd cusp indicated father-in-law. Note that the Jupiter is in the star of Venus, which holds the sub-lordship of the 2-6-10th cusps.

From this observation, we may infer that the father in law may have developed greed on the wealth of the native (2nd house) and that of girl's father (10th house), which could be the subject matter of his concern. Since, Venus is 4th lord (2nd from 3rd), it could be possible that he wanted to acquire the said wealth. We may have to filter as to whose wealth, whether that of the native or her father, is in the picture.

Now look at the sub level indications and here it may be noted that Jupiter is in the sub of Mercury placed in 7th house as 3rd and 12th lord without any connection with the 10th house. Here, the sub-lord concentrates the focus on the expenditure (12th house) to be incurred by the native.

Perhaps, summing up the said indications, it was logical to conclude that father in law (3rd sub-lord, Jupiter) might be desiring the native to spend/invest her wealth (Sub-lord Mercury lording the 12th house) for the matters relating to property (Jupiter's star lord Venus as 4th lord) to be enjoyed by the husband (Sub-lord placed in 7th house). Since, the Mercury is a very strong planet having no planet in its star, its placement in 7th house may have driven the husband (sub-lord Mercury placed in 7th house) to pursue this demand, which is backed up by the father in law.

5. Now, let us see, if the native is destined to agree for such an investment proposal. Look at the wealth/assets of the native (2nd cusp) and see if it signifies the 12th house indicating her expenditure.

2nd sub-lord is Sun (a strong planet) which is the 2nd lord placed in the 8th house indicating the wealth of the husband. Note that the 2nd house lordship of Sun is very strong, thus, some transactions from the native to the husband may be possible in the future. Sun is placed in the star/sub of Saturn, which is placed in the lagna. Notably, since Saturn does not strongly lord either of 7-8th houses and does not signify the 12th house, the anticipated transaction may not happen.

6. Look for the dasha spread of Saturn-Rahu running upto August-2010.

Dasha lord Saturn is in the star of Ketu placed in lagna, making the native to assert herself. Saturn in its own sub placed in lagna further confirms it.

Bhukti lord Rahu, is in the star of 10th lord Mars placed in 11th house, which keeps the discord going on. However, Rahu being in the sub of Ketu in the lagna would keep the native assertive and may not budge so easily. In the Jupiter's bhukti starting from August-2010, the situation may get worst and may crystallise the discord, as per the analysis above. I have not seen in detail that far.

Facts of the case

1. It is known to me that the native (girl) is a highly placed person in MNC drawing huge salary for years, thus is capable to spend/invest huge wealth.

2. It is confirmed that the father in law is the initiator of the discord demanding a huge investment on the property in the name of husband. As the native refused to agree for such an investment, the discord took a discrete shape since a year back. I thank KP methodology to show the light whenever desired.

Will my child get admission in desired school?

Dr. H.S.Nagi,

9/43, Punjab agricultural university,
Ludhiana,

Mob: 094177 17910

In India to get an admission in any reputed school is a matter of high tension for parents. Since the day of purchasing prospectus forms, they start worrying, and when the child is invited for interview, it is actually interview of parents. From this point to the day of display of list admitted pupils by school, the parents' stress level goes up very high.

Each parent or guardian wishes their child should be admitted in a good school of their choice. So usually they approach the Astrologers and query whether my child will get admission in the desired school or not? This question was asked by the mother of a child whether her child (1st child) will get admission in the desired school.

KP Rule

The 4th house indicates the educational institution and since his desire is to get admission, the 11th shows realization of one's ambition. Therefore, sub lord of 4th is to be deposited in the constellation, the lord of which is the significator of 4 and 11. (p.191, KP reader Horary Astrology)

If 4th sub lord is in direct motion and deposited in the star of planet in direct motion and is a significator of 11th house, then one gets admission in desired school or college.

If 4th sub lord is retrograde and significator of 11th then whenever it will be in direct motion, one will get admission. But if it is deposited in the star of planet, who is retrograde then one can't get admission in school or college of one's' choice.

Query

The mother of a child gave horary number 64. She wanted to know whether my child will get admission in school of her choice. I calculated Horary chart on 23-11-2007, at 13-49 IST, at Ludhiana/ India

Analyses

Since the question was asked by the mother, I rotated the chart and took 5th cusp position as ascendant of her child. 8th cusp will be 4th to child and 3rd cusp will be 11th to her child. As per the rule 4th cusp sub lord should signify 11th house. Here, from 5th cusp 8th cusp sub lord should signify 3rd house.

Let us have a look on 8th cusp from mother's query. It is in Saturn sign, Moon star and Sun sub. This 8th (4th of the child) cusp sub lord Sun is in 5th of mother (ascendant of the child) and lord of 3 (11th of the child). There is no planet in Sun's constellation and there is no planet in 3rd house. So Sun becomes the strong significator of 11th house of child. In other words Sun, the sub lord of the 4th house is a strong significator of 11th to the child. and Sun is in the constellation of Saturn which is lord of 8th (4th of the child) house.

Our rule is fully applicable. In addition for such a matter to take place in a few days, transit Moon's movement in the constellation of Venus to Sun tonight is also a favourable indication. So the child will surely get admission in choice of her school.

Result

Next day morning, I received phone call from the child's mother thanking me that her child got admission in the desired school. I could feel her happiness through her tone, as compared to the stressed tone when she asked the query.

When My Article Will Be Published?

By

G.Subramanian,

E-mail: gurusubra@yahoo.com

I used to contribute items to one particular Tamil magazine and these used to be published regularly. However, there was a sudden break for some unknown reasons though a lot of my contributions were pending with them for approval and publication. Naturally I was inquisitive to know when the next contribution will appear in print in that magazine. Using my astrological knowledge, I wanted to find out when my next contribution will appear in print. I drew up a time chart for this purpose and the same is appended ..

For publication of an article we should look at houses 3(writings), 6(success against competitors) and 11(fulfilment of desires). As may be observed from the list of, significators given along with the chart, the fruitful significators of 3rd and 6th houses are Moon, Mercury and 11th house is Saturn. The sublord of the 11th cusp Mercury is in 10, lord of 3,6, in the star of Mars in 2, lord of 1,8 and in the sub of Saturn in 4, lord of 10,11. So the fast moving planet Mercury indicated that the wish will be realised soon. So since the matter is to take place in a few days, there is no need to analyse DBA but it will be enough if Moon's position is moved to the point covered by the significators. So I expected that on 7th February, 2008, when Moon is in Capricorn owned by Saturn and in the star of Triuvonam, moon's star, the items sent by me will be published.

What a surprise! The items did appear in the issue released on Thursday, the seventh of February 2008. THIS undoubtedly proves that only the K.P. system can predict with pointed accuracy. My humble pranams to our beloved master, Shri.K.S.K, The founder of this wonderful system of predictive astrology.

Editor's note: - It is found that a time chart is applicable with KP rules.

Recently Pakistan had Elections and after a long time democratic alliance will be in place to form Government. This is a very good sign for Pakistan who is still under military rule (Gen. Musharaf).

For Democracy, signification of 4th (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements) Bhava, is very important.

For Democracy or military rule/dictatorship in a Country chart we have to look at Asc sublord's and 10th sublord's significations.

To check this, I have fixed some Rules as below:

Ruler of Country:

If 3rd (Election, view of people) Signifies 3 (Election, view of people), 9 (people who think for opposite view), 11 (Gain) Elections will be held.

Who will rule country?

There are many outcomes possible in election, so I fixed some rules for Rulers which are as under.

Thought One

1) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 6(Military Dictatorship),11(gain) then power come in the hands of Military or a Dictator.

2) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11(gain) then power come in hand of a Democratic Government.

3) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 9(Religious leader), 11(gain) then power come in hand of Religious leaders.

Thought Two

1) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11(gain) then power come in hand of a Democratic Government.

2) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 6(Military Dictatorship), 11(gain) then power come in hand of Military or Dictator.

3) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 9(Religious leader), 11(gain) then power come in hand of Religious leaders.

Thought One

1) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 6(Military Dictatorship),11(gain) then power come in hand of Military or Dictator.

2) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11(gain) then power come in hand of a Democratic Government.

Asc sublord is Sat. Sat is in the star of Mer and sub of Ven.

Sat is in 4 (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), Lord of 10,11. Mer is in 3 lord of 2,3,6 (Military Dictatorship), Ven is in 4 (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements) lord of 1, No planet in the star of Ven and Ven is sublord of 5,11.

Asc sublord indicates 4 (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements) and 6 (Military Dictatorship). As we know Pakistan passing through both Democracy and Military Dictatorships. It is depend on Dasa, if Dasa support 6th, than the Country's ruler comes from Military and if Dasa support 4th, then the Country Rule comes from a Democratic Party.

Main important point in Pakistan chart is Asc sublord does not signifies 9 (Religious leader), so there is No Chance for Pakistan to become like Afghanistan.

Thought Two

1) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11(gain) then power comes into the hands of a Democratic Government.

2) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 6(Military Dictatorship), 11(gain) then power comes into the hands of Military or a Dictator.

3) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 9(Religious leader), 11(gain) then power comes in hand of Religious leaders.

10th Sublord is also Sat and we have discussed above in detail.

Running Dasa/Bhukti Analysis:

Running Dasa is Ven. Ven is in the star of Mer and sub of own.

Ven is in 4 (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements) lord of 1, No planet in the star of Ven and Ven is sublord of 5,11. Mer is in 3 lord of 2,3,6 (Military Dictatorship), Unfortunately again, this Dasa indicates both 6 and 4, so as per Bhukti ,Pakistan ruler come from Democracy and Military Dictator.

Running Bhukti Analysis:

Running Bhukti is Ven up to 14/3/2011. And we discussed Ven above.

Next Bhukti is Sun. Sun is in the star of Mer and Sub of Jup.

Sun is in 4 (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements) ,lord of 5. Mer is in 3 lord of 2,3,6 (Military Dictatorship), Jup is in 6, Lord of 8,9,12. This Bhukti clearly indicates Military rule again in Pakistan.

As per my assessment, Pakistan will again face Military dictatorship during Sun Bhukti 14/3/2011 To 13/3/2012. This bhukti indicates 9th (Religious leader), but as I discussed above, Asc sublord or 10th sublord do not indicate a Ruler from Religious Party.

There has been a view aired by some corners that KP system propounded Late Guruji Prof. K.S. Krishnamurti revolves around horary system drawn from KP No. 1 to 249. An effort has been made through the below-mentioned write up that the above view came from horses-mouth is incorrect, and KP system is also equally good for verifying the life events in a natal chart too, besides a horary chart.

In order to verify the dates for fructification of events, I have approached a known person, who was willing to share the date of many events in life.

The events should take place during the Dasha / Bhukti / Antara / Sookshma (D/B/A/S) of significators of those particular houses and when the transit of such significators agree.

EDUCATION

4th CSL when connected 4,9,11, college education will be attained. 4th CSL is Venus. Mars alone in Venus star. Venus or Mars are not connected to 4th or 11th houses. But it is connected to 9th house. While the 4th house or 11th house did not satisfy the rule, college education is not promised. Venus signifies 8th house, which is a house of negation to 9th house.

The Dasha / Bhukti for the native running from the age of 15 to 21 (normal age period for college education i.e., 20-Feb-1987 to 20-Feb-1992) was Mars-Ketu, Mars-Venus, Mars-Su, Mars-Mon and thereafter, Rahu-Rahu). 4th CSL is Venus. Mars alone in Venus star. Both Mars and Venus do not signify 4th house. Therefore, the basic education in a College is under threat. Venus do signify 9th house, But neither Mars nor Venus signify 11th house. Hence Mars VMD did not favour too. Thereafter the native run Rahu VMD. Rahu is occupant of 4th bhava, but is in the star of Mon. Both Rahu and Mon are significators of 4th house, but they are not connected by Venus, who is the 4th CSL.

Native has done course in typewriting and shorthand, and is employed as PA to Director (Fin) in a Public Limited Company. Saturn signifies shorthand. Mars signifies Typewriting and printing. Mercury is for writing. Mercury and Saturn are significators of 4th cusp, while Mars is placed in 4th CSL Venus star.

PROFESSION

10th CSL is Venus. Mars is in Venus star. Mars signify typewriting. Venus is in Mercury star. Mercury signify letters and writing. Saturn aspects 10th house, who signifies shorthand.

MARRIAGE

7th CSL when connected to 2,7,11, marriage will take place. 7th CSL is Jupiter. Jupiter does not signify 2,7, or 11 directly. Then how did marriage take place? Jupiter is in Ketu star and will function as Ketu. Ketu is in Saturn star and Saturn is occupant of 7th. Saturn is also in Su star. Su is lord of 11th. Su is in Rahu star. Hence Jupiter, Ketu, Su, Rahu, Saturn are significators of marriage. Marriage solemnized on 07-Jan-1998 during Rahu-Mercury- Mercury-Saturn period. All these planets are significators of houses for marriage. Mercury is also in Rahu star.

DEATH OF HUSBAND

Death is seen from Bhadaka, Maraka, and Mokashakaraka planets during their periods. Her husband died on 20th Dec 2001 during Rahu-Venus-Su-Mars period.

2ND MARRIAGE

2nd marriage was solemnized on 03-Aug-2007 (through a judicial court) during Rahu-Mars-Venus-Saturn period.

If 2nd CSL signifies a dual house or a dual planet, 2nd marriage will take place. 2nd CSL is Venus, who is in Pisces (dual sign) and Mercury (dual planet) star. Hence 2nd marriage is promised.

If 7th CSL signifies a dual sign or a dual planet, 2nd marriage will take place. 7th CSL is Jupiter, who is in Sagittarius (dual sign). Hence 2nd marriage is promised.

ILLNESS FOR 2ND HUSBAND

When the 6th CSL is connected to Asc, 6,8,12 the native will be sick / ill. 2nd husband is seen from 2nd CSL, who is Venus. Chart need to be rotated to 2nd CSL. Hence take 2nd CSL as Asc CSL for 2nd husband.

So the Asc cusp sub lord is Venus. Mars is in Venus star and is occupant of 6th. Therefore, Mars functions as Venus. Besides Venus is lord of 12th. Hence connection between Asc and 6th house is established through Mars. Venus signifies Pancreas / sugar, etc. Mars signifies blood. Hence the 2nd husband is a diabetic.

It is observed from the above events of life, during Rahu Mahadasha, the native has gone through lot of upheaval in life despite the fact that Rahu is in Capricorn and copiously represent Saturn, whereas Saturn is the most benefic planet for Libra born natives. Here one gets the feeling that Rahu is placed in Badhaka Sun star, probably could have caused the obstructions in life.

Punarphoo- Cancellation of Marriage

by

V.S.N. Murthy

(KP Astrologer)

Flat # 404, Teja Gardens

Prakashnagar, KURNOOL (AP), PIN 518004

On 30-04-2007, my best close family friend named Annadanam Ramachandra Sarma, Retired Superintendent of Mandal Parishad Office, Dhone, Kurnool District (A.P), came to my house with the Wedding cards to invite me for attending his eldest son's marriage to be held at Mahanandi on 09-05-2007 Wednesday morning at 9-43.

I went with my family members by engaging a car for attending the function which is arranged to go forward to meet or to receive the bridegroom to be held on 08-05-2007 night at 8-30 to 9-30. For that function the bride bluntly refused by saying that she was not willing to marry. Then a great dispute took place among the parents and the relatives of bride and bridegroom upto 4-30 A.M of that night. Lastly the parents of bride came to a conclusion to pay Rs.25,000/- towards the expenses incurred by the parents of bridegroom. Thus the marriage was cancelled.

Within a week of this incident I secured the horoscopes of both the bride and bridegroom and erected as per our K.P.System to observe the cause of the cancellation of marriage. Punarphoo dosha is present in the both natal charts. Then I told to my friend that his son would marry another good fine charming girl as his wife.

On the early morning hours at about 4-50 A.M. of 26-08-2007, the marriage was celebrated as I said with a beautiful girl at Nandyal. Both the natal charts are given hereunder for the benefit of K.P.Readers.

What is Punarphoo?

It is a settled matter becomes unsettled or in a word, it is a matter of delay if Saturn is in the star of Moon and in his own sub (Sat) or Moon in the star of Saturn and in the sub of Moon or if Moon-Saturn is found in one sign.(See Reader IV Pages 76 & 77 and also Reader VI Page 179).

Besides the above combination, Punarphoo comes into effect if they are found in the following way.

1. Moon in the star of Saturn and Saturn in the star of Moon.
2. Moon in the sub-sub of Saturn and Saturn is in the sub-sub of Moon.
3. If Moon is in the third sign or in the tenth sign from Saturn (ie) Saturn's 3rd and 10th aspect.

Whenever Saturn has got any connection what so ever with Moon there will be some obstacle or impediment not only during the negotiation but also at the time of fixation and even at the time of celebration of the marriage. This connection between Moon and Saturn causes delay, though both of them do much more good with a better partner.

Punarphoo dosha is such that at times disturbances could be there to upset the whole programme of marriage or even postpone the date of marriage or even change the bridegroom or bride.

My observations are given hereunder in the chart of bridegroom.

- | | |
| 1) Moon=157°-48-00 | The difference between these two planets is 128-32-13. |
| Saturn=029- 15-47 | 112 to 132 apart 120 Trine - Benign in nature- a Powerful good aspect. Hence Punarphoo dosha is very Strong. |

- 2) There is no planet in the star of Saturn. Saturn holds the sublordship for the cusps 1,5,7,and 11. Thus he becomes a strong significator for the above said cusps.

3) Saturn in 11th house (house of desire & labhasthana) aspects lagna by 3rd aspect, and 5th bhava by his 7th aspect and above 8th bhava (longevity and mangalyasthana) by his 10th aspect.

4) Saturn is in the star of kritika of Sun who is placed in 2nd bhava (i.e) He becomes a strong significator for 2nd which requires for marital matters.

If Saturn is connected with Houses 2,7,& 11 by occupying the house or owning it or situated in the star of the planet posited in any one of these houses it will cause delay at every time in fixation of marriage etc. But it will not deny marital happiness.

Now let us see the chart of the bride.

1. There is mutual aspect of Moon and Saturn.
2. Moon is in the star of Saturn and Saturn is in the star of Moon.
3. 188-58-20 = Moon
52-49-29 = Saturn

136-08-51= difference between Moon & Saturn. 133 to 137 apart 135 = Sesquiquadrate - moderately evil aspect.

Certain Specific Rules regarding the cancellation of {Punarphoo were framed by Late Pt.Keshab.R.Kar founder of Sub-Sub Theory which are laid down hereunder for the benefit of the readers.

1. Saturn or Moon or both if found in association with Sun in one sign may be sign divided into two bhavas.
2. Saturn or Moon is in the star of Sun or Sun is in the star of either of them.
3. Sun is in the star, lord of which is near either of Moon or Saturn.
4. Any planet near the Moon or Saturn but is in the star of Sun.
5. Saturn or Moon is in the sub-sub of Sun.

The above combination helps to cancel Punarphoo effect.

The second rule of cancellation of Late Pt.,Keshab.R.Kar is applicable for both the natal charts of Bride and Bridegroom

In the chart of Bridegroom, both the Moon and Saturn are in the constellation of Sun. In the chart of Bride, Sun is in the constellation of Saturn.

Next in the chart of Bridegroom, Mercury® is nearer to Moon and he is in the constellation of Sun. (ie) both are in Kanya rasi. Mercury® is in 4-1-36 and Moon is in the 7-47-50. So Kar's 4th rule applies here.

Next in the chart of Bride, Sun is in the star of Saturn. Here Kar's 3rd rule applies.

Notable Point:- 1. Punarphoo is clearly visible in the both charts of Bride and Bridegroom.

2. Kar's theory (i.e) Cancellation of Punarphoo is also visible clearly in the both charts. Then why the Marriage is broken?

Does it mean that Kar's Punarphoo cancellation rules are not working? If any other member have any experience please share his experience.

Whimsical Changing of the Sublords - a gross malpractice by some KP Practitioners

Introduction

This article is about a gross malpractice that is frequently undertaken by some KP practitioners. Such malpractices are now becoming very rampant due to various internet and physical discussion forums of KP where practitioners of astrology are distorting the fundamental rules of KP. This is a harmful trend because newcomers in the field of KP will grow with distorted knowledge and serious followers will be misguided resulting into eventual degradation of the original KP principles. In this article I will elaborately discuss about a major malpractice undertaken by a section of KP astrologers who, without knowing the actual value and usage of Ruling Planets (RP), invoke and use it 'whimsically' to determine and fix any cuspal sublord and then go about interpreting the horoscope. This is a gross mistake because the alteration of a single cuspal sublord without changing the other sublords is a major mathematical flaw for the simple reason that KP is based on Placidus system of house division which in turn is derived from calculations of spherical trigonometry. The subsequent sections will discuss malpractice in detail with a case study that was posted in one of the KP yahoo groups recently where this malpractice was undertaken.

KP House Divisions

It is a common knowledge that all house divisions in KP (whether natal or horary) is undertaken according to the Placidus house division method. This method is also called as the Semi-Arc Method of house division. Placidus house division is popularly arrived at with the help of two tables of houses, namely

1. Raphael's Tables of Houses, and
2. Universal Tables of Houses

According to the Placidus house division system, for any particular Latitude and on a specific sidereal time only the 10th, 11th, 12th, Ascendant, 2nd and 3rd house cusps are found. These are the 6 houses of the horoscope. Since the Placidus method is the Semi-Arc (that is, semi circular) method, the other 6 house cusps are found by adding 180 degrees with the preceding 6 cusps. So, Ascendant plus 180 degrees will give the 7th house cusp, 10th plus 180 degrees will give the 4th house cusp and so on and so forth. This is true whether you use the Raphael's table or the UTH. The fundamental trigonometrical rule remains the same that in Placidus house division we need to first find the 6 house cusps and then simply add 180 degrees.

There is also another important factor. It is the Ayanamsa to be deducted. As all the trigonometrical degrees are Sayana measurements in the Tables of Houses, deduction of an appropriate Ayanamsa is of immense importance to arrive at a Nirayana house division and subsequent correct predictions (Dutta, 2007). In large majority of cases, the use of KP Ayanamsa other than the Original one leads to confusion and faulty prediction.

Lagna: The main pivot

For reasons of spherical trigonometry the Tables of Houses provide the degree measurement for the 10, 11, 12, Asc, 2 and 3. And we simply need to add 180 degrees to get the corresponding opposite house cusp. However, as far as astrological predictions are concerned, the Ascendant/Lagna is the main pivot of the horoscope. If the Lagna is wrong then all the other houses, reckoned from the Lagna, will also be wrong. This is also true for KP albeit at a much larger scale because in KP each house cusp has a sublord that is sensitive to very minor variation in time alteration. In other words, in KP the correct determination of the Lagna cusp sublord will decide the fate of the native simply because the determination of the Lagna cusp is based on the Birth Time (or question time for horary). So, if the birth time is wrong, the Lagna cusp sublord will be wrong and all the other 11 house cusps will be wrong. It is for this reason that late Prof. K.S. Krishnamurti always rectified birth horoscopes by correcting the birth lagna house cuspal sublord and not any other house (Dutta, 2008).

Unfortunately, very frequently we find that many KP practitioners whimsically change the sublords of any house cusp to suit their interpretation without understanding the mathematical underpinning of the Placidus house division. This is doubly detrimental because they are not only changing the house cuspal sublord of single cusp but they also do not make the corresponding cuspal sublord change in the opposite house. Truly speaking, changing any house cuspal sublord other than the Ascendant/Lagna cusp sublord is an astrological crime because it is bereft of any astrological and astronomical logic. We cannot change any house cusp other than the 1st cusp because the 1st cusp drives all other houses. The 1st cusp is determined mathematically that binds all the other house cusps. So, any change in other house cuspal sublord is a gross malpractice that is devoid of any logical sense.

Ruling Planets: Divine indication misused

Prof. K.S. Krishnamurti's contribution of Ruling Planets (RP) is a divine key that must be used in times of confusion only. It is like the Brahmaastra that needs to be used only at the time when a true KP astrologer requires divine help when all his knowledge has fallen short of arriving at a correct prognosis.

RP means the planet that rules the time of judgment of the astrologer. This is what KSK himself said. Unfortunately many KP astrologers failed to really understand what KSK meant. They failed to understand that RP is meant for the astrologer himself and not the client. RP is an indicator whether the astrologer is on the right track. It is an indicator of whether the time is right for the astrologer to take up the chart. Finally, it is also a divine mean by which the astrologer will be able to resolve his confusion and doubts.

Recently some internet and physical astrological forums are propagating a gross malpractice whereby any of the house cuspal sublords are arbitrarily changed with the help of RPs. This is a dangerous trend since this malpractice is devoid of true KP principles and mathematical underpinnings of house divisions.

An Example of the malpractice

Very recently there was an instance of this malpractice in one of the internet astrology groups. One astrologer gave a case of late marriage of a gentleman born on 30-12-1954 at 19:29 hrs in Girgaum (18N57, 72E49). This man was still unmarried. The question was whether marriage is in the cards or not.

One of the members of the internet group took up the analysis and justified his analysis through the gross malpractice of arbitrarily changing the sublord of the 7th cusp with the help of RP on 26th Feb 2008 at 5 PM in Hyderabad, saying "...the 7th cusp sublord has to be Mercury and not Saturn. As Mercury is finding place on topmost of the ladder and no presence of Saturn in RP". On this basis, he changed the 7th cuspal sublord to Mercury from Saturn and gave his verdict that "the result is no marriage promised to this gentleman by KP principles as well!!"

On careful scientific examination we find how damaging such malpractices can be for the future of KP. Let us see the effects of 'changing the sublord of the 7th cusp' arbitrarily on the horoscope. In the following page I provide the 'original' horoscope of the man with Saturn as the 7th cusp sublord with the actual birth time of 19:29 hrs and KP Original Ayanamsa of 23-07-39 (Exhibit I)

Exhibit I

However, when his 7th cusp sublord is (whimsically and arbitrarily) changed to Mercury we can easily find how it becomes a gross malpractice. By changing the 7th cusp sublord to Mercury (out of misinterpreting the RPs) from Saturn, the following house cusps have changed leading to a major change in the level and quality of planetary house significators. Here I am only providing the changed house cuspal sublords when Mercury is taken as the 7th cuspal sublord. Readers can cast both the Original and the Changed birth chart for greater insights.

Changed Birth Cuspal Positions

Cusp	SGN	Degree	SGL	STL	SL

XII	Gem	05.43.33	Mer	Mar	Moo

Readers may now notice in Exhibit II, the devastating effect this malpractice has had on the birth horoscope. By arbitrarily changing the 7th cusp sublord to Mercury (underlined above) from Saturn all the other 11 cuspal sublords have changed. Some have shifted 1 slot forward and some have shifted more than a slot forward. For example, due to changing the 7th cuspal sublord from Saturn to Mercury the 2nd sublord has changed from Saturn to Ketu—a 2 slot shift whereas the 10th cusp sublord has changed from Saturn to Venus—a 3 slot shift. The question is have we astrologers become God that we are altering the destiny of the individual??

Not only this, changing the 7th cusp sublord (or for that matter any cuspal sublord) will invariably have its deterministic effect on the planetary house significations. That is, the houses signified by all the nine planets will also change since all the sublords are changing and it is common sense in KP that the house cusp sublords carry with them the meaning of the houses. This is clear in Exhibit III and IV. Readers will find how the house significations for Sun, Moon, Jupiter, Venus and Saturn have been altered due to the whimsical sublord change. Also the level of strength of house significations has undergone a change too.

Exhibit III

Ven	12	4	6	11
Sat	12	4	6	7	8	9

Ket	6	12

There is also another devastating effect. This is related with the birth time. The whimsical change of the 7th cusp sublord from Saturn to Mercury has caused the birth time to advance by 8 minutes!! The time has now become 19:37 hrs (IST). Are we Gods that we can alter the birth times of people at the mere whims and fancies of ours just because we cannot fit out predictions/interpretations with their lives??

The real KP interpretation

Now I would like to provide the readers with the true KP interpretation of the horoscope in its unchanged form with the 7th cusp sublord as Saturn. Since the day I read the whimsical interpretation, I was having a desire to take a look at the horoscope myself. On 15th March 2008 at 2:13 pm in Hyderabad I took up the analysis of this horoscope after praying to Lord Uchchista Ganapati and with divine blessing the RPs were:

Lagna Star lord:	Saturn
Lagna Lord:	Moon
Moon Starlord:	Jupiter
Moon Signlord:	Mercury
Day Lord:	Sun

Readers may well note how the divine has helped to resolve the confusion with the 7th cusp sublord. It is undoubtedly Saturn and not Mercury because Saturn is at a higher level than Mercury. In this horoscope, the 7th cusp sublord is Saturn. It is the lord of the 7th house. Saturn is in Jupiter star, Mercury sub. Jupiter is the strongest significator of the 7th house. Mercury is the strongest significator of the 11th house. Therefore, this man will definitely marry. More so, because Saturn aspects 2nd house and as we all know "Saturn delays but never denies". This gentleman is still unmarried because the only two significators of 7th house—Jupiter and Saturn—also signifies 1st, 6th and the 10th house at a higher level of signification than in the level at the 7th house. But the good news is that this gentleman will get married between May 2010 to August 2010 during Mercury-Saturn- Moon period.

Rule of Origin also helps

As both Saturn and Mercury have appeared in the RP, we can use the Rule of Origin method to ascertain the correctness of the birth time in the horoscope. Readers of KP EZine are aware of my Rule of Origin method of ascertaining the correctness of the birth time (Dutta, 2008). According to this Rule, we can easily see in Exhibit I above that the 1st cusp sublord Saturn and the 9th cusp sublord Venus are linked with each other through Jupiter that has become their common starlord. This Jupiter was also in my RP at the time of judgment as shown above. Can there be any confusion when the divine Himself blesses the astrologer?

Whereas when we arbitrarily change the 7th cusp sublord to Mercury then the 9th cusp sublord will be Moon (See Exhibit II). Readers will not be surprised that 1st cusp sublord Sat and 9th cusp sublord Moon of the changed horoscope are not connected to each other directly or indirectly because this is not the real birth time. Here also we need to be careful because Moon has appeared in the RP. But the Rule of Origin infallibly helps.

I would like to take this opportunity to inform the esteemed readers that the Rule of Origin is highly appreciated by professional KP astrologers across the globe. Also the new version of Jyotish Deepika v 2.0 an advanced KP software, now uses the Rule of Origin method to ascertain the correctness of the horoscope. Readers will find it very useful to read previous issues of KP EZine to know what Rule of Origin is.

Conclusion

Astrology is a subject which cannot be concluded. However, to draw a line to this article I would like to convey the message to the readers that they must be very careful about picking up knowledge from various internet and physical discussion groups. As in this article we have seen how a gross malpractice has taken the shape of applied knowledge. For newcomers and meek members, this may miss their attention and they may slowly fall victim to wrong astrological principles and practices.

This article was only an eye opener on a particular malpractice of arbitrary changing of sublords at the whims of the astrologer under the misinterpretation of ruling planets. We have seen how unscientific and non-KP oriented is the practice of whimsical changing of sublords and the devastating effects it will have on the birth horoscope.

Esteemed Mr Kanak Bosmia,

Thank you very much again for the especially informative and instructive articles you have put together again for this issue.

Your article on the political situation in Pakistan is a gem of simplicity and insight, while you, Mr TwinWin and Mr Andrew Dutta were very generous in sharing with us their hard-earned concepts, experience and knowledge. I haven't read the other articles but I feel this issue is going to be the best.

Tha Htu from Myanmar

Sir,

Can you publish an article on Muhurtha using KP. Since this has been an area of research it would be wonderful if you can provide us an insight

Dear Shri Kanakjee,

I saw an article by Shri V.S.N.Murthy on Punarphoo – Cancellation of marriage in April 08 issue of KP-Ezine. I am sending herewith an Article on the same subject in proof of Dr.K.R.Kar of Bolani's research work on cancellation of Punarphoo Dosha. Hope this will atleast be published. All the working are by manual casting under KP system & I hope this will agree with Computer program. I would be grateful, if the acceptance or otherwise may please be made known to me before end of this month.

With best wishes,

Editor's Note

Dear KP Lovers,

Firstly, I notice that some inappropriate strong words in the article can hurt other readers of the KPEzine. I am of the opinion that this is not a healthy manner for any learned person. In future, if we receive any article that contains harsh words we will reject it even if it has any educative value. This magazine is for sharing knowledge and research findings but not to aim at any one as target. I do not want the KPEzine to become a medium to criticize others even if it is in a sugar-coated way. In future we will pay more attention to the language of the article. I WANT TO MAKE A STRONG REQUEST TO ALL RESPECTED WRITERS: PLEASE CARE ABOUT THE LANGUAGE USED IN YOUR ARTICLE. The KP community is a small one and if we keep fighting one another, how can we make the dreams of Gurji Shri KSK ji come true?

Secondly, I am concerned about the behaviour of some magazine readers who want to download the KPEzine but don't want to reveal their identity. It is nothing wrong with the KPEzine asking for your real identity which is kept as strictly confidential information for my personal review only just to know who are the readers and not shared with any one else.

I do hope after reading this Editor's note, they will stop this type of activity; otherwise their ID address may be permanently banned from my website. Another possibility is to enroll a member only after a thorough verification of the identity. But I don't have time to do such things. So banning the ID address is the simplest and best way for me.

Your feedback, which is wonderful and appreciated, gives great energy to the KPEzine, and to all the authors. Hence, I earnestly request you, our well-wishers, to send your feedback, suggestions and comments every month.

This is your magazine.

With warm regards,

Kanak Bosmia

Casting a Horary Chart Manually

by

Tin Win

tw853@yahoo.com

Division of Subs

1. The Hindu zodiac, Vimshottari dasa system and the Western Placidus house system are three pillars of the KP. The Hindu zodiac of 360 deg is divided into 12 equal rasis or signs of 30 deg each and also into 27 equal nakshatra or star or constellation of 13d20m each. The constellation is further divided into 9 unequal subs in the proportion in which the planets are allotted to the total 120 years in the Vimshottari dasa system. On the basis of such divided 249 subs, the KP Horary of number 1-249 is invented.

Fixed Ascendant of a Horary Chart

2. In casting a Horary chart, the commencing position of the Sub of the Horary number in the attached Table --- of Subs for Horary Numbers (1 to 249) is taken as the Nirayana Ascendant position which remains the same irrespective of the date or time or place of casting the chart.

Place and Time of Casting a Horary

3. Based on the 1st cusp or Ascendant position of a Horary number, the cuspal positions of other houses are to be calculated for the latitude of the place of judgment by the astrologer irrespective of the place from which the query has been raised by phone, e-mail etc, using the Placidus Tables of Houses. The planetary positions should be worked out for the date and time when the astrologer commences analyzing the chart.

The following Atrodienst (www.astro.com) is the mostly referred link which shows the atlas and time zone data of the 254,106 towns based to a large extent on a licensed copy of the International and American Atlas by Astro Communications Services (ACS), San Diego, with additions and modifications by Atrodienst AG. Calculation of the Example Chart 2 (Horary)

Calculation of the Cuspal Positions

7. The direct calculation method by a calculator is used in this article. The traditional methods by means of Logarithms and interpolation table values in the Tables of Houses are also applicable.

Horary number: 105 (given by the querist)

Place of Casting (POC) or Judgment – Ahmadabad (LG Hospital), 23N00, 72E36

Time of Casting (TOC): January 5, 2008 at 10:04:48 AM IST

Query: When will be marriage?

1) To find out the Nirayana Ascendant rising 149:13:20 for the Horary number 105 from the attached Table 19 of Subs for Horary Numbers (1-249).

2) To convert the Nirayana Ascendant position to the Sayana one to use the Placidus Tables of Houses in Sayana values, ie. adding the New KP Ayanamsa 23:52:43 for the date of casting (DOC) to the Nirayana Ascendant rising 149:13:20 to obtain the Sayana Ascendant rising 173:06:03.

3) To find the Sidereal Time corresponding to the above Sayana Ascendant rising 173:06:03 in the Placidus Tables of Houses and then to calculate the other cuspal positions according to the latitude of place of casting the Horary chart.

4) In the KP Universal Tables of Houses (UTOH) or Michelsen Placidus Tables of Houses, for the latitude 23° North the Ascendant or 1st cusp 173:06:03 (d:m:s) falls between the lower value 172d38m corresponding to the earlier local Sidereal Time (LST) 5m28s and the higher value 173d33m corresponding to the later LST 5m32s as shown in the Column 3, Row 2 and 3 of the following Table 1.

5) LST increment = 5m32s – 5m28s = 4 min

Asc. value change for 4 min = 173:34m – 172:38m = 56 min
 Asc. value change from the lower value = 173d6m3s – 172d38m = 28m3s

For 56 min change in Asc. value, there is 4 min increment in the LSidT.
 For 28m3s change in Asc. value, how much increment is in the LSidT?

$$= [(28+3/60)/56] \times 4 = (28.05/56) \times 4 = 2.0036 \text{ min} = 2m0.2s$$

6) The constant proportionate increment ratio (PIR) of 2m0.2s to 4m is to be multiplied by the changes in other cuspal positions within 4 min as shown in Row 3 to get proportionate changes in Row 4. By adding the figures in Row 2 and 4, the Sayana positions of cuspal positions are obtained in Row 5. To obtain the Nirayana positions as shown in Row 6, the NKPA 23:52:43 is to be subtracted from the figures in Row 5.

Calculation of Cusps for Southern Latitudes

9. The general rule for finding Southern latitude cuspal positions from the currently available Tables of Houses for Northern latitudes is to add 12 hours to the sidereal time or 180 deg to the cuspal positions (RAMC expressed in arc), calculate the cusps as if the latitude were North, and then reverse the zodiacal signs of all the cusps found, i.e. the calculated 1,2,3,10,11,12 cusps for the North latitude are to be changed to the opposite 7,8,9,4,5,6 cusps for the South latitude respectively.

10. Suppose to calculate the cuspal positions for Horary no. 105 at the place of casting (POC) Belata Vista do Paraíso, Brazil, 23S00, 51W12. The fixed Nirayana Ascendant rising 149-13-20 is added by the NKPA 23-53-43 to obtain the Sayana Ascendant rising 173-06-03 as before, and then 180 deg is added further to get the adjusted Sayana Ascendant rising 353-06-33. This Ascendant position falls between the values 352-00 and 353-20 corresponding the sidereal time 17-36 and 17-40 respectively as shown in Table 10, and further calculation is done as calculating the cuspal positions for the North latitudes.

11. This process can be made easier by using the Sidereal Time in the Tables of Houses added by 12 hours, if it is less than 12 hours and subtracted by 12 hours, if it is more than 12 hours, after locating the corresponding RAMCs as mentioned above. In this example, the LST 17-36 and 17-40 are to be deducted by 12 hours to obtain 5-36 and 5-40. It is also necessary to change the sign of each cusp to the opposite side of zodiac by adding 180 deg. For instance, 353-19.7 and 351-59.9 for I cusp are to be changed to 173-19.7 and 171-59.9 for VII cusp, which is based in place of I cusp, for calculation of the other cusps; 30-27.1 and 29-16.6 for II cusp to 210-27.1 and 209-16.6 for VIII cusp and so on as shown in Table 12.

//OM GAJAANANAM NAMAMHYAM//

Sri S Vidyasagar who is a Section Officer working in our office, during April 2006 enquired about his son Sri Srikar who is studying in Sri Chaitanya College, Hyderabad aspiring for IIT competitive examination. The Birth details of Srikar was obtained (DOB: 1-6-1989 TOB: 21.22 Hrs. POB: Koti , Hyderabad.) and the chart was casted in KP system which is appended herewith .

KP significations for higher studies and competitive examinations are as follows:

As per the KP House Grouping Part I of Oct. 2007 e-zine compiled by Sri Tinwin ji, Secondary education - 4-11 Higher education - 4, 9 -11 Competitive Exams - 4,9,11 & 6, Negative house: 3,5,8 and 12.

For good education judge 4th & 11th houses: The sub-lord of 4th cusp favourably signifies 4 & 11 is good for secondary education and if it is connected with 9th & 11th is good for higher education (College / Post graduation). In case if it is a competitive examination like IIT, IAM, Seat in renowned top universities the 6th house signification is also essential for qualifying the same.

Alternatively we conclude that 3 & 8 houses signification is negative for getting education and 5th house is not favourable for competitive examination as these houses are 12th house to their respective houses and hence does not give fruitful results relating education.

ANALYSIS:

In the natal chart, 4th cusp sub lord is Mars (Lord of 4th, 11th & 12th is in 7th) is in the star of Jupiter (Lord of 1,3 in 5) and in the sub of Venus (Lord 5,6 & 10 in 6) . Hence, the 4th cusp sublord is well connected to 4, 1, 11 & 6. This boy is a ranker in his secondary education from his childhood. 9th cusp sub lord Jupiter (lord 1 & 3 in 5th house close to 6th cusp) is in Moon star (8th lord in 4th house) in the sub of Sun (in 5th house) Thus connected with 4th house. 11th CSL Rahu, No planet in the star of Rahu and Rahu is sublord of 11th cusp so Rahu is strong signficatore of 11. Rahu aspected by Sat, Saturn being 6th CSL and no planet in Sat star. (2 lord in 12th house) Rahu is in Mars star, Mars (Lord of 4th, 11th & 12th is in 7th) Rahu is in Moon sub, Moon (8th lord in 4th house) Hence it is anticipated that the boy will be successful in his IIT examinations and will secure a seat.

DBA: Sun major period, Mercury sub (23-04-2006 - 28-2-2007)

Sun is in the star of Moon and sub of Sat. Sun is in 5, Moon (8th lord in 4th house) , Saturn being 6th CSL and no planet in Sat star. (2 lord in 12th house), Sun signifies 4 and 6.

Mercury in the star of Sun and sub of Sat. Mer is in 5 lord of 7,9. Sun is in 5, Moon (8th lord in 4th house) , Saturn being 6th CSL and no planet in Sat star. (2 lord in 12th house),Mer signifies 4,9,6. Mercury being a 1st CSL initially given lot of tension about the results but ultimately the boy got a good rank 208/2006 and ultimately chosen IIT Gowahati with his choice of Computer Science Engg.) Though Dasa lord sun and Bhukthi lord mercury represents as star level (moon/ sun) given mental tension but at sublord level Saturn (common) is sublord of 6 and no planet in the star of Sat so sat is very strong signficator of 6th, has awarded him the desired seat.

I am starting a series of KP (Mundane) articles and this is one of them, which is on dictatorship in a country. One by one I, will discuss all the countries which is ruled by Dictators. We will see how my rules work. We cannot accept any rules, which do not tally with many real examples; I will try to give all the countries under dictatorships, and try to prove my rules country by country.

History taken from <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Angola>

Short History of Angola:

Roberto Neto Savimbi, and the Portuguese government signed the Alvor Agreement on January 15, 1975, setting November 11, 1975, as the Date for Independence. The current government has announced an intention to hold elections in 2009. These elections would be the first since 1992 and would serve to elect both a new President and a new National Assembly.

Short History of Civil War:

The National Union for the Total Independence of Angola (Portuguese: União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola) is the second-largest political party in Angola. UNITA, founded in 1966, fought against the Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola (MPLA) during the War for Independence (1961-1975) and the ensuing civil war (1975-2002). The war was one of the most prominent Cold War proxy wars, with UNITA receiving military aid from the People's Republic of China and later the United States and South Africa while the MPLA received support from the Soviet Union and its allies. From its foundation until his death in 2002, UNITA was led by its founder, Jonas Savimbi.

Dasa prevailing at the time of Independence Day, 11/11/1975 is Mars.

Dasalord Mars is in the star of Rahu and sub of Jup. Mars is in 11 (gain) lord of 5,10. Rahu is in 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), Conj with Sun, Mer. Sun is in 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements) lord of 2. Mer is in 3 lord of 3,12. Jup is in 8 lord of 6(Military Dictatorship),9(Religious leader).

Dasa lord Mars signifies 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 9(Religious leader), 6(Military Dictatorship),

We have to check first Asc and 10th Sublord. Asc sublord is Ket, in the star of Sun and sub of Mar. Ket is in 10, aspected by Sat, in 12 lord of 7,8. Sun is in 4 (Sun is taken as if in 4th due to closeness to 4th cusp within the orb of 3d:20m) (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements),lord of 2, Mars is in 11 (gain) lord of 5,10.

Asc sublord indicates Democratic Government. But without checking of 10th Sublord we cannot come to any point.

10th sublord is Sun, in the star of JUP and sub of Mer. Sun is in 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements) lord of 2. Jup is in 8 lord of 6(Military Dictatorship),9(Religious leader), Mer is in 3 lord of 3,12.

After checking both Sub-lords we can find all three possibilities. So now rules come as per Dasa bhukti indicate. And as we check above Dasa , which indicate also all the three possibilities.

Bhukti running at the time of independence was Jup. This Bhukti was up to 1/7/1976. Jup is in the star of Mer and sub of Moon. Jup is in 8 lord of 6(Military Dictatorship), 9(Religious leader), Mer is in 3 lord of 3, 12. Moon is in 7 lord of 1.

This Jup bhukti does not indicate 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), but indicate only 6(Military Dictatorship), 9(Religious leader), which tallies with my Rules.

Next bhukti was Sat. up to 11/8/1977. Sat is in the star of Own and sub of Ven. Sat is in 12 lord of 7,8. Ven is in 2 lord of 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11 (gain).

Next bhukti was Mer up to 8/8/1978, Mer is in the star of Rahu and sub of Own Mer. Mer is in 3 lord of 3,12. Rahu is in 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), Conj with Sun, Mer. Sun is in 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements) lord of 2.

Next bhukti was Ket up to 5/1/1979, Ket is in the star of Sun and sub of Mar. Ket is in 10, aspected by Sat, in 12 lord of 7,8. Sun is in 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements),lord of 2, Mars is in 11 (gain) lord of 5,10.

Next bhukti was Ven up to 5/3/1980, Ven is in the star of Sun and sub of own Ven. Ven is in 2 lord of 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11 (gain). Sun is in 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements),lord of 2.

Next bhukti was Sun up to 11/7/1980, Sun is in the star of Jup and sub of Mer. Sun is in 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements) lord of 2. Jup is in 8 lord of 6(Military Dictatorship),9(Religious leader), Mer is in 3 lord of 3,12.

Next bhukti was Moon up to 9/2/1981, Moon is in the star of Mar and sub of Jup. Moon is in 7 lord of 1, Mars is in 11 (gain) lord of 5,10. Jup is in 8 lord of 6(Military Dictatorship), 9(Religious leader),

We found both indication in this Dasa and Bhukti, if we check history of Angola we found civil war between two party, communist (MPLA) and democratic (UNITA), and Dasa/Bhukti tally with civil war in country and indicate both rulers.

Next dasa was Rah up to 09/02/1999. Rahu is in the star of Jup and sub of Ven. Rahu is in 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), Conj with Sun, Mer. Sun is in 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements) lord of 2. Mer is in 3 lord of 3,12. Jup is in 8 lord of 6(Military Dictatorship), 9(Religious leader), Ven is in 2 lord of 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11 (gain).

Again this Rahu Dasa indicates mixed results. As we discuss above about all Bhuktis, it is clear, that Civil War continues in this Dasa too.

Next dasa was Jup. up to 9/2/2015. Jup is in the star of Mer and sub of Moon. Jup is in 8 lord of 6(Military Dictatorship), 9(Religious leader), Mer is in 3 lord of 3, 12. Moon is in 7 lord of 1.

This Jup bhukti not indicate 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), but indicate only 6(Military Dictatorship), 9(Religious leader), that mean till 9/2/2015 there is no chance of Democratic Government in Angola.

Is there any election?

The current government has announced an intention to hold elections in 2009. These elections would be the first since 1992 and would serve to elect both a new President and a new National Assembly.

Rules for Election:

If 3rd (Election, view of people) Signifies 3 (Election, view of people), 9(people who think for opposite view), 11 (Fulfillment of desire) Elections will be held.

During this time period, Dasa will Jup and Bhukti will be Ven and Sun. Jup is in the star of Mer and sub of Moon. Jup is in 8 lord of 6(Military Dictatorship), 9(Religious leader), Mer is in 3(Election, view of people), lord of 3(Election, view of people), 12. Moon is in 7 lord of 1.

Dasa Agree with Election.

Ven Bhukti is from 22/12/2006 to 21/8/2009. Ven is in the star of Sun and sub of own Ven. Ven is in 2 lord of 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11 (gain). Sun is in 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), lord of 2.

Ven Bhukti does not indicate 3, or 9. So in my opinion election not possible during Ven Bhukti.

Next Bhukti will be Sun. up to 9/6/2010. Sun is in 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements) lord of 2. Jup is in 8 lord of 6(Military Dictatorship),9(Religious leader) (people who think for opposite view), Mer is in 3(Election, view of people), lord of 3(Election, view of people), 12. In this Sun bhukti election will be held.

Outcome of Election:

We can find 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), in this Sun Bhukti. But star lord indicate 6(Military Dictatorship), 9(Religious leader) (people who think for opposite view), so in my opinion, Outcome of Elections will be in favor of again Dictatorship.

Astrodiagnosis – One single Kidney since Birth

by

Ilona Hellmann

Germany

HellmannC200@t-online.de

This case is about a young woman, who was born with only one kidney on 3rd September 1984, TOB 12:12PM (noon) in Unna, Germany (51N32/7E41).

AC: 13°54:58 Libra - KP ayanamsha 23°33' 10''

Moon: 29°35:44 Scorpio

DBAS: Mercury Saturn Rahu Ketu.

Attention: Some programs and ayanamshas may shift the Moon already into Sagittarius, Ketu star.

Lungs, tonsils, eyes, ears, kidneys, ovaries, testicles, arms and legs belong to the pairy organs or body parts. Congenital deformations of the urinary system appear in 40%. They hold the highest rate of all malformations. According to my literature one person among thousand is likely to be born with a single kidney .

How can we diagnose a missing kidney in the horoscope with KP?

Libra, Venus and the 7th house are the main indicators for kidneys.

To detect a single kidney, we have to concentrate on planets with unique, reducing or transforming character like Sun, Saturn, Ketu and Pluto and on their connection with Libra, Venus and the 7th house.

The majority of the multiplying or extending planets like Mercury, Jupiter and Rahu have to be under the sway, such restricting planets by means of being in signs, stars or conjunctions of or with them such restricting planets. Furthermore the 12th house/sign of loss is to be examined in regards of the above said.

Libra rising ascendant sign and the 1st bhava are inflicted by Saturn of reducing character by nature and ruler of 1st and 4th houses. In addition, the restricting planet Ketu by nature and significator of 1st and 4th houses occupies the 1st bhava and Pluto is also posited in the Asc sign. The 1st cuspal sublord Mercury signifies the restricting and unfavorable houses 1,10, 11 (Badhaka) and 12. So the kidney problem is indicated by the Libra sign.

Venus` second sign Taurus represents the difficult 8th house to Libra borns and is afflicted by Rahu in this chart. Just notice that Rahu is the sublord of the difficult houses 3, 6, 8 and 12. Rahu`s 7th house signification and his own sublord Venus lead us to the kidney problem. Rahu occupies a Sun constellation while. Rahu`s influence is therefore not effective to the 11th bhava`s multiplying character, especially as the sublord of this house is also Rahu.

Lagnesh Venus occupies the 11th bhava and rules the difficult 8th house. Since the 11th bhava is the Badhaka for the movable Asd Libra, the multiplying effects of the 11th bhava are reduced. Moreover, Venus in the star of Sun signifying the restrictive bhava 10th and in its own sub. So Venus is also not favorable for the kidney matter. The 7th cusp sublord Venus does not support the kidney matter of this house as Venus is the significator of the difficult 8th and 11th bhavas and restrictive 1st and 12th bhavas.

Virgo`s ruler Mercury was in retrograde and in Ketu`s nakshatra Magha. Overall Mercury is conjoined with a strong Sun in Sun`s own sign Leo and loses thus a lot of his duplicating strength.

Additionally Sun in Purva Phalguni adds a strong isolating influence to Venus. because Sun is unic in our planetary system and influences this Venus constellation with his unic rays. This will give a thinning out or isolating aspect to Venus and helps understanding, why the native was born with one kidney. Nevertheless Venus receives Jupiter`s exact square aspect but the planet of growth occupies a Ketu constellation too and is further afflicted by retrograde Neptune`s conjunction and by Saturn`s aspect. Additionally Jupiter rules the problematic 3rd and 6th house to Libra borns. So Jupiter is of less help.

The 7th cusp in Aries, Venus constellation Bharani makes the kidney connection again obvious. owner Mars in Scorpio is hemmed in between Ketu and Uranus, all in Saturn`s star Anuradha. Mars signifies the 7th bhava but due to his sublord Jupiter, Mars cannot favour the matters of this house in a healthy manner. Mars could thus not care for a correct kidney genesis.

Saturn signifies the 7th bhava too but due to his sublord Moon, who signifies the 12th bhava, Saturn can also not support this house sufficiently. The Moon in her fallen sign is afflicted by these three planets and Moon occupies the star of 12th house ruler Mercury anyway.

12th sublord indicate defect in body. 12th sublord is rahu, in the star of Sun and sub of Ven. Rahu is in 12(Defect in body), Sun is in 10, Ven is karaka of kidney in 11(badhaka) and lord of 1,8. and Rahu being sublord of 3,6,8,11,12th bhavas supposed to be connected also clearly indicate the kidney defect. At the same time the extending planet Rahu`s influence is therefore not effective to the 11th bhava`s multiplying character. 12th sublord also clearly indicate kidney defect.

The 7th bhava is aspected by Saturn and Jupiter. Saturn is in 1st, ruler of 4th bhava and Jupiter is in the sublord of Saturn. Jupiter is the significator of not only favourable 2 and 5th houses but also problematic 3rd and 6th and so Jupiter is of less help. The 7th significators Saturn, Rahu and Mars which is in the star of Saturn and sub of Jupiter are not supporting the healthy kidney of this house.

The multiplying planet Mercury is in 10th, ruler of 9,11,12th and in the star of reducing Ketu in 1st and in the sub of unfavourable Rahu. So its character by nature cannot be helpful effectively in this case.

We can therefore conclude that all our demands are matching the situation in this chart and it can be stated that this woman has got only one single kidney.

To improve your diagnostic skills I want to present you the data of two cases. They might be clear enough to deepen your astromedical understanding in regards of kidney problems:

One person was born with a healthy and a rudimentary, functionless kidney each. Hence this problem led to high blood pressure, the atrophy had to be removed at the age of nearly 19.

Contrary to this, the other person was born with three kidneys, which has been diagnosed by chance. Three kidneys are rather common and appear in 1% of all people.

As per the request of Mr. Visveswaran published in April 2008 K.P.Ezine page no.3 under the caption "Reader's View". I am now presenting this article on Ruling Planets,

One of my close relative asked me to predict the gender of the child to be born to her as she was carrying sixth month. Then immediately I sat for calculation and preparation of Ruling Planets at Kurnool (A.P) on 09-01-2008 Wed at 10-30 AM. The concerned chart which indicates the R.P.'s is given at the end of this article.

1. Lagna Sublord	=	Mercury
2. Lagna Starlord	=	Jupiter
3. Lagna Signlord	=	Saturn
4. Moon Sublord	=	Jupiter
5. Moon Starlord	=	Sun
6. Moon Signlord	=	Saturn
7. Day Lord	=	Mercury

S.N.	Name of The Planet	Post of the Planet	In which Sub the R.P. is	In which Star the Sub of the R.P. is	In which Sign the Star of the Sub of The R.P. is Posited
1	Mercury	Lagna Sublord	Ketu	Ketu	Leo Male Sign
2	Jupiter	Lagna Starlord	Saturn	Venus	Scorpio Female
3	Saturn	Lagna Signlord	Venus	Mercury	Capricorn Female
4	Jupiter	Moon Sublord	Saturn	Venus	Scorpio Female
5	Sun	Moon Starlord	Mercury	Sun	Sagittarius Male
6	Saturn	Moon Signlord	Venus	Mercury	Capricorn Female
7	Mercury	Day Lord	Ketu	Ketu	Leo Male Sign

From the above given table it is transparently visible that the majority of the Ruling Planets indicate only FEMALE Child. 4 female and 3 male out of 7 R.Ps.

OUTCOME: - A FEMALE Child was born to my relative on 10-03-2008 Monday at 2-00 P.M. at Hyderabad safely. (i.e) I have predicted the sex of the child well in advance (i.e) nearly three months before with the help of the Ruling Planets.

I have predicted like this so many cases which gave me good and accurate Results by taking the Ruling Planets in consideration. This entire credit goes only to Late Sri.K.S.K. the inventor of this system.

Ms Aung San Suu Kyi is Opposition Leader of Myanmar. She passed many years in "Home- Confinement". I have wrote one article on Home Confinement of Ms Taslima Nasrin in another E-magazine (March 2008 Issue of Astrovision). Before that, I checked the Rules for Home- Confinement in her chart and this month I will discuss her Natal chart with Myanmar Country's chart.

Name: Aung San Suu Kyi

Date of Birth: 19/6/1945

Time of Birth: 19:20:00 PM

Place of Birth: Myaungmya (Division: Irrawaddy)

Long/lat: 16 N 36 , 94 E 56

First we check the Rules for House- Confinement:

Home -confinement Rule:

One can go under Home-confinement if 2nd. (Freedom) sublord signifies 12 (Imprisonment), 8 (Punishment), 9 (Reputation as a loser)

Relief from Home -confinement Rules

Rules:1

One can free from Home-confinement if 2nd(Freedom)sublord signifies 2(Freedom),4(Change of environment, Home), 11 (Fulfillment of desire).

Rules: 2

One can free from Home-confinement if 12th(any kind of Confinement) sublord signifies 2(Freedom),4(Change of environment, Home), 11 (Fulfillment of desire).

Home -confinement Rule:

One can go under Home- confinement when, 2nd (Freedom) sublord signifies 12 (Imprisonment), 8 (Punishment), 9 (Reputation as a loser) As per Rules, in Ms Ky's natal chart, 2nd Sublord is Jup. Jup is in the star of Ven and sub of Ket.

Jup is in 9 (Reputation as a loser) lord of 1,4. No planet in the star of Jup and Jup is sublord of 2,8(Punishment), Ven is in 5 lord of 6,11. Ket is in 1, Ket aspected by Jup by 5th Aspect(Hindu aspect Rasi to Rasi).

We will now discuss about Jup as 2nd Sublord signifies 8 (Punishment) and 9 (Reputation as a loser) Conclusion: It show us that Home-confinement is her fate.

NOW lets us check DBAS when she was under home-confinement.

- 1) 20-07-1989: under house arrest

- 3) 23-09-2000: temporary house arrest

PART 2.

Myanmar is running under Military government. And I am curious to know whether there is any Election in the near future and if yes, then which kind of Government will come to power?

Rules for Election:

If 3rd (Election, view of people) Signifies 3 (Election, view of people), 9 (people who think for opposite view), 11 (Fulfillment of desire) Election will be held.

3rd Sublord is Mer. Mer is in the star of Ven and sub of Rah.

Mer is in 2 lord of 8, 11. Ven is in 3 lord of 7, 12. Rah is in 6, Aspected by Sat, Sat is in 9 lord of 3, 4. No planet in the Sat star and Sat is sublord of 4, 6, 7, 12.

3rd sublord indicate 3 (Election, view of people), 9 (people who think for opposite view), 11 (Fulfillment of desire). When?

Significators of 3rd are Mar, Sun, Mer, Ven, Sat

Significators of 9th are Moon, Mar, Sat, Ven

Significators of 11th are Ven, Moon, Sat, Jup, Mer.

Total significators are, Mar, Sun, Mer, Ven, Sat, Moon, Jup, Ket, (Representing Ven), Rah (represent Sat).. As all Nine planets become Significators so we now take help of RP.

Date: 23/2/2008, Time: 23.52.59 PM, Place: L.G.Hospital-Ahmedabad

Lat/Long. 23 N 00, 72 E 36

Asc: Tula 22.36.35 :: Ven, Jup

Moon: Kanya 11.41.35 :: Mer, Moon

Daylord: Sat.

Common from both are: Ven, Jup, Mer, Moon, Ket (Ket conjoins with Sat.)

Running Dasa is Mer from 10/3/2007 To 10/3/2024, Mer is in RP and significators both.

Mer is in the star of Ven and sub of Rah.

Mer is in 2 lord of 8, 11. Ven is in 3 lord of 7, 12. Rah is in 6, Rah Aspected by Sat. Sat is in 9, lord of 3, 4. No planet in the star of Sat and sub of 4, 6, 7, 12.

This dasa signifies 3 (Election, view of people), 9 (people who think for opposite view), 11 (Fulfillment of desire). So Election is promise during this Dasa.

Running Bhukti also Mer so we check for next, Ket bhukti. Ket bhukti runs from 7/8/2009 to 4/8/2010. Ket is also in both.

So in my opinion Election will be declared during the period 7/8/2009 to 4/8/2010.

For more narrow timings we can select Antara of Ven which is in both. Ven Antara runs from 29/8/2009 To 28/10/2009. During this time election will be held.

What will be the outcome of Election?

There are many outcomes possible in election, so I fix some rules for outcomes of election which are as under.

Thought One

1) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 6 (Military Dictatorship), 1 (gain) then power comes in hand of Military or dictator.

2) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 4 (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11 (gain) then power comes in hand of Democratic Government.

3) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 9 (Religious leader), 11 (gain) then power comes in hand of Religious leaders.

Thought Two

1) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 4 (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11 (gain) then power comes in hand of Democratic Government.

2) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 6 (Military Dictatorship), 11 (gain) then power comes in hand of Military or dictator.

3) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 9 (Religious leader), 11 (gain) then power comes in hand of Religious leaders.

As per my selected time DB running will be Mer-Ket.

Mer is in the star of Ven and sub of Rah. Mer is in 2 lord of 2,11. Ven is in 3 lord of 7,12. Rah is in 6 aspected by Sat. Sat is in 9 lord of 3,4. No planet in the star of Sat and Sat is sublord of 4,6,7,12.

Dasalord indicate 6(Military Dictatorship) , 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 9 (Religious leader), 11(gain), Dasa lord signifies all three possibility means, hung assembly.

Bhuktilord is Ket. Ket is in the star of Jup and sub of Ven. Ket is in 12, Ket is in Ven sign, in 3 lord of 7,12. Jup is in 1 lord of 2,5.

Bhuktilord does not signifies directly any relevant bhava but, Jup aspect on 9, Ven aspect on 9, this 9th bhava indicate Religious leader, Bhuktilord signifies 9(religious leader), so this bhukti support dasalord for firming government by help of Religious leader.

What is the fate of Aung San Suu Kyi in running Mer dasa?

For success in politics and achievement in politics some rules are as bellow(KPEzine House grouping by Tin Win 1 To 6).

If 10th sublord signifies 9(General Future), 10 (Honor & popularity), 11 (Ambition achieved),1 (One's Success), 6 (Defeat of opponent). Karaka for political rise is SUN.

In Aung San Suu Kyi's chart 10th Sublord is Sun. Sun is karaka for political rise. Sun is in the star of Mar and sub of Ven. Sun is in 6 (Defeat of opponent), Lord of 9 (General Future), No planet in the star of Sun and Sun is sublord of 10 (Honor & popularity), Starlord Mar is in 4 Lord of 5, 12. Ven is in 5 lord of 6(Defeat of opponent), 11 (Ambition achieved).

She is running Mer dasa from 15th Dec 2003 up to 15 Dec 2020.

Mer is in the star of Rah and sub of Jup.

Mer is in 6 (Defeat of opponent), lord of 7,10(Honor & popularity).No planet in the star of Mer and Mer is sublord of 6(Defeat of opponent), 7 Rah is in 7, Rah Conj with Sun, Mer and Sat. Sun is in 6 (Defeat of opponent), Lord of 9 (General Future), No planet in the star of Sun and Sun is sublord of 10 (Honor & popularity), Sat is in 7,Lord of 2,3. Jup is in 9 (General Future), lord of 1 (One's Success), 4. No planet in the star of Jup and Jup is sublord of 2, 8.

CONCLUSION: Definitely she will become key leader in Myanmar, and archive high post in Myanmar. At the same time Mer dasa indicate Badhaka, Maraka and 12th, but I will discuss on this subject some other time.

Whimsical Changing of the Sublords - A Rejoinder Article

Backdrop

In the last issue of KP EZine my article raised quite a number of eyebrows. Some sections of the KP fraternity have objected for the manner in which I have written the article. As long as it is the usage of words that have hurt some people, I do owe an apology for unintentionally hurting anyone's feeling. In this article, I would like to draw attention to the readers to what Guruji K.S.K himself said in his writings about changing cuspal sublords and it is up to the readers to understand what sense does Guruji K.S.K's words actually mean to us..

What did K. S. Krishnamurti really mean?

In Astrology & Athrishta monthly magazine of 1970 January issue (Vol. 8 No. 1), in the article titled 'Astrology and Disease' authored by K.S.K on page 27 second column second paragraph, also in the KP Third Reader: Predictive Stellar Astrology, Old Edition like 1984, part 2, page 118, 3rd paragraph and New Edition like 1995, 2004, page 281, 2nd paragraph, we find the following words said by Guruji KSK.

Note the sublord of the sixth (6th) cusp. This needs correct moment of birth. If it is not available, then if you want to know the sub of the sixth, you take ruling planets at the moment when you have the urge to put the query. Mysteriously God will help you by eliminating the previous and the next sub to the one which you have to select.

In my understanding, in "If it is not available, then if you want to know the sub of the sixth, you take ruling planets at the moment when you have the urge to put the query", "What is not available" refers to birth time. Logically therefore, we can understand that only in such situations where the querist himself raises doubt about the correctness of his own birth time, only then should we resort to the use of the divine RPs in order to resolve the doubts, and "Mysteriously God will help you by eliminating the previous and the next sub to the one which you have to select".

A similar view was expressed by Sri K. Baskaran in his book Secrets of R.P. & The Birth Time (1999) in page 10 point number 2 that: Unless the client raises specific doubts in his birth-time, we need not attempt unnecessarily to correct the birth-time at all. However, it is better to check his birth-horoscope by taking the RPs.....Like this we should practice the art of relating all the twelve bhavas with the present position of the Moon.

Ending this rejoinder

I would like to end this rejoinder with a quotation of Sri K. Baskaran in his book Secrets of R.P. & The Birth Time, page 15, point 11:

"In my little experience, I have come across young KP astrologers, who do not hesitate to change SUBs of certain cuspal points. Without detailed study, these young KP astrologers, with a subjective outlook, never afraid to change their horoscopes frequently by changing SUBs of certain bhavas according to their whims and fancies. This is not advisable. It is irrational and undoing of the scientific approach of KP. Only because our predictions fail often, it is not reasonable to jump to the conclusion that the birth time is wrong".

Prospects in a new job - KP appraisal

This case belongs to one of my office colleague who wanted to make a change of job and recently, he had resigned from the job to take up a new assignment. He was to be released from the job by April 16, 2008. Though, the negotiations were still ongoing in the new assignment in his apparent favor, yet he was too apprehensive and wanted to know, how would he fare in the new job.

He approached me on March 03, 2008 in the afternoon and asked me to know his professional prospects in the new assignment. I obtained horary number 164 from him and started scrutinizing the horary chart made at 15:51:33 Hrs on 03-03-2008.

Coordinates of judgment

- Lagna in a horary chart for job change represents the native and 7th the employer. 3-9th cusps indicate the negotiations being held between them on the perks/terms of the job.
- The prospects in a horary chart relating to the profession are primarily governed by the 10H, as this house decides the way the flow of karma takes place for matters relating to profession.

The indications of 10th cusp get fructified only if there is an amicable link between the 10-11th cusps. If this link is missing, then the chances of job change get denied.

- It may be noted that the analysis of cusps of various houses along with the planetary significations represent the fixed promises of the chart but the results are dispensed by the suitable dasha-bhukti in consonance with the transits.

The Query

In the horary chart, Moon was placed in 2nd house in Sagittarius sign indicating the concern for monetary gains and position being the primary driving factor for the native to opt for a job change. Moon's star lord Venus placed in 2nd house again confirms it.

Moon owns 6th and 10th cusp as its sub-lord, which means the matter concerning the profession.

This was fair enough to take the query being represented in the chart and was OK to proceed ahead for analysis.

Analysis of the chart

- Look at the promise indicated by the lagna.

Rahu is the lagna sub-lord. Rahu is placed in 3rd house and falls in the star of Mars as 6th lord. This indicates negotiations from the native yet going on regarding maximizing his gains/perks in the new job proposal.

Rahu disposes Saturn (Sign lord) and Mars (Star lord), hence its stellar connectivity may also be examined, thereby completing what Rahu signifies. Saturn is a strong planet and its placement in 9th house may enable some assurances from the employer's side but its retrogression may not allow all issues to get sorted out. Mars in its own star as 6th lord placed in 3rd and Rahu's conjunction with Sun in 3rd also again squares the native to keep pursuing of negotiations from his side.

Thus, Rahu only signifies the stage of negotiations with retarded response from the employer's side.

Incidentally, Rahu is the sub-lord of 3-7-9th cusps, thus it crucially indicates the outcome for negotiations (3-9th cusps) between the native and the employer (1-7th cusp). Since, the Rahu, which is the sub-lord of 1-3-7-9th cusps, does not link in any way with the 11th house, thus the situation seems very discouraging for the native to be satisfied with the job offer (9th cusp) and may only be pestering for more and more (3rd cusp) negotiation.

- Look at the 10th cuspal sub-lord indicating the promise of the job.

10th cuspal sub-lord is Moon, which falls in the star of Venus, placed in 2nd house as 12th lord. With this signification, it indicates the native getting indifferent as it might be looking too frustrating. Ketu as the sub-lord of Moon gets placed in 9th house in conjunction with retro-Saturn and the assurances from the employer may not be trustworthy.

Here again, the 10th cuspal sub-lord does not get linked to the 11th house.

- Finally look at the 11th cusp, which decides the overall fructification of the results of the query.

Retro-Saturn is the 11th cuspal sub-lord, which by way of its placement signifies 9th house as 4th lord. From the stellar point of view, Saturn falls in the star of Ketu placed in 9th house. Since, Ketu disposes itself and Sun, Sun may be examined and here, it may be noted that Sun itself in 3rd falls in the star of Rahu placed in 3rd house.

Importantly, it may be noted that the 11th cusp does not have any connection with either of 2-6-10th houses and thus it amply gets clear that the job proposal under scrutiny may not fructify at all.

- Look at the dasha breakup.

Dasha of Venus-Ketu was operating at the time of analysis to run upto 21-4-2008.

Dasha lord - Venus falls in the star of Mars placed in 7th house as 6th lord. Bhukti lord - Ketu falls in its own star placed in 9th house. Both planets do not have any connectivity to the required houses for obtaining profession. Thus, it was a clear case of negation to obtain a job.

Thus, it was communicated to the native to be cautious in pursuing the job under scrutiny.

Some facts of the case

The native had to be released on April 16, 2008. As the relieving day was approaching nearer, he was getting tensed up, as he was not comfortable with the perks offered and the extra things he had asked were not getting through. Ultimately, when he did not see things moving in the way he wanted, he applied for the withdrawal of resignation on April 10, 2008.

Note that Rohini star was ruled on that day and Moon did not support in any way towards meeting his ends for a job change. Note that Rohini Ruler Moon as sub-lord rules the 4th cusp (home and thereby no change) and 12th cusp (frustration).

Conclusion

Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

PUNARPHOO DOSHA - THEORY OF CANCELLATION EFFECTS

By

K.S.V. Ramani

E-mail: kadavasalramani@gmail.com.

The following Chart of a Girl for marriage came to my notice in early 1992, when she completed her 19 years of age and was in 20. On perusal of the Chart, given below, I felt that she was having strong Punarphoo Dosha, reasons detailed below, and I apprehended that her marriage settlement might get delayed, as per my scrutiny. It was not a case of denial, but only delay.

What is Punarphoo?

The whole idea of Punarphoo is condensed by Guruji KSK in one paragraph, Reader IV, page 74: "Whenever Saturn has got any connection what-so-ever with Moon, there will be some obstacle or impediment, not only during negotiation but also at the time of fixation and even at the time of celebration of the marriage. This connection between Moon and Saturn causes delay, though ultimately both of them do much more good with a better partner."

It is a matter of DELAY if Saturn is in the star of Moon and his own sub (Saturn); or Moon in the star of Saturn and in the sub of Moon; or if Moon-Saturn is found in one sign. Besides the above combination, Punarphoo comes into effect if they are found in the following ways:

- 1) Moon in the star of Saturn and Saturn in the star of Moon;
- 2) Moon in the sub-sub of Saturn and Saturn in the sub-sub of Moon; (sub of Saturn & Moon in "Punarphoo")
- 3) If the Moon is in the 3rd sign or in the 10th sign from Saturn, i.e. Saturn's 3rd or 10th aspect over Moon.

Cancellation of Punarphoo theory by Dr. Kar.

Dr. Kar's cancellation of Punarphoo theory to destroy the evil effects of Punarphoo by burning Saturn or Moon by Sun's ray (KP & Astrology Year Book 1996, page 70) is to work if:

- 1) Saturn or Moon or both if found in association with Sun in one sign, may be divided into two bhavas;
- 2) Saturn or Moon is in the star of Sun; Or Sun is in the star of either of them;
- 3) Sun is in the star, lord of which is near either of Moon or Saturn;
- 4) Any planet near the Moon or Saturn but is in the star of Sun;
- 5) Saturn or Moon is in the sub-sub of Sun.

(1) Her 7th sublord Venus, 11th lord, with positional strength i.e. no other planet is in its star and hence Venus is a strong significator for 7th cusp, and so marriage was assured. But Venus is aspected by Saturn by his 10th aspect. (Hindu aspect) Planets connected with Saturn will tend to delay matters, as he is karaka for delay and obstruction. Further Venus was in the sub of Saturn. (2) Saturn aspects Moon very closely within 3 Deg.20 minutes. Moon is also in the star and sublord of Saturn. As per K.P. these planetary positions are enough to assume PP Dosha.

At that time, I did not come across of Dr.K.R.Kar's Theories. To my astonishment, the Girl's marriage took place on 30th August 1992, when she was running 20 years of age. At that time, she was running Mercury Dasa, Kethu Bhukthi, Rahu Anthara.

In the attached natal chart, Dasa lord Mercury was in the star of Sun, lord of 2nd - strong significator of 2nd and sub of Jupiter in 5th.

Tansit on the day of marriage (30th August 1992): Dasa lord Mercury was in own star and sub of Saturn, 7th lord; Bhukthi lord Kethu in the star of Mars and sub of Venus, 11th lord and 7th significator; Anthara lord Rahu in the star of Kethu, significator of 2nd and 7th and sub of Sun, 2nd lord. Thus transit also agreed with the DBA.

Now coming to the point of Punarphoo Dosha, how the marriage took place early instead of delay, which was anticipated. Here comes the cancellation of the PP Dosha as the planet causing PP Saturn is in the star of Sun and Sun in the star of Moon. Thus Pt. K.R.Kar's theory of cancellation of Punarphoo is absolutely found correct in the early marriage of the chart in question.

Kudos to Dr.Kar's Research Theory.

A Note on Geocentric Latitude Correction

by
Tin Win
tw853@yahoo.com

Geocentric Longitudes

1. Geocentric system was given by Ptolemy and the Geocentric longitudes of the planetary positions as seen from the center of Earth have been used in the ephemeris. The Topocentric longitudes are the positions as seen by an observer at any specified point of the Earth's surface, and they slightly differ from the Geocentric positions.

2. The charts generally give the Geocentric longitudes of the planets and the cuspal positions by the Geographic latitudes of birth place, unless the Geocentric latitude option or correction is specifically mentioned. It is to note that 'Geocentric' specified in the charts of the AstroDatabank, Astrodienst, websites, books etc. means Geocentric for planetary positions only and cuspal positions are as per Geographic latitude of birth place. The astrological SWs, except Shri Raichur's, generally give the same results unless the default setting is changed to Geocentric latitude option or Geocentric correction. This is the commonly used system in the calculation and presentation of charts. So it is necessary to specifically mention Geocentric latitude option or correction, if it is used.

Geocentric Latitudes

3. The Geocentric latitude is the angle between the equatorial plane and a line from the center of Earth. The Geographic or geodetic latitude is the angle between the equatorial plane and a line from the point of interest on the surface of Earth. The latitude of a place shown in the atlas is the Geographic latitude. It is calculated from the surface of the earth at the locality where the individual is born. The Geocentric latitude of place of birth on the surface of Earth is determined from the point of interest to the center of Earth, as if the birth took place there.

4. It has been advocated for the use of geocentric latitudes in calculating the house cusps of horoscope to ensure better accuracy and precision, in the Astrology and Athrista by N. Krishna Murthy (1978 May), M.G.G. Nayar (1980), K. Balachandran, Universal Tables of Houses (1985) by S. Balasundaram & A.R. Raichur, end part of Astrosecrets & KP, Part II by K. Subramaniam (Edt), How to Cast and Read Your Horoscope? by K. Hariharan, beginning part of Astrology for Beginners, Vol 5, by K. Subramaniam. Because the earth is not a perfect sphere but an oblate spheroid, bulged at equator and slightly flat along the two poles. As the house figures furnished in the UTOH (and all Tables of Houses generally) are for Geocentric latitudes only, it is essential to convert the Geographical latitude to Geocentric one in using the tables of houses. The conversion formulas and the table of minutes for Geocentric correction are provided. (Such table is available in the KP for Beginners-Part 2)

5. The Geocentric latitude equivalent to Geographic one can be found by the formula:

$$\tan A = \tan B \times 0.993\ 30546$$

where A & B are the Geographic and Geocentric latitudes.

$$(\text{Log } \tan A = \text{Log } \tan B + 9.9970828)$$

6. Shri Raichur's SW uses the Geocentric latitude. It converts the Geographic latitude from the atlas to the Geocentric one and gives the cuspal positions for the Geocentric longitude of birth place. Now it is understandable why is the difference in the cuspal positions given by Shri Raichur's SW for the Geocentric latitude and other KP SWs for the Geographic latitude of birth place as per default setting. Other SWs will also use the Geocentric latitude by choosing the Geocentric option or Geocentric Correction option.

7. Nowadays there is a tendency of preferring Geocentric latitude of a place of birth other than Geographic latitude. So the Geocentric latitude option or Geocentric correction is incorporated in many SWs like KP Astro 3.0, Astraura, Jyotishya Deepika, Astracadabra, Solar Fire etc.

Which One, Geographic or Geocentric is Preferable

8. The preference for Geocentric latitude is as follows:

- (a) The preference by some KP followers as mentioned in the point 4;
- (b) Charles A Jayne preferred the Geocentric latitude which is 11' less (for 40N05) so that he had used 39N54 in Locality Astrology;
- (c) A table of minutes for Geocentric correction is provided in the AFA Tables of Houses, Placidus System, American Federation of Astrologers;
- (d) Making correct prediction using the Shri Raichur's SW which applies the Geocentric latitude all the time.

9. The preference for Geographic latitude is as given under:

- (a) Robert Hand had shown in Geocentric Latitude: Some Second Thoughts (Essays on Astrology) that the preference for geocentric latitude was evidently due to an unfortunate accident in terminology and the use of geographic latitude gave more accurate results;
- (b) Geoffrey Dean, in Recent Advances in Natal Astrology, found the Topocentric system reasonably effective when he studied it;
- (c) Preference for Geocentric in the Western literature is found mainly for planetary positions, for instance Llewellyn George is for Geocentric for the planetary positions, not for the Geocentric latitude as mentioned in the Astrosecrets & KP, Part II;
- (d) The way of measuring the Geographic latitude seems in line what is required for the calculation of house cusps and the Geocentric latitude may not fulfill this condition;
- (e) If one is tracking objects that are orbiting the Earth in space, then one will probably prefer to use the geocentric coordinate system rather than the geographical one but not for tracking a location of birth on the surface of Earth;
- (f) One may also argue that since Earth is not a perfect sphere, the Geographic latitude is supposed to represent the place of birth more accurately compared to a Geocentric representation;
- (g) Commonly applied from Guruji Sri K.S. Krishnamurti's time till now, as correctly mentioned by Kousalya Sattainathan that Guruji used Geographic latitude only, in KP Astrology & Prime Ministers' Election & KP's Nirayana Horary Tables for 2003, for Delhi, Kolkata & Mumbai.

Conclusion

10. The maximum difference between Geocentric and Geographic latitudes is only about 11 minutes, not so much like in the case of Ayanamsa that it may not change the sub-lords and results of KP analysis, except in the border line case. I use and prefer the Geographic latitude as it is commonly used and well tested but I keep my mind open to experiment with the application of Geocentric latitude correction. By choosing the Geocentric option or Geocentric Correction option, the SW will give the results for the Geocentric latitude of birth place. It is necessary to mention Geocentric latitude, if it is used to avoid confusion, otherwise it is understood that Geographic latitude is used.

"Whimsical Changing of the Sublords
- a gross malpractice by some KP Practitioners"

Regarding the above mentioned article, the first point is to express that a harsh language used by the author in this article is unacceptable although a healthy criticism is always welcome. The second point is to provide the references that the method which is targeted in this article as gross malpractice is advocated by none other than our beloved Guruji Prof. K.S. Krishnamurti.

In my understanding, the correction of sublord of any particular house has been advocated by Guruji Krishnamurti Ji himself in his magazine Astrology & Athrishtra in September 1967 issue on page 12 under the title "NO MORE DOUBTS" as given under:

"But, I have repeatedly told you all, that for any single question, take the moment when you take that question for judgment, note down the Lords of lagna, star, rasi and day. They are the ruling planets at that moment. Take the first query if there are many, that is, if one wants to know the ascendant, 5th and so on, take ascendant. If one wants to fix up the seventh, 11th and so on take seventh. If one wants to know eight and six take 8th cusp. If one wants to know 11th, seven and five take 11th cusp that is the first one mentioned by the querist. Then this cusp falls in a sign and in a star. Note the Lords of the sign and star. They must be in the list of the ruling planets. Then note down the remaining ones. Either of the two should be the sublord you take the priority list: first lagna Lord: next nakshatra Lord: third rasilord and fourth day Lord. If day lord and rasilord happen to be the Lord of the lagna and star of the person, then the sublord will be the Lord of the lagna and sub-sub Lord of the nakshatra, Constellation at the time of query. Thus you find the Lord of the sub. Invariably it comes correct."

In the penultimate paragraph of the same article Guruji has concluded as follows:

"Thus, you fix the exact degree of lagna: if they wanted to know the position of lagna. If one wants to know the cusp of a house, proceed in the same manner and fix. "

Another reference is also found in the KP Third Reader on page 118 third paragraph as shown below:

"Note the sublord of the sixth cusp. This needs correct moment of birth. If it is not available then if you want to know the sub of the sixth, you take the ruling planets at the moment when you have the urge to put the query. Mysteriously God will help you by eliminating the previous and the next sub to the one which you have to select."

Hence, the use of RPs for correcting the sub of any house has followed Guruji's method and not deviated from the KP principles which are the main concern for the author.

In order to get the correct sublord for the required cusp, in my opinion the birth time correction needs to be carried out and further analysis is to be done with the corrected birth chart.

Another view is not to undertake the birth time rectification, in other words not to recast the horoscope again, in such cases and to correct only the required sublord because when one judges the other matter of the same native then again one will confirm the related cuspal sublord.

Finally I would like to mention that Guruji has used the RPs for various purposes and not in a restrictive manner. The ruling planets usage is the master key to the KP and Guruji has also used it even for conformation of the past events (A&A Dec. 1968 P.31- Horoscopy..). There are very divergent views on the RP usage among KP followers.

Readers' Views

Dear Editor Saab

It was interesting to read the KP E-Zine issue May 2008 issued with the creative work from Shri KS Narayanan.

Professionalism is synonymous with consistency and continuity.

Madam Ilona Hellmann's article on medical astrology is interesting and intriguing too.

The article written by Mr. Kanak Bosmia on Burmese Democratic leader Aang San Suu Kyi, who relentlessly fights the Junta regime, was fantastic minus a photograph of the world famous Nobel laureate leader.

Mr. Tin Win is always scientific and a good teacher.

"The ruling planets scan the child", the article written by Mr. VSN Murthy was really an eye opener for any astrologer. But it is believed that just by seeing a horoscope, the gender of the native cannot be pronounced in KP?

Mr. A.H. Hoorn's Index on the articles published in KP-Ezine was a good work, except the name of the contributors.

While the articles are still being gone through, look forward to more interesting articles in the future issues too.

Regards
MK Viswanat

Esteemed Mr Kanak Bosmia,

Cyclone Nargis hit Yangon, where I live, so most of the roads were blocked with fallen trees. We also did not have electricity for a week or two. But now, we are back to normal although those who live near water are not so fortunate as we are. I thought last month's magazine was going to be the best, but this month's issue turns out to be even better. Your series on KP Mundane astrology is, in my humble opinion, a real contribution to KP research because I cannot find much about it in the 6 Readers. I will pay particular attention to your analysis of the situation in Myanmar and hope to learn a lot from it. Thank you very much for opening this whole new vast field for analysis and study. U Tin Win's article on casting a horary chart manually is just what we beginners need to keep ourselves from becoming too dependent on computer software. I was without electricity for a week or two, so I appreciate his efforts very much. The articles by Dr Andrew Dutta and Mr Rajendra Nimje are as instructive as they are humbling because I now realize how superficial my understanding of the texts has been even though I thought I read them closely. I don't know if this would be asking too much, but I am wondering if you or some other learned contributor(s) would be kind enough to share with us your research findings, experience, methods or insights concerning the prediction and analysis of natural disasters. This will definitely have immediate practical use and benefit us greatly, but I am clueless on how to go about analysing storms, floods and earthquakes. Finally thank you again for putting together another excellent KP resource,

thahtu@gmail.com

Dear Tin Win,

Your articles in the EZine are excellent! Every topic that you have contributed so far is of great value to astrologers. Keep up the good work. Regards,

Rangarajan

Dear Mr. Kanakji,

Thanks for publishing my article PP Dosha & its cancellation in May 2008 issue. E-zine articles are all excellent. KP for beginners and a note on Geocentric by Mr. Tin Win is highly scientific, advantageous not only for beginners but also to advanced learners of Astrology. Thanks a lot to him. Serial by Ilona Helmann on kidney problems are excellent. Congrats to her. You have taken much pain in collecting so many data for 'Matters controlled by Grahas' and mundane matters of overseas countries of Angola and Myanmar etc. Let your yeoman service to astrology continue for ever.

With best wishes,

Astrologically yours,

K.S.V.Ramani.

Dear Sir,

It is great to read KPEzine. Thanks for your noble contribution to KP.

With Regards,

The May issue is superb. I like the article for beginners KP astrology. Go along that way! Dries

Dear sir

Read the May-2008 issue. I liked the articles. Particularly the alphabetical list written by Mr. Hoorn was very good. Since I became the member in last month. I am interested to read the last issues. How can you help me in getting these old EZine books?

*I shall be grateful to you if you give me any idea.
Thanks*

yours sincerely

Dear Kanakji

I am not able to download the April issue. May 08 issue I have downloaded and it is very informative. Regarding Ruling planet for my query I have received information thro your magazine with illustration. thank you very much and also the K P Astrologer Shri V S N Moorthy.

With regards

Visveswaran

Dear Editor,

The Article on casting horary chart manually by Tinwinji is very clear and elaborate for the beginners as well as for seniors also to know the calculations made by s/w. In 1980s I used to do the calculations with great pain and cumbersome calculations with tables and scientific calculator. But now the entire work has been delegated to computers and leaving a room to KP Astrologers to concentrate on research works. The various links on longs. & Lats. Tz & DST is very handy for the astrologers.

Article by Sri VSN Murthy on RPs in predicting the gender of the child well in advance is very interesting. The method adopted is very unique where 7 RPs are involved must favour one side without a tie. This principle should be experimented in a number of cases to validate the same.

Article on Cancellation of Punaraphoo by Sri KSV Ramini ji basing on Dr. KR Kar's theory is very clear where sun's connection would burnt the negative yoga in delaying things.

Note of Sri Rajendra Nimje, IAS., about the fixing of sublord of any cusp in question thr RPs as indicated by Guruji KSK in Reader III is clear beyond doubt in the matter.

Now I request Sri Kanak ji to publish more research articles as promised earlier KPDP theory – Relations with different relatives / partners / friends, etc. and new KP Muhurtha theory for different purpose.

Dear Kankji

Thanks for the May-08 issue of KP-Ezine. It is a treasure for KP lovers. I have studied almost all articles.

Article written by TINWINJI is a gift for the beginners as well for those interested in this system and not having software. When I go thro the article my feeling was 'as if I am in classroom and listening to a lecture'.

Regarding your article about Analysis of ANGOLA is fantastic. I wonder how you have time for this and the narration is very good.

*I am really proud of having this magazine
I am eager to have this magazine in my bookshelf*

*With regards
Visveswaran*

Casting a Horary Chart Manually

Geocentric Correction

12. In the calculation of cuspal positions, these days there is a tendency of preferring Geocentric latitude of a place of birth other than Geographic latitude assuming for better accuracy. "Geocentric Correction" is supported by many SWs like KPAstro 3.0, Astraaura, Jyotishya Deepika, Solar Fire. It is to note that the ephemeris gives the Geocentric positions of the planets (i.e. the positions are as seen from the center of the earth), and the charts with the common indication of Geocentric are generally Geocentric for planetary positions only but Geographic for cuspal positions. It is supposed to be the same with the example charts in the KP Readers as it is said that Gururji Sri K.S. Krishnamurti used Geographic latitude only. So it is better to mention "Geocentric Correction", if it is used, to make it clear in comparing with the commonly used Geographic cuspal positions.

13. In using the "Geocentric Correction", the Geographic latitude of birth place given by the atlas is to be converted into the Geocentric latitude by subtracting the minute for correction given in the Table 14. The minute for correction increases up to around 11 minutes till 45 latitude and then declines. As 1 min roughly covers 1.8 km, this maximum 11 min would cover about 20 km. This difference is not much with compared to the differences in Ayanamsa values to change the sub-lords except in the border line cases. However, the better accuracy is preferable like taking the correct suburb of birth in the case of big cities like Kolkata, Delhi, Mumbai and Chennai. A short article will be presented on different views on which one, Geographic or Geocentric latitude, is more accurate.

14. In the Example Chart 2, Geographic latitude 23N is converted into Geocentric latitude 22N52 by subtracting 8min for 23deg as given in Table 25. To get the cuspal position for 22N52 by interpolation from the values for 22° N and 23° N, the cuspal positions for 22° N are calculated as follows.

Finding Sub and Sub-Sub Lords

16. By using Table 19 of Subs or any table of star and sub lord finder and Table 20 of Sub-Sub in each Sub, the sign-lord, star-lord, sub-lord and sub- sub-lord for any position of planet or cusp can be found. For example, 11th cusp position 89-55-04 is to be found first in the Table 19, under Horary no. 62, Gem sign from 89-26-40 to 90-00-00, being in the Sign-lord, Star-lord and Sub-lord (Sgl, Stl, Sbl) of Mer-Jup-MOO respectively. Find the difference between the required position and the commencing position of sub-lord Moo, ie. 89-55-04 minus 89-26-40 = 28m24sn, and then locate this difference in the Moo Sub of Table 20 because this position 89-55-04 is in the Moo Sub. Up to 38m53 is the Sat Sub-Sub lord (Ssl) in the Moo Sub and so it is in the Sat Sub-Sub. Thus the position 89-55-04 is in the Sgl, Stl, Sbl and Ssl of Mer-Jup-Mar-Mer respectively.

Observations

17. In the Raphael's Tables of Houses (first published in 1821) and Rosicrucian Tables of Houses, only ascendants are given to the degree and minute and other cuspal positions to the nearest degree only. The UTOH and Michelsen Tables of Houses (showing the values to the nearest minute) give the same results close to the AFA and the KP Krishman Tables of Houses (showing the values to the nearest second) figures in line with the SW results. The manual calculation from the American Ephemeris (showing the values to the nearest second) gives the accuracy of Swiss ephemeris (showing the values to the nearest minute only in the freely available series) by KPAstro 3.0/Astrodienst SWs. The Geocentric latitude correction is open to study.

KP for Beginners - Part 3

Casting a Horoscope by Computer

by

Tin Win

E-mail: tw853@yahoo.com

Introduction

1. Raphael ephemeris and table of houses ruled the astrological world when Guruji KSK was doing research and writing KP. These days, the highly accurate Swiss ephemeris dominates the current astrological SWs like KPAstro 3.0, Jagannatha Hora (J Hora), Astro-Kundli, Jyotishya Deepika, Astracadabra and Solar Fire in providing better results with high precision than hand calculation. The SWs have also enabled the astrologers to apply more time-consuming techniques in research work.

KP Settings

2. In casting a KP chart by the computer SW, it is essential to check the following options whether they are set as default and to make changes as required.

- 1) Placidus house system,
- 2) Geocentric positions of planets,
- 3) True positions of planets,
- 4) Mean nodes,
- 5) 365 d/y Vimshottari dasa,
- 6) Geographic latitude,
- 7) Orb application

3. In some SWs like KPAstro 3.0, Raichur's SW, Jyotisha Deepika 2.0 and Astracadabra, the New KPA is directly applicable and the customizing or offset facility to adjust the old KPA to the New KPA is available in others like Jagannatha Hora (J Hora), Astro-Kundli and Astraaura (paid version). In J Hora it is necessary to switch to the KPA option and 365 d/y option in finding the Vimshottari sub dasas. In using the Astrodienst (<http://www.astro.com>) online chart, it is to take the Mean nodes which can differ from the True nodes by up to $1\frac{3}{4}$ degrees. A note will be presented on Mean Node vs True Node. The 'Western geocentric (tropical)' default setting indicates the Geocentric positions of planets but not the Geocentric latitude, which is supported by other SWs like KPAstro 3.0, Astraaura, Jyotishya Deepika, Astracadabra, Solar Fire and only Geocentric latitude is used in the Raichur's SW. The application of orb, 3.333 or 5 deg will affect the occupation and conjunction and aspect of the planets.

Hand Calculation of New KP Ayanamsa (2003)

a) Calculation from the Tables

4. Example Chart 1, May 15, 1963: from the Table of New KPA in 'KP for Beginners- Part 1', it is 23:15:01 for Jan 1, 1963 plus 18 sec for May 15 from the Adjustment Table for Any Day of the Year, giving 23:15:19 (as per KPAstro 3.0, 23:15:20).

b) Calculation by Formula

5. In the NKPA formula given in 'KP for Beginners- Part 1', the base is changed to Jan 1, 1900 to be comparable with the above mentioned NKPA Table for Jan 1 of every year.

$$\text{NKPA} = B + [T \times P + (T \times T \times A)] / 3600$$

where,

B = Base = $22 + 1335.7 / 3600 = 22:22:15.7$ @ 1 Jan 1900, 0h GMT

T = Y-1900, Y= Calendar year for which ayanamsa is required

P = 50.2388475 (Newcomb's annual precession rate)

A = 0.000111 sec per year (Adjustment rate of the annual precession rate)

For Jan 1, 1963 of Example Chart 1, the NKPA is

$$= 22:22:15.7 + [63 \times 50.2388475 + (63 \times 63 \times 0.000111)]$$

$$= 22:22:15.7 + 00:52:45.5 = 23:15:01.2$$

For May 15, approximately $(75/360) \times 50 = 10.4 \text{ sec}$ (2m:15d = 75d)

$$\text{NKPA for May 15, 1963} = 23:15:01.2 + 10.4 = 23:15:11.6 \text{ (same as per KPAstro 3.0)}$$

6. By using the original base for April 15, 1900, i.e.

$$B = \text{Base} = 22 + 1350 / 3600 = 22:22:30 \text{ @ 15 Apr 1900, 0h GMT}$$

For Apr 15, 1963 of Example Chart 1, the NKPA is

$$= 22:22:30 + [63 \times 50.2388475 + (63 \times 63 \times 0.000111)]$$

$$= 22:22:30 + 00:52:45.5 = 23:13:15.5$$

For May 15, approximately $(30/360) \times 50 = 4.2 \text{ sec}$ (30d from Apr 15 to May 15)

$$\text{NKPA for May 15, 1963} = 23:13:15.5 + 4.2 = 23:13:19.7 \text{ (same as per KPAstro 3.0)}$$

Birth Data and Some Confusion

7. The following source and links are helpful to find the birth data and biography:

<http://www.considerations-mag.com/index.html>

<http://www.astrotheme.fr/en/celebrities>

8. It may cause some confusion that the AstroDatabank (ADB) and the folks at ACS Atlas (the world's experts in time changes) subtract 1 from the time zone number for daylight saving time (DST). For example, George W Bush, July 6, 1946, 07:26 AM EDT (+4:00), New Haven, CT, USA, 41 N 18 / 72 W 55, TZ number is (+4:00), after subtracting 1h for DST from the original TZ number 5. The same is in <http://www.astro.com> as 'Time Zone: 4h west, Daylight Saving'. Thus the time zone 5 with a DST is the same as TZ number 4 in ADB. For Tony Blair, May 06, 1953, 06:10 BST (-1:00), Edinburgh, Scotland, 55N57, 3W13, TZ number is (-1:00) after subtracting 1 for summer time from GMT TZ zero. Another difference in the Eastern practice is that such TZ (+4:00), 4h West, is shown by (- 4), and (-1), 1h East as (+1). (ACS= Astro Communications Service; EDT= Eastern Daylight Time and EST is used for other time; TZ number 5 is used for EST and 4 for EDT; BST= British Summer Time)

9. The best way is to compare the calculated Ascendant position with the one given by the data source or to check the GMT and Sidereal Time from <http://www.astro.com> by entering the birth details. KPAstro 3.0 (<http://www.kpastrosystem.com>) with the built-in ACS World Atlas automatically enter longitude, latitude, time zone, and daylight savings of over 2,60,000 cities.

10. Another point is the variation in the latitude and longitude of big cities like Delhi, which is found as 28N40, 77E13 by Astrodienst, Astro-Kundli, Prashara Light 6.1 and Atlas of the World (Rand McNally, Masterpiece Edition, 1993, US); 28N40, 77E14 for Chandni Chowk by KPAstro 3.0; 28N39, 77E13 by Astraaura, Astro 3 and KPAstro 3.0 for Station; 28N36, 77E12 by J Hora; and 28° 38' 07.11" N, 77° 13' 29.86" E by Google Earth. In such big cities, it is to take the particular locality concerned from the available sources like a few hundred localities of Delhi in KPAstro 3.0 built-in Atlas or Google Earth which is free to download. For example, Google Earth shows 28° 38' 47.02" N, 77° 10' 21.84" E for particular Rajendra Nagar location and for this locality KPAstro indicates 28N39, 77E11. The place of casting the Example Chart 2 (Horary) is Ahmedabad (LG Hospital), 23N00, 72E36 and Google Earth gives 22° 59' 51.51" N, 72° 36' 07.22" E for LG Municipal General Hospital.

11. J Hora shows one day earlier weekday as 'Vedic day' for TOB before sunrise as per the Vedic or Hindu day, from sunrise to next sunrise. For example, Atal Bihari Vajpayee, Dec 25, 1924, 5:00 AM IST, Gwalior, 26N14, 78E10, as TOB was before sunrise, J Hora indicates Vedic weekday 'Wednesday' for DOB Dec 25, 1924. KPAstro 3.0 shows the calendar weekday (from midnight to next midnight) 'Thursday' but the Hindu day concept is applied in the KP analysis like KPDP matching for marriage.

12. It is easy for beginners to cast a KP chart and to find the Sign, Star, Sub and Sub-Sub lords, significators (KP pointers) and the dasa up to Sookshma level at the Astraaura astrology free on-line. Cast your Hindu Vedic Horoscope is for a natal chart and Cast KP Horary Chart is for a Horary chart (1-249) or (1-1249).

13. It has a built-in longitude and latitude finder (Know Longitudes / Latitudes of Places \(Atlas\)) and also the direct links to the mostly used atlas query <http://www.astro.com> and the TZ finder (Know Time Zone of places) <http://www.timezoneconverter.com/cgi-bin/tzc.tzc>. 14. In the calculation of the Example Chart 2 [from 'KP for Beginners- Part 2', Horary no. 105 (1-249), 10:04:48 AM IST, Jan 5, 2008, Ahmedabad (LG Hospital), 23N00, 72E36], the lower difference of 26 sec between the Old KPA 23:52:17 used by the Astraaura and the New KPA 23:52:43 (provided in 'KP for Beginners- Part 1') is subtracted from the calculated positions of cusps and planets to obtain the positions as per NKPA. The OKPA is a default setting and Geocentric latitude is available as an option.

15. A KP natal or horary chart (1-249) can be calculated using the NKPA. The star, sub, sub-sub lords and the balance of dasa at birth are provided, and the dasa periods can be obtained by manual calculation or running the Astraaura or JHora.

16. It is to note that the cuspal positions given by this SW are for the geocentric latitude of birth place by converting the Geographic latitude to geocentric one.

Free J Hora

<http://www.vedicastrologer.org/jh> OR <http://www.VedicAstrologer.org/jh>

17. A comprehensive atlas and time zone finder is embedded in the full version of this SW which is free to download from the above link. Under the 'Preferences' window on top of the screen, it is to choose 'Calculation', then 'Ayanamsa', among them 'KP', and then to run the program for the first round calculation after entering the birth details. By looking at the old KPA used by the J Hora, it is adjustable to the New KPA by going back to the 'Ayanamsa' option and choosing the 'Custom' (user define). For Example Chart 1 (form 'KP for Beginners- Part 1', May 15, 1963, 12:05 PM IST, Ahmedabad, 23N02, 72E37), the 'lower' difference of 5 sec between NKPA 23:15:20 and OKPA 23:15:15, is to 'subtract' from the difference of 5m3s from Lahiri Ayanamsa to get the Custom NKPA 23:15:20. For the Example Chart 2 (as mentioned in point 14), the 'higher' difference of 26 sec between the OKPA 23:53:09 and NKPA 23:52:43 is to 'add' to the difference from Lahiri Ayanamsa, 5m8s. Then it is to run the program again to obtain the positions as per NKPA. At the bottom of the screen, the 'Houses' window gives the KP cusps by pressing first at the left and then right side of the mouse to choose Placidus house system, and then the 'KP' window provides the Stl-Sbl-Ssl of the cusps and planets only after getting the KP cusps. To find the Vimshottari sub dasas, it is to go to the 'Dasa' window on top of the screen and then to choose 365 d/y option.

18. To cast a Horary chart (1-249), it is first to enter the Horary data, and then to go to 'Miscellany' on top of the screen, then Prasana (Horary) on bottom of the screen, after that to enter KP Horary number and to choose the 'Prasna lagna derived from no. chosen'. For display it is to use 'Basic' window on top and 'Key Information' window on bottom of the screen. To get the KP cusps and the Stl-Sbl-Ssl, it is to go to 'Houses' and then 'KP' windows as explained above. 1 or 4 or 5 year Vimshottari dasa for annual or oath chart can be calculated there but it may not be so easy for KP beginners.

Free Astrodienst

19. The accurate (Sayana) tropical chart with high precision of Swiss ephemeris can be calculated online by Astrodienst, which is also the most commonly used atlas query and time zone finder. The 'Western geocentric (tropical)' or Sayana chart and Placidus house system are the default settings and the 'Hindu/Lahiri geocentric (sideraeal)' or Nirayana chart using Lahiri Ayanamsa is available as an option.

20. By subtracting the NKPA from the calculated Sayana positions, the Nirayana KP chart, exactly the same as given by KPAstro 3.0, can be obtained. The sign, star and sub lords can be found from Table 1 of Star-Lord and Sub-Lord or any such table available in the KP literature or the link given below, and the dasa can be calculated manually or by running the Astraura or J Hora for the calculated Moon position by Astrodienst.

21. For example, in the USA (Silby) chart, the mostly voted by astrologers through rectification, July 4, 1776, 17:10 LMT (+5:00:40) (22:10:40UT), Philadelphia, PA, 39N57, 75W10, Astrodienst gives Sid Time 12:03:52, Sayana values of Asc 12Sg21:17 and Moon 27Aq10:17; NKPA for Jan 1, 1776 is, 1900-1776 = - 124; $20:22:15.7 + [-(124 \times 50.2388475) + (124 \times 124 \times 0.000111)] = 20:22:15.7 - 1:43:47.9 = 20:38:27.8$; For July 4, approximately $(184/360) \times 50 = 25.5$ sec; NKPA for July 4, 1776 is $20:38:27.8 + 25.5 = 20:38:53$. In Nirayana values by NKPA, Asc is 21Sc42:23 and Moon 6Aq31:24. By running this chart on J Hora for the same Moon position by adjusting the NKPA, it gives Mars Dasa Balance at birth of 0y:0m:28d and the first circle of Vimshottari dasa ending Jan 31, 1889, and the second circle of Vimshottari dasa ending Aug 1, 2009 is also readily available there. Moon Dasa is from 01-08-1999 to 31-07-2009, Mo-Ve DB from 01-06-2007 to 29-01-2009, Mo-Ve-Ju DBA from 05-04-2008 to 25-06-2008 and Mo-Ve-Ju-Ve DBAS from 15-05-2008 to 29-05-2008.

Calculation of Vimshottari Dasa

a) Dasa Balance at Birth

22. Out of total 120 years in Vimshottari dasa, the shares are given 7y to Ketu, 20y to Venus, 6y to Sun, 10y to Moon, 7y to Mars, 18y to Rahu, 16y to Jupiter 16, 19y to Saturn and 17y to Mercury. The Dasa balance at birth (DBB) can be calculated as follows:

$$DBB = (\text{Dasa yr of planet concerned} \times \text{Remaining part of Moon's nakshatra}) / 13^{\circ}20'$$

23. In the Example Chart 1, Moon 14Cap38:56 is in the nakshatra of Sravana ruled by Moon and the remaining part to the end of nakshatra 23Cap20* is $8^{\circ}41'4''$, i.e. 23Cap20 minus 14Cap38:56. (*from Table 19 of Subs in 'KP for Beginners- Part 2')

$$DBB = (10 \times 8^{\circ}41'4'') / 13^{\circ}20' = 10(8+41/60+4/3600) / (13+20/60) = 6Y:6M:5D \text{ (Moon)}$$

24. The difference of 1 min in the Moon position will make a difference in the dasa period from 2.7 days for Sun dasa balance at birth to 9.0 days for Venus dasa balance at birth. For the dasa period longer than 120 years, the next circle of the Vimshottari dasa is to be applied and such dasa circle is readily available in the J Hora as explained in the USA chart. The following links are helpful in calculation of dasa manually.

b) Bhukti, Antara, Sookshma

25. The above shares to the planets hold the same proportion in all dasa periods, Dasha, Bhukti, Antara, Sookshma (DBAS) and so on, giving --

Bhukti = Dasha period (Bhukti /120);
 Antara = D (B/120) (Anthara /120);
 Sukshma = D (B/120) (A/120) (Sukshma/120) and so on,

Ven-Sat DB = $20 (19/120) = 3.166667 = 3y + 0.166667 \times 12 = 3y:2m$
 Ven-Sat-Jup DBA = $20 (19/120)(16/120) = 0.42222y \times 12 = 5m:0.066666 \times 30d = 5m:2d$
 Ven-Jup-Rahu-Sat DBAS = $20(16/120)(18/120)(19/120) = 0.063333y \times 12 \times 30 = 23d$.

Observation

26. As found in the several previous comparisons of SW results, there is not much significant differences in the commonly used KP SWs to change the sub-lords or even sub-sub-lords, consequently the results of KP analysis, which is mainly based on only up to the sub-lord level, except in the border line cases where even one second can matter. For instance, if 1st cusp of the Horary chart for no 105 were taken as 149-13-19, then the Sgl-Stl-Sbl-Sssl would be Sa-Su-Ma-Mo in place of Sa-Su-Ra-Ra for 149-13-20.

27. The choice of KP SW depends on accuracy of cuspal and planetary positions, easiness and mobility in operation and availability of a variety of well done KP related features interested by the user. In research work, the accuracy does matter especially in the calculation of old charts more than one hundred years backward and a built-in ACS Atlas will be very helpful.

- 2) Significantly different 1/7 & 6/12 cuspal positions of Col. 3 due to the use of Geocentric latitude have the same Sgl-Stl-Sbl-Ssl in Table 5, Col. 2 as other SWs using the Geographic latitude.

- 1) On the basis of the Sidereal Time corresponding to the fixed position of Ascendant by the chosen Horary no, other cusps are calculated and so here is not relevant to adjust the difference in KPAs as shown under the Table 2. Practically J Hora gives almost the same positions of Astraura whether with the OKPA 23-52-11 or NKAP 23-52-43 with a negligible change in positions due to 32 sec difference in KPAs.
- 2) Significantly different 2/8 & 3/9 cuspal positions in Col. 3 due to the use of Geocentric latitude, the Sgl-Stl-Sbl-Ssl of cusps are the same for all SWs using Geographic latitude as shown in Table 5, Col 2.

Astrodiagnosis – One kidney versus three kidneys, solution of the last case.

by

Ilona Hellmann

Mainzer Str. 22 56154 Boppard Germany
HellmannC200@t-online.de

The question of our May-issue was about two persons:

Woman, born 17. December 1927 at 0:30 AM in Denkingen, Baden Württemberg, Germany. AC 4°36:08 Virgo. Ayanamsha 22°45` 40``.

Man, born 10. October 1970 at 16:08 PM in Hannover, Niedersachsen, Germany. AC 2°44:53 Aquarius. Ayanamsha 23°21` 32``.

One of them had a rudimentary kidney since birth, which had to be removed because it caused high blood pressure and the other person was diagnosed with three kidneys by chance. In the last KP E-zine our readers have been asked to find out the correct solution.

Let us now compare the three important rulers for kidneys, namely Libra, Venus and the 7th house in both charts.

Libra is the increasing 2nd sign in the woman's chart, counted from her Virgo lagna.

Libra is occupied by Venus being strongly placed in her own as well as mulatrikona sign. Venus signifies houses 2, 3 and 9 by being in 2nd house of expansion. The planet is self strong due to her placement in the own sub.

Venus sublords the 5th, 10th and 11th cusps for which it comes a significator as there is no planet in her star. Venus' position in Rahu's star Swati could already denote the third kidney, especially because Rahu with expanding nature is placed in his own sub too. Venus does not receive any isolating or restricting aspects by Sun, Saturn or Ketu.

The woman's 7th cusp falls into expanding Jupiter's sign Pisces which is a dual sign of multiplication. The sign is aspected by the Moon, who rules the woman's 11th house of multiplication. Both Jupiter and Moon are in the sub of Rahu which is a planet of expanding nature. The close conjunction of the 7th cusp with Jupiter in combination with the above mentioned facts indicates a third kidney.

Libra becomes the 9th (Badhaka) sign in the man's chart, counted from his Aquarius lagna.

The 8th cusp falls in this sign of kidney disease, denoting danger and surgery to the man's kidneys. Libra is also occupied by Jupiter, signifying his 1st, 8th, 11th and 12th houses and placing in the sub of Venus which is a very strong significator of unfavourable 8th houses. Thus, Jupiter with his expanding nature shows high blood pressure, which was diagnosed to be kidney related.

Venus sublords the man's 1st, 7th and 8th houses to become a significator of these houses without having any planet in her star. Furthermore Venus denotes loss of a kidney due to her 12th house signification through starlord Jupiter.

Venus occupies 0° Scorpio which is also taken by some astrologers as a trouble sign for kidney and

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars.

I found in several charts that planets on this borderline degree can indicate either removal or malfunction of a certain organ. Venus is placed in unfavourable Jupiter's star Visakha and in the sub of Moon which signifies 9th (Badhaka) and 12th (loss) and also, sublords the 6th house and therefore possibly indicates loss to the 7th house.. The Moon in Capricorn signifies the 12th bhava as well, denoting long lasting misfunction and the final loss of this rudimentary kidney. But the most striking point in the man's chart is the 7th cusp itself, which is placed in Leo and Ketu's star Magha and in close conjunction with Ketu. Venus is sublord of this cusp. Just remember that Sun is unic and Ketu is immaterial. Ketu signifies the 7th cusp unfavourably because Ketu signifies 2nd and 7th (Maraka) and 9th (Badhaka) houses and Ketu's sublord Rahu sublords also the 12th house of loss.

Comparing these two charts, we can clearly predict, that the woman has got three kidneys while the man has only one.

Thanks to all, who worked on this case.

I had correctly predicted about Taslima Nasrin's freedom from Govt. 'Nazarbandhi'. Today, I read the news that she want to come back to India .

Taslima Nasreen plans India return in August

Paris, May 20: Exiled Bangladeshi author Taslima Nasreen has said that she plans to return to India by August 2008, just months after she left the country(India) following threats by Islamic radicals. <http://www.newkerala.com/one.php?action=fullnews&id=62634>

I selected a number randomly generated by Software. Details of the Horary are as under:

Date: 21/5/2008

Time: 16.01.44 IST

Place: L.G.Hospital- Ahmedabad 23 N 00, 72 E 36

Horary number: 68/249

As per Chandrakant Bhatt, one can return home, if the 11th cuspal sublord signifies 2,8,11, during the joint period of 2,8,11. (Nakshatra Chintamani, page 150)

In this Horary chart, 11th cuspal sublord is Mercury, which is in the star of Mar and sub of Jup. Mer is in 11, lord of 3,12. Mar is in 1, lord of 5,10. Jup is in 6, lord of 6,9. Jupiter is in retrograde motion, which is supposed to be cancelled by Dr. Kar's cancellation theory since Jupiter is in the star of Sun. Mercury's signification of 11 means she can come back as desired.

1st cuspal sub-lord is Ketu, which is in 1 and in the star of Mercury and sub of Saturn. Mer is in 11, lord of 3,12. Saturn is in 2, lord of 7,8. It is favourable to come back home

Running Dasa is Mer, which is already discussed above.

Running Bhukti is Sun up to 23/3/2009 . Sun is in the star of own and sub of Mercury. Sun is in 11, lord of 2. Mer is in 11, Lord of 3,12. Sun Bhukti also indicates Yes.

It is found that Mer Dasa and Sun Bhukti also signify 3,9 and 11 houses for return to mother land as per KP Reader IV, p 207 and Chamatkar Chintamani.

Question is about August 2008 and the running Antara is Sun up to 2/6/2008 . For August 2008, the Antara will be Rahu up to 31/8/2008. Rahu is conjoined with 8th cusp within 3.33 degrees and signifying 8. Rahu is in the sign of Saturn in 2, lord of 7,8 and in the star of Mars and sub of Saturn. Mar is in 1, lord of 5,10. Rahu Antara is also positive for her return.

Among the RPs at the time of casting the chart, Mercury is Lagna sign lord, Moon star lord and Day lord. Sun is Moon sub lord. Rahu is Lagna sublord.

In my opinion, she will come back during Rahu Antara from 15/7/2008 to 31/8/2008.

The querent is at present working as a Staff-Reporter of a News Paper. He wants to go abroad by leaving his present job. He gave me No 99/249 by phone on 2-2-2008. Due to my busy schedules, I could not immediately attend for casting and judging. The Horary Chart is casted on 9-2-2008 Saturday at 12-04 noon, at KURNOOL, which is appended at the end of this article.

First of all let us look into Moon to find out whether the querent is serious about his query. Moon is in 7 and owner of 12. Moon is in the star of Jupiter and sub of Saturn. Jupiter is owner of 5. Saturn is in 12 and owner of 6 and 7. Having no planet in its star, Saturn is a significator of 1,3,5,7,9,11 for which it is a sub-lord. Thus Moon, the indicator of querent's mind, is indicating his desire to leave the present job for a new foreign job. So we can proceed with further analysis.

RULE FOR LEAVING PRESENT JOB: - If the Sub-lord of the 10th or 6th cusp be the significator of 1, 3, 5 or 9, the querent can leave present service.

Venus is the sublord of both the 10th (occupation) and 6th (service) cusps. Venus is in 5 (absence of service) and owner of 3 (change) and 10. Venus is in its own star and in the sub of Mercury, which is in 6 and owner of 2 (money) and 11 (success or fulfillment of desire). It is a good indication for a new job except that Mercury is retrograde.

RULE FOR FOREIGN JOB: If the 12th cuspal sub-lord signifies 3, 9 or 12, preferably 9, along with 6 or 10 one can go abroad for job.

In this horary chart, 12th sub-lord Sun is in 6 and in the star of Mars and sub of Rahu. Mars in 10 and owner of 9. Rahu is in 6 and aspected by Saturn in 12 and owner of 6. Rahu is in the star of Mars in 10 and owner of 9. A foreign job is promised by the 12th sub-lord Sun. But the querent cannot go abroad.

Readers are requested to go through sincerely the following mentioned rules regarding fulfillment of desire.

RULE NO. (1): If the sub-lord of the 11th cusp is retrograde, then only whatever he desires to have will not be had. Ambition cannot be realised. (KP Reader III, Old Edition, Part 2, page247/ New Edition page 420)

In this horary chart, the 11th cuspal sub-lord Saturn is retrograde.

RULE NO. (2) : If a retrograde planet in a horary is nothing , and if it is posited in the star, lord of which is again retrograde, yet it is nothing (star lord is also a planet) but if it is posited in the retrograded sub , then it is a red-light. (Dr. Kar in KP & Astrology Year Book 1996, page 56)

The 11th cuspal sub-lord Saturn is retrograde. Saturn is in the star of Ketu and sub of Mercury which is also retrograde. So it is a red-light.

+ These planets do not have any planets in their star.

RULE NO (3): Along with the above ones, the 1st cuspal sub-lord (self effort) should always be checked whether it signifies 11th house or the required houses for the matter asked. If it does, it means that fulfillment of the desire is promised.

The 1st cuspal sub-lord is Saturn, which is retrograde. In addition, Saturn is in the sub of Mercury, which is also retrograde. Therefore it is very difficult one to fulfill the desire of the querent.

RULE NO (4): Generally sub lord of any cusp if found retrograde does not speak well of the affair. (Dr. Kar in KP & Astrology Year Book 1996, page 52)

The sub-lord of the 10th and 6th cusps Venus in retrograde does not speak well of the affair to leave the present service for a new foreign job. The 12th cuspal sub-lord is in direct motion and not connected with any retrograde planet. But without a promise of fulfillment of desire for a new foreign job, the favourable 12th cuspal sub-lord cannot help the querent to go abroad.

In this Horary chart, it is found that if the sub-lord of the principle cusp is retrograde or if deposited in the star or sub of a planet that is retrograde, it will negate the result even though the retrograde planet, here retrograde Mercury is burn by the ray of Sun by being within 30 degrees to the Sun in the Capricorn sign. So it is declared that the querent's desire will not be fructified as long as Saturn and Mercury are retrograde.

RESULT: The querent did not leave his present job to go abroad. (i.e.) His ambition of leaving his job and going abroad is not yet fulfilled even upto this date.

OM GAJAANANAM NAMAMHYAM

One my relative wants to know the longevity of his spouse who is suffering with some chronic ailment of abdomen. As the birth details of the native is not properly recorded by her parents, hence to determine the longevity either on horary chart or charts relating to the relative has to be taken up to know about her longevity.

Our Guruji Prof. KS Krisnamurthi as advocated the theory of Rotating the Chart of the individual according to the relationship of the native in question to judge the horoscope, which in practice is a wonderful tool giving accurate results. For example to judge about father eldest issue chart should be rotated to 9th house, to now about mother youngest issue chart should be rotated to 4th house which is customary in South India. (KP Reader VI, page 218) Like wise rotation for different relatives are as follows:

To know about immediate elder co-born 11th house, immediate younger co-born 3rd house, 5th house for first child and soon, mother 4th house, father 9th house. Mother's mother 7th house, mother's immediate younger coborn 6th house, elder coborn 2nd house, father's mother 12th, to know about petanimal 6th, etc. Likewise you can see any number of relatives as a spider net if the first chart is very accurate in recording the birth particulars. In this connection it is brought to notice of readers of this ezine, if you find the relationship to the correct birth chart available with you would give very accurate results for the relative under consideration. Many times while judging a native's chart the KP Astrologers are in a position to tell about the various relationships of the native with their relatives which are good, medium or bad. In this connection Kanak Bosmia's article "New Look in Relation Compatability" basing KPDP theory a new concept and Research Article uses different cusps for different relatives published in Ezine of May 2007.

ANALYSIS:

In this instant case the Birth Chart of youngest son Sri Jagadish who is in Malaysia was taken up (DOB: 4-6-1975, TOB: 21:30, POB: Vizianagaram AP Birth Star: Revathi-1, Rasi: Meena, Lagna: Makara) to judge the longevity of the Mother. As per normal practice the chart has been rotated to 4th to know about mother's health and longevity. IV Cusp is in Mesha in sub or Venus (L/o 2n7 Maraka for Mesha) who is in the star and sub of SatxSat a Bhadhaka lord of Mesha relative in 3rd house Gemini. Hence the longevity is restricted to middle ayush. An interesting thing is that having no planet in its star, Rahu is the sublord of 2, 3, 4.6.9, 11 and 12th cusps, for which houses are supposed to be connected, especially Badhaka, Maraka and Moksha houses.

DBA:

This is my second article on Dictatorship to examine my rules.

Short History of Brunei:

Sultan Hassanal Bolkiah of Brunei, who's Title has passed within the same Dynasty since the fifteenth century, is the Head of State and Head of Government in Brunei. The Sultan is advised by several Councils and a Cabinet of Ministers although; he is effectively the Supreme Ruler. The media is extremely pro-government and the Royal family retains a venerated status within the country. There is no elected Legislative Body. In September 2004, the Sultan convened and appointed the Parliament which had not met since Independence in 1984, although it lacks any capacity beyond advising the Monarch.

The Country has been under an Internal Security Act, since a rebellion in the early 1960s was put down by British troops from Singapore. Arrests under the internal security act are still commonplace.

Dictator or Military Ruler's end

As always, a Dictator or Military Ruler's end is with death, there are many examples in history, in this line I will try to give my thought on this subject.,

Rules:

- 1) If 8th Sublord (Secret work of enemy (in this case we can say Opposition Party), signifies 5 (12th from 6 Dictator), 9th (12th from 10-Those in Power), 12th (loss), then the Ruler faces trouble and the end of his Govt. or Rule follows.
- 2) If 10th (Ruler) Signifies 2(Maraka), 7(Maraka), 12(Moksha) and Badhaka, rules will end with death.(2,7,12 from 10th)

Thought One

If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of a Country) signifies 6(Military Dictatorship), 1 1(gain) then power comes in the hands of Military or a Dictator.

If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of a Country) signifies 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11(gain) then power come in hand of Democratic Government.

If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of a Country) signifies 9(Religious leader), 11(gain) then power comes in the hands of Religious Leaders.

Asc sublord is Moon. Moon is in the star of Sat and sub of Jup. Moon is in 3 lord of 11(gain). Sat is in 2 lord of 5,6 (Military Dictatorship). Jup is in 3 lord of 4 (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 7.

Asc sublord indicate us both 4 (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements) and 6 (Military Dictatorship). So everything depends on the operating Dasa and according to Dasa /Bhukti prevailing we can see who will rule, Democracies or Dictatorships.

Running dasa at the time of Independent was Saturn up to 11/7/1984

Sat is in the star and sub of Jup.

Sat is in 2, Lord of 5-6, in the star and sub of Jup 3,Lord of 4-7.

Dasa lord signifies 6(Military Dictatorship) , 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), this Dasa ends on 11/7/1984 soon after Independence. So this Dasa is not so important.

So we check the next Dasa, Mercury. Mer dasa up to 11/7/2001.

Mer is in the star and sub of Ven.

Mer is in 4 (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements) lord of 1, 10. Ven is in 2, lord of 2, 9(Religious leader). As we know, in Brunei there a a Religious Leader - Rule .but even 4th, plays some role and we did not find good indications about 4th.

In Bhukti if we find only Rahu , which does not indicate 4th, other all are indicate 4th, also it is not worth to check next Dasa too. Even then we did not find role of 4th in this Country's chart. 4th indicates Democratic movements, but in Brunei, the media is extremely pro-government and the Royal family retains a venerated status within the country, so we never know what happen actually in this country, maybe there are some activity about Democratic movements, and in future we may be able to know what is fact history. As per this chart, indication is clear that there is some sort of Democratic movements running in this country.

Is there any election?

In September 2004, the Sultan convened an appointed Parliament which had not met since Independence in 1984, although it lacks any capacity beyond advising the monarch.

Rules for Election:

If 3rd (Election, view of people) Signifies 3 (Election, view of people), 9 (people who think for opposite view), 11 (Fulfillment of desire) Elections will be held.

3rd sublord is Mar, Mar is in own star and sub of Mer. Mar is in 1 lord of 3,8. Mer is in 4 lord of 1, 10.

3rd sublord indicates 3 so there is a scope for Elections.

When?

During 3,9,11 significations, of operating Dasa, elections should be held.

Significators of 3,9,11 are:

3: Rahu, Sat, Jup, Moon, Ket, Mar,

9: Rahu, Sun, Mer, Ven

11: Rahu, Moon.

All nine planets are signfictors of 3,9,11. So we try to look when the Dictator will be removed as Ruler.

Dictator or Military Ruler's end

As always Dictator or Military Ruler's ends with death, there are many examples in history, in this line I will try to give my thought on this subject.

Rules:

1) If 8th Sublord (Secret work of enemy (in this case we can say opposition party), signifies 5 (12th from 6 Dictator), 9th (12th from 10-Those in Power), 12th (loss) Ruler face trouble and end of his Govt.

2) If 10th (Ruler) Signifies 2(Maraka), 7(Maraka), 12(Moksha) and Badhaka, Ruler will end with death.(2,7,12 from 10th are 11,4,9+Badhaka)

8th sublord is Mer. Mer is in the star and sub of Ven. Mer is in 4 lord of 1,10. Ven is in 2lord of 2, 9 (12th from 10-Those in Power).

Sat is in the star and sub of Jup.

Sat is in 2, Lord of 5-6, in the star and sub of Jup 3, Lord of 4 (Badhaka maraca from 10th) -7.

Both 8 and 10 sublords indicate death of Dictator of Brunei.

When?

Event likely to happen during Dasa significators of 11,4,9.

Significatore are Ket, Sun, Mer, Sat, Jup, Rahu, Ven, Moon. Or

Event likely to happen during Dasa significators of 5,9,12.

Significatore are Ven, Moon, Sat, Rahu, Sun, Mer,

If we try to find common planets from both above, common significators are: Ven, Moon, Sat, Rahu,

Sun, Mer,

Ven Dasa starts from 11/7/2008 upto 11/7/2028. Ven is in the star of Sat and sub of Mer. Ven is in 2, lord of 2-9 (Moksha, 12th from 10-Those in Power), in the star of Sat in 2, lord of 5 (12th from 6 Dictator)-6, in the sub of Mer in 4, Lord of 1-10.

We select next Bhukti of Sun from 12/11/2011 to 11/11/2012.

Sun is in the star of Ven and sub of Sun.

Sun is in 4 (Badhaka), Lord of 12 (loss), in the star of Ven is in 2, Lord of 2-9 (12th from 10-Those in Power), in the sub of Sun is in 4 (Badhaka), Lord of 12(loss).

In my opinion during Sun Bhukti, the King and Dictator of Brunei will face trouble and also bring end of his Govt. or ruling.

And because 4th indication is very strong, the next Ruler will be a democratic thinker.

Frequent job changes – a KP appraisal

One of the KP enthusiasts sent me a mail recently requesting to analyze the chart of an IT professional who changes the jobs very frequently and his career instability is fairly marked. The worry for the recent relieving from the present job was expressed and the request was made to examine, if the possibility of a job outside exists.

Though, I was in short of time at the time of receiving the mail, but my commitment to write for KP Ezine of June-2008 tempted me to take up the same case.

The native is said to be born on June 06, 1968, 12:54 Hrs IST, KOTAGIRI, 11N26, 76E53

Coordinates of judgment:

- Lagna generally indicates the resources available to the individual and should be gauged with respect to the suitability of various functionalities in life. In the present case, it could be done on the professional prospects. Lagna, in any case, forms an important part of study, as it shows the existing possibilities in the life of the native.
- The prospects relating to the profession in the natal chart are seen from the 10th cusp, as this is where the karma yoga flows down in the native's life. This karma yoga may get discharged through the 7th house (business) or the 6th house (salaried job).
- Generally, the 6th cusp/house indicates the work/service or the job in particular. With the advent of various dashas, the suitability of the individual to the job definition may be delineated.
- The 8th cusp deals 2 important portfolios. The first one is the obstructions or punishments one receives in this life due to past karmas prevailing in this birth. Thus by this cusp, something unconventional to happen is seen. The second one is the multiplicity of professions as the 8th house is the 11th from the 10th house.

Totaling the above, it may be said that the 8th cusp may indicate some kind of obstructions, which the native face in the professional domain because of which he gets frustrated and keeps changing the jobs. In case, if Lagna also subscribe to the significations of the 8th house, this is further indicated in certainty.

The analysis of the chart:

1. Examine lagna.

Rahu gets the role as the sub-lord of lagna, thus bringing in the element of desires, materialism, ambitions and frustration as the natural instincts in the personality. Being opposite to the Moon under full aspect, the mental faculty is fully tuned towards the similar attributes.

Rahu gets placed in the star of retro Mercury, which is the strong 2-11th lord placed in 10th house. In normal astrological convention, the retro planet has high desire to achieve some objectives and in this case, the acquisition of high pay packet (2-11th house) could be the prime desire through the professional domain (10th house). Rahu is placed in the sub of Moon which is the 12th lord placed in the lagna, thereby indicating the headstrong nature of the native (lagna) perhaps, causing the larger proportion of frustration in the area of work (10th house).

Rahu disposes Jupiter and Mercury, thus the indications of these 2 planets jointly colour what lagna dictates through lagna sub-lord Rahu. Note the significations of Jupiter and Mercury as below.

Jupiter is a strong planet as there is no planet in its star; hence its positional status would dictate the most. Jupiter is placed in the 12th house as 5-8th lord. Thus, Jupiter brings in the desire of foreign travel (12th house), which could be at the cost of breaks in the professional domain (5th house) and frustration (8th house). In addition to the indications through positional status, Jupiter falls in the star of Ketu placed in lagna again, indicating the strong desires of proving self and gaining strong position (lagna). Since, Jupiter falls in the sub of Mars placed in the 9th house as the 3-4th lord, it again indicates maintaining his place and position overseas. Overall, Jupiter signifies 12-5-8-3-4-9th houses.

Other disposed planet is Mercury, which is the 2-11th lord by itself placed in 10th house. Mercury is placed in the star of Rahu placed in 7th house (house of displacement) with its sub-lord Jupiter placed in the 12th house as 5-8th lord. Since, Rahu (star lord of Mercury) further disposes Jupiter and Mercury as indicated above, the ball rolls squarely again on the same planets and similar significations, as identified in previous paras.

Thus, Rahu as lagna sub-lord signifies 2-10-11-12-5-8-3-4-9th houses. Breaking the significations into 3 groups distinctly indicate gain of job (2-10-11H), instability in job (10-5-8H) and connection to the foreign lands (3-9-12H).

2. Note the professional historical records of the native.

- a. Served in India/US based job: July 90-Oct 95
- b. Served in US: Nov 95-Apr 99
- c. Served in India: Jun 99-till date

The native must have changed jobs at least 10-12 times with a distinct pattern for a change of job. Job in US was in the Rahu-Mars period that continued till the beginning of Jupiter-Saturn. The remaining jobs in India have been in Jupiter's dasha. The latest job got ended in Jupiter-Moon.

3. Examine 10th house for professional indications.

Examine, if the frequent job changes are indicated in the chart.

10th cuspal sub-lord is Saturn, which is a strong planet, as there is no planet in its star. Looking to the positional status of Saturn, it is noted that Saturn is placed almost on the 8th cusp from behind as the lord of 6th lord, thus Saturn is capable enough to cause punishment to the native by way of causing frustrations (8th cusp/house) in jobs (6th cusp/house).

In addition to the significations of Saturn by position, Saturn falls in the star of retro-Mercury, which is the 2-11th lord placed in 10th house. As Saturn gets placed in its own sub, the results due to the positional status again take its toll and it causes scene of enough changes of jobs with an element of frustration.

4. Examine 6th cusp for job definition.

It may be noted that the Saturn is again the sub-lord of the 6th cusp and the analysis made in the above sections hold good.

Thus, looking the above analysis of Lagna, 10th and 6th cusps, it seems pertinent that the native is fairly ambitious, tends to behave headstrong, gets frustrated from the work environment and has the desire to work abroad.

5. Query.

Now, the question posed in the query is: when will the native go abroad for job? Here, the foreign travel may be seen first and then its connectivity to the job.

- The native is running the dasha of Jupiter-Moon, which would run upto March 07, 2009. Let the dasha be analyzed.

Dasha lord Jupiter has been analyzed in sec #1 and clearly points out the foreign assignments.

Sub-dasha lord Moon is 12th lord by itself and falls in the lagna. The 12th lordship of Moon is not strong as other planet occupies the 12th house. Moon is in the sub of Mercury, which is 2-11th lord placed in 10th house. Thus, Moon signifies 1-2-10-11th houses in principle.

Moon is the 3rd cuspal sub-lord and Moon is as well the sub-sub lord of Saturn, which connects 6th house as its sub-lord. Looking to the significations of Moon as sub-dasha lord, the native may get another job in land but may not be able to travel abroad.

- Look to the next sub-dasha of Mars starting from Mar 07, 2009 onwards.

Mars is a strong lord of 3rd and 4th house, in its own star placed in 9th house. Jupiter finds itself lording the Mars as its sub-lord, which signifies 12-5-8-3-9th houses (refer sec #1). Note that Mars is fairly close to the 10th cusp from behind. Further note that Mars falls in the sub-sub lord of Saturn, which is the sub-lord of 3-6-10-12th houses, thus it perfectly presents the scenario of a job in foreign land.

Conclusion:

In Jupiter-Mars dasha, there is a bright possibility for the native to achieve employment overseas. Since, next sub-dasha is that of Rahu, he may sustain the job for a little longer period there.

I conclude herewith with my sincere thanks to Prof. Krishnamurthy, who has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

Music is a divine gift. From the ancient times there has been music, both vocal and instrumental practiced, exhibited and imparted training in a scientific way, especially in India. Both carnatic and Hindustani versions had versatile singers and instrument players from centuries in its pages.

In the 20th Century, Cinema also became a medium in which music has been taking part. Astrology is a divine subject through which an attempt has been made to analyze the natal horoscope charts and to see whether the chart promises Sangita Vidya or not.

Late Prof. K.S. Krishnamurti had also advocated astro-combinations for Sangita Vidya. In this article, celebrity natal chart that has been examined based upon the birth details available that of music fame and Late KL Saigal, who was famous playback singer of yesteryears in Hindi Cinema world.

KUNDAN LAL SAIGAL--RENOWNED HINDI CINEMA PLAYBACK SINGER OF YESTER YEARS.

Kundan Lal (K.L.) Saigal (April 04, 1904 - January 18, 1947) was an Indian singer and actor who is considered the first superstar of Bollywood, the Hindi film industry centered in Bombay, but at his time in Calcutta.

Kundan Lal Saigal was born in Jammu on 04th April 1904. Having introduced to music by his mother, at the age of twelve young Kundan gave a rendition of Meera Bhajan in Maharaja Pratap Singh's court. The Maharaja was impressed, and predicted that Saigal had a bright singing future. His only formal training apparently came from a little known Sufi peer, Salman Yussuf.

In the early 1930s, he was hired by B.N. Sircar, head of the Calcutta-based film studio, New Theatres. Here, Kundan met R.C. Boral, the highly respected music composer of the pioneering film company. R.C. Boral took instant liking to his talents. Saigal was employed by New Theatres on a contract basis of Rs. 200/month. There he came into contact with contemporaries like Pankaj Mulklick, K.C. Dey and Pahari Sanyal. In a short span of time, he stood tallest among them with his brilliant singing and popularity.

KL Saigal was born on 04-April-1904 at 06-20 LMT (+ 5-21) at Jammu, and his natal chart is appended herewith.

VERIFICATION OF BIRTH PARTICULARS.

9th signifies purva punya and Asc signifies beginning of current birth. Asc CSL is Mercury and 9th CSL is Saturn. Saturn is in Mars star and Mercury is conjoined with Mars. Hence the relation between Asc and 9th is established to conclude that the birth time is correct.

Date of Judgement is on 06-Oct-2007 at Hyderabad.

Jupiter should signify the year of birth. On the date of Judgement Jupiter is in Mercury star. On the date of birth Jupiter was in Saturn star in Pisces conjoined with Ketu. Mercury was in Ketu star. Hence Mercury signifies Ketu. Hence the connection for Jupiter-Mercury is established and as such year of birth is correct.

On the date of judgement Sun is in Moon star in Virgo. On the date of birth Sun was in Pisces in Mercury star conjoined by Jupiter who was in Saturn star. Moon was in Saturn star Anuradha. Hence Moon is connected with Sun through Saturn. The month of birth should be correct.

On the date of judgement Moon was in Mercury star in Cancer. On the date of birth Moon was in Scorpio ruled by Mars whereas Mercury was also in Mars sign Aries conjoined by Mars. Hence the connection is established for Moon with Mercury.

SANGITA VIDYA.

In the KP method, following are the rules laid down for music.

1) If 5th CSL is deposited in star of a planet situated in Leo or Aquarius, one will be a popular musician. Venus will also contribute for one's grand success in the field of music.

5th CSL is Venus. Venus in the star of Jupiter and sub of Venus. Venus is occupant of Aquarius, an airy sign.

2) If lord of a star in which 5th CSL is deposited, if connected with Moon and Venus, one will have taste for improving his talent for music. If it is connected with Venus and Mercury, one will be supremely intelligent even to compose songs for musicians. If it is also connected with Mars (i.e., if these planets are significator of 5th house) one will be bold and never he or she will have stage fear. Much of harmony is indicated by Neptune.

5th CSL itself is Venus, who is placed in Jupiter star and own Venus sub making Venus strong. Jupiter and Ketu are conjoined and Venus in Aquarius is in the star of Jupiter. Mercury is placed in Ketu star, and is conjoined with Mars in 7th Cusp (all fine arts). Jupiter is placed in Saturn star and Saturn is lord of 5th house (creativity). Saturn is in the star of Mars. Hence no stage fear.

Yet if a planet, the significator of 5th house, is conjoined with Neptune, then fine notes will be prepared by native. For thalam, rhythm, Mercury should be pre-dominant.

Neptune is placed in Rahu star and Rahu is agent of aspecting Jupiter. Venus is in Jupiter star. Mercury is in Ketu star and Ketu is conjoined with Jupiter and Sun who is in the star of Mercury.

3) If lord of a star in which sub lord of 5th house is posited, occupies either Gemini or Sagittarius, one can render the music to appeal to the series of audience.

5th CSL itself is Venus posited in Aquarius and her star lord Jupiter is conjoined with Ketu who signify Sagittarius (lord being Jupiter). Neptune is in Gemini in Rahu star and signifies Rahu. Rahu is aspected by Jupiter, in whose star Venus is placed. Neptune gives harmony

PROFESSION AND CREATIVITY.

5th CSL is Venus. 10th CSL is Moon. Moon is in 5th Bhava Lord Saturn star. Saturn is in Mars star, and Mars is conjoined with 10th lord Mercury. Both Mars and Mercury are in Ketu star. Ketu is conjoined with Jupiter, in whose star Venus is placed.

Although KL Saigal was famous film actor too, despite a celebrity signer, this article deals with only combination for learning and a career in signing.

What is significantly seen as common factor in the celebrity chart above is that Venus, Ketu and Saturn are connected to 5th and 10th houses.

KP principals are the tested astrological principals and they are here to stay. Long live KP.

Duhkhakar Singh

Duhkhakar: If you have this name, you can get rich

He takes pride in his name. Duhkhakar Singh, who works with a currency trading company, claims to be the only one on the planet with this name. What's more, he is ready to give a cash award to his namesake.

"I have spent hours on the search engines, trying to find out if anybody in the whole world shares my name. I'm convinced that nobody shares my name and I have the privilege of having a unique identity," he says.

It was Duhkhakar's grand father, a man well-versed in Sanskrit, who christened him. He always thought that his grand son was special and his name should reflect it and therefore he got the name.

"I even approached newspaper offices to place an advertisement, offering a cash prize for any one who shares my name. However, I was told that this won't fit into any column in the classified section," he says.

"To make sure that my name doesn't become common, I applied for registration with the deputy commissioner's office but there too I was told that names cannot be patented," he rues.

"The English pronunciation of my name is particularly difficult and people often get confused, putting the spellings together. That is why I refer to write my name in Hindi or Punjabi to make it easier for people. I even have a website in my name," he claims.

Though still unmarried, Duhkhakar has already started looking for some rare names for his kids. "I have shortlisted a few names and hopefully my would-be kids would like them when they grow up. In fact, my relatives and friends call me up to seek suggestions when it comes naming their children," he smiles.

Dear Kanak Bosmia,

Many thanks for your great work with KP-Ezine every month! I'm still learning and still struggling with practicing the KP reader Nr. 3.... especially the new series from Mr. Tin Win for beginners is a great idea. I'm awaiting the next issues to go on learning and can't wait for the practical part about prediction.

May I ask you, if you have any KP practitioner in Great Britain on your list? A friend of mine, living in the U.K. is searching for an astrologer in his country practising the KP method and we can't find anybody In the U.K. If you know anybody, please let me know.

Thank you very much.

Kindest regards from Ulrike

Dear Sir,

The articles in KP-Ezine are very scholarly. I wish to know about how to get the old KP- Ezines. Please let me know.

Thanks
Bhishma

Esteemed Mr Kanak Bosmia,

Thank you very much for the new rules you have added concerning the end of rulers in KP Mundane Astrology. They are simple, powerful and obvious, but not before you point them out. Combined with many paragraphs on mundane astrology scattered throughout the Second Reader, I think, we now have a handle on analysing daily news with KP, thanks to your pioneering efforts and generosity. The 4 rules on the fulfilment of desire pointed out by Mr VSN.Murthy are very useful for everyday application. In fact for a majority of readings for me, these 4 rules are enough. Thank you, Mr VSN. Murthy. Job analysis by Mr Vijay Kumar gives us a glimpse of how a KP expert works: precise, thorough, methodical and effortless in synthesizing all relevant theory. U Tin Win's survey of KP softwares is sure to benefit anyone who uses a computer to cast a chart. For myself, his articles are on the same level as reference works, not just to read once, but to come back again and again, for instruction and clarification. As a beginner, I don't have the capacity yet to comment on the other articles. Finally, I would like to thank the learned contributors for their generosity in sharing their experience and insight and you, Mr. Kanak Bosmia, for making this valuable magazine available at a price no one can ever hope to beat, which is free of charge.

Tha Htu from Myanmar

Dear Sir;

Kindly advise me how it may be possible to obtain access to the first 16 issues of KP-Ezine to which I have just subscribed. It is a superior educational publication on the Holy Science, and the quality of its teaching articles is excellent.

Yours truly,

Dear Editor,

At the outset let me congratulate the Editor of the Ezine Sri Kanak ji for his wonderful prediction in AstroVision about the Victory of London Mayor through KP Horary by giving a number on his own and very critically analysing the outcome of the opponent.

Sri Tinwin Article for KP beginners part 3 is very comprehensive and many facts, comparisons, concepts of different softwares and many doubts were cleared in arriving at the calculations. Many softwares and its utility and efficacy were clearly envisaged. I thank him for his wonderful explanation and guidance to KP segment. On reading the same many doubts would be cleared.

Job Opportunity by Sri VSNji in detail includes his expertise in KP by referring various rules of KSK and including the research made by other people such as Dr. KR Kar in explaining about Retro and its validity in certain cases only, not in all is excellent.

Articles on Sangita Vidya Yoga by Sri M.K Viswanath on KL Saigal and Frequent Job Changes by Sri Vijay Kumar is very interesting.

Dear KP Lovers,

My friend and first student Mr. Ajit Amin is no more with us. He was my very good friend and a very serious student of KP. Amin's death is very shocking and sad news for me, I pray for his soul to rest in peace at the Lotus feet of God. May God give courage in this time of distress to his wife Rakshaben and their only daughter Mana to bear this shock!!.

Due to starting of my new business, I do not get enough time for KP-Ezine, but our very kind Sri Tin Win ji gave more time for KP-Ezine and hence, I did not face any trouble in publishing the magazine, since last two months. I am indeed very grateful to Sri Tin Win ji.

Your feedback, which is wonderful and appreciated, gives great energy to the KP-Ezine, and to all the authors. Hence, I earnestly request you, our Well-wishers, to continue sending your feedback, suggestions and comments every month.

This is Your Magazine.

With warm regards,

KP for Beginners- Part 4 Understanding of a KP Chart

Confusion of the New KP Ayanamsa

1. The choice of ayanamsa, out of around 30 practically available, is up to the preference of an astrologer to get the accurate predictions. There is no need to discuss the correctness of ayanamsa which may depend on the rules and techniques applied by different schools of thought.

2. However, in the KP analysis it is to use the New KP Ayanamsa adopted in 2003 because of the following reasons:

- 1) Guruji KSK has openly recommended to use only the KP Ayanamsa to make the correct prediction by the KP rules, and given the ayanamsa values for the year 1840 to 2001 in degree and minute only. This Old KP Ayanamsa was presumed to be constant for the entire calendar year. Not the formula but two basic figures, i.e. year 291 A.D of zero ayanamsa, when both Sayana and Nirayana zodiacs are assumed to be coincided, and the Newcomb's annual precession rate of 50.2388475 sec., were given by Guruji KSK.
- 2) Guruji KSK has given the implicit approval of using the ayanamsa correct to seconds for any date in the calendar year by giving blessing for Manu's Astrological Tables for All, in which the supporting tables are given in this regard.
- 3) There is not any significant difference between the Old KPA and New KPA. (Table 1) The New KPA gives a formula provided by Prof. K. Balachandran for calculating the ayanamsa correct to seconds for any date in any calendar year, using the two figures given by Guruji KSK.
- 4) The New KPA was adopted in the K.P. & Astrology Year Book 2003 and it supersedes all the previous KP ayanamsa tables with a request from K. Subramaniam, second son of Guruji KSK, for the co-operation of all the KP followers in this regard.
- 5) It has been found in the Kanak Bosmia's study on around 120 life events of 15 AA rated charts that the New KP Ayanamsa is working better than Lahiri Ayanamsa in the application of KP rules, especially at the Sookshma dasa level.

3. It should not be confused the New KP Ayanamsa adopted in 2003 with the KP Straight Line ayanamsa calculated by the following formula and called the New KP Ayanamsa in some astrological books and SWs. It is also said to be close to the ayanamsa in the Universal Tables of Houses (UTOH). In fact, while the controversy of the correct ayanamsa was going on, the Lahiri Ayanamsa was adopted in the UTOH, though not so stated. Thus the Straight Line ayanamsa is very close to Lahiri Ayanamsa but differs from the Old or New KP Ayanamsa (Table 1) despite the application of the two figures given by Guruji KSK.

Ayanamsa = $(50.2388475 / 3600) * ((Yr - 292) + (261 / 365) + ((Mn - 1) * 30 + Dy) / 365)$ (1) where,

Yr = Year of Birth
Mn = Month of Birth
Dy = Date of Birth

Ayanamsa for January 1st 1900,

$$\text{Ayanamsa} = (50.2388475 / 3600) * ((1900 - 292) + (261 / 365) + ((1 - 1) * 30 + 1) / 365) \\ = (50.2388475 / 3600) * (1608 + 262 / 365) = 22.4500 = 22^\circ 27'$$

Ayanamsa for May 6th 1953,

$$\text{Ayanamsa} = (50.2388475 / 3600) * ((1953 - 292) + (261 / 365) + ((5 - 1) * 30 + 6) / 365) \\ = (50.2388475 / 3600) * (1661 + 387 / 365) = 23.1944 = 23^\circ 11' 40''$$

4. In the above formula in equation (1), the base year 291 assumed by Guruji KSK is used but one more year than 291, i.e. 292 is subtracted to compensate for the addition of a portion of the year from the base date of April 15th to end of the year, i.e 261/365. This formula is the same as the KP Straight Line ayanamsa formula, which was assumed after a lot of discussion on the old KP ayanamsa, using the two figures as given by Guruji KSK since K.M. Subramaniam (Sublord Speaks) just would not change his view on those two figures. This KP Straight Line ayanamsa is supported by the KPAstro 3.0 since its initial version under the name of KP Straight Line (Adjusted) ayanamsa as some KP astrologers have used this ayanamsa, for instance in the articles of the earlier KP & Astrology Year Books, and the formula is given as under.

Ayanamsa = (F - 291) * (50.2388475) / 3600 (2) where

F = fractional year taking days between the required date and April 15th

Ayanamsa for January 1st 1900, the date before April 15th 1900, the previous year 1899. is taken to calculate the fractional year (F) as follows:

$$F = 1899 + (365 - 105) / 365 \text{ (from Jan 1st to Apr 15th is 105 days)}$$

$$F = 1899 + 260 / 365 = 1899 + 0.7123 = 1899.7123$$

$$\text{Ayanamsa} = (1899.7123 - 291) * (50.2388475) / 3600 = 22.4500 = 22^\circ 27'$$

Ayanamsa for May 6th 1953 (attached example chart), the date is after April 15th 1953, the current year 1953 is taken to calculate the fractional year (F) as follows:

$$F = 1953 + 21 / 365 = 1953.0575 \text{ (from 15 Apr to 6 May = 21 days)}$$

$$\text{Ayanamsa} = (1953.0575 - 291) * (50.2388475) / 3600 = 23.1944 = 23^\circ 11' 40''$$

5. The Straight Line ayanamsa values by the above two straight line formulas in equation (1) and (2) and KPAstro 3.0 are the same and it is very close to Lahiri ayanamsa within 1 min but it differs from the Old or New KP ayanamsa around 5 min (Table 1). The small difference in ayanamsa used by various KP astrologers need not bother a beginner unduly. Generally a slight change in the ayanamsa value does not change the important elements of KP, i.e. the star lord and the sub lord. A beginner should go to the essentials, rather than worry about the technicalities of ayanamsa.

Table 1: Comparative Ayanamsa Values
(As of 1st January)

Year	OKPA	NKPA	KPSTL	LAHIRI
1900	22° 22'	22° 22' 16"	22° 27' 00"	22° 27' 55"

Fortuna

6. In a KP chart, Fortuna is usually included by deriving from the calculated positions of Ascendant, Sun and Moon in the birth chart according to the following formula which is the same for day-born or night-born. It is not a planet and it represents a mathematical point like Rahu/Ketu.

Fortuna = Ascendant + Moon - Sun

7. Fortuna deserves serious attention, as it indicates certain results which are not so clearly shown by the aspects formed by the transiting planets to those in the natal chart. One should not omit to include Fortuna while erecting a chart and offering the prediction. Fortuna improves the matters signified by the house in which it is located in the chart. (Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Original Vol I, page 471-2) Fortuna is supposed to give fortune to the native during the conjoined dasa period of its star lord and sub lord.

8. The above Fortuna formula is comparable to the formula calculating -

- 1) Punya Saham or Fortune of day-born, which is solely used in the Hindu Annual Horoscope or Varshaphal or Tajik (Acharya Neelkantha, B.V. Raman, Sumeet Chugh);
- 2) Pars Fortuna or Part of Fortune of day-born chart in Arabian Parts, which is actually originated from Greek. (Day time is different in Hindu day and calendar day.)

9. In the Varshaphal and Arabian Parts, a night-born (night time) chart reverses the signs before the Sun and Moon as shown under:

Fortuna = Ascendant + Sun - Moon

10. But the day time formula only has been used by modern western astrologers like Llewellyn George (The New A to Z Horoscope Maker and Delineator), Robert Hand (Horoscope Symbol) and it is the same with William Lilly's procedure.

11. It is not to attribute too much to the Fortuna as per study of H J Gouchon, M P Hall, J Mayo and J Wilson. (Geoffrey Dean: Recent Advances in Natal Astrology, A Critical Review 1900-1976).

12. For the attached example chart, May 6th, 1953, 05:10 GMT, 55N57, 03W13, New KPA 23° 6' 56", Asc 11° Ta43' 32", the Fortuna (Fo) is calculated as given under.

Fortuna = 41° 43' 32" + 288° 22' 43" - 22° 15' 34" = 307° 50' 41" = 7° Aq 50' 41"

13. Since the Fortuna is in 11th house of the attached chart, and in the star and sub of Rahu, the native is supposed to be fortunate in matters of 11th house and to get fortune during Rahu-Rahu Dasa-Bhukti.

Cusp and House

14. The beginning degree of each house is called cusp. A house begins from the concerned cusp and ends at the next cusp. The cuspal degrees are like boundaries of the house. In the attached chart, the 1st cusp or Asc is 11°Ta43' 32", 2nd cusp 1°Ge51' 20", 3rd cusp 17°Ge3' 15", 4th cusp

2°Cn56' 7", 5th cusp 24°Cn20' 58", (no cusp falls in Leo.) 6th cusp 3°Vi10' 15" and so on. The range of 1st house is from 1st cusp 11°Ta43' 32" to 2nd cusp 1°Ge51' 20" with dimension of 20° 7' 48"; 2nd house is from 2nd cusp 1°Ge51' 20" to 3rd cusp 17°Ge3' 15" with dimension of 15° 11' 55"; 3rd house is from 3rd cusp 17°Ge3' 15" to 4th cusp 2°Cn56' 7" with dimension of 15° 52' 52"; 4th house from 4th cusp 2°Cn56' 7" to 5th cusp 24°Cn20' 58" with dimension of 21° 24' 51"; 5th house from 5th cusp 24°Cn20' 58" to 6th cusp 3°Vi10' 15" with dimension of 38° 49' 17" and so on, by counting from a cusp to the next cusp.

15 The lord of the house is the lord of rasi sign where the concerned cusp is located. The 1st cusp or Asc is in Taurus and so the Taurus sign lord Venus is the lord of the Asc or 1st house. Since the 2nd and 3rd cusps fall in Gemini, the lord of 2nd and 3rd houses is the Gemini sign lord Mercury, and similarly the lord of 4th and 5th houses is Moon, sign lord of Cancer and so on. The 4 signs, Leo & opposite Aquarius and Libra & opposite Aries are empty signs without any cusp falling in these signs, which are called intercepted signs (floaters by Westerners), and the lords of these empty rasi signs do not own any house. However, Saturn is lord of 10th and 11th houses as these 2 cusps fall in Capricorn owned by Saturn, and Venus is Asc lord and Mars is lord of 7th house.

16. In the chart, Sept 18th 1905, 18:30 GMT, 59N20, 18E03, NKPA 22°27' 3", Asc 12°Ta52' 41", all three cusps, 2nd cusp 1°Ge42' 47", 3rd cusp 14°Ge55' 3" and 4th cusp 28°Ge24' 17" are located in the same sign Gemini, i.e. the 2nd house is from 2nd cusp 1°Ge42' 47" to 3rd cusp 14°Ge55' 3" with dimension of 13° 12' 10"; 3rd house is from 3rd cusp 14°Ge55' 3" to 4th cusp 28°Ge24' 17" with dimension of 13° 29' 14", and Gemini sign lord Mercury is the lord of all 2nd, 3rd and 4th houses.

17. As shown above, the dimension of each house is different in the KP Placidus houses. The house may be less or greater than 30°. The 1st and opposite 7th cusps are the same in all house systems (Placidus, Equal, Koch etc), and in addition the 4th and opposite 10th cusps are the same in Placidus and Koch house systems. The location of planets can be different depending on the house system used, for instance, in the attached example chart, Moon is in 10th of Placidus and Koch houses and 9th of Equal houses, and Saturn is in 6th of Placidus houses and 5th of Koch and Equal houses. In a KP chart, it is to use the Placidus House system, which is one of three pillars of KP.

Location of Planets in Houses

18. In the attached chart, since the 12th house is from 12th cusp 3°Pi10' 15" to 1st cusp 11°Ta43' 32", Venus at 21°Pi54' 29", Mercury at 3°Ar16' 24", Sun at 22°Ar15' 34', Jupiter at 6°Ta5' 10' and Mars at 10°Ta20' 25" are considered as located in the 12th house. If the orb theory is taken into consideration, Mars is located very close to the next 1st cusp within 1° 23' and it can be supposed to be on the cusp of 1st house and to give the results of 1st house. The orb of 3° 20' is commonly used. But the influence of such located planet on the next house can be certain if the orb is within 1° to 2° and there is no planet in the next house. Similarly Moon at 18°Cp22' 43" and Rahu at 14°Cp19' 59" are placed behind the 11th cusp of 24°Cp20' 58" and after 10th cusp of 2°Cp56' 7", and so they are said to be in the 10th house.

Aspects

19. The Hindu aspects are applied counting from sign to sign. All planets aspect the 7th sign counted from the signs occupied by them. In addition Mars aspects the 4th and 8th signs, Jupiter aspects the 5th and 9th signs, while Saturn aspects the 3rd and 10th signs by special aspect. Rahu/Ketu does not aspect any planet or house since it is not a planet having physical body but it is only a sensitive intersecting point in the pathway of Sun and Moon.

20. In the attached example chart, Sun in Aries is in conjunction with Mercury as the planets in the same sign are supposed to be conjoined. Moon in Capricorn is in conj. with Rahu and it aspects Ketu in Cancer and also 4th and 5th cusps in Cancer by its 7th aspect. Mars in Taurus is in conj. with Jupiter and aspects 7th cusp in Scorpio by its 7th aspect and also 8th and 9th cusps in Sagittarius by its 8th special aspect. Jupiter aspects Saturn in Virgo by its special 5th aspect and also Moon and Rahu in Capricorn by its 9th special aspect. Rahu in Capricorn acts as agent of Moon by conj. with Moon and of Jupiter by aspect of Jupiter. Ketu in Cancer acts as agent of Moon by aspect of Moon.

Planets in Own Star and Planets without any Planet in their Stars

21. In the attached example chart, only Moon is in its own star Moon and Jupiter and Rahu do not have any planet in their stars.

Skin Disease - Analysis through KP System

Pranams to Guruji

In the Birth centenary year of our Guruji late Sri K.S.K, who propounded his own method of accurate prediction, and also preached and popularised the same unique method for the benefit of students of Astrology and Astrologers, we owe to him a lot and we are grateful to him. My Pranams to him on this occasion of his centenary.

Basic Chart

One of my friends brought to me a chart of a lady related to him and asked me to analyse whether any chronic disease is indicated in her chart and if so whether there is possibility of her disease being retrieved. It was in traditional manner. On a broad perusal of the chart, certain planetary positions, Lagna lord and 6th lord and important planets were devoid of any benefic influence and were not in a very happy position as it ought to be. Before, working out a detailed chart based on the K.P.system, I tried to extract from him the reason for his apprehension. He told me that the lady has some skin problem, white patches formed in her body and face, which has marred her beauty suddenly after her marriage, and on her first delivery, say in her 25th year or so i.e. at her prime young age in her Rahu Dasa and Jupiter Bhukti.

Her chart prepared by KP Astro 3.0 SW is attached. Verification of the correctness of her birth time was done in accordance with the "Rule of Origin" by Dr.Andrew Dutta, in Dec. 2007 K.P. E-Zine issue, as follows and the birth time has been taken as correct.

- 1) Her Lagna star lord and her 9th cusp star lord is one and the same Mars i.e. the original Lagna star lord is connected with the 9th cusp directly.
- 2) Her Lagna Sub lord is Moon in the star of Sun, which is 9th cuspal sub lord, i.e. the Lagna cusp sub lord is directly connected with her 9th cuspal sub lord Sun.
- 3) Her Lagna sign lord is Venus and her 9th cuspal sign lord is Mercury, and both are placed in the same sign Leo and bhava, indicating their connection.

Analysis by Rulership

As per rulership, the rulers for skin are Saturn, Capricorn, Libra, Venus and Mercury and particularly the adverse effect of Saturn and Mars on Capricorn can cause the skin disease Epidermis. (Encyclopedia of Medical Astrology by H. L. Cornell)

- 1) Lagna of the native is Libra. Venus is in 11th bhava Leo (Bhadhakasthana) and lord of Lagna and 8th (serious illness, defect). Venus is in the star and sub of Sun, Bhadhakasthanadhipathi., in 11th and lord of 11th house.
- 2) Venus is also conjoined with Sun as well as Mercury, which is in 11th (Bhadhakasthana) and lord of 12 (suffering from disease). Mercury is in the star of Kethu, acting as agent for Moon in 8th, Mars lord of 2 and 7th houses (Marakasthanas), Jupiter in 2nd and lord of 6th (disease) and Saturn in 8th house.
- 3) Mercury is the sub lord of 1,2,6,8 and 12th cusps and so these houses are supposed to be connected.

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars.

4) Venus is aspected by Mars, lord of 2 and 7th houses, marakadhipathi. Having no planet in its star, Mars is supposed to be a significator of 11th for which it is a sub lord. Lagna is for personal appearance (personality). Venus is also karaka for beauty. Such Venus is badly placed in Bhadrakasthan and aspected by Marakadhipathi Mars and so the skin disease has marred her beauty on face.

5) Mars and Rahu are conjoined and located in Capricorn. Mars is lord of 2 and 7th houses and in the star of Moon in 8th and sub of unfavorable Mercury as discussed above. Rahu is an agent of Mars, lord of 2 and 7th and Saturn in 8th and in the star of Moon in 8th by conjunction with the 8th cusp within the orb of 3.33.degrees.

6) Saturn is in 8th and in the star of Moon in 8th and in the sub of unfavourable Rahu as discussed above. Saturn is also conjoined with Moon, a general ruler for blood.

7) Sun is the ruler for blood circulation and Mars, Leo and Rahu are rulers for blood disorders. Mars being conjoined with Rahu in Capricorn and its aspect on the conjoined Sun, Venus and Mercury in Leo and Saturn in conjunction with Moon are bound to cause impure blood in body, resulting in the skin disease Epidermis (white patches on skin) with a suddenness. Here Rahu acts as Saturn, which is the Capricorn sign lord where Rahu is located.

K.P. Rules

The K.P. Rules (in Medical Astrology for All by K. Subramaniam) for the disease are as follows:

1) In one's horoscope, the 6th house shows disease, 8th house defect and 12th for isolation (hospitalisation etc). 6th house does not reveal the actual disease one is to suffer. It only indicates whether the disease is one of chronic nature or mild one.

2) The tendency for disease depends both on Dasa, Bhukthi and Anthara lords and 6th house. Planets connected with the 6th house and Lagna will produce disease in their conjoined periods.

3) If the Sub lord of the 6th cusp is connected in any way to the planet Saturn, and to 6th, 8th and 12th bhavas, then the native will surely suffer from chronic and incurable disease.

The K.P. Rules (in Horoscopes and Diseases by C. R. Bhatt) for the disease are as given under:

1) If the sub lord of 6th cusp be the significator of 6 or 8 or 12 and connected with 1, the native may suffer from disease or otherwise during the sub period of this cuspal sub lord of 6.

2) If the sub lord of the 6th cusp be connected with Saturn, disease becomes chronic; if with Mars disease is acute, sudden and painful, and causes operations; if with Mercury disease gets complicated and with Rahu or Ketu disease remains undiagnosed. Rahu is similar to Saturn and Ketu is similar to Mars in effects.

In this chart, 6th cusp sign lord is Jupiter in 2nd house, for which being strong without having no planet in its star, and lord of 6th house. Jupiter is aspected by Saturn from 8th and Saturn is also 6th cusp star lord. 6th cuspal sub lord is Mercury, which is a significator of 6, 8 and 12th houses as discussed above. Thus, the connection of her 6th cuspal sub lord to the planet Saturn and also 6, 8 and 12th houses confirms the nature of skin disease and its chronicity.

In this chart, Sun and Venus are significators of 1st house and Jupiter is the only significator for 6th house. It appears that she suffered from the disease in Rahu Dasa and -Jupiter Bhukti. As discussed above, Dasa lord Rahu is a significator of 2, 7 and 8th houses and in conjunction with Mars, which aspects the conjoined Sun and Venus, which are the significators of 1st house. Bhukti lord Jupiter is in 2nd and lord of 6th and in the star of Saturn in 8th house. Both Rahu and Jupiter are in the sub of Mercury, which is a significator of unfavorable 2, 7, 11th and 6, 8, 12th houses. Thus, the native suffered from incurable chronic disease in the conjoined period of Rahu-Jupiter signifying 6th and 1st houses along with 8th and connecting to 12th house.

Analysis for Cure

Now as regards to the possibility of cure, the dasa periods jointly signifying 1, 5 and 11th are generally to be considered. In this case, 11th house is not helpful since it is Bhadhakasthana. Sun, Moon, Mars, Mercury, Venus and Ketu are the significator of 11th house and unfavorable for cure. Current closing Dasa lord Rahu and next coming Dasa lords Jupiter and Saturn are the significator of 5th house but connected with unfavourable Marakasthana, 6th, 8th etc. Moreover, Bhadhaka, Marakadhipathi Mercury is unfavorable for cure by being the sub lord of 6, 8, 12th houses. As signification of either 1st or 5th by Dasa lords is not strongly in sight, there is no possibility of recovery. Thus change of skin to normal condition cannot be expected. This is one of the most unfortunate cases of disease. Thanks God, it is not turning to worse as epidemic, and left only with white patches.

Other Findings

It is heartening to note that her husband and her in-laws are very affectionate to her and the Girl child of her is quite beautiful and healthy. All these, I am narrating because her well rasi position of Mars, self strong planet for 3rd house by being 3rd cuspal sub lord without having no planet in its star, portfolio for which is courage and boldness to the native and this Mars has given her courage to overcome all odds and to lead a happy family life without minding the set back. Karaka for longevity Saturn is in 8th, a place for longevity. Saturn is aspected by Jupiter, a self strong planet with no planet in its star, which is lord of 3rd bhava, another place for longevity. So her longevity can be considered as strong and good. However, 1st cuspal sub lord Moon in 11th and in the star of Sun also in 11th may not indicate long life.

Anyway in this case, Badhaka is bad only for health but not her family life as taught by our Guruji late Sri K.S.K.

Dictatorship - Bangladesh - As per KP Mundane View

This is my third article on Dictatorship to examine my rules.

History taken from <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bangladesh>

Short History of Bangladesh:

Zia's rule ended when he was assassinated in 1981 by elements of the military. Bangladesh's next major ruler was General Hossain Mohammad Ershad, who gained power in a bloodless coup in 1982 and ruled until 1990, when he was forced to resign under western donor pressure in a major shift in international policy after the end of communism when anti-communist dictators were no longer felt necessary.

Since then, Bangladesh has reverted to a parliamentary democracy. Zia's widow, Khaleda Zia, led the Bangladesh Nationalist Party to parliamentary victory at the general election in 1991 and became the first female Prime Minister in Bangladesh's history. However, the Awami League, headed by Sheikh Hasina, one of Mujib's surviving daughters, clinched power at the next election in 1996 but lost to the Bangladesh Nationalist Party again in 2001. These two female ex-Prime Ministers are now in imprisonment in a sub-jail due to their suspected attachment with corruption.

On January 11, 2007, following widespread violence, a caretaker government was appointed to administer the next general election. The country had suffered from extensive corruption, disorder and political violence. The new caretaker government has made it a priority to root out corruption from all levels of government. To this end, many notable politicians and officials, along with large numbers of lesser officials and party members, have been arrested on corruption charges. The caretaker Government claims to be paving the way for free and fair elections to be held before the end of 2008.

The 22 January 2007 election was postponed indefinitely and emergency law declared on January 11, 2007 as Army-backed caretaker Government of Fakhruddin Ahmed aims to prepare a new voter list and crack down on corruption. The Government aims to hold new elections by 2008 but lack of coordination between Election Commission, the Government and the Political Parties. Recent activities of Government have created uncertainty about Election while Khaleda Zia and Sheikh Hasina, two leaders of major Political parties BNP and Awami League who ruled the country for 15 years last, were detained and are facing criminal charges in court and the banned indoor politics is yet to be exercised.

Meanwhile the Bangladesh Military has expressed their interest in controlling the country with statements like "own brand of Democracy" and making changes in the constitution to allow military participation in politics. They are also assisting the interim Government of Bangladesh in a drive against corruption which seems to be mostly targeted against the politicians and opponents. The military has also imposed censorship of the national media and closing down/hampering private TV stations. Illegal detentions and torture to extract confessions have also become rampant.

Place: Dacca > Dhaka- Bangladesh
Lat/Long.: 23 N 43, 90 E 25.

THOUGHT ONE

- 1) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 6(Military Dictatorship) ,11(gain); then Power come in the hands of Military or a Dictator.
- 2) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11(gain); then Power comes in hands of a Democratic Government.
- 3) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 9(Religious leader), 11(gain); then Power comes in the hands of Religious leaders.

Analysis:

Asc sublord is Moon, in the star of Sat and sub of Ketu. Moon is in 7 lord of 11, no planet in the star of Moon, and Moon is sublord of 1,5. Sat is in 8 lord of 5,6. Ketu is in 11. Ketu aspected by Mar and Jup, Mar is in 4 lord of 3,8. Jup is in 3 lord of 4,7.No planet in the star of Jup and Jup is sublord of 2,8,10.

Asc sublord signifies 6(Military Dictatorship), 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11(gain). Means Asc sublord indicate both type of ruler 6(Military Dictatorship) and 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements).

THOUGHT TWO

- 1) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11(gain) ; then Power comes in hands of a Democratic Government.
- 2) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 6(Military Dictatorship), 11(gain); then Power comes in the hands of Military or a Dictator.
- 3) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 9(Religious leader), 11(gain) ; then Power comes in the hands of Religious leaders.

Analysis:

10th sublord is Jup which is in the star of Sat and sub of Rahu. Jup is in 3 lord of 4,7. No planet in the star of Jup and Jup is sublord of 2,8,10. Sat is in 8 lord of 5, 6. Rahu is in 5, Rahu aspected by Sat.

10th sublord signifies 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 6(Military Dictatorship), Means 10th sublord indicate both type of ruler 6(Military Dictatorship) and 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements).

Dictator or Military ruler's end

As always Dictator or Military rulers end with death, there are many examples in history, in this line I will try to give my thought on this subject.

Rules:

- 1) If 8th Sublord (Secret work of enemy (in this case we can say opposition party), signifies 5 (12th from 6 Dictator), 9th (12th from 10-Those in Power), 12th (loss) ; Ruler faces trouble and end of his Govt. or ruling.

Analysis:

8th sublord is Jup is in the star of Sat and sub of Rahu. Jup is in 3 lord of 4, 7. No planet in the star of Jup and Jup is sublord of 2,8,10. Sat is in 8 lord of 5 (12th from 6 Dictator), 6. Rahu is in

5, Rahu aspected by Sat. 8th sublord signifies 5 (12th from 6 Dictator),

2) If 10th (Ruler) Signifies 2(Maraka), 7(Maraka), 12(Moksha) and Badhaka, rules will end with death.(2,7,12 from 10th)

Analysis:

10th sublord is Jup is in the star of Sat and sub of Rahu. Jup is in 3 lord of 4(Marka- Badhaka), 7, No planet in the star of Jup and Jup is sublord of 2, 8,10. Sat is in 8 lord of 5, 6. Rahu is in 5, Rahu aspected by Sat. 10th sublord signifies 4 (Marka- Badhaka).

Dasa Analysis

Running Dasa is Ven. Ven Dasa is from 27 May 2008 to 27 May 2028. Ven is in the star of Mar and sub of Own. Ven is in 5, Lord of 2-9, in the star of Mar is in 4 (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), Lord of 3-8.

This Ven dasa is good for democracies, so in my opinion next 20 year is good for Bangladesh.

Is there any election?

The caretaker government claims to be paving the way for free and fair elections to be held before the end of 2008.

Rules for Election:

If 3rd (Election, view of people) Signifies 3 (Election, view of people), 9(people who think for opposite view), 11 (Fulfillment of desire) Elections will be held.

3rd sublord is Ven. Ven is in 5, Lord of 2-9(people who think for opposite view), in the star of Mar is in 4, Lord of 3(Election, view of people)-8.

Running dasa and Bhukti is Ven up to 28 Sept 2011, Ven signifies 3(Election, view of people) and 9(people who think for opposite view). So during this Dasa and Bhukti chances of Election is High.

Running Antara is Ven and up to 17 Dec 2008. As per caretaker-Government claim, there is a chance for election before end of 2008.

OM GAJAANANAM NAMAMHYAM

During the KP Astrologers Forum's fortnightly meeting conducted on 27-April-2008 chaired by Sri Rajendra Nimje, IAS. (Addl. Chief Electoral Officer of Govt. of AP), 8th house matters relating to accidents and life dangers through different sources were discussed in detail. Recently KP System in Yahoo Groups Sri Amit Kumar Dubey has put an email to the Forum to discuss different combinations for danger to life through fire, electricity, lightening, snake bites, etc. A Birth Chart of a Managing Director of a Software Company viz. Dr. Sikha's Natal Chart (dob: 11.01.1968 tob:00:38 pob: New Delhi; 28N39, 77E13, Birth Star: Kritika-2 Rasi: Taurus and Ascendant: Virgo) was discussed in detail.

FACTS OF THE CASE:

In this instant case the native who was bitten by a Cobra at Stoppers Shoppee near Begumpet Air Port, Hyderabad in the evening while walking on the roadside in the grass during November 1999, her husband immediately noted the fact and her friend Mrs. Geetha Lakshmi sent an ambulance & shifted her to Apollo Hospital well in time and saved her life.

ANALYSIS:

In the birth chart of the native the I sublord is Jupiter lord of 4,6,7 Bhadhaka (7th is tenated by Rahu) in 11th house, in the star of Kethu who is in 1st bhava thus assured longevity. Here 7th Bhadhaka house is also associated with a negative house 6 - by cuspal interception (which is 12th from 7th hence dilution of the Bhadhaka power and also Rahu's position in 7th bhava as a node will emerge as strong significator of Bhadhaka). Jupiter's position in 11th in Kethu's star giving connection to 1 and 11 has supported for longevity.

As per KP Rules (K. Hariharan: KP CUSP sublords & its significance on page 29) '6th sublord afflicted by nodes - bitten by snakes'. Here in this instant case VI sublord Mars is in the star and sub of Rahu. Mars is posited in the 5th and aspected by benign Jupiter from 11th. Although Rahu is in 7th Badhaka, it is an agent of Jupiter in 11th and its sign lord Mars is in 5th. No planet in the star of Jupiter, which is the sublord of 1,3,7,9th cusps. This is an exemplary chart where for Leo Jupiter is a baneful lord of Badhaka turned as a savior from death (cobra bite) by affording timely medical care through its signification of 1,9,11th houses with the support of 5,11th signification by Rahu..

DBA:

Rahu Dasa, Kethu Bhukthi (25.08.1999 - 11.09.2000) Rahu is in the star and sub of Kethu in 1st bhava. Rahu's signification of Badaka and at the same time life saving 5, 11th houses is discussed before. Kethu in the star of Mar which is connected to 5,3,8 and sub of Mercury in Sun's star as lord of 11th in 3rd. Though cobra snake bite is very dangerous for survival but the star lord connection and sub lord connection to 5,3,8 & 11,3 has given rebirth to her.

A Note on Mean Nodes vs True Nodes

by
Tin Win

tw853@yahoo.com

Background of Mean Nodes and True Nodes

1. The Nodes (Rahu and Ketu) are not planets. They are mathematical points in space indicating the intersection of the orbit of the Earth around the Sun and the orbit of the Moon which revolves around the Earth. The planes of these two orbits intersect each other at $5^{\circ} 8' 40''$. The line of intersection is the Nodal axis formed by the Nodes. (Alexander Ruperti: Cycles of Becoming, The Planetary Pattern of Growth.)
2. In reality, the Nodes "wobble" a bit. They do not move at an entirely predictable speed and vary from day to day. They frequently turn, station, travel direct, station and return to a retrograde motion. Although the Nodes move around the Zodiac in a retrograde direction, the True Nodes may occasionally be direct and are stationary for several days at a time, as if they are wobbling. That's because the True Nodes take the gyroscopic relationship of the Sun/Moon into account. The Mean Node is always retrograde as said in the scriptures.
3. Prior to the mid-1970s astrologers only had access to the 'Mean Nodes' which is the average position of their wobbling or motions. The calculation of the Mean Nodes is easy by taking the average of motions and the True ones is complicated. However, with the advent of computers and the accuracy of ephemerides and diurnal tables increasing by leaps and bounds, astronomers began to plot its course of wobbling or motions and call this position the True Node. The American Ephemeris programmed by Neil Michelsen and published by Astro Computing Services (ACS) has listed both True and Mean Nodes ever since then. Most software programs now have the option of Mean or True Nodes whichever one is preferred.

Are True Nodes Really True?

4. The main reason of using the True Nodes is that they are the actual measurement of the exact positions of Nodes. However,
 - 1) This is somewhat illusory, since the "True" Nodes are true "only twice" a month when the Moon crosses the ecliptic. Other positions provided for the times in between those two points are just a hypothesis.
 - 2) They are based on the idea that celestial orbits can be approximated by elliptical elements. This works well with the planets, but not with the Moon, because its orbit is strongly perturbed by the Sun.
 - 3) That is why Robert Hand point out in "Horoscope Symbols" that the wobbling Nodes are no more "True" than the Mean Nodes, as they are in their own way just as abstract a concept. They should not be used until research has indicated which, if either, of the two sets of the Nodes is more valid.
- 4) The True Nodes can differ from the Mean Nodes by up to $1 \frac{3}{4}$ degrees and the Moon crosses the ecliptic at the True Node, at which time the difference from the Mean Node can be plus/minus 0 to $1 \frac{3}{4}$ degrees. There are thus three Nodes for which convincing arguments can be made: (1) Mean Nodes (2) instantaneous True Nodes (3) actual True Node nearest a given time. The last two can differ by over one degree. (Geoffrey Dean: Recent Advances in Natal Astrology)

Preference for Mean Nodes

5. Some views in favor of Mean Nodes are as given under:

1) Vedic astrology uses Mean Nodes since ancient times, thus a vast experience and feed back are available on Mean Nodes.

2) In this regard, modern Western astrologers suggest that nothing can be wrathful or malefic in the "New Age" and that the very idea of "malefic" belongs to a less "enlightened" age. It is the same in KP that no planet is fully benefic or malefic.

3) An obvious advantage of using the Mean Nodes against the True ones is that they are what have been used traditionally, so most everything written about the Nodes and commentaries of the meanings are based on the older method of calculation that gives their Mean position. (Celeste Teal: Lunar Nodes, Discovering Your Soul's Karmic Mission; Peter J. Clark)

4) Sanjay Rath says that he still cannot understand why some people use true nodes ignoring Parasara and Jaimini's teaching of constant Rahu retrogression which is also confirmed in Prasna Marga Rahu-Sun-Moon chakra and Jataka Parijatha.

6. It is said that the Nodes can be configured separately for Western and Hindu astrology and in SWs supported are Mean Nodes as default in Hindu astrology and True Nodes as default in Western astrology. In fact, the Means Nodes are used not only by Vedic and KP astrologers but also by Western well known astrologers as shown below:

1) CA Jayne mentions in "The Technique of Rectification" (The Best of Jayne) that some investigators are convinced that the Mean Node, the one that is nearly always given, is valid, although one might well expect that the True Node alone would be valid (they can be 1° 46' apart).

2) Robert Hand is more inclined to use the conventional Mean Nodes. (Horoscope Symbols)

3) MH Froger (The Nodal Horoscope), CA Kemp (The Astrological Journal, UK) and Marr (Mundane Tables of Fixed Stars) find in their studies that the Mean Node gives the more expressive results and precise timing in transits, progression and directions. (Geoffrey Dean: Recent Advances in Natal Astrology)

4) Noel Tyl's research has shown that the (Mean or True, but preferably "Mean") Nodal axis correlates very well to the mother's influence in a person's life. (Nodal Axis Revisited; The Astrology of Intimacy, Sexuality & Relationship)

5) Dane Rudhyar (How to Interpret the Lunar Nodes in a Birth-Chart) says that as the Nodes are not actual, concrete entities but refer to the interaction of two cycles — the lunar month and the solar year — the Mean position of the Nodes seems to be more significant than their slightly different actual position.

6) Anthony Louis uses the Mean Node in his illustration of the event charts for the San Francisco earthquake of '89 and for the earthquake and tsunami in late 2004

7) Don G. Borkowski prefers to use the Mean Nodes. The True Nodes were something that was publicized by Neil Michelsen, but the Mean (meaning mathematically average) Nodes have served him well since 1971.

Preference for True Nodes

7. The users of the True Nodes are found as given below.

1) AH Morrison (The Direct True Lunar Node), in his tests, finds better timing by True Nodes in progression and transit. T Escobar (Essentials of Natal Interpretation with Study Guide) prefers to use the True Node without giving reason. (Geoffrey Dean: Recent Advances in Natal Astrology)

2) Elysian personally would always use the True Node, giving the reason that the Mean Node is by its nature an "approximation", whereas the True Node is the actual, true, measurement.

3) V K Choudhry and System Analysis (SA) use the True Nodes and the SA online free chart at the following link gives the True Nodes as default setting. The problem with the Mean Node is that most of the time that calculation is off at the time of an eclipse whereas it is accurate with a True Node. Some time ago but not now a chart that shows the nodal positions of Rahu for 2003 in both Mean (in red line) and True (in blue line) had been posted to view the difference.

<http://www.astrojyoti.com/calculatoroflbitrhchart.htm> OR <http://www.jyotishtools.com/windows.htm>

4) Graham Fox finds the True Nodes giving better results. There are often stations or changes of directions of the Nodes on key points of the natal chart at crucial moments (e.g. death of family members). Also, the Nodes are eclipse factors, and the positions of the True Nodes better reflect the actual timing of an eclipse.

5) There are also other Vedic astrologers using the True Nodes and the following free online chart gives the True Nodes as default setting. But it has not been noticed well known Vedic astrologers (other than SA followers) using the True Nodes. <http://www.leogold.com>

6) It is said that the advantage of the True Nodes against the Mean ones is that when the Moon is in exact conjunction with them, it has indeed a zero latitude. This is not true with the Mean Nodes.

7) It may be argued that if all other planets are measured in their true position, then why to use the mean position for the Nodes alone? It is because the Nodes are shadows or mathematical points and they only reveal their true positions at lunar and solar eclipse to measure their true positions like other planets.

8. Similarly one may wonder if the Geocentric positions of all planets are used, why to use the Geographic latitude of birth place? The difference is that all planets are moving in the sky to measure from the center of earth but the birth place is located on earth at different levels from sea. Also N Blunsdon points out in "Low Thoughts on High Latitudes" that the angle, which determines the Ascendant, is much more accurately given by Geographic latitude than by geocentric latitude. (Geoffrey Dean: Recent Advances in Natal Astrology)

Observation

9. From the transit list of Rahu changing the rasi signs from 1901 to 2048 posted by Brian Conrad, it is found that the Mean Rahu can change into a rasi up to 30-34 days earlier or later than the True Rahu. In such cases where there is a change of sign or house occupation according to cusp, the results of analysis can be different depending which Nodes are used.

10. Vedic and KP astrologers have used the Mean Nodes with success. If someone is interested to know whether the True Nodes can give better results, research can be done in the following directions.

1) Checking which Nodes, Mean or True, better signify major events of a native in the DBAS of the Nodes;

2) Looking at what happens when the Nodes go stationary or direct in transit, and seeing which Nodes tally with key events in someone's life.

Job Prospects - a KP appraisal

One of my office colleagues approached me to know about the prospects of his child who had been interviewed recently and was to join almost immediately, as the interview happened very good.

Since, I had no choice other than to entertain him immediately, I casted the time chart at the time he told me his query. Since, the query was meant for his child, I did rotate the chart to the 5th house.

The time chart casted at June 13, 2008 at 17-17-01 Hrs IST at 12N51, 77E40 after rotating to 5th house is presented herewith.

Coordinates of judgment:

- In a horary chart, lagna may be examined to indicate the resources available to the individual with respect to the query. In the present case, it could be with respect to the professional prospects.
- The prospects relating to the profession in the natal chart are seen from the 10th cusp, as this is where the karma yoga flows down in the native's life.
- Generally, the 6th cusp/house indicates the work/service or the job in particular. With the advent of various dashas, the suitability of the individual to the job definition may be delineated.
- The 5th house has a peculiar functionality with respect to the karma yoga seen from the 10th cusp. It is to be noted that the 5th house is 8th from 10th (also 12th house from 6th) and thus represents the serious obstructions, which come on the way of professional fructification.

The analysis of the chart:

A brief snapshot of analysis is presented herewith.

1. Examine lagna.

Rahu gets the role as the sub-lord of lagna, thus bringing in the element of desires, ambitions and frustration as the natural instincts.

(A) - Planets in Occupant's stars
(B) - Occupant of house
(C) - Planets in Owner's stars
(D) - House Owner

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars.

Rahu by itself gets placed in 11th house, but as Rahu is not strong, its placement in 11th house may not be of much significance. Assessing by stellar significations, Rahu gets placed in the star of Mars, which is the strong 2-9th lord placed in 5th house. The strong signification of 5th house is a negative indication towards the fructification of 10th house.

Rahu disposes Saturn and Mars, thus the indications of these 2 planets jointly colour what lagna dictates through lagna sub-lord Rahu. Note the significations of Saturn and Mars as below.

Saturn is a strong planet, as it does not have any planet in its star. Having ascertained the strength of Saturn, its placement is first examined. Saturn in the chart gets placed in 5th house. From stellar consideration, Saturn falls in the star of Ketu placed in 5th house whereas the sub-lord retro-Jupiter is placed in 10th house. Thus, Saturn strongly operates 5th house and 10th house mildly by its disposition. Since, 5th house is a direct obstruction to the 10th house and Jupiter is retro, the fingers get crossed on the job availability through Saturn.

Mars as 2-9th lord is placed in the star of retro-Mercury placed in 3rd house and its sub-lord Rahu gets placed in 11th house. The strong stellar disposition of 9th house by Mars does not portend much in store.

Thus, the overall lagna signification points strongly to the 5th house, not very conducive to getting the job. Let us see further.

2. Examine 10th house for professional indications.

10th cuspal sub-lord is retro-Jupiter, which is a strong planet, as there is no planet in its star. Looking to the positional status of Jupiter, it is noted that Jupiter is placed in the own 10th house, thus it may at last help the native to secure the job, though the retrogression of Jupiter may linger the fructification for some time.

For the stellar significations, note that Jupiter (as 1-10th lord) is placed in the star of Venus (strong lord of 8th house) placed in 3rd house, meaning that the persuasion of the native (3rd house) may not go on easily (8th house). Mars's sub-lord Rahu placed in 11th house yet may not deny him the job.

By the analysis of the 10th cusp, the job availability may seem reasonably certain but with serious obstructions.

3. Examine 6th cusp for job definition.

Saturn is the 6th cuspal sub-lord and as analyzed earlier, Saturn strongly disposes the 5th house, thereby pointing fingers on the obstructions for getting the job.

4. Examine the way the interview went on.

Interview is seen by the deliberations happened through 3rd cusp (from native's side) and that from 9th cusp (from employer's side).

Incidentally, Venus is the cuspal sub-lord of both 3-9th cusps. Venus falls in the star of Mars placed in 5th house. Here, the interview may have involved some firm dictates from the native's side protecting his prestige of assertions (Mars). The 5th house, thus again cause things to stalemate. In addition, Venus signifies 3rd house but not any of 6th, 10th or 11th for success in interview.

Thus, looking to the above analysis of Lagna, 10th, 6th and 3-9th cusps, it seemed that a sizeable obstruction to prevail, even though outwardly things seemed OK.

In view of the above, I discarded that the job itself may not be available to the native.

I have not proceeded to look for the dasha results.

Facts of the case:

Even though, I decided on the negative result, yet I asked my colleague to put his ward on line to me so that I could ask him how the interview went on and what was told to him.

I came to know that the interview was fantastic, but it was very assertive from the native's side and the employer was not comfortable with his assertions to the queries made. In short, the employer found himself low before the candidate.

It may be noted that even though the employer keeps assuring him for joining whenever the native telephones him, there is no sign of getting the employers nod even after the lapse of a fortnight.

Conclusion:

I conclude herewith with my sincere thanks to Prof. Krishnamurthy, who has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

After my correct prediction on Benazir's Assassination this is my next prediction on assassination.

In this article I want to discuss case of Barack Huessein Obama of US presidential election candidate. I read news about fear of Assassination of Obama on net. Bellow is link.

NYTimes Raises Obama Assassination Fears

By Warner Todd Huston | January 8, 2008 - 12:38 ET

I think we are finding our newest MSM mantra about how evil Americans in general are and Republicans in particular are. Mark this as an example of that with the fear that Barack Huessein Obama will get assassinated. This time the New York Times is raising the specter on their The Caucus blog in a report by Sarah Wheaton.

Today, in Dover, Francine Torge, a former John Edwards supporter, said this while introducing Mrs. Clinton: "Some people compare one of the other candidates to John F. Kennedy. But he was assassinated. And Lyndon Baines Johnson was the one who actually" passed the civil rights legislation.

The comment, an apparent reference to Senator Barack Obama, is particularly striking given documented fears among blacks that Mr. Obama will be assassinated if elected.

This is an obvious attempt to pump up Obama by an MSM who is starting to feel that their choice, Hillary, is wounded. I think the MSM is trying to switch candidates by raising Obama up to mythic status. These faux assassination fears are built on equating Obama with Robert F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King, Jr. -- but more often Kennedy. This sort of thing elevates Obama to the hero status that the left heaps upon Bobbie as well as serving to fan the all-Americans-are-racists talking point that the left is so in love with.

Keep a NewsBusters eye out for this MSM meme. I have seen it several times of late, so it is spreading throughout the MSM for sure.

I will try to check her suspicion, and cast a horary chart, whose details are as given below:

Rule:1

If 8 or 12th sub-lord signifies 8, 12, one can be assassinated in the DBA of 8,12 and Badhaka, Maraka. planets.

Rule:2

If 8 or 12th sub-lord signifies 1,5,11, one can escape from a fatal attack.

Analysis:

8th sub-lord is Sat, which is in the star of Ketu and own sub. Sat is in 7, lord of 1, 2. No planet is in the star of Sat and Sat is the sub-lord of 1, 2, 3, 8, 9, signifying these houses. Ketu is in 7. Ketu is conj with Mar. Mar is in 7 lord of 4, 11.

12th sub-lord is Mar. Mar is in the star of Mer and sub of Jup. Mar is in 7, lord of 4, 11. Mer is in 4, lord of 6,9. Jup is in 12, lord of 3,12.

8th sub-lord signifies 8 and 12th sub-lord signifies 12. But at the same time 8th sub-lord signifies 1, 9 and 12th sub-lord signifies 9. So in my opinion, there will be some attempt of assassination on Mr. Barack Obama but he will SURVIVE the assassination attempt.

Running DBAS

Running Dasa is Jup. This Dasa runs up to 3 Jan 2017 .

Jup is in 12, lord of 3, 12, in the star of Ven in 5, lord of 5, 10, in the sub of Ketu in 7. Ketu is in Conj with Mar. Mar is in 7, lord of 4 (End of Life), 11 (Badhaka).

Dasa lord Jupiter indicates both 7 (Maraka), 11(Badhaka), 12 (Moksha) and 5 (survival).

Running Bhukti is Ketu. Its period is up to Nov 14, 2008 . Ketu is in the star of Mer and sub of Jup.

Ketu is in 7 (Maraka). Ketu is Conj with Mar, which is in 7(Maraka), lord of 4(End of Life), 11 (Badhaka). Mer is in 4 (End of Life), lord of 6,9.. Jup is in 12, lord of 3, 12.

Again Ketu Bhukti signifies 7(Maraka) , 11 (Badhaka) and 12 (Moksha).

CONCLUSION :-

In my opinion, even though 8th and 12th sublord signify assassination and survival of it, Dasa and Bhukti lords do not allow to survive it. So there is a strong indication of assassination during Jup dasa and Ketu Bhukti up to Nov 14th 2008.

Supplementary Natal Analysis

The above conclusion is also found in line with the natal analysis of Mr. Barack Obama's chart using the birth time posted in the following link.

http://images.dailykos.com/images/user/3/BO_Birth_Certificate.jpg

Barack Obama, Aug 4th, 1961, 19:24 PM, Honolulu, Oahu, Hawaii, 157°W58', 21°N29' (Google Earth), Time Zone 10 Hrs (West), New KPA 23° 13' 50", Asc Capricorn 24° 37' 44". (Chart attached)

8th sub-lord is Jup, which is in the star of Sun and sub of Ket. Jup is 12, lord of 2,11 (Badhaka), 12. No planet is in the star of Jup and so Jup is a significator of 8. Sun is in 7. Ketu is in 1. Ketu is aspected by Mar in 8 lord of 3, 10. (Mar is very close to 8th cusp within 3° 20'.)

12th sub-lord is Mer. which is in the star of Sat and sub of Ven. Mer is in 6, lord of 5,6,8. Sat is in 12, lord of 1. Ven is in 5, lord of 4,9.

8th sub-lord signifies 8 and 12th sub-lord signifies 12. But at the same time 8th sub-lord signifies 1 and 12th sub-lord signifies 1,5,9. Again the assassination attempt is indicated but Mr. Barack Obama will SURVIVE it.

Running DBAS

Running Dasa is Jup. This Dasa runs up to 1 July 2012.

Jup is in the star of Sun and sub of Ket. Jup is 12, lord of 2,11 (Badhaka), 12. No planet is in the star of Jup and so Jup is a significator of 8. Sun is in 7. Ketu is in 1. Ketu is aspected by Mar in 8 lord of 4, 10. (Mar is very close to 8th cusp within 3° 20'.)

Jup Dasa indicates both 7 (Maraka), 11(Badhaka), 12 (Moksha) and 1 (survival).

Running Bhukti is Moon up to Mar 2, 2009. Moo in 4, lord of 7, in the own star and sub. Again Moon Bhukti signifies 7(Maraka) and 4 (End of Life).

Theory

I am very happy to express that a new theory is propounded to confirm the sex of the child. It is named as Child Sex Confirmation Sub-Sub Theory. As a common practice child sex is confirmed generally from female charts by judging 5th cusp for 1st issue, 7th cusp for 2nd issue, 9th cusp for 3rd issue, 11th cusp for 4th issue and so on. In male charts, 11th cusp for the 1st issue, 1st cusp for 2nd issue, 3rd cusp for 3rd issue, 5th cusp for 4th issue and so on are to be judged.

The procedure is to pickup the concerned cuspal sub-sublord and then follow the four steps serially as given under:

- 1) (A) Concerned cuspal sub-sublord is in the sub-sub of (B).
- 2) (B) Sub-sublord is in the sub of (C).
- 3) (C) Sublord is in the star of (D).
- 4) If this starlord (D) is in the list of the Male stars, Male child will be born; if the starlord (D) is in the list of the Female stars, then a Female child will be born.

The lists of Male and Female stars are given hereunder.

1) Male Stars (15): Aslesha, Aswani, Bharani, Chitta, Hastha, Kritika, Moola, Punarvasu, Pushyami, Poorvabhadra, Poorvaashadha, Revathi, Swathi, Uttaraashadha, Uttarabhadra

2) Female Stars (12): Anuradha, Aridra, Dhanishta, Jyestha, Magha, Mrigasira, Pubba, Rohini, Satabhisham, Sravanam, Uttara, Vishakha

Charts under Study

Chart No. 1: (Female who gave birth to 5 children) D.O.B.= 6-1-1927, Thursday,
T.O.B. = 7-38 AM; P.O.B. = 15-42N, 77-35E. (Chart attached)

For a female take the 5th cusp for the 1st issue. 5th cuspal sub-sub-lord is Saturn (A).

- 1) (A) Saturn is in the Sub-sub of Moon (B).
- 2) (B) Moon is in the Sub of Venus (C).
- 3) (C) Venus is in the star of Sun (D).
- 4) (D) Sun is in the star of Poorvaashadha which is in the list of Male stars. So Male child was born.

Next take 7th cusp for 2nd issue. 7th cuspal sub-sublord is Mars (A).

- 1) (A) Mars is in the sub-sub of Mercury (B)
- 2) (B) Mercury is in the sub of Jupiter (C)
- 3) (C) Jupiter is in the star of Mars (D)
- 4) (D) Mars is in the star of Bharani which is in the list of Male stars. So Male child was born.

Next take 9th cusp for 3rd issue. 9th cuspal sub-sublord is Rahu (A)

- 1) (A) Rahu is in the sub-sub of Jupiter (B).
- 2) (B) Jupiter is in the sub of Venus (C).
- 3) (C) Venus is in the star of Sun (D).
- 4) (D) Sun is in the star of Poorvaashadha which is in the list of Male stars. So Male child should be born as per this theory. But a female child was born.

Similarly next take 11th cusp for 4th issue. 11th cuspal sub-sublord is Venus (A) and Male child was born as indicated by this theory.

Next take the 1st cusp for the 5th issue. 5th cuspal sub-sublord is Rahu (A) and Male child was born as indicated by this theory.

Chart No 2: (Male who had three children) D.O.B= 4-10-1947, T.O.B= 7-31 PM; P.O.B = 15-42N, 77-35E (Chart attached)

For a male chart take 11th cusp for 1st issue. 11th cuspal sub-sublord is Rahu (A).

- 1) (A) Rahu is in the sub-sub of Sun (B).
- 2) (B) Sun is in the sub of Saturn (C).
- 3) (C) Saturn is in the star of Mercury (D).
- 4) (D) Mercury is in the star of Swati which is in the list of Male stars. But a Female child was born.

Next take 1st cusp for 2nd issue. 1st cuspal sub-sublord is Saturn (A).

- 1) (A) Saturn is in the sub-sub of Saturn (B).
- 2) (B) Saturn is in the sub of Jupiter (C).
- 3) (C) Jupiter is in the star of Jupiter (D).
- 4) (D) Jupiter is in the star of Vishakha which is in the list of female stars. As per this theory Female should be born. But a Male child was born.

Next take 3rd cusp for 3rd issue. 3rd cuspal sub-sublord is Rahu (A) and a Male child was born as indicated by this theory.

Results

Out of 21 child issues of 7 charts under study, this theory fails in 6 issues, i.e. 3rd issue in Chart No.1, 1st issue in Chart No.2, 1st & 3rd issues in Chart No.3, 1st issue in Chart No.4 and 1st & 2nd issues in Chart No.5, and the success rate of correct prediction is 71% (15/21). This theory can be applied for both natal and horary charts.

Request

An humble appeal to the readers of this magazine is to check this child sex confirmation sub sub theory in the regular practice and send the results to Sri. Kanak Bosmiaji.

Editor's Note

A practical study of child sex theories on 100 issues of children is presented in another article.

Child Gender Prediction Analysis

By

Dr. K. RANGARAJAN, Ph.D

1. The total charts of 32 with the number of children considered 150 are analyzed for the following four theories of child gender prediction:

- 1) As per Theory by V.S.N. Murthy, KP EZine July 2008, A = Cuspal sub-sublord, B = sub-sublord of A, C = Sub-lord of B, D = Starlord of C; If D is a Male star, a Male child is predicted; if a Female star, a Female child is predicted.
- 2) A simplified Theory of V.S.N. Murthy's Theory is A = Cuspal sub-sublord, B = Starlord of A; If B is a Male star, a Male child is predicted; if a Female star, a Female child is predicted.
- 3) According to 4 Step Theory, A = Cuspal sublord, B = Sublord of A, C = Starlord of B; If C is in the odd sign, a Male child is predicted; if in even sign a Female child is predicted.
- 4) In Hora Theory, A = Cuspal sublord, if A is a planet without any planet in its star A itself or if A is a planet with any planet in its star, B = Starlord of A is in the Male Hora, a Male child is predicted; if in a Female Hora, a Female child is predicted.

2. As a common practice, for a female chart 5th cusp for 1st issue, 7th cusp for 2nd issue, 9th cusp for 3rd issue, 11th cusp for 4th issue and so on, and for a male chart 11th cusp for the 1st issue, 1st cusp for 2nd issue, 3rd cusp for 3rd issue, 5th cusp for 4th issue and so on are analyzed.

3. For the first three theories the analysis is done by the computer program and the fourth theory is analyzed manually on the KP charts by KPAstro 3.0 using the New KP Ayanamsa adopted in the K.P. & Astrology Year Book 2003.

4. The correctly predicted numbers out of 200 children and percentages are as given under:

- 1) Theory by V.S.N. Murthy -- 86 children (57.3 %)
- 2) Simplified V.S.N. Murthy's Theory -- 72 children (48 %)
- 3) 4 Step Theory-- 74 children (48.3 %)
- 4) Hora Theory-- 70 children (46.7 %)

The Results of the Analysis

(Col 1= SN, 2 = Chart no, 3 = F/M of chart, 4 = SN of children,
5 = actual gender of children, 6 = Theory by Murthy's Theory

Reinstatement of Judges in Pakistan

by

Dr. H.S. Nagi,

9/43, Punjab agricultural university,
Ludhiana,

Mob: 094177 17910

Will judges in Pakistan be reinstated ?

This question was asked by a queerest while my live programme on KP was telecasted in Manchester tv. The answer was negative. I am discussing the case for academic purpose.

Horary number- 35

Date- 29-04-2008

Time - 20-31

Place- Manchester - (53-30 N, 02-15W) UK

Rule

Note the sub lord of 10th cusp, if this sub lord is deposited in the constellation of the planet which is significator of 2 or 6 or 10, he must be reinstated. But if the sub lord of 10th cusp is deposited in the constellation, lord of which is signifying 1 or 5 or 9 or 12 and at the same time not signifying 2 or 6 or 10 then he will not be reinstated. (KP Reader VI, page 299)

Application of the Rule

Note the 10th cusp sub lord. It is Rahu.

Now note its constellation lord. It is deposited in the star of Mars.

Now look whether Mars is signifying houses 2 or 6 or 10 ?

Mars is in 3 and it is lord of 7.

Now look what is stellar signification of Mars ?

Mars is in star of Jupiter. Jupiter is in 9 as lord of 8-9-12.

Total signification of Mars is 3-7-8-9-12.

Mars is nowhere connected with 2 or 6 or 10.

Result will be negative.

Result

Judges were not reinstated in Pakistan .

Readers' Views

Dear Editor,

The Ezine of July 2008 is very interesting with many research articles which we have witness in future the outcome.

1. Article on Mean vs. True Nodes by Sri Tinwin ji is very informative in one place wipes all the doubts of the KP lerners and practioners.

2. Job Propects by Sri Vijay Kumar is a new dimension using Time Chart (which is in vogue not confirmed by any published books or in articles) instead of Horary chart. The Author used time chart and rotated to 5th to know the prospects of job and which has given correct prediction. I request the author to give his experienced with the reg. using time chart with their permeations and conditions prevailing to use this technique instead of horary number.

3. Sri Kanak"s article on Mr. Obama is very daring in his analysis relating to the poinht in advance.

4. Artricle on determination of Child Gender by subsub theory is first of its kind by Sri VSN Ji (Dr, Kar has widely used subsub theory) However, his Article previously on the same subject basing on RPs (7) and their placement in odd/even signs, maljority would give the gender which was expermented by me in two cases were successfully confirmed.

Regards,

O.V.N.MURTHY

Sir

Thanks for the KP E Zine July 08 issue.

While going through the articles appeared, my eyes stuck on the article written by you regarding the possible assassination of Mr. Barack Obama.

Your courage has to be appreciated in writing this kind of article. Really Kudos to you.

Regards

MK Viswanat

Dear Mr.Kanakji,

Thanks for publishing my article "skin disease: in 7/08. Mr.Tin Win's series for Beginners, About True / Mean Rahu, child & gender predictions both by him & Mr. Ranga are all to be thoroughly studied by senior astrologers, though they are for beginners. Wishing him to continue such scientific intricate matters.

As usual, your world prediction (latest Bangladesh) & Mundale astrology, which surprisingly become correct, is laudable. Snake birte, sex of chile by M/s OVN & VSN Murthys & other articles are a refresher course on each subject seperately, though they are found in Texts here & there. On the whole KP-Ezine is shining month after month. I am anxious to see our erudite scholor Mr.A.R.Raichur's articles in E-Zine.

Astrologically yours,
K.S.V.Ramani.

Dear Kanak ji,

I have received, downloaded and printed ALL issues of KP-Ezine. What a treasure! The lessons on KP by Shri Tin Win ji are priceless for a beginner such as I. They have put into clear English what has previously been so much of a mystery, and The Catalogs of Matters Ruled by Bhavas and Planets are priceless. I would be happy to pay for a simple email subscription. Your graphics are excellent and easy on the eyes (all of them). Let those who wish to have bound printed magazine simply download and print as I have done. Money and time will be better spent on learning, research and teaching, and also providing counsel from the stars to those who need it, as well as rewarding those who are truly capable of providing such counsel and also teaching others this Divine Science.

I had been able to get into the site a few days ago, but am now again unable to enter, although I have triple checked passwords, etc. I hope we can do something about this.

Best wishes,

David F. Taylor

Esteemed Mr Kanak Bosmia I would like to wish you good fortune and prosperity in your new business. I also hope that you will still find enough time to continue your excellent series on KP mundane astrology. While each of the articles in the July issue has been of great instructional value, I am especially grateful to U Tin Win and Dr K Rangarajan for demonstrating the proper research method to be followed with regard to potential new rules.

Tha Htu

Guru Purnima

Viswa Guru Bhagawan Sri Veda Vyasa

Kabir said: "If all the land were turned to paper and all the seas turned to ink, and all the forests into pens to write with, they would still not suffice to describe the greatness of the guru."

GURU PURNIMA

Guru Purnima is traditionally held to be Bhagawan Vyasa's birthday. According to the Indian calendar it falls on the 15th of the month of Ashada. Bhagawan Vyasa is called Veda Vyasa - or the Compiler of the Vedas. Bhagawan Vyasa saw that, in the coming yugas, men would be of grosser mind and would lack the ability to learn and retain all of the Vedas. So he compiled the Vedas into four parts - the Rig, Yajur, Sama and Atharva Veda.

Furthermore he wrote the Puranas so that the common people could also benefit from the knowledge of the Vedas - he conveyed the same spiritual principles through the medium of stories and parables. He is also the author of the Brahma Sutras - the quintessence of Vedanta. So it is but fitting that his birthday is celebrated as Guru Purnima.

This day also heralds the coming of the life-giving rains, the monsoon season in India. During this season, sannyasis traditionally stay at one place and engage in scriptural studies and contemplation. This period is called the Chaturmasya or literally the four months. Guru Purnima is the day from which this period commences.

Guru Parampara

A lineage of Gurus and shishyas who themselves became Gurus, and that goes back to time immemorial is known as the Guru Parampara. If we trace this lineage to its source we find that Iswara Himself must have been the first Guru.

Sri Dattatreya

Sri Dakshinamurti

In ancient India the Gurukula system of education prevailed. On reaching the age of eight, children were sent to live in the ashrams of the Acharyas in order to learn all the scriptures, arts and sciences. There were two types of Acharyas. Vedavid - those who knew the Vedas; and Brahmaid - those who knew Brahman. It is this latter type of Guru whom we refer to as Sat-guru.

Then there are the Avatara Gurus who take birth at critical junctures in history in order to redeem dharma (righteousness), and effect an all-round spiritual renaissance. Like the sun in the sky, they illumine the whole world with their blazing light of Divinity. On the threshold of a new millennium, which is marked by rampant materialism, nihilism, and the dearth of love among mankind. This embodiment of Divine Love and Grace, by giving initiation to millions, has thrown open the gates of spirituality for all to enter.

On the occasion of this Guru Purnima, let us offer our salutations to Our Beloved Guru ji Shri Krishnamurti ji

Jyotisha Maha Guru
Sri K S Krishnamurti

Guru Purnima is a day for celebration and worship - a day on which the disciples remember and express their gratitude to the lineage of Gurus.

1. A planet signifies the matter through the following three levels according to the occupation and lordship of the houses:

- 1) The planet signifying the source of the matter;
- 2) The star lord of the planet revealing the nature of the results of the matter;
- 3) The sub lord of the planet showing as the deciding factor whether the matter is favorable or not.

2. A star lord is stronger than a planet and a sub lord is more powerful than a star lord. KP is the sub lord theory, nothing else. The discovery of the influence of the sub lord has added a new dimension to the stellar astrology. If the indication at the star level is general, the sub makes it specific. If a planet is in the star of the occupant of the 2nd house of finance, but in the sub of occupant of the 12th house of loss, the result will be financial loss. If the sub lord is a strong significator of 11th house of gain, it is the indication of financial gain. If the sub lord is a strong significator of 6th house of loan, there will be financial gain through borrowing.

3. The sub lord is useful as the deciding factor in the following cases:

- 1) Whether a planet is auspicious or inauspicious for the house signified by that planet according to the sub lord of that planet;
- 2) Whether the matter denoted by the house in question is promised or not according to the cuspal sub lord of that house;
- 3) Whether the DBA lords are favorable or unfavorable for the event under study as per their sub lords;
- 4) Which sub dasa would give the marriage and which sub dasa would cause the divorce during the same dasa by only gleaning from the sub only in KP;
- 5) Whether a planet is the strong significator of the houses for which that planet is the cuspal sublord depending on whether there is any planet in the star of that planet;
- 6) What planets should be selected as the fruitful significators when the planets are the significators of many or almost all houses.

4. The division of star, sub and sub-sub etc as dasa, bhukti, antara and sookshma was known before to find out the timing of an event only. Credit goes to Guruji KSK for using these divisions up to the star and sub in the Hindu astrology for the first time to examine whether the cusps and planets are really fruitful or not.

5. Guruji KSK has provided his rasi chart together with the navamsa chart side by side in the KP Reader III and the unprecedented 3-page detailed table of navamsa calculation in the KP Reader I without applying the navamsa anywhere. It is perhaps his expression of gratitude to the navamsa for giving the idea of nakshatra navamsa or one-ninth division of the nakshatra in the manner of Vimshotari Dasa system.

6. The star lord effect of the dasa lord planets, i.e. analysis of the planet together with its star lord, has been taken into consideration since about 2000 years ago in Satyacharya's Dhruvanadi and nowadays in B.V. Raman's My Experiences in Astrology, How to Judge a Horoscope and Notable Horoscopes. Without applying the influence of the sub lord in prediction and the Placidus house system in casting a horoscope, it is not KP. Also it is no more KP, if the sub is not considered as the deciding factor.

7. In order to get the better prediction results, all the houses signified at all three levels of planet, star and sub are to be jointly considered (like C. R. Bhatt, K.M. Subramaniam of Sub Lord Speaks, Kanak Bosmia, Umang Taneja), for instance:

1) The houses signified at the first two levels of star and planet are going to give the desired results, if they are supported by the sub signification. In the context of culmination of the particular event, the planet can be said to be the strongest.

2) On the other hand, the houses signified in the first two levels cannot give the desired results, if they are opposed by the sub signification. Here the planet is rendered weak.

3) In some cases, the houses strongly signified at the sub level only, although not signified in the first two levels, can give the desired results but with difficulty. The planet is supposed to be average.

Order of Significators

8. The order of significators from grade A to E preference is as follows:

- A) Planets posited in the star of the occupant of the concerned house;
- B) Occupant of the concerned house;
- C) Planets posited in the star of the lord of the concerned house;
- D) Lord of the concerned house;
- E) Planets which are in conjunction with or aspected by the significators

(referring the Original Krishnamurti Padhdhati Vol. 2 <1966> pp 114, 118, 301, 303, 308; KP Reader III pp 342; IV pp 118, 128, 201; V pp 149, 201; VI pp 157, 197, 247).

9. Based on the logic of a star lord being stronger than a planet and the occupant in a house being stronger than the owner of the house:

A) A planet in the star of the occupant of a house is stronger than the occupant and the planet is the strongest grade A significator of the house occupied by its star lord;

B) If there is no planet in the star of the occupant, then the occupant, grade B significator, becomes the strong grade A significator;

C) The planet in the star of the owner of a house, grade C significator, is stronger than the owner, grade D significator, and if the house is vacant, i.e. no grade A and B significators, then the planet of grade C significator becomes the strong grade A significator;

D) If the house is vacant, i.e. no grade A and B significators, and if there is no planet in the star of the owner of the house, i.e. no grade C significator, then the owner of the house of grade D significator becomes the strong grade A significator of that house.

E) As the grade A significators are strongest, the weakest grade E significators are generally applied as the last resort. In this regard, Guruji KSK has encouraged to apply the Western aspects but not practically applied or explained how to deal with the nature of Western aspects like good for trine, bad for square, other than to find out the exact distance. (KP Reader I) M.P. Shanmugam's view in Astrosecrets & KP Part 1 that when the outer planets (Mars, Jupiter, Saturn) aspect the inner planets (Moon, Mercury, Venus), the inner planets are subjected to the significations of the outer planets- has been found working in some DBA analysis by Kanak Bosmia. In the example chart, Jupiter aspects Moon and Moon has to give the results of Jupiter as per KP signification. As another example; Moon has to give the results of Mars in the case of Mars is in conj. with Moon.

Tables of Significators

10. For the attached example chart, the significators of planets are as compiled under.

* Planet in own star

+ Planet having any planet in its star

Close to the 1st cusp within 3° 20' orb

11. For the row of Sun in the above Table 1, as per the cuspal positions of the example chart, Sun is not the cuspal sub lord of any cusp and so there is no cusp for Sun in the 1st column. From the planetary positions, Sun is in the 12th house (significator B) and does not own any house as no cusp falls in Leo owned by Sun (blank significator D). The empty Leo is called the intercepted sign. Sun is in the star of Venus and sub of Saturn. Venus is in 12th (significator A) and lord of 1st house (significator C). Sun's sub lord Saturn is in 6th and lord of 10, 11th houses as shown in the last column. The sub lord does not favor the matters of 12th house as the sub signifies 11th house (12th to 12th house).

12. Similarly, Moon is the sub lord of 7, 9th cusps in the 1st column. Moon is in 10 (B), lord of 4,5 (D), in own star Moon in 10 (A), lord of 4,5 (C) and in the sub of Mercury in 12, lord of 2,3,6 as shown in the Moon's row. The 10th signification by Moon is strong with the support of 2, 6th signification by the sub Mercury. Mars is in the sub lord of 1st cusp, in 1 by being close to the 1st cusp within 3° 20' orb (in 12 without applying the orb theory), lord of 7, in the star and sub of Moon in 10, lord of 4,5, and so Mars is a strong significator of 10th house. Mercury is the sub lord of 2nd cusp, in 12, lord of 2,3,6, in the star of Ketu in 4, also signifying 6,10,11,5 and in the sub of Sun in 12. Thus Mercury is a strong significator of 12th house. Without having any planet in its star, Jupiter is a self strong planet to give the strong positional signification of 12th house and the additional strong signification of 10th house by being the sub lord of 10th cusp. Saturn is strong to signify 6,10,11th houses by being in own sub.

13. For Rahu/Ketu, the computerized table of significators usually shows its positional house and the houses occupied and owned by its star lord only. Its signification as the agent of the planets is shown in the bracket and explained in the section of the Rahu/Ketu significators.

14. It can be found in the above Table 1 that the 1st house significators are Saturn in grade A column, Mars in grade B column, Sun in grade C column and Venus in grade D column and they are accordingly noted down in the Table 2 as shown below.

Table 2 - Significators of Houses

Planet	A	B	C	D	Sub
1	Sa#	Ma#	Su	Ve	Ma
2			Ve	Me	Me
3			Ve	Me	Ve
4	Me	Ke	Mo*, Ma, Ra+	Mo*	Ra+

10	Mo*, Ma, Ra	Mo*, Ra	Ke,(Me)	Sa	Ju+
11			Ke,(Me)	Sa,(Ra+)	Ra+
12	Su, Ju, Ve	Su, Me, Ju+, Ve		Ju+,(Ra+)	Ra+

15. The 2nd house significators are none in A and B, Venus in C and Mercury in D. The 3rd house significators are none in A and B, Venus in C and Mercury in D, the same as for the 2nd house. Finally the 12th house significators are Sun, Jupiter, Venus in A, Sun, Mercury, Jupiter, Venus in B, none in C and Jupiter, Rahu in D. According to the grading A to D, the order of the 12th house significators is Sun, Jupiter, Venus, Mercury and Rahu but it will be changed to the order of Jupiter, Sun, Venus, Mercury and Rahu, after taking into consideration of the frequency in appearance. Moreover, the 12th signification of Jupiter, Venus, Mercury and Rahu is in line with their sub signification of 12th house, and Sun's signification is opposed by its sub signification of 11th house (12th to 12th house). The grading of Rahu can be moved ahead as per signification order by conjunction, aspect, star lord etc.

Rahu / Ketu Significators

16. Generally Rahu/Ketu indicates (in KP Readers and Bhatt's Nakshatra Chintamani):

- 1) Firstly, the results of planet with which it is conjoined;
- 2) If no planet is in conjunction, the results of planets aspecting it;
- 3) If neither is conjoined nor aspected, the results of the star in which it is deposited;
- 4) Lastly, the result of the lord of the sign in which it is deposited.

17. In the review of the practical examples of Rahu/Ketu signification in the KP Readers, the findings are as follows: (Details in Rhu/Ketu Rules in KP, KP E-Zine, May 2007)

- 1) The Hindu aspects of house to house and conjunction in the same rasi are used;
- 2) Aspect of Rahu/Ketu is not applied at all;
- 3) The importance of strong significators is considered whenever appropriate by taking into account of the occupation of star lord, Rahu/Ketu in own star, Rahu/Ket having no planet in its star and the empty houses.
- 4) Although it is quoted "only when it is neither conjoined with, nor aspected by any planet, it represents the sign lord", whether Rahu/Ketu being in position of planet or star lord or sub lord, the results of the followings are taken into consideration depending on relevance to the matter under consideration regardless of their sequence of preference:

- (a) House occupied by Rahu/Ketu,
- (b) Planet in conjunction with Rahu/Ketu,
- (c) Planet in aspect to Rahu/Ketu, and
- (d) Star lord of Rahu/Ketu,
- (e) Sign lord of rasi in which Rahu/Ketu is located.

5) Rahu/Ketu as the agent of the planets in conjunction or aspect or sign lord is supposed to give whatever the planet concerned is to signify (KP Reader VI p 234) but only the houses occupied and owned by the planet are commonly considered, and further results of the planet's star lord are rarely considered.

18. In the attached example chart, Rahu is in 10, in the star of Moon in 10, lord of 4,5 and in the sub of Jupiter in 12, lord of 8,9,12. Rahu acts as the agent of Moon in 10, lord of 4,5 by conjunction; Jupiter in 12, lord of 8,9,12 by aspect and Saturn in 6, lord of 6,10,11 by sign lord of Capricorn. Rahu in 10, in the star of Moon in 10, lord of 4,5 and in the sub of Jupiter in 12, lord of 8,9,12. So Rahu is the significator of 10,4,5,12,8,9,6,11 houses.

Cuspal Sub Lord Significator

19. It has been experienced (by Kuppu Ganapathi, Vaikari Ramamurthy, Kanak Bosmia and others) that a planet having no planet in its star is a strong significator of the houses for which it is a cuspal sub lord. It is the additional significator to the basic and Rahu/Ketu signifiers.

20. In the attached example chart, Jupiter and Rahu do not have any planet in their stars. So Jupiter is a strong significator of 10th house as it is the sub lord of 10th cusp. It is additional to the Jupiter's normal signification of 12,8,9 houses as shown in the Table 1. Rahu is the sub lord of 4, 5, 11, 12th cusps to be a strong significator of these houses.

A Planet Close to the Next House Cusp

21. An experience of the orb theory (by K.S. Krishnamurti, K.M. Subramaniam, T. Rajendra Kumar, C.V. Tyagaraja Iyer, K. Subramaniam, Carl Woebecke, Michael McClain, Chandrakant R. Bhatt, Anant Raichur, Sunil Gondhalekar, Robert Hand in A Note on the Influence of a Planet near the House Cusp, Astrovision, June 2008) is that a planet deposited close to the next house cusp within 3° 20' orb can give the results of the next house, and the planet is considered as if it is in the next house. The tighter an orb is within 1°- 2 and no other planet is in the next house, the stronger the signification of the next house will be. This is not an additional significator but a shift in the signification of a house from the previous house to the next one.

22. If a planet is supposed to have influence on both the previous house, in which the planet is physically posited, and the next house, to whose cusp the planet is close, the results of the next house may not be effective as the previous house is detrimental or Vyaya or negative to the matters of next house. (KP Reader III, IV; Bhatt's Nakshatra Chintamani)

23. In the attached example chart, Mars at 10° Ta 20' 25" is close to the 1st cusp at 11° Ta 43' 32" within the commonly used orb of 3° 20'. So, as per the orb theory, it is to consider Mars as if it is in the 1st house, although it is physically located in 12th house. Since it is very close to the 1st house cusp within only 1° 23' orb and there is no planet in the 1st house, Mars will give the results of the 1st house other than the matters of 12th house. If Mars is supposed to give the results of both 12th and 1st houses, the results of 1st house may not be effective as the 12th house is 12th or detrimental or negative to the 1st house.

This is my Fourth article on Dictatorship to be examined as per my Rules.

Short History of Zimbabwe :

On 18 April 1980, the country attained recognition as an independent country and along with it a new name, ZIMBABWE, a new Flag, and a Government led by Robert Mugabe of ZANU. Canaan Banana served as the first President with Mugabe as Prime Minister. In 1987, the Government amended the Constitution to provide for an Executive President and abolished the Office of Prime Minister. The constitutional changes went into effect on 1 January 1988, establishing Robert Mugabe as President.

Under the leadership of Mugabe, land issues, which the liberation movement promised to solve, re-emerged as the vital issue in the 1990s. Beginning in 2000, Mugabe began an effort to redistribute land from white holders (pre-dominantly large farms) to 250,000 Africans.

Zimbabwe is currently experiencing a hard currency shortage, which has led to hyperinflation and chronic shortages in imported fuel and consumer goods. Mugabe's critics blame his programme of land reforms. However, Mugabe claims that massive financial isolation through American, British and EU legislation such as the Zimbabwe Democracy and Economic Recovery Act (ZDERA) of 2001 is the actual cause of hyperinflation. Under ZDERA, the United States is prohibited from supporting any efforts by the International Monetary Fund and other financial institutions to extend loans, credit or debt cancellation to the government of Zimbabwe. As Zimbabwe needs to import all its energy, and oil is paid for in US dollars, this made the country vulnerable to financial sanctions like ZDERA.

Zimbabwe's current economic and food crisis, described by some observers as the country's worst humanitarian crisis since independence, has been attributed, in varying degrees, to government economic mismanagement, government prohibitions on relief efforts from foreign NGOs (non-governmental organizations), a drought affecting the entire region, and the HIV/AIDS epidemic.

Thought One

1) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of a Country) signifies 6 (Military Dictatorship), 11(gain) then power comes in the hands of Military or a Dictator.

2) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of a Country) signifies 4 (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11 (gain) then power come in hand of a Democratic Government.

3) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of a Country) signifies 9 (Religious leader), 11 (gain) then power come in the hands of Religious Leaders.

Thought Two

1) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 4 (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11 (gain) then power come in hand of a Democratic Government.

2) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 6(Military Dictatorship), 11(gain) then power come in the hands of Military or a Dictator.

3) If 10th (outcome of election and referendum) signifies 9(Religious leader), 11(gain) then Power comes in the hands of Religious Leaders.

(A) - Planets in Occupant's stars

(C) - Planets in Owner's stars
(D) - House Owner

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars.

Analysis:

Asc sublord is Ven. Ven is in the star of Moon and sub of Ketu. Ven is in 5, Lord of 5-10, No planet in the star of Ven and Ven is sublord of 1,2,5,7,11. in the star of Moon is in 5, Lord of 7, in the sub of Ket in 2. Within 3.33 deg orb. Ketis in the sign of Sat. Sat is in 8 lord of 1,2.

10th Sublord is Moon. Moon is in the own star and Rahu sub. Moon is in 5, Lord of 7, Rahu is in 8, no planet in the star of Rahu and Rahu is sublord of 4. Rahu Conj with Mar, Jup, Sat. Mar is in 8 within 3.33 deg orb, lord of 4,11. Sat is in 8 lord of 1,2. Jup is in 8 lord of 3,12. No planet in the star of Jup and Jup is sublord of 6,12.

Asc sublord does not signify 4 or 6 or 9. But 10th sublord signifies both 6 and 4. Which Means both types of government rule in this country Democratic Government and Dictatorship. It is depend on the DASA running presently.

Dictator or Military Ruler's end

As always, a Dictator or Military Ruler's end is with death, there are many examples in history, in this line I will try to give my thought on this subject.

Rules:

1) If 8th Sublord (Secret work of enemy (in this case we can say opposition party), signifies 5 (12th from 6 Dictator), 9th (12th from 10-Those in Power), 12th (loss) Ruler face trouble and end of his Govt.

2) If 10th (Ruler) Signifies 2(Maraka), 7(Maraka), 12(Moksha) and Badhaka, Ruler will end with death.(2,7,12 from 10th are 11,4,9+Badhaka)

Analysis:

8th and 10th sublord is Moon. Moon is in the own star and Rahu sub. Moon is in 5, Lord of 7, Rahu is in 8, no planet in the star of Rahu and Rahu is sublord of 4. Rahu Conj with Mar, Jup, Sat. Mar is in 8 within 3.33 deg orb, lord of 4,11. Sat is in 8 lord of 1,2. Jup is in 8 lord of 3,12. No planet in the star of Jup and Jup is sublord of 6,12.

8th sublord signifies 5 (12th from 6 Dictator), and 12(loss).

Opinion:

10th sublord signifies 4(Maraka), 8(Badhaka), 11(Maraka) 5 (12th from 6 Dictator), and 12(loss). and so there is Possibility of death of the present Dictator as per Zimbabwe chart.

Is there any Election?

Recently Zimbabwe faced Elections, but as per media it was not a fair election, so I will now go to check if there any Election in the near future? If so, what is the outcome?

What will be outcome of Election?

Because of Elections recently concluded, I will not try to check 3rd sublord but will check the current DBA to find out any chance of another election and its outcome .

Runing dasa is Rahu. Rahu is in the star of Ketu and sub of Ven. Rahu is in 8, no planet in the star of Rahu and Rahu is sublord of 4. Rahu Conj with Mar, Jup, Sat. Mar is in 8 lord of 4,11. Sat is in 8 lord of 1,2. Jup is in 8 lord of 3,12. No planet in the star of Jup and Jup is sublord of 6,12. Ket in 2. Ket is in the sign of Sat. Sat is in 8 lord of 1,2. Ve is in 5, Lord of 5-10, No planet in the star of Ven and Ven is sublord of 1,2,5,7,11.

As I gave Rules in 'Thought one and two,' we found 4 and 6 both in this Rahu Dasa means, both types of Rulers will rule during this dasa. We will now check the Bhukti.

Running Bhukti is Ven. till 30/10/2009.

Ven is in the star of Moon and sub of Ketu.

Ven is in 5, Lord of 5-10, No planet in the star of Ven and Ven is sublord of 1,2,5,7,11. in the star of Moon is in 5, Lord of 7, in the sub of Ket in 2. Within 3.33 deg orb. Ketis in the sign of Sat. Sat is in 8 lord of 1,2.

This Bhukti of Ven does not signifies 4th, so there is no chance of democratic government during Ven bhukti.

Next Bhukti is Sun from 30/10/2009. to 24/9/2010.

Sun is in the star of Ketu and sub of Moon.

Sun is in 4, Lord of 8, in the star of Ket is in 2. Ket is in the sign of Sat. Sat is in 8 lord of 1,2. in the sub of Moon is in 5, Lord of 7.

This Bhukti does not signifies 6 but clearly signifies 4th (Democracies, Democratic Government and movements). Also signifies 5 (12th from 6 Dictator).

My opinion:

During this Sun Bhukti (30/10/2009 to 24/9/2010) Zimbabwe definitely enjoy fruits of Democracy.

Note: I will discuss about inflation and economic condition of country, when I finish my series on dictatorship.

This article is in continuation to my earlier article regarding the job prospects of the ward of my office colleague. In the first week of this month, my colleague approached me and informed me about his child who had cleared all level of interviews for another job opportunity and was to be interviewed at the final level and was expecting to join the job thereafter. He wanted to know, if things would go well.

I casted the time chart as he approached me. Since, the query was meant for his child, I did rotate the chart to the 5th house.

The time chart was casted at July 07, 2008 at 17-51-06 Hrs IST at 12N51, 77E40. The rotated chart is presented herewith.

Coordinates of judgment:

- In a horary chart, lagna may be examined to indicate the resources available to the individual with respect to the query. In the present case, it could be with respect to the professional prospects.
- The prospects relating to the profession in the natal chart are seen from the 10th cusp, as this is where the karma yoga flows down in the native's life.
- Generally, the 6th cusp/house indicates the work/service or the job in particular. With the advent of various dashas, the suitability of the individual to the job definition may be delineated.
- The 5th house has a peculiar functionality with respect to the karma yoga seen from the 10th cusp. It is to be noted that the 5th house is 8th from 10th and thus represents the obstructions, which come on the way of professional fructification. 5th house also supports power, position and recognition in the work scenario.

The analysis of the chart:

A brief snapshot of analysis is presented herewith.

1. Examine Lagna and Moon

Sun gets the role as the sub-lord of lagna. Sun is powerful as there is no planet in its star, thus its placement in the chart may be dominating. It is observed that Sun is placed in 3rd house, which shows that the native was yet pursuing the formalities to be completed for gaining the job. This was more amply clear when the star lord of Sun was examined. Sun was in the star of retro-Jupiter which was placed in 9th house as 9th lord. Thus, it was sufficient to infer that there were some formalities pending from the employer's side and it was rightfully acknowledged by my colleague.

Look at the Moon which appears in 6th cusp showing mental concentration on the job. Moon being strong is placed in 5th house which shows present unemployment.

Hence, on the face value, the time horary chart looked genuine and it was safe to proceed further.

2. Examine 3-9th cusps

As the matter was yet in negotiation stage, it was pertinent to look at the 3-9th cusps closely.

Incidentally, retro Jupiter lords both 3-9th cusps as the sub-lord. Jupiter is placed in the star of Venus as 7th lord placed in 3rd house, showing the native's pursuance (3rd house) being the primary driver. Since, Jupiter falls in the sub of Saturn which is the 10-11th lord, the efforts of the native was indicated to bring the fruition. Due to the involvement of Saturn, there had be delays and the matter was destined to be driven in piecemeal.

Looking to the efforts connected to bring the positive results, it was encouraging to proceed further.

3. Examine 10th house for professional indications.

10th cuspal sub-lord is Venus. Venus effectively lords the 7th house, thus the job was on the terms of the employer (7th house). Venus falls in the star of Jupiter placed in 9th house, thus things were held up because of communication from the employer's side, perhaps the retro nature of Jupiter was contributing to the delays and postponement.

(A) - Planets in Occupant's stars

The sub-lord of Venus was Moon placed in 5th house could point to the obstructions to the professional fructification (5th house being the 8th to 10th house). Here, Moon is a weak 5th lord as the 5th house is occupied by a few planets, thus its placement in 5th house in the house of Sun (lagna sub-lord) did show a positive flow of outcome even though substantial obstructions were on the way.

By the analysis of the 10th cusp, the job availability was reasonably certain but with some delays and obstructions.

4. Examine 6th cusp for job

Saturn being the 6th cuspal sub-lord is a strong planet and strongly lords the 10th and 11th houses. The Saturn is yet more helpful to the fructification of desires, as it lord the 11th cusp as well.

Saturn's placement close to the 5th house (power, position and obstructions to flow of karmas) actually makes it more benefic as the lord of the 10-11th houses and thus Saturn was expected to bring a job to the native.

Saturn in the star of Ketu placed in 4th house did indicate the job to be located in the local vicinity in the home-town and not far away. The Saturn in its on sub was an asset to make Saturn's fructification to its fullest.

5. Examine the 11th cusp for final overview of fructification

11th cusp is Saturn and all that said in the previous point gets validated again. Thus, I was more than sure that the native would get the job under the influence of Saturn, though it could be late, as Saturn desires normally.

6. Examine the Dasha spread

Venus-Jupiter-Jupiter was running at the time of prashna and Saturn's pratyantara was to run from 25th July 25, 2008 which was the time of fructification.

Thus, it was communicated that the native would get the job on or after 25th July 2008.

7. Facts of the case

- The native was interviewed by the employer on Friday 18-07-2008 when Moon was transiting in Sun's star and Saturn's sub. The interview went well.
- To my utter satisfaction, today (25th July 2008) when I am writing this article, I was informed that the native joined the job

Conclusion:

I conclude herewith with my sincere thanks to Prof. Krishnamurthy, who has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

My close friend N.S.K. on 5.3.2008, requested me to analyze his chart with various angles, I calculated his horoscope accurately in the K.B. method, with the help of the ruling planet. I have given the horoscope chart along with the bhava and the planet's positions and given below the bhava interlinks and planets interlinks tables.

I have given below the total report of my friend, Mr. N.S.K. horoscope and his question about the future and my suggestions.

I have explained about his chart in the simple way to understand the readers and the beginners of the K.B. astrologers. Further, you can easily understand this article, please read my guruji prasanna jothidamani KI. Baskaran's books and my astrology books.

Q.1. How is Mr.N.S.K's health condition?

Lagna bhava sub lord is Venus. The Venus is in the star of sun and sub of Saturn. The sun is the 7th bhava's sub lord and Saturn is the 5 and 11th bhava sub lords. The star and sub lord indicates the sole dependent bhavas therefore it develop the Lagna.

So, the health condition, mostly, is so good in his life and the lagna bhava interlinked with the 5, 7, 11th bhavas and these bhavas are the 12th bhavas to the 6, 8, 12th bhavas. So, he will live with good healthy life in his whole life.

Particularly, this person will have good healthy condition in the Venus dasa (which is lagna bhava sub lord) bhukthi period, which is connected with the odd number bhavas.

In such a way the Mars, Mercury, and Jupiter is connected with the odd number bhavas through its star and sub lord and it gives the favorable benefit to the lagna.

The physical health will temporarily be affected while the dasa bhukthi period, of the planet interlinked with the 6, 8, 12th bhavas. Here Rahu, Mars, and Jupiter is the cuspal sub lord of 6, 8, 12th bhavas.

If the above referred planets have a power only to give the 6, 8, 12 bhava karaka benefits, when the planets interlinked with its favorable bhava through its star lord and sub lord. If the planets are interlinked with its unfavorable bhavas through its star lord and sub lord, they won't give their bhava karaka benefits and give the opposite benefits.

The 12 bhava sub lords will act or give the response upon the base of their bhava and karaka through its star lord and sub lord.

A planet in the star of the particular bhava sub lord's star lord and its sub lord has a more power to do the particular bhava activities than the particular bhava sub lord.

Each and every planet permits their work to the planet standing in its star and sub to execute the works. This is the Basic in stellar Astrology.

In this chart the 6th sub lord rahu is in the star of Jupiter and sub of kethu. Jupiter is the 12th bhava sub lord and the Kethu is the 4, 10th bhava sub lord. Here the 6th bhava gets strengthen because the 4, 10, 12th bhavas are supporting to the 6th bhava.

So, the health condition will be affected in the Rahu dasa bhukthi's period.

At the same time, the 8, 12th bhava sub lords Mars and Jupiter are inter linked with the unfavorable bhavas to 8, 12th bhavas. So, the health condition will not be affected in the Mars and Jupiter's dasa bhukthi periods.

But, the planet which is in the star and sub of Mars and Jupiter, (6, 8, 12th bhava sub lords,) are giving the 6, 8, 12th bhava benefits

Here Mars is in the Rahu star and Mercury is in the Rahu sub lord and then the Moon is in the Mars star, Jupiter is in the star of Jupiter and Rahu is in the Jupiter star.

In such a way, the planet Mars, Mercury, Moon and Rahu are gets the 6, 8, 12th bhava inter links.

Among the 4 planets, the Mars, Mercury are connected with the 6th bhava. But these planets 6th bhava connection is not strong. The Moon is the quick movable and not stable planet. So, the moon will change its response according to the running dasa bhukthi. So, Rahu only give the unfavorable benefit to the physical health.

Q.2. Is this person thinking about the sole related or material related?

The lagna bhava indicates the individual's thinking and his basic some ideology. Mostly, the thinking ideology will come out according to the inter linked bhava karakas of the lagna bhava sub lord.

In this chart, the lagna sub lord inter linked with the 5, 7, 11th bhavas. These significance connected with the sole dependent karaka and he will think about the sole and physical dependent matter only. Particularly he thinks and participate in the activities of the manthra and entertainment due to 5th bhava, Social movements, social contacts due to the 7th bhava and society, friends, meetings and conference due to the 11th bhava.

In this chart the planets Saturn, Rahu and Kethu are inter linked the 4, 6, 10th bhavas through its star lord and its sub lord. This person live in the periods of these three planets, the material thinking ideology will raise and sole dependent karaka thinking ideology will decrease.

Q. 3. Is this person live with the prestigious position?

The lagna bhava indicates one's self prestige. If the lagna bhava inter linked with the 8, 12th bhavas, a person can't shine with prestigious position among the people.

In this chart lagna bhava inter links with the 7, 11th bhavas and it is the 12th bhava to the 8, 12th bhavas. So this person will not get the disturbance from others about his prestige position.

More over a specialty occurred in this chart because any planet didn't connect with the 8th bhava. So, all the planets in his life let him live with the prestigious position.

Q. 4. How is his financial position?

2nd bhava indicates its own money. The money and the cash on hand will raise day by day, when the 2nd cusp sub lord interlinked with its favorable bhavas and this person can enjoy with money and spend the money day by day for its own purpose.

A person can enjoy his life through the money and the bank balance will rise when the 2nd cuspal sub lord inter linked with the favorable bhavas of 2, 4, 6, 10th bhavas and these bhavas not to give disturbance to the lagna.

The cash on hand money will decrease day by day and spend the money to self and by the way of donation, luxurious life etc, when the 2nd bhava sub lord connected with the favorable bhavas to the lagna of 1, 5, 9th bhavas which are unfavorable to 2nd bhava.

A person can't enjoy his money, not interested to spend the money for his nominal expenses and others can enjoy his money, when the 2nd sub lord inter linked with the 8, 12th bhavas.(which was unfavorable to lagna)

I request the readers to understand that the lagna only enjoy the good or bad results when a particular bhava inter linked with the other bhavas. I request the readers think over it above referred matter and what will happen when the 2nd bhava inter linked with the other bhavas.

Now, we come to analyze the Mr. N.S.K. horoscope. In the horoscope the 2nd bhava sub lord is Venus and it is in the star of Sun and sub of Saturn. Sun is the 7th bhava sub lord and Saturn is the 5, 11th bhava sub lord.

The 5, 7, 11th bhavas are favorable to the lagna and neutral to the 2nd bhava. So, this person will enjoy his life with his money. At the same time he will not spend the money for unnecessary matter. Among the 5, 7, 11th bhavas except 5th bhavas and other 7, 11th bhavas are not to give disturbance to the 2nd bhava. So, the 2nd bhava response will be in the neutral position.

The finance position will rise when the dasa bhukthi period of the planet, which is being the star lord and sub lord of the 2nd bhava and favorable to the 2nd bhavas.

As per chart, the Sun indicates 7, 10 bhavas, Saturn inter links 4, 6, 10 bhavas, Rahu connects with the 4, 6, 10, 12 bhavas and Kethu inter links with 1, 4, 10th bhavas through its star and sub lord. These planets gives the money through its planets karaka and the bhava karaka.

For example, we will take the Sun. The sun is the 7th bhava sub lord and connecting with the 10th bhava. This person gets the job from the customer and earns money through his customer. The customer are mostly being as a government officers, chief of the department, because the karaka of the sun.

The readers advised to judge as per the norms to the Saturn, rahu and kethu planets. The financial position will be neutral in the other planets running periods.

Q. 5. Will this person be affected by eye disease or will have defective eye vision?

The 2nd bhava indicates the eye sight. The eye sight is the lagna dependent karaka. So the 2nd bhava sub lord does not interlink with the 6, 8, 12th bhavas.(which is unfavorable to lagna)

In this horoscope Venus is the 2nd bhava sub lord and the venus inter linked with the 5, 7, 11th bhavas through its star and sub lord and these bhavas are the 12th bhava to the 6, 8, 12th bhavas. So, this gentleman mostly will not be affected by eye problem.

Q. 6. Is this person will work under somebody or do the own business?

6th bhava indicates that one person will do service under somebody, and 7th bhavas indicates social contact with the other people, the customer relates to his business and the own business.

One's profession will be confirmed that among the 6, 7 bhavas which bhavas related with or favorable with the 2, 6, 10th bhava. Take this as a general rule and the profession will some what change according to the dasa bhukthi.

In this horoscope the Rahu is the 6th bhava sub lord and the rahu inter links the 4, 10, 12th bhavas through its star and sub lord. The 4, 10, 12th bhavas are favorable to the 2, 6, 10th bhavas. So, this person fate will be favorable to do his service for a long time.

Next, the 7th bhava sub lord sun is in the own star and Moon sub lord. The moon is not to position to any sub lord but it is the sub sub lord to the 10th bhava only. So here, the 7th sub lord sun interlinked with the 7 and 10th bhavas. This signification or fate is the favorable to do the profession for a long time.

Further, the 6th bhava indicates the servant and doing a service under one. In this horoscope the 6th bhava connected with the material related bhavas. So this person earns money through his servants.

The planet Saturn is the karaka of the servant. The Saturn inter linked with the 4, 6, 10th bhavas. These are material related bhavas. So this person earns money through the servant.

Note: The 7th bhava inter linked with the 2, 4, 6, 10th bhavas and if the planet Saturn inter linked with the 5, 9th bhavas, when a person can't get a financial development through his servants because, the 5, 9th bhavas are the 8, 12th bhava to the 10th bhava. So this person can't give sufficient work to his servants and this person only directly ready to do the all works without the help of the servants. So no necessity to keep the servants and he will not be interested to keep the servant. So, better to reduce the number of the servant in his work.

A person can get the tension and disturbance and loss his fame and name in his own profession by his servants, when the Saturn is inter linked with 8, 12th bhavas.

A particular bhava or planet should not be related with the 8, 12th bhava from the questionable bhava or 8, 12th bhava to the lagna bhava.

To analyze about the servant, we can also analyze the 6th bhava as like as Saturn.

If a person to do the own profession in the high level the 7 and 6th bhavas are favorable to the 10th bhava and then only a person can maintain a big organization (company).

The above referred signification coincided with this chart, this person is doing own business as well as managing it in the capacity as Managing Director of the Company for the past 15 years.

Q. 7. How is his married life?

The marriage life will not be favorable to a person, if the 7th sub lord is interlinked with the 2, 6, 8, 12th bhavas, i.e. 2 and 6 is the 8, 12th bhava to the 7th bhava and the 8, 12th bhava is the 8, 12 to the lagna. Commonly, the 6, 8, 12th bhavas gives troubles in married life.

Generally, to the marriage activities the planet venus is the karaka (mars for ladies). If the venus interlinks 6, 8, 12 bhavas in a chart, a man's marriage life would be affected.

In this chart, this person will not face high level disturbance in his marriage life because the 7th sub lord inter links with the 7, 10th bhavas. Further, the gragha karaka Venus is inter link with the 5, 7, 11th bhavas. This significance is 12th bhavam to 6, 8, 12th bhavas. So this person will have happy married life.

Q. 8. Is he get the prestige through his profession?

Lagna indicates his self prestige.i.e, related with a person's individual attitude, ambition and self efforts. The prestige is related with the lagna.

A person gets the prestige, if he will do his profession or maintain his profession very well. This prestige get through its profession and this prestige not related with the lagna.

A district collector gets a prestige due to its profession of the collector's responsible work But this prestige not related with his individuality.

A person can't get the self prestige or by the way of his individual professional prestige, if the 10th bhavam inter link with the 5, 9th and 8, 12th bhava, ie 5, 9 is the 8, 12th bhava from the 10th bhava and the 8, 12th bhavas is 8, 12 to lagna .

A person will get the prestige through his profession, if the 10th bhava sub lord interlinked with its favorable bhavas of 2, 4, 6,10th bhavas. Among these bhavas the most things are, the 10th bhavas not inter linked with the 8, 12 bhavas, which is gives unfavorable to the lagna bhavas .

In the basis of the above referred matter, in this horoscope the 10th bhava sub lord Kethu inter links with 1, 2, 4, 10th bhavas through its star lord and sub lord. These 1, 2, 4, 10th bhava karakas will function through the 10th bhava.

The self prestige will come out through profession because the 10th sub lord interlinks with the Lagna bhava, this person may get money because of the 10th bhava connects with the 2nd bhava, he may get wealth and assets because the 10 sub lord links with the 4th bhava and he may get the trade mark recognition in the particular profession because the 10th bhava connects with the same 10th bhava.

In this horoscope, the 10th bhava is strong and this bhava is strongly connected with 10th related bhavas. So, this person will do his job with his individuality effort and through his professional skill he may get the standard prestigious position for long standing period.

So far, I gave the suggestion to the readers, which was told directly to the N.S.K, friend of mine, about the analayzation result of his 1, 2, 6, 7, 10th bhavas.

Next, Mr. N.S.K. asked me the 4 question about his future result. These questions are follows.

1. I am managing own business for the past 15 years in the information technology enabled services field. Can I stand continuously in this field?
2. How is the coming Saturn dasa guru bhukthi give the result to my current job? Is this give more benefit than the Saturn dasa Rahu bhukthi period?
3. How is the next coming Mercury dasa?
4. Can I get involvement in the spiritual field?

I explained the answer to Mr. N.S.K. about the above 4 questions.

Answer to the 1st question:

The 3, 9th bhavas indicates the communication related with the computer dept. These bhavas are inter linked with the 2, 4, 6, 10th bhavas, which are favorable to the 10th bhavas, a person can earn money through the information technology enabled services field.

In this chart, the Rahu is the sub lord of the 3, 9 bhavas and rahu is in the Jupiter star and kethu sub. Jupiter is the 12th bhava's sub lord and Kethu is the sub lord of the 4, 10th bhavas. Rahu not only the sub lord of the 3,9, but also the sub lord of the 6th bhava.

So, 3, 9 bhava sub lord(rahu) inter linked with the 4, 6, 10, 12 bhavas. The fate is so strong because the material dependent karaka of the 4, 6, 10, 12 bhavas are inter linked with the communication related bhavas of 3, 9 bhavas. So, this person can earn much money for long period in the communication department.

Now, Rahu bhukthi in the Saturn dasa running from 10- 03- 2006 to 15- 01- 2009 and bhukthi lord rahu is the 3, 9th bhava sub lord. So,I told to this gentleman that he will get good material benefit in the period of the Rahu bhukti in the Saturn dasa.

This gentleman told that Sir, your all words are fully true and I am getting good finance development in the field of the communication technology field. From the period of the Saturn dasa Raghu bhukthi onwards. So it is the evidence to prove the 3, 9 bhavas give benefit to him.

Answer to the 2nd question:

Bhukthi lord Jupiter is in the Sun star and Mars sub and sun is the 7th bhava sub lord and Mars is the 8th bhava sub lord. The sub lord is not denying the 7th bhava's action. The 7th bhava is the 12th bhava to the 8th bhava sub lord. So, the sub lord (8 bhava) allows to functioning the star lord's 7th bhava and here the sub lord 8th bhava's not function.

So, the bhukthi lord Jupiter is activate its star lord sun's 7th bhava functions. Jupiter is the 12th bhava sub lord. Here the 12th bhava inter linked with the 7th bhava. So, the 7th bhava is the 8th bhavam to the 12th bhava. Through this inter link, the 12th bhava get disturbance because of the 8th bhava.

This person normally doing his own business. The 12th bhava indicates the further investment. So here, the 12th bhava indicates further additional job or to start the branch office regarding his own business (12th bhava is the 3rd bhavam to the 10th bhava).

So, the money will get blocked due to the investment in the further job or due to start the further branch office, in the Jupiter bhukthi period so, better to stop or reduce the further business or start the branch office in the Jupiter bhukthi period.

Rahu inter linked with the 4, 6, 10, 12 bhavas and the Jupiter inter links with the 7th bhava. The Rahu only inter linked with the favorable bhavas of the 2,10th bhavas. So, The Rahu bhukthi only give the favorable benefit to this person in the field of the business or job than the Jupiter bhukthi.

So, I gave advise to Mr.: N, S.K, that don't invest more money in the business in the Jupiter bhukthi period.

Answer to the 3rd question:

Dasa lord Mercury is in the star of Venus and in the sub of Rahu. But the Mercury is the sub lord to the 6th bhava only. The Venus is the 1, 2 bhava sub lords and the rahu is the 3, 6, 9th bhava sub lords.

The dasa lord mercury inter linked with the 1, 2, 3, 6, 9th bhavas. Among the bhavas indications the 1, 3, 9 bhvas are being as a strong and 2, 6th bhavas are being as a weak position.

So, Mr. N.S.K will enjoy the sole dependent karakas, with the small weak position in finance, in the Mercury Dasa period. The mercury dasa will not give disturbance to his profession because he is doing the 3, 9th bhava karaka related profession. The mercury dasa will give down fall result, when he is related with the 4, 10th bhava karakas of related with the House, Plot, Vehicle, etc.

The Saturn Dasa, previous dasa to Mercury dasa, has inter linked with the 4, 6, 10th bhava karakas and these are all material dependent karakas. So, the Mercury dasa will give such less economical benefit than the Saturn dasa.

At the same time, surely, he will get an independent position and fame due to adopting new technology in the field of communication in the period of the mercury dasa because the mercury has 3, 9th bhavas and other favorite benefit is the Mercury is karaka for the same field.

His health condition will be good and the sugar related disease will not attack him because the 4,10 bhava karakas only give the sugar related disease but the mercury having 3,9th bhavas only. These 3,9th bhavas are 12th bhavas to the 4,10th bhavas and it will not give the sugar disease. The 4, 10 bhavas indicates the productivity. So in this period the body weight will not increase. But the 3,9th bhavas did not do the productivity work and mercury dasa will give more travels

He can get the such finance benefit in Kethu, Sun, Moon, Rahu and Saturn bhukthi periods in the Mercury Dasa.

But the profession or business, monetary income will come down in the Venus, Mars Jupiter bhukthi in the Mercury dasa period.

Answer to the 4th Question.:

Lagna bhava in general indicates one's self thinking and 5, 9th bhavas indicates the involvement in the field of the Mantra, Worship of God, and spiritual interest. The Jupiter is the karaga related to the spiritual matter.

A person can gets involvement in the spiritual field, 1,5,9th bhavas and Jupiter does not indicate connection to the 4,8,12th bhavas, which is the 12th bhavas to the 1,5,9th bhavas.

Further, the running dasa also favorable connection to the 1, 5, 9th bhavas. A person can adopt the 3 conditions above the 5 conditions, and then only he may get the involvement in the spiritual field.

As per above reference, we will analyze this chart. Here the Lagna bhava inter linked with the 5, 7,11th bhavas. So, the lagna bhava is favorable to approach the spiritual field. The 5 and 9th bhavas inter linked with the 4,6,10 and 4, 6, 10, 12 bhavas. (5, 9 bhava's Fate). These inter links are unfavourable to the spiritual approach.

The Jupiter, spiritual karaka, connected with 7th bhava and the forth coming dasa lord Mercury also inter linked with the 1,3,9,2.6 bhavas and the above two inter links is not connected with the 4,8,12th bhavas. So, I declared to my friend Mr. N.S.K, You can get the spiritual involvement in the Mercury dada period.

So far, I analyzed only with the cusp of this chart through the K.B System. All persons will give same result through this system to this chart. For example, if I give this chart to my students individually from 100 students and ask the same question individually and all the 100 students will give the same results.

The entire member, who are analyzed the one particular subject or matter, can give the same constant result and this result will not vary from person to person. This is called the scientific result. In this way, through the K.B. system only, we can give the common result through the different angle approach.

I, humbly submit this article to my Guruji, one who took care of my development, Prasanna jothida Mani K. Baskaran, Madurai.

Cancer Brain Tumor

by

Tin Win

tw853@yahoo.com

1. The rulers for cancer and brain tumor are as follows:

- 1) for brain, Mercury, Aries, Moon, (1st house and Sun);
- 2) for brain disease and affections, Aries, Mercury (complication) and Sun;
- 3) for cancer disease, Cancer sign, Moon and Saturn (malignant type growth like cancer, wasting away organs or tissues which is the symptom of cancer, planet of obstruction, chronic disease);
- 4) for tumors, Pisces, Jupiter (malignancy, fatty and degeneration of tumors), Moon, Cancer and Venus (wasting disease);
- 5) for brain tumor, Aries, Moon, Saturn, Jupiter and Venus.

2. The 6th cusp (illness) sub lord of the attached chart is Jupiter, which is in the star of Mercury in 2 (Maraka), lord of 7 (Badhaka & Maraka) and in the sub of Moon in 8 (surgery, serious disease, danger to life). Jupiter is the Ascendant lord and deposited in 7 of Cancer sign. Having no planet in its star, Jupiter is a strong planet for 7 by occupation and 6 & 12 (hospitalization) by being the sub lord of these cusps. Jupiter is in opposition to Saturn in 1st house, lord of 2 and both Jupiter and Saturn aspect Venus, lord of 6, and Rahu in 2 and agent of Jupiter, Venus and Saturn, in Pisces. The 12th cusp sub lord is the same Jupiter. The 2, 6, 7 and 12 signification of the 6th and 12th cusps sub lords and their connection to 1 and 8 and Moon, Mercury, Venus, Saturn, Cancer and Pisces indicate the cancerous brain tumor. Without the signification of 1st house, the disease cannot be predicted. If Mars is involved, it indicates acute, sudden, painful disease which requires operation. In some cases, Rahu can act as Saturn and Ketu as Mars, and Neptune takes the place of Saturn or Jupiter.

3. The 8th cusp sub lord is Venus. It is in the star of Mercury in 2, lord of 7 and in the sub of Ketu in 8 and agent of Mars, Mercury and Venus. Venus is lord of 6 and aspected by Jupiter and Saturn as discussed above. Thus the 8th cusp sub lord also points out the chronic disease.

4. The lord of Aries Mars being in conjunction with Mercury in 2, lord of 7 and Sun, lord of 8, in opposition to Moon in 8, is deemed to be connected with the brain tumor and serious disease. In this chart, the brain is indicated by the 1st house and Sun other than Aries sign.

5. The Ascendant sub lord Mars is in own star Mar in 2, lord of 4, 11, 12, and in the sub of Sun in 2, lord of 8. With the 11th signification, Mars is the best for him, long live up to present, first marriage during Mo-Ma-Me-Ma DBAS on November 29, 1958, survival from the Chappaquiddick-incident during Ma-Ju-Me-Ma on July 18, 1969 and to survive this incurable disease at least till the end of Ju-Ra-Ma DBA or Jupiter Dasa, i.e. September 28, 2008, after having the brain surgery at the just beginning of Ju-Ra-Mo-Ma on June 2, 2008. The next coming Dasa Saturn is not encouraging as it signifies 2, 8 and is connected with 1, 2, 7, 9. As he is one of the most respected elder Democratic statesmen as well as the last giant in a family of political giants, we will all be sending our prayers and holding him in light as he faces this latest challenge.

6. As a general rule, the native may suffer from disease during the joint period of the significators of 1 and 6, also during the sub periods of the significators of 1 and 6 or 1 and 8 or 1 and 12 in the period of the significator of 6. If the sub lord of the 6th or 8th or 12th or 11th cusp be the significator of 1, 5 or 11, disease is cured or the native is saved from any danger during the joint period of 1, 5 and 11.

7. In this chart and also other 3 charts of the similar cancer of brain tumor, the frequent pattern of Moon-Sun connection for cancer patients has not been found. Yet scientists such as Vini Khurana are linking mobile phones with one particular part of the body, namely the head. And in astrology the sign of the Zodiac connected with the head is Aries. It is assumed that Uranus in Aries could mean 'radiation applied to the head'. In a chart of cancer- brain tumor, Uranus is found deposited in Aries. In the chart under study, it might be the result of alcoholism.

8. For the native, more than one marriage is clearly indicated by the KP rules of the star lord of the 7th cusp sub lord being in a dual sign, 2nd cusp sub lord signifying 7, and 9th cusp sub lord signifying 2, 7 as per Kanak Bosmia. For being a senator since February 22, 1962 (Mo-Sa-Sa- Mo), the tight conjunction of Sun with the 11th significators Mars and Mercury and the 9th signification in the passing Dasas are worthy to note. Such saying of "Edward Kennedy never could reach the top because of the Chappaquiddick-incident." may be astrologically indicated by Sun opposition Neptune like in the Al Gore's chart.

A Note on 365 vs 360 days year in the Vimshottari Dasa System

by
Tin Win

tw853@yahoo.com

1. Referring the statement in Phala Deepika (page 196) for mahadasa calculation to take the Solar year, which is the time taken by the Sun to complete one round of the Zodiac from any reference position, Guruji KSK has guided to adopt the Solar year of 365.25 days alone for calculating the Vimshottari Dasa system, and to take 360 days a year for easy calculation of sub sub (DBAS) dasa periods. (KP Reader I pp 96-97)

2. This length of the Solar year is in line with the following references:

1) According to the present universally used Gregorian calendar, the average year is 365.2425 days, which is applied in the SWs like KPAstro 3.0, JHora.

2) The moderns take the mean length of the sidereal Solar year to be of 365.2564 days (365d-6h-9m-9.50 sec).

3) In Surya Siddhanta, the length of the sidereal Solar year is 365.2587 days (365. gh 15.31.30), which is longer than the above mean length (365.2564) by about 3m19sec only.

4) In Siddhanta Siromani, a Solar year consists of 365.2584 days (365. gh 15.30.22), which is longer than the above mean length (365.2564) by about 2m53sec only.

3. Some remarks on the 360 day year are as given under.

1) The 360 day year doesn't refer to the length of a Solar year (365.25 days) or Lunar year (360 tithis, about 354.36 solar days) and is called a Savan year or the civil year. Nowadays it is not in use in any part of the world except for sacrificial purposes particularly for the Soma-yajna.

2) In Surya Siddhanta, the Solar month is said to have 30.4382266 days (30. gh 26.17.37) and the Lunar month has 29.5305833 days (29. gh 31.50.6). The difference of 0.907643 days (gh 54.27.31) gets corrected by one intercalary month after every 32 months and 15.246 days. For the pure Lunar year of about 340 days, the panchangs in India are corrected to be in line with the solar year by adding one adhika masa every 3 years or so.

3) By taking a month of 30 days and a year of 360 days, one cannot go by the universally used Gregorian calendar. If the 360 day year rather than the 365 day year is used for the mahadasa calculation, the gap between them would become more divergent with the dasa period, i.e. 6.25 days (365.25-360) after 1 year, 31.5 days (6.25x6) after 5 years, about 6 months after 35 years, a whole year after 70 years, and a native may have to celebrate his 72 birthday even while he has yet to complete his 71st year under Vimshottari dasa of the 365 day year.

4) The simplicity of calculation by dividing the year into months by multiplying by 12 and further converting into days by multiplying of 30 in the calculation of the dasa balance at birth and sub sub (DBAS) dasa periods (in Brihat Parasara Hora Sastra, Phala Deepika, Tables of Bhukti and Anthara etc) cannot be understood as taking a 360 day year - 12 months x 30 days per month. The year is taken as 365.25 days. The actual dates computed by rigorous calculations by taking actual days of the months and by this simple method differ only by a few days; accurate practically for all astrological purposes.

4. The KP astrologers and the vast, overwhelming majority of Vedic astrologers, except some like Sadasiva Giri, Hira Gulrajani, N. Sundara Rajan, Rohini Ranjan, have used the regular solar year of 365 days. Since the 360 day year dasa option is already incorporated in the SWs like KPAstro 3.0, JHora, the statistical study can be done easily to prove whether the 360 day year gives the better results. The bottom line is that one can use what works better for him as an individual astrologer, while simultaneously respecting the personal preferences of others.

Dear KanakJi,

Thanks for the email notification on the magazine release. I would like to provide you a feedback on the design on this issue. The digital design of last few issues are not pleasing to read and also space wastage. Our earlier magazines layout and design was of best in class but the latest few issues of magazine is not so. This is just my humble opinion.

Regards,
K.Babu

Dear Sri Kanakji

My humble request to your consideration: Previously the ezine design enables us to take the prints of interested and research articles for keeping a hardcopy in the file for ready reference.

But the present design particular this month contains left side a design for every article with color intensive, hence any prints on inkjet printers would draw the entire catridge ink. and become very costly for printing. HENCE MY HUMBLE REQUEST FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION TO INTRODUCE THE SAME METHOD PREVIOUSLY USED ONLY FOR ARTICLES. SO THAT WE CAN TAKE PRINTS OF ARTICLES WRITTEN BY SRI TINWINJI, ETC.

Regards
OVN Murthy

Dear Kanakji,

Noted the bottleneck faced by Sri O V N Murthy in printing the articles; I'll switch over to a simple design where printing will not be a problem or will not guzzle inkpot.

Preserving the KPEZ in digital format as PDF file would be easier, handy than printing and filing the articles. May be the readers would like to preserve it as an archive for future reference. I would like to highlight the advantage of PDF file as follows:

- 1] No need for printing the articles,
- 2] Sharing either full or a specific article between friends, relatives is possible,
- 3] Portable, even thousands of KPEZ issues can be stored and carried in CD,
- 4] Does not have disadvantage of paper format i.e. print colour fading, paper colour fading, no need to worry about white ants, silver fish spoiling the printed book or damage due to fire, rain etc.

My suggestion to your goodself is that when a series of articles authored by an eminent scholar is complete, we can introduce his exclusive articles into a separate eBook to KP users so that it can serve as an exclusive reference. In such case it will eliminate the necessity to print the articles every month and file it.

It is only a suggestion; from next issue the design will be made simple retaining its elegance.

I am a Professional KP Astrologer since 1994 and doing some service to the mankind by the Marvellous Method founded by Our Guruji KSK.

I am an ardent reader of your KP E-ZINE for the past four months and I have downloaded your E-Zine for the month of January 2008, March 2008, May 2008, June 2008, July 2008 and August 2008. I am very much worried for not getting the issues of Feb 2008 and April 2008 till date. We, the KP followers are very much pleased to hear the announcement today. Thank you and My Ashirvadhams to you for your best efforts to encourage others through KP E-Zine.

Shall I send any article to your E-Zine in the Centenary Birth Year of Shri K.S.Krishnamurtiji (Late), Founder of the KP Stellar Theory, Which is universally accepted one.

Thanking you, Sir

My Dear Kanakji,

I hv gone thro ur August 2008 issue of k.p e-mag. The get up is fine and articles are upto standard. The articlle on vimshottari system is thought provoking. In my opinion I do agree with our beloved guruji sri K.S.K., the 365 days a year a year for Vimshottatari System as he has divided 360 deg into 249 subs and Sun"s daily motion is nearly a degree. So in our SUBLORD System we can follow 365 days for VIMSHOTTRI SYSTEM. I will also contribute an article to the issue. I Wish u all the best in ur future venture. GOOD-LUCK

Yours sicearly.

Vaikari Ramamurthy.

Esteemed Mr Kanak Bosmia I'm sure there will be many readers who, like me, will be early waiting for your series on inflation and economic conditions. U Tin Win's series for beginners is like having a personal teacher, patiently explaining all the basics. Mr A. Devaraj's systematic and thorough account of a horoscope reading according to KB method is memorable and very instructive. Thank you again Mr. Bosmia and the learned contributors for a great learning resource.

Dear Kanak,

Best of luck with your new server. It is very generous of you to provide all back issues of KPEzine for free. Curiously, I had visited your site just a few days ago and had wished the back issues were available so, I will look forward to your new site.

By the way, have you ever considered writing a good, basic tutorial on the KP System from your personal point of view? I think it would be very valuable to everyone. Especially me!

Best regards,

Dear Editor,

I am very happy to see many Research and informative articles in the KP Ezine and the decision taken by Sri Kanak ji to keep all the old Ezines on the website for the benefit of the KP Astrologers for reference and downloading is laudable. I request the Editor to segregate the articles according to topic wise for reference purpose which could be useful for those who require for their research purpose in different new fields in KP may borrow the knowledge from these articles.

Article of Sri Tinwin ji – KP for beginners part 5 significantors is very exhaustive and all points were covered without any missing. Most of the doubts about the significantors were cleared by going thr this article. The grading of significantors with a new model table covering all points in one table is excellent. A research Article published in KPAF Souvenir about Review on effect of Pluto by Sri Tinwin is very clear about the role of Pluto without giving lot of emphasis on the negative results of the dwarf planet with number of illustrations. Articles on brain tumour and A note on 365 vs. 360 days in Vimsottari Dasa is very informative. Article of Joining a Job by Sri Vijay ji is very informative in using Time Charts in horary predictions like Natal Chart is very interesting.

Importance of Fruitful Significators

1. An event happens during the joint period of DBAS of the significators of houses under consideration. Many a time many planets and even all the 9 planets become the significators of the relevant house. In cases where the significators of the houses under consideration exceed more than four, the really beneficial or fruitful significators amongst them are to be found out after eliminating the unimportant significators which are only tempters. This is really a very difficult task even for an experienced KP astrologer and most failures in prediction are mainly due to the wrong selection of fruitful significators. The KP analysis starts from the cuspal sub lord for a matter that ends as an event with the help of fruitful significators.

First Method

2. The first method of selecting fruitful or beneficial significators is to see the cuspal sub lord of the concerned houses, and to check which of the significators are posited in their stars. Those significators who are in the stars of such cuspal sub lords can be taken straightaway as fruitful significators. The rest can be dropped or eliminated by further consideration.

3. The sub lord of the significator is the deciding factor regarding the matters of the star lord and planet. If the sub lord is harmonious to the matters indicated by the star lord and planet, the significator gives favorable results. It is to take the planet which is posited in the sub of a significator whose star is not tenanted. If the sub lord is detrimental to the matters indicated by the star lord and planet, the significator does not give favorable results. It is to take the planet which is posited in the sub of a significator whose star is not tenanted.

4. It is to find out whether a planet is a strong significator or a weak significator in the order in which one makes the selection of the significators. For example of marriage, if a planet is not at all connected with houses 2, 7, 11, except that one of the significators aspects it, then it is a weak planet. If the sub lord of a planet is a strong significator of the matter under consideration, then that planet is to be selected as a fruitful significator. But if the sub lord is one of the weak significators, then it is a weak planet.

Second Method

5. The second method is to select the fruitful significators with the help of the Ruling Planets (RPs) invented by Guruji KSK. According to "The RPs at the time of query would be the RPs at the time of fructification of the event expected.", the significators which are in common with the RPs are to be selected as the fruitful significators for the event in question to get the correct result.

6. In their order of preference or strength, the following planets are called the RPs of the time when the chart is cast and judgment undertaken:

- 1) Asc star lord
- 2) Asc sign lord
- 3) Moon star lord
- 4) Moon sign lord
- 5) Day lord

7. The day is from sunrise to next sunrise. The RPs are to be taken at the time of query or judgment. Their help should be sought only when there is an urge to decide the significators which can bring out the event under consideration. The RP which is in the star or sub of a retrograde planet should be omitted and to take the remaining.

8. If Rahu or Ketu is in conjunction or aspect with the RP, or if it occupies the sign owned by the RP, then Rahu and/or Ketu should be included in the RP.

9. Some KP followers have added two more RPs of Asc sub lord and Moon sub lord. For the purpose of selecting the fruitful significators, the lesser number of RPs, i.e. the original 5 seems more appropriate.

10. Even here, it is to select such of those planets which are deposited in such a sub that contributes to the matter concerned. It is also to reject such a planet which happens to be both the significator of positive and negative houses, for example of marriage, the positive houses 2, 7 and 11, and also the significator of the negative houses 12 to 2 or 7 or 11, i.e., 1 or 6 or 10. If the dasa of such significator is running, in a few cases it may not give marriage; and so the next period alone may give marriage. So that method of selection of fruitful significators is always useful.

Third Method

11. The third method of selecting fruitful significators is to check each significator whether its sub lord is included in the list of the significators. If yes, such a planet can be selected as a fruitful significator or else dropped.

General Rules

12. As a general rule, all those significators which signify 12th to the relevant houses under consideration should be rejected. The planet whose sub lord is the significator of the house negating the house concerned i.e. in the 12th to the house concerned should be rejected as an unfruitful significator. The planets which are in 6, 8, 12 to the concerned house are supposed not to contribute to the matters signified by such houses. Similarly any house which is in 6, 8 and 12 to any house are supposed to negate the matters governed by the house concerned.

13. Preference should be given to Rahu or Ketu, if it represents any significator. A planet which appears many times amongst the significators/RPs or connected with various significators as their star or sign or as a sub lord should be selected as the strongest to give the result. Conversely a planet which is not in the sub lords of the concerned houses should be treated as the weakest in producing the result.

Asif Ali Zardari fears for life
Sun, Aug 10 12:09 PM

London, Aug 10 (PTI) Asif Ali Zardari, who took over the reins of Pakistan's ruling PPP after the assassination of his wife Benazir Bhutto in December last year, feels that his life is in danger too. "I know I'm in danger.

Whoever killed her (Bhutto) wants to kill me," 54-year-old Zardari told 'The Sunday Times'. Bhutto, the two-time Premier, was killed in Rawalpindi, near the Pakistani capital Islamabad, on December 27 in a gun and suicide attack after addressing a huge rally of supporters ahead of the February 18 general elections in which her PPP bagged the maximum seats.

Pakistan President Pervez Musharraf had blamed the local Taliban commander Baitullah Mehsud for masterminding Bhutto's assassination, but PPP felt that there was a larger conspiracy behind it and sought the UN probe into the incident. After the assassination of Bhutto, Zardari was made the PPP Chairman, a role he shares with his teenage son Bilawal Bhutto Zardari who is currently studying in Oxford here.

Question: Will Asif Ali Zardari Assassinated?

date: 11/8/2008

Time: 06.00.48 PM

Place: L.G.Hospital Ahmedabad 23 N 00 72 E 36:

Rule for Assassination:

8th House : Infamy, accidental death, executions, Misery,

12th House: Crimes, Assassinations, Anxieties, Blackmail, Cheating, Clandestine Associates, Exiled persons, Misery, Misfortune, Moksha.

Rule:2

If 8 or 12th Sublord signifies 1, 5, 11 one can escape from fatal attack.

Analysis of Rule:1

8th Sublord is Mer in the star of Ket and sub of Jup.

Mer is in 3 lord of 1, 4. Ketu is in 2, Cinj with Sun in 2 lord of 3. Jup is in 7 lord of 7, 10. No planet in the star of Jup, and Jup is sublord of 4.

8th sublord not signifies 8, 12 at all. But signifies 1.

12th sublord is Moon. Moon is in the star of Mer and sub of Rahu.

Moon is in 6 lord of 2, no planet in the star of Moon and Moon is sublord of 5, 12. Mer is in 3 lord of 1, 4. Rahu is in 8, aspected by Sun in 2 lord of 3, no planet in the star of Rahu and Rahu is sublord of 10, 11.

12th sublord signifies 8, 12 and 1, 5, 11 too.

My opinion:

In general it is his fears only and there is no chance of any assassination attack on him. by chance if there is any attack he will survive untouched. God give him long life.

A bhava cuspal (starting) point getting connection or interlinks with one or more other cuspal bhavas cuspal points, in the K.B. system, is called the "Bhavas interlinks". A bhava's cuspal starting point is combined with the rasi lord, star lord, sub lord and sub sub lord etc,

In the "Beginners stage Astrology" was defined the horoscope response only the base of the Rasi lord. In the "Middle stage astrology" was calculated the response with the bhava's star lord. But the horoscope response are analyzed with the bhava's sub lord method are called the "senior stage astrology".

Through the bhava's sub sub lord, we can give the accuracy result of the horoscope is the "100% accuracy real position". But the bhava sub sub lord position will change within a seconds. So, ordinarily it is so hard to use the sub sub position in the routine period. (Good mathematical knowledge is required).

Beginners stage Astrology:

For example, in the olden days, if a birth took at the time of 10.00 AM in a place and at that time the aries lagna is starting and upto 12.00 PM the aries lagna will stand. In this way the response will be common, if we tell about the rasi lord.. My humble opinion is, this prediction will be only 20%.

Middle stage astrology:

In this period, for example, the aries lagna starting at 10.00 AM .Aswini 4 padhas, bharani 4 padhas and kiruthuigai first padhas are included in the aries rasi. The lagna will move upto 10.50 in the aswini star, upto 11.40 in the bharani star and upto 12.00 PM the lagna fall on the kiruthigai 1 padha.

Same response will not happen within the 50 minutes because in the mean time so many births will happen in the same town. All the birth can't enjoy the same benefit among his life. But we can give the 40% result, with the help of bhava star lord, rasi karakam, bhava karakam and kala chakram.

Senior stage astrology:

Now a days, for example we take at 10.00 AM the aries lagna will starting. Upto 10.50 AM the lagna will move in the aswini (Kethu) star. The aswini star was fabricated as a 9 divisions according the base of the kethu's vimsothari dasa. Thus the births are identified and make differentiate within least minutes.

In the aries lagna, 000 to 00.46.40 degrees are in the kethu star and kethu sub lord. The lagna will move 1 degree within 4 minutes. Here, the lagna will take the time nearly 3 minutes to move the 0.46.40 degree.

A lagna bhava and other 12 bhava's sub lords are give the various different results within a different of a minute. A bhava cuspal sub lord will change within a minute and simultaneously, the whole horoscope results will be change

Thus, we can get the 80% exact correct results through the bhava cuspal sub lord in the K.B. System.

In the K.B. system, the cuspal sub lord is the entrance of the bhava. We can fix the bhava's fate only through the it's bhava sub lord, i.e, entrance of the bhava..

I already explained that the cuspal sub lord is the stronger in the bhava cusp. A particular bhava cuspal sub lord gets connections with other bhavas through its star and sub lord and gives the good, bad or neutral results to its bhava. This is the rule to the bhava and this is called as bhava cuspal interlinks.

In the K.B. System, to the bhava or the questionable bhava

- (1) 1, 2, 3, 5, 9, 11 bhavas gives good
- (2) 6, 7 bhavas are give neutral benefits
- (3) 4, 8, 10, 12 bhavas are give bad results..

I will explain through the example

Now, we will take the 10th bhava as a questionable bhava. In the 10th bhava has a so many karakas within and now we will take only one karaka of profession. The profession will be normal and continues, if the 10th bhavam interlinks with the same 10th bhava.

A person can earn lot of money through his profession, when the 10th cusp sub lord inter links with the 2nd bhava, (i.e., the 2nd bhava is the 5th bhava from 10th bhava and 2nd bhava indicates the money).

A person can earn money, through the active physical hard work, if the 10th bhavam inter links with the 6th bhava. (I.e. the 6th bhava is the 9th bhava from the 10th bhava and 6th bhava refers his physical hard work).

The 1st bhava indicates the one's prestige (Lagna is the 12th bhava to the 2nd bhava) and can't get huge income. When the 10th sub lord inter links with the Lagna bhava, (ie, Lagna is the 4th bhava to the 10th) He can do his profession only for his prestige and can't earn lot of money through the profession.

A person can't give interest by the way of physical work, in his profession, when the 10th bhava inter links with the 5th bhava (5th Bhava is the 8th bhava from the 10th bhava and 5th bhava is the 12th bhava to the 6th bhava). The 5th bhava gives the happiness to the physical body. So, this person has not interest in his physical work profession and takes interest to spend his money and time with his friends, ladies, to the cinema and other entertainments. So, he can't give involvement to the profession.

A person can close his industry or his profession due to lack of money, when the 10th bhava inter linked with the 9th bhava (9th bhava is the 12th bhavam to the 10th bhava and 9th bhava is the 8th bhavam to the 2nd bhava)

I left to the Viewers about the other bhavas, how react with the 10th bhava.

Two basic rules are in the bhava cuspal inter links. These are

(1) A bhavam (A) inter linked with other bhava (B) and gets good or bad result to its (A) bhavam. This rules called the “Bhava cuspal inter links”.

(2) At the same time, other bhavas(B) inter links with a bhava(A) and this bhava (A) gets ‘the good or bad result through the other bhava karakas. This is called Bhava cuspal outer links” and also called Mathi (Dasa-bhukthi) to the (A) bhava. This incident will happen in the dasa, bhukthi period.

I explain this matter through the small example.

Just imagine, the 10th bhava cuspal sub lord inter linked with the 5th bhava. As per rule 1, the 10th bhava response will be collapse and this is called 10th bhava’s fate and it will act in his life in the period of 10th bhava sub lord’s dasa- bhukthi period.

But in other period, the 10th bhava gets some benefits by the other bhava’s inter links and if the other bhavas are also favor to the 10th bhava.

For example, if the 5th bhava cuspal sub lord inter linked with the 10th bhava, as per rule 2. Here, the 5th bhava indicates its karaka work of art, commission, position without physical work etc, .so, in the 5th bhava related dasa-bhukthi period, the 10th bhava act on the base of the 5th bhava.

So, in this period, a person can maintain his life or do his profession the cine field, fine arts or commission basis project etc,

From the above reference, we can understand that a person gets downward position when the 10th bhava inter linked with the 5th bhava and a person gets involvement to do his profession (5th house matter profession), when 5th bhava connected to the the 10th bhava .

I.e., If a Bus (10th bhava) runs over a person (5th bhava) a person will die. But a person (5th bhava) step into the bus (10th bhava) that person will reach his place safely, where he wants to go.

I can explain the above matter in the shortest way, here. The planets connected to the 10th bhava sub lord ,through its star lord and sub lord are having empowered to do the 10th bhava related activities. No planets in the star lord and sub lord of the 10th bhava sub lord of the planet, the 10th bhava cuspal sub lord only have a full power to do the 10th bhava oriented activities.

The bhava cuspal inter links are sort out as 3 categories.

These are; 1. Equal reaction, 2. Independent reaction, 3. Compound reaction.

Equal reaction:

If a planet, not to become a star lord or sub lord to the any bhava and a star lord of a planet also not to inter link with any other bhavas, such planets dasa-bhukthies periods, will not give notable kind of good or bad results to the any bhavas.

But this planet in the star lord if it is positioned in a particular bhava, sub lord of the planet may give a small level good or bad effect to the particular bhava. These inter links are not useful so much.

Independent reaction:

A planet is not positioned to any bhava’s sub lord. But that planet’s star lord and sub lord are inter linked with the other bhavas. Here, the sub lord act as a particular good or bad response to the star lord identified bhavas.

The response will be come out as under explained, if a planet being as a bhava cuspal sub lord and a planet’s star lord and sub lord are inter linked with other bhavas.

A planet sub lord gives good or bad results to the planet star lord inter linked bhavas and a planet inter linked bhavas. Particularly, in the planet dasa bhukthi period, the Mathi goes along with the fate and give the fate response or result so strong. These reaction and response are come out repeatedly.

Compound reaction:

Just imagine, a planet may be many bhava’s cuspal sub lord and the star lord of the planet also being a many bhava’s cuspal sub lord.

Now, the planet’s sub lord react as a huge level with the planet’s inter link bhavas and the planets star lord inter linked bhavas.

Here, this planet being as many bhava’s sub lord and it is act as a fate of all the inter linked bhavas and this reaction will give a power to one’s life style to uplift or go downward.

A person may get up-lift when the compound reactions in the permanent bhavas (1,2,6,7,10 bhavas) are connected to their 5,9,3,11th bhavas. As well as, a person definitely come down from his life style, when the compound reactions in the permanent bhavas are connected to their 4,8,12 bhavas

So, the readers are advised to handle this mixture reaction rule very keen observation.

Here, so far in this article, I have given so shortly about the bhavas cuspal inter links rule through the K.B. system. If any want to know briefly, please read the book, namely “APPLICATION OF CUSPAL INTER LINKS”, which was written by my Guruji Prasanna jothisha Mani “K.Baskaran, Madurai and it is useful so much to the readers.

Om Gajananam Namamhyam

During the KPAF, Hyderabad fortnightly meeting conducted on 23rd December 2007 the Forum discussed on 2nd house matters relating to become a Multimillionaire and financial success. All the members have actively discussed, 2nd house denotes Dhana Bhava and Kutumbhasthana. It represents money, earning capacity, financial success, increase of family, financial prosperity, speech etc.

That is the reason why first house sublord should be connected favourably to 6th expenditure of the opposite person whoever come into contact with us, is an income to the native, 10th house which is a Rajya Bhava (Profession) indicates professional success and income.

11th house is Labhasthana gains to the native hence in all combinations 11th house should involve to get better results that is in finance, health, marriage, birth of children, removal of problems and litigations, however for long longevity unless it is not a moveable sign it is compulsory of 11th house connection for favourable results. Hence to become a rich person / multi millionaire the 1st cuspal sub lord and 2nd cuspal sub lord ought to have connection with improving houses as follows:

For Multi Millionaire as per KP the combinations are that the --> 1st cuspal sublord should be connected to 2,6,10 & 11; and 2nd cuspal sublord should be connected to 2, 10 and 11 for becoming very rich.

Now we will analyse the Birth Charts of Four famous leading persons who become multi millionaires through their business and profession and established a leading role in the society.

Introduction

1. After having started reading the astrological books from July 1927, doing the research on the practical horoscopes from 1934, with the assistants from 1939, Guruji KSK found the method of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati in 1951 by Divine Grace and in 1958 he met Dr. B.V. Raman and explained his method. He published the first issue of the Astrology & Athrishta magazine on March 20, 1963, the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, 2 volumes in late 1966 by Sagar Publications and then the KP Readers I to VI in 1970-71 in his life time by Mahabala Publishers, Hariman Publications.

KP Reader I

2. Almost the whole KP Reader I is taken from the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. I, 1966. The "Preface and Introduction, Ayanamsa-Verification (pp 61-74), To make use of Krishnamurti Ephemerid and Casting of a Horoscope" and so on are added in the KP Reader I, 127-147. The "Table of Longitude and Latitude of various places (in India) (pp 68-92)", "Table showing the sub period of dasa" (pp 161-173) and "Fortuna" (pp 471-474) in the the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. I are not included in the KP Reader I.

KP Reader II

3. The whole KP Reader II is the reprint from the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. I, 1966, except the "Letters to the Author and An Interview with the Author" at the beginning of the book.

KP Reader III of 1971 Original / Old Edition

4. There are 2 parts, "Theoretical and Practical", with separate paging. In the "Theoretical Part" of the KP Reader III, the contents in pp 1-59 are taken from the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. I pp 475-533 and pp 60-76 from the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2 pp 1-17; then in pp 77-108, it is the continued write up about Leo to Pisces lagnas as it was written up to Cancer lagna only in the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2. After that, the "Sub Useful for Detailed Reading" is added in pp 105-8. The contents in pp 108-130 are taken from pp 18-42 of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2. The "Cusps and Subs- How to Judge" at the end of the "Theoretical Part", pp 131-144, is added. It is Guruji KSK's crowing part saying, "This discovery (of the sub-lord) has crowned me with success." simultaneously appearing in the KP Reader V pp 131-144 and KP Reader VI pp 77-87, which was not included in the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, 2 Volumes. There is not any significant change in the Theoretical Part.

5. Generally in the "Practical Part" of the KP Reader III, the contents in pp 1-107 are taken from the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2 pp 43-169. But the "Theft and Chances of Recovery" in pp 116-122 of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2 is not included in the KP Reader III and the "Theft and Recovery" in pp 234-236 of the Reader III is a shortened presentation. The contents in pp 148-181 are taken from pp 276-318 of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2 and it is more comprehensive in the Reader III, for instance "Overseas". "The Profession- KP Principles" etc are added in pp 182-198. The "Time of Transfer" in pp 318-320 of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2 with the "sub" in the order of significators is replaced by the write up without the "sub" with two example charts in pp 205-208. The "Politics" is presented in more details in pp 220-227 than a short presentation in pp 324-326 of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2. The contents in pp 228-236 are taken from 327-336 of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2. The additional write up on "Spiritual Life, Choice of Gems etc is added in pp 236-271. The contents in pp 271-347 are more or less the same in 336-348 of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2. One interesting reminder in p 371 of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2 is "not to carry away by any single statement, which will be similar to the story of blind men describing an elephant by feeling any one part of it". There are significant changes between the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2 and the Practical Part of KP Reader III.

KP Reader IV

6. The contents in pp 1-74 are taken from pp 170-228 of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2. At the end of Mars Dosha, in p 69, three important paras are added, starting "To cause difference of opinion,---". The "Marriage-Punarphoo" is added in pp 74-80 and the contents in pp 80-86 are taken from pp 249-254 of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2, pp 126-133 from pp 235-242 of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2. The example 2 for "Time of Marriage" is added in p 134. The contents in pp 205-206 are taken from pp 247-249 of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2. The content in pp 267-272 of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2 is shortened in pp 222-3 of KP Reader IV. The "Child Birth" in pp 209-223 of Reader IV is taken from pp 254-272 of the the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2. The "Child Birth- When" in pp 272-275 of the the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2 with the "sub" in the order of significators is not included in the KP Reader IV. Some more rules and examples on divorce, more than one marriage etc not included in the Krishnamurti Padhdhati 2 Volumes, are added in the KP Reader IV.

KP Reader V

7. The same "Theoretical Part" of the KP Reader III of 1971 is reprinted in pp 1-144 of the KP Reader V and the rest is about Transit in more details than in the Krishnamurti Padhdhati 2 Volumes.

KP Reader VI (first published in 1970)

8. Only around 15 pages in the introduction part are taken from the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 1. This Reader is the comprehensive Reader in addition to Reader III for practical prediction in deciding which cuspal sub-lord and which house grouping are for which matter.

Major Changes between KP 2 Volumes and KP Reader III of 1971

9. In the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2, it was ascertained whether Lagna is strong or the Moon sign is strong in the examples of pp 82, 89-91, 118, 255, 261-2, 264, 313, 316, and the Moon sign was taken as the first house in the two examples of pp 118 and 264.

10. However, based on further research and findings, Guruji KSK had modified “to consider always only Lagna and never the Moon sign”, giving the reasons in the KP Reader III, Old Edition, Practical Part, p 85 (New Edition pp 243-4), KP Reader III, Old Edition, Practical Part, p 259 (New Edition pp 432-3) and Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Preface, Astrological Tables for All by R. Eshwara Manu.

11. Accordingly those earlier writings “to consider whether Lagna is strong or the Moon sign is strong” in the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2 are deleted in the OE of the KP Reader III.

12. The inclusion of the word “sub” in the grade A & C of the order of KP significators of the following two examples and a write up in the 3rd example has caused a controversy of whether the sub is taken as a significator.

1) In the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2, pp 113-4, “According to Krishnamurti Padhdhati, one can borrow money during the dasas and bukthies of:

- a) planets in the star or “sub” of occupants of 6th house;
- b) occupants of 6th house;
- c) planets in the star or “sub” of lord of 6th house;
- d) the lord of 6th house;
- e) planets conjoined with or aspected by any of these planets.”

2) In the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2, , p 274, “Houses 2, 5 and 11 are to be judged (for child birth). Therefore follow the order below:-

- a) The planets tenanted in the constellations or “subs” of the occupants of the Bhavas 2, 5 and 11,
- b) Occupants of 2nd, 5th and 11th Bhavas,
- c) Planets in the constellations or “sub” of the lords of the houses 2, 5 and 11,
- d) Lords of 2, 5 and 11,
- e) Those conjoined with or aspected by any of significators.”

3) In the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2, 1966, pp 319-320, Now about the Transfer; consider houses 3, 10 and 12----- The 10th house is occupied by Venus. The constellations ruled by Venus are Bharani, Pubba and Poorvashada. Mercury is in the “sub” of Venus. So Mercury is the significator.”

13. Against the above 3 examples with the “sub”, there are 13 other examples of the A to E standard order of significators without mentioning “sub” in the same Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2, as follows: 1) p 57 for Badhaka house; 2) p 74 for 2,6,10,11 houses; 3) p 118 for 12,7,5,8; 4) p 139 for 4; 5) p 236 for 2,7,11; 6) p 244 for 2,7,11; 7) p 256 for 2,5,11; 8) p 269 for 2,5,11; 9) pp 276-7 for 4 & 3; 10) p 301 for 2,6,10; 11) p 303 for 2,6,10; 12) p 308 for 2,6,10 & 13) p 333 for 2,3,6,10 houses.

14. This controversy is cleared by 1) deleting the write up with “sub” in the 1st example chart, born on 9-3-1923, between the 1st para and 2nd para in p 61 of KP Reader III, Old Edition (between the 2nd para and 3rd para in p 218 of New Edition) and 2) excluding the 2nd and 3rd examples in the KP Readers.

15. As per the fundamental KP principle “The planet is the source, constellation indicates nature of the result and the sub is a “deciding factor” whether the matter is favorable or not.” (Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2, p 41), the sub is the deciding factor, not significator.

16. However, for better prediction results, the significators at all three levels of planet, star and sub are to be jointly considered like C. R. Bhatt (Nakshatra Chintamani, Further Light on Nakshatra Chintamani), K.M. Subramaniam (Sub Lord Speaks articles), Kanak Bosmia, Umang Taneja (Nadi Astrology: Accurate Predictive Methodology), and in some cases, the houses strongly signified at the sub level only, although not signified in the first two levels, can give the desired result.

Major Changes between KP 2 Volumes and KP Reader III -VI

17. More details for practical prediction in deciding which cuspal sub lord and which house grouping are for which matter, for instance judging the 12th cusp sub lord for foreign going, the sub lords of 7th and 2nd cusps for more than one marriage. For example, for foreign going more emphasis is given to the signification of 3,9,12 houses by the 9th cuspal sublord other than judging houses 3,9,12 in Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2. In judging the cuspal sublord, the sublord's star and sub become more crucial than the cusp star or sub.

18. The experimental application of the Western aspects and progression, and the use of traditional navamsa charts, exaltation, debilitation, vargottama, malefics, benefics, friend and enemy etc in judging the strength of planets are significantly reduced.

19. The general rule “if a planet occupies a sign which is the 6th or 8th or the 12th from the sign which it owns, it loses strength to offer such results as are indicated by that house, but will give results just opposite to the indications of the house owned by it.” in page 356 of the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2 is not taken off in the KP Readers, and it appears the same in page 290 of the OE and page 465 of the NE of the KP Reader III.

Minor Differences between 1971 Edition and New Edition of KP Reader III

20. The Guruji KSK's pictures of 1) The author, Prof. K.S. Krishnamurti coaches up his son in Steller Astrology, 1952- June,

2) Dr. Cherian, His Excellency, the Governor of Bombay confers the title Jyothish Marthand on Prof. K.S. Krishnamurti, and offers a Gold medal for the outstanding service done in Stellar Astrology (on behalf people for giving lectures, not for the KP 2 volumes as a thesis), 3) Mr. T. Sivapragasam, S.M.S.P.J.K., M.B.E., O. St J., pins the gold medal to the author on 29-6-70 in a large gathering and confers the title Sothida Mannan, and 4) Jyothish Praveen Sri A. Siva patham of Ceylon welcomes the author to Ceylon where the author delivered lectures daily, Nov 1970 are no more in the New Edition of the KP Reader III.

21. A new preface "ABOUT THE AUTHOR" gives the life sketch of our Gurujee KSK who passed away in March 1972. The KP Reader III of 1971 and other Readers were published in his life time. The New Edition of Reader III is revised to some extent.

22. The paging for the 2 parts in the Old Edition is not continuous and it is continuous in the New Edition. There is no change in the Theoretical part, pp 1-150 in the NE corresponding pp 1-144 of the OE. The Practical part has 1-356 pages in the OE and 153- 540 pages in the NE.

23. In page 185 of NE, the "malefics and 6 or 8 to 2 or 6 or 10 house" are omitted and more importance is given to "12 to 2 or 6 or 10, i.e. 1,5, and 9".

24. From page 219 of NE, it is found that Gurujee KSK has given the results of Horary no 16 (of 108). The evolution of horary no 108 to 249 is explained in the KP Reader VI.

25. In page 314 of NE under "Overseas-Astrological Analysis", it is said, "One will have the opportunity to go overseas only when the 12th cusp sublord is a significator of houses 3 or 9 or 12..." In the OE, "To ascertain whether one will have the opportunity to go overseas or not, the houses 3,7,9 and 12 are to be considered". The 7th indicates break in journey and in old days one had short breaks in Aden, Cairo before reaching London by ship. This is understandable as means of travel abroad had changed after 1960.

26. In page 339 of NE, in judging a matter signified by a house, the write up of considering the signlord, star and sub of the cusp along the order of significators is replaced by the lord of the sign, the star and sub only. In page 345 of the NE, below the para "What next", the traditional rules of Karaka planets for different profession giving positive results during their dasa period, malefics and taking Moon sign as first house are omitted.

27. In page 372 of the NE (202 of the OE), the para "When this position arises, our Gurujee has suggested to us to eliminate those which are not ruling planets at time of judgment," casts a doubt that the KP Readers contain text or examples not written by Gurujee KSK.

28. In page 376 of the NE, the para "For transfer we have to consider houses 3,9,12..." is changed from "3,10 12" in the OE.

29. Other KP Readers I, II, IV,V & VI are found just reprinting without changes.

Observation

30. As Shri Raichur has said the KP Readers I to VI are more comprehensive and better than the original Krishnamurti Padhdhati 2 Volumes in all aspects. It's not important whether some examples are written by others and the real thing is what is written and approved by Gurujee KSK to learn KP. Maintaining the errors and mistakes as untouchable is the proof of the originality of Gurujee KSK's work.

Original Ascendant - Moon Connection BTR Technique May 27, 2005

1. Rule: If there is a connection between the ASCENDANT sublord and MOON starlord, then the birth time is correct, else it is incorrect. (Astro secrets and KP, Vol 2, 2003, pp. 80 – 85)

2. This rule was applied on 300 AA sample records. Here is the summary of the results.

(Data rated "AA" from birth certificate or birth record are the most accurate obtainable.)

Description	Passes	Fails
AA TOB Records	247 (82%)	53 (18%)
AA (-30 min)	252 (84%)	48 (16%)
AA (-25)	233 (78%)	67 (22%)
AA (-20)	239 (80%)	61 (20%)
AA (-15)	228 (76%)	72 (24%)
AA (-10)	243 (81%)	57 (19%)
AA (-5)	235 (78%)	65 (22%)
AA (+5)	245 (82%)	55 (18%)
AA (+10)	235 (78%)	65 (22%)
AA (+15)	240 (80%)	60 (20%)
AA (+20)	239 (80%)	61 (20%)
AA (+25)	248 (83%)	52 (17%)
AA (+30)	242 (81%)	58 (19%)
Total	3120 (80%)	774 (20%)

3. Conclusion: For any TOB from AA record to AA +/- 30 min by 5 min intervals, it is accepted by 76%-84%, on average by 80%. As it is significantly biased or skewed to the acceptance of a wide range of TOB, using the connection between ASCENDANT sublord and MOON starlord is not a reliable technique for rectifying birth time.

Modified Ascendant - Moon Connection BTR Technique August 23, 2008

4. Rule: If the sublord of the ASCENDANT appears as the starlord lord of MOON and the sub-sub lord of the ASCENDANT appears as the sublord of MOON, then the ASCENDANT is deemed to be exact.

5. This rule was applied on 304 AA sample records. Here is the summary of the results.

Description	Passes	Fails
AA TOB Records	2 (1 %)	302 (99%)
AA (-30 min)	3 (1%)	301 (99%)
AA (-25)	7 (2%)	297 (98%)
AA (-20)	4 (1%)	300 (99%)
AA (-15)	4 (1%)	300 (99%)
AA (-10)	3 (1%)	301 (99%)
AA (-5)	6 (2%)	298 (98%)
AA (+5)	4 (1%)	300 (99%)
AA (+10)	1 (0%)	303 (100%)
AA (+15)	5 (2%)	299 (98%)
AA (+20)	4 (1%)	300 (99%)
AA (+25)	6 (2%)	298 (98%)
AA (+30)	4 (1%)	300 (99%)
Total	53 (1%)	3899 (99%)

6. Conclusion: For any TOB from AA record to AA +/- 30 min by 5 min intervals, it is rejected by 98%-100%, on average by 99%. As it is almost cent percent biased or skewed to the rejection of a wide range of TOB, using the modified connection between ASCENDANT and MOON is not a reliable technique for rectifying birth time.

OM VIGNESHWARAYA NAMAH

Now-a-days, the anxiety of parents are enormous with reference to the education of their children. The educational demands and aspirations are very high. After 1960s, the number of children are much lesser in a family where the number of children are 2 to 3 in a family, when compared to that of 1960s and earlier.

When parents are able to afford a decent education for their children in an already truncated family, if an educational line is broken for a child, the anxiety and the agony of the parents cannot be measured.

The horoscope chart illustrated below is that of a native, who failed in the 10th standard (SSC) and then had a break in education. Later the educational pursuits commenced again.

Break in study

Saturn is the 4th CSL and 4th Bhava lord. Saturn is in 11th and lord of 3,4, in Rahu star and own Saturn sub. Rahu is in 7 and its signlord Mercury is in 2nd and lord of 8,11. Saturn is strong by being in own sub.

Running VMD is that of Venus, who is in 3, lord of 7 and 12. There is Mercury in Venus star. Venus is in the star and sub of Rahu, who is in 7th house in Gemini signifying Mercury, who is lord of 8 and 11 in 2nd house. Rahu is strong by being in own star.

Education went well up to 10th standard and the native just failed to get through the SSC examinations. During that period native ran Ven-Rah-Rah. Rahu in Rahu star in Gemini duly aspected by Mercury should make the native struggle in education because of the 8th connection of Mercury and 12th connection of Venus.

KP Rule for education up to SSC is to judge the 4th CSL Saturn. Since Saturn signifies 4 and 11 houses (besides aspecting 9th house), it could be concluded that College education is promised for the native.

Mental inclination to study

Mental inclination to study is seen from the 3rd cusp. Ketu is the 3rd cusp sub lord. Ketu is occupant of 1st house in own star and signlord is Jupiter and in the sub of Jupiter. Hence Ketu signifies Jupiter strongly. Jupiter is placed in 12th and lord of 2,5 and in Saturn star and Mars sub. Saturn is in 11th and lord of 3,4. Mars is occupant of 3rd cusp and lord of 1,6. Ketu is conjoined with Mercury in Sagittarius. Mercury has got connection with 8th and 12th signifying impediments.

Hence the native's mental inclination to study gets some jolt at times.

Continuance of Study

After failing to clear 10th Standard in 1998, the native sat at home for a long time i.e., up to 2003 July, the native started to attend private School/college for clearing 10th standard, Intermediate (12th standard) and subsequently passed both 1st and 2nd year of degree course. He is currently pursuing the 3rd and final year of the Degree course.

The Dasha period during July 2003 was Venus-Saturn-Saturn. Saturn in 11, lord of 4, is the lord and CSL of 4th house and hence Saturn commenced his educational pursuits

Study in B.Com (Commerce)

4th CSL Saturn is in Rahu star. Rahu in own star in Gemini represents Mercury, the significator of Commerce. Besides, Mercury aspects Rahu.

Dasha running is that of Venus. Mercury is in Venus star. Hence Venus-Saturn period helped the native to go in for College education by the signification of 3,4,11.

Hope the analysis provided shall be of interest to the esteemed readers. A KP cannon for education is a perfect panacea for all Astro-lovers and KP followers alike. Long Live KP. At the feet of Guruji KSK

(D) - House Owner

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars.

One of my important guest's visit was overdue. I received a call on Thursday, 21-08-2006 from somebody else that the guest was reaching to me on Saturday (Aug 23, 2008). Out of curiosity, I thought to cross check it by KP and got motivated to analysis the arrival of the guest on Friday: Aug 22, 2008 afternoon.

The time chart was casted at Aug 22, 2008 at 16-27-34 Hrs IST' at 12N51, 77E40. I did rotate the chart to the 11th house for the guest, known to us.

The rotated chart is presented herewith.

Coordinates of judgment:

- In the case of someone's arrival, primary function is the travel (3H), which the person has to undertake. Thus, 3rd cusp indicates the aspect of traveling. In case, if travel has to materialize to reach the destination, the 3rd cusp should have linkage to the 11th house.
- In case, if 3rd cusp is connected with the negative cusps/houses, the prospects of traveling get curtailed.

The analysis of the chart:

A brief snapshot of analysis is presented herewith.

1. Examine Moon and Lagna

Moon is a strong planet, as it does not have any planet in its star, hence its placement shall be important. Moon is placed in 6th house which being in 4th house from 6th house, makes it ill placed and thus cause obstructions to the travel. At the stellar level, Moon falls in the star of Venus placed in 10th house in conjunction with the Sun who is the sub of Moon, thereby not indicating the prospects of travel.

Looking at the disposition of the Moon, I was skeptical of the coming of the guest. I also noticed that Moon was the sub-lord of the 8th cusp, which confirmed my initial observation. Thus, I did not find the guest having mental inclination for travel.

Lagna owns Venus as the sub-lord. Venus falls in its own star and the placement of Venus in 10th house did not portend possibilities of his coming. Ketu as the sub-lord of Venus gets placed in 9th house, not connecting 3-11th houses.

Interestingly, neither of Lagna and Moon find any connection with the 3rd house, thus the guest's coming over to me was almost looking denied.

2. Examine 3rd cusp

It was pertinent to look at the 3rd cusp closely to see the possibilities of travel in particular.

Jupiter lords the 3rd cusp as the sub-lord. While the retrogression of Jupiter is indicative of the delays and unforeseen negativities, its placement could be seen particularly as Jupiter is a strong planet because of having no planet in its star. Here, Jupiter is placed in 2nd house, which negated the 3rd house of travel and thus denied prospects of traveling.

Looking from the stellar level, Jupiter falls in the star of Venus placed in 10th house with its sub-lord placed in 3rd house. As Rahu connects itself to the 3rd house, let it be looked into more details. Rahu is a strong planet as not having any planet in its star, thus its linkage of 3rd cusp with the 3rd house by its own placement does indicate the desire of the guest for coming over to us. From the stellar level, Rahu falls in the star and sub of Mars and Mars's placement in 10th house does not point to the traveling ultimately. If looked from the disposition of Rahu through Saturn and Mars as well, no link of 3rd cusp is found with the 11th house.

From the above analysis, it was inferred that the travel of the guest might not materialize.

3. Examine the 11th cusp for final assessment

11th cusp is Venus, and as analyzed in the preceding paragraphs, Venus does not link to the 3rd house. Thus, the travel of the guest was not destined.

4. Examine the Dasha spread

Venus-Sun-Moon was the dasha running at the time of prashna. Note that the antar-dasha lord was Moon and as analyzed in section #1, the prospects of traveling were not confirmed at all.

Thus, it was understood that the guest was not to travel and reach us.

5. Facts of the case

As indicated by the planetary configuration in the prashna chart, neither the guest reached us nor was any call to us.

Conclusion:

I conclude herewith with my sincere thanks to Prof. Krishnamurthy, who has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

1. The rulers for liver trouble and cancer by Bills, Cornell and Lehman are as follows:

- 1) liver trouble: Jupiter, Sagittarius, 5, 9th houses, Saturn and Mars;
- 2) cancer disease: Cancer sign, Moon and Saturn.

2. In the attached chart, Jupiter is in 5, l/o 2 (Maraka), 11 (Badhaka), 12 (Moksha). In 5, Jupiter is conj. Mars l/o 3, 10 and Venus l/o 4, 9. Jupiter and Mars are opposite Moon in 11, l/o 7 is opposite Jupiter, Mars and Venus. Saturn is in 9, l/o 1. No planet is in the star of Saturn, which is the sublord of 4, 10 cusps. Jupiter aspects Saturn in 9. Saturn aspects Moon in 11. The 7th cusp of Maraka house falls in Cancer sign, which is aspected by Saturn.

3. The 6th cuspal sublord is Venus in 5, l/o 4, 9. Venus is in the star of Mars in 5, l/o 3, 10 and in the sub of Moon in 11, l/o 7. No planet is in the star of Moon, which is the sublord of 9, 12 cusps.

4. The 8th cuspal sublord is Jupiter in 5, l/o 2, 11, 12. Jupiter is in the star of Rahu in 1 and in the sub of Mercury in 4, l/o 5, 6, 8. Rahu is aspected by Jupiter and in the star of Jupiter. Rahu's signlord Saturn is in 9, l/o 1. No planet is in the star of Saturn, which is the sublord of 4, 10 cusps. No planet is in the star of Mercury, which is the sublord of 5th cusp and so Mercury is a strong significator of 5.

5. It is the typical chart of liver cancer. But he died at the age of 90 on February 17, 1986 (Sat-Ven-Rah-Sun DBAS). Here it is worthy to note that the Ascendant sublord is Jupiter, the same of 8th cusp, and Jupiter's sublord Mercury's signification of 5 in support of 1, 5 signification by the planet Jupiter and star Rahu is supposed to give him a long life despite of Jupiter's signification of Badhaka, Maraka and Moksha. In this chart 11th is Badhaka and not helpful for longevity. Another thing is that the TOB 19:09 GMT of May 11 (00:23 LMT <5:14 East> of May 12 in India), used in this analysis as per courtesy of the AstroDatabank, is more appropriate than another circulating TOB 19:16 GMT of May 11 (00:30 LMT of May 12) for the justification of long life and 6th cusp signification.

6. The signification of dasa lords at the time of his death is as given under:

- 1) Dasa lord Saturn 9, l/o 1. No planet is in the star of Saturn, which is the sublord of 4, 10 cusps. Saturn is in the star of Rahu in 1 and sub of Jupiter in 5, l/o 2, 11, 12. Rahu is aspected by Jupiter and in the star of Jupiter.

2) Bhukti lord Venus is in 5, l/o 4, 9. Venus is in the star of Mars in 5, l/o 3, 10 and sub of Moon in 11, l/o 7. No planet is in the star of Moon, which is the sublord of 9, 12 cusps.

3) Antara lord Rahu is in 1 and aspected by Jupiter and in the star of Jupiter in 5, l/o 2, 11, 12. Rahu is in the sub of Venus in 5, l/o 4, 9.

4) Sookshma lord Sun is in 3, in own star and sub of Mars in 5, l/o 3, 10.

7. It is found that the house 4 (end of everything) and 10 (retirement from this world) became the death inflicting houses in combination of Badhaka (11), Maraka (2, 7) and Moksha (12) houses.

8. This is the horoscope of great thinker Shri Jiddu Krishnamurti who left India first time for England in April 1911 (Ven-Jup DB signifying 3, 9, 12, 7) and visited mother land last time in November 1985 (Sat-Ven DB signifying 3, 9, 11) just before his death in US.

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars.

On 9 August 2008 I watched Mayavati ji on TV, and she asked a question: “If I become chief minister 4 times, then why I don't become prime minister?” at time exact 12.24PM at Lucknow- Dr.Ambedkar Park..

Her question struck in my mind and I had to try to check her question by the KP muhurat principle as follows.

1) Popularity/success in politics

A) Asc sublord should signify 1,5,9,11 for long life of event. (If you select Sthir swabhav lagna (fixed Sign) do not consider 9th)

B) 9th sublord should signify 9,10,11,2,6. Sublord should be Sat or Mar.

C) 10th sublord should signify 9,10,11,2,6. Sublord should be Sat or Mar.

D) 11th sublord should signify 9,10,11,2,6

E) Do not select Chara Lagna (Moveable Sign).

F) Dasa and Bhukti should signify 9,10,11,2,6.

Let us check Muhurat chart:

A) Asc sublord should signify 1,5,9,11 for long life of event. (If you select Sthir swabhav lagna (fixed Sign) do not consider 9th)

Asc sublord is Sat. Sat is in Ven star and sub.
Sat is in 10 lord of 4,5. No planet is in the star of Sat, which is the sublord of 1,3,7,9. Ven is in 10 lord of 1,8.
Sat indicate 1,5,9, and Maraka 7, but not signifies Badhaka, means medium Life.

B) 9th sublord should signify 9,10,11,2,6. Sublord should be Sat or Mar. 9th sublord is Sat. We have discussed about Sat above. Sat signifies 9. So there is a chance as per 9th sub lord.

C) 10th sublord should signify 9,10,11,2,6. Sublord should be Sat or Mar.

10 sublord is Jup. Jup is in the star of Ven and sub of Rahu.
Jup is in 3 lord of 3,6. Ven is in 10 lord of 1,8. Rahu is in 4, Rahu is in the sign of Sat, Sat is in 10 lord of 2,4,5. No planet in the star of Sat, which is the sublord of 1,3,7,9.
Jup signifies 9,10,2,6.

D) 11th sublord should signify 9,10,11,2,6

11th sublord is Mar, in the star of Sun and sub of Rahu.
Mar is in 11 lord of 2,7. Sun is in 10 lord of 11. Rahu is in 4, Rahu is in the sign of Sat, Sat is in 10 lord of 2,4,5. No planet in the star of Sat and sublord of 1,3,7,9.

11th sublord signifies 9,10,11,2.

Running dasa is Jup. We have discussed above, and Jup signifies 9,10,2,6. This indication is good, and this dasa runs till 21/12/2014.

Running Bhukti is Ven till 1/7/2009. And India parliament election will completed before this time, so it is very important to check this bhukti. Ven is in the star of Ketu and sub of Sat.

Ven is in 10, Lord of 1, 8, Ket in 10, Ketu is Conj with Sun, which is 10 lord of 11. Sat is in 10 lord of 4,5. No planet in the star of Sat, which is the sublord of 1,3,7,9.

So in my opinion, as per the above muhurat, she can become a PM of India during Ven Bhukti running till 1/7/2009.

Dear Kanakji,

You are not up dating any articles...keep some good articles on astrology,vastu etc..some good articles in in k.p. system is good.

Ramesh.L.V.S.S

Dear Shri Kanakji,

Feed back of KP-Ezine Septr.08 issue. Your new series "Matters controlled by Rasis" (after Grahas) is quite welcome. Your Mundane astrology, many have already become true, latest being Taslima Nasreen's return to India, Already her freedom out of home confinement & her visit to abroad came true. Another prediction about Pakistan ex-President. General Musharaf's exit and about his honourable life after exit also came true. These are all to your crown. Let us hope for the good fate of present ruling party leader Mr.Zardari and Ms.Mayawati's chance of becoming PM as predicted by you in 9/08 E-Zine also turning to be true.

KP for beginners Part 5 and 6 by Mr.Tin Win is excellent and lucid. However, I request him to give example position of planets wherever necessary. His dealing with chronic diseases such as cancer etc., is in a scientific and illustrative way. My congrats to him.

I am very happy to find that "Prediction thro KB" has been restarted by Mr. A.Devraj, after a gap of few months. The method is quite interesting and I found that cuspal interlinks and its results were agreeable in some cases tested by me. I wish him to continue the series with model cases wherever necessary.

M/s O.V.N.Murthy, M.K.Viswanathan & others articles are all educative and I appreciate them. On the whole,KP-Ezine magazine is shining month after month.

My request on one point is that the articles may be in a running full page l as in the past instead of bisecting the page. This disturbs flow of reading and one has to go up & down each time for each page. The type of letters may also be one or two stages higher than the present, as it strains eye. Hope you will please consider this suggestion.

Hope that your effort to serve with your new web server to the readers will be successful and bring luck to you.

Wishing you all the best.

Astrologically yours,

K.S.V.Ramani(2-09-2008)

Respected Sir,

Your request to layout pages as full text flow single page has been taken care. From current OCT 2008 issue you will be able to read it with ease. Font size also has been slightly increased to facilitate strainfree reading to eyes.

Dear Kanak ji,

sat sri akaal. your both articles are excellant; Mayawati is next PM is a bold prediction. Zardari's fear of assassination is not true is also very good analysis.

Poola Murali

I am going through your articles in astrovision and e.zine. these are very interesting and eye opening. you have a very good grasp on the subject and have a knack of grasping the hidden secrets of astrology. I think your Ketu ,ust be very strong. I pray the almighty that he should bestow on u long life and prosperity. wishing u all the best.

Dear Kanakji,

I have recently joined to receive your KP-Zine magazine and the issues are very interesting and thought provoking. Your article on Bangladesh elections is really investigative. Though I have learnt KP from Sri Hariharan S/o of our Guruji my pre-occupation with a religious organisation, for want of time I could not pursue astrology further. Now I have some leisure time and I wanted to enrich my knowledge. With this in view I am again taking cues from Sri Hariharan who is always very well disposed towards me. I was given information about your magazine by Mr.K.S.V.Ramani and it turned out to be a good source of information about KP System by veterans in this field. I really thank you for your goodwill gesture to publish again the back issues that too free of cost. I am eagerly awaiting the release. Kindly help the new members at your earliest.

With regards,

Astrologically yours,

D.Krishnamurthy

Esteemed Mr Bosmia, Thank you for sharing with us the rules on political success and popularity together with practical applications, in addition to the rules on assisination. U Tin Win \ 's comparison of KP readers old and new editions is very useful for those of us who do not have access to old editions. His observations on liver cancer are also noteworthy. But the most useful article for me will be the one on the selection of fruitful signficators. The article series on the KB system and the research study on the BTR techniques are also very instructive. I can no longer log in in the usual way. I hope the problem is temporary. Tha Htu

Editor's Note

Dear KP Lovers,

Happy Diwali and Prosperous New Year to all Readers.

During the month of September'08, many readers faced trouble while "Logging-in" and "Downloading" KP-Ezine . Due to non-functioning of the Mail Server, mails had stopped, many others found the mails are bouncing back. However, most parts of the web is presently working satisfactorily and very soon everything will be OK. You will be able to download all Old Issues of KPEzine. I will inform you all, when I have completed uploading all old Issues. I am really very sorry for all this trouble.

I request once again, our esteemed astrologers/writers and readers to share their experiences with other KP lovers by writing good quality articles on K P. We are also looking for research based articles.

Your regular feedback has been very helpful in guiding the Magazine editorial board.

With warm regards,

Kanak Bosmia

1. Fixing the timing of event is the most difficult and important part of prediction. To get the basic idea in this regard, an example of timing has been discussed in this article.

Example Chart

2. Example Chart: Female born on 16 September 1983, 2:23:30 AM IST, 5:30 East of GMT, 79E57 23N10; Asc Cn 10:19:40, Moon Sg 18:41:27, New KPA 23:32:22 (Chart by KPAstro 3.0 is attached.)

Is marriage promised?

3. Marriage is promised as 7 cuspal sublord (CSL) Moon signifies 7, 11 in the following manner:

- 1) 7 CSL is Mo and no planet is in the star of Mo. So Mo is the strong significator of 7; (Kuppu Ganapathi, Vaikari Ramamurthy, Kanak Bosmia and others)
- 2) Mo is in 6 l/o 1; in the star of Ve in 1 l/o 4, 11;
- 3) Mo is in the sub of Ra in 11; aspected by Ju+ in 5 l/o 6, 9; signlord Ve in 1 l/o 4, 11;
- 4) Mo is aspected by Sa in 4 l/o 7, 8.

4. In judging marriage potential, the possibility of 2nd marriage and child birth also can be checked. The 2nd marriage rules are checked as under:

- 1) 7 CSL Mo is in the dual sign Sg and it signifies 7, 11. First rule is met.
- 2) 2 CSL Ma is in 1 l/o 5, 10; in the star of Me in 2 l/o 3, 12; in the sub of Ju in 5 l/o 6, 9. Second rule assuming the 2nd house as 2nd wife is not fulfilled as 2 CSL does not signify particularly 7 (legal bondage) and 11. So 2nd marriage is not promised.
- 3) 9 CSL Sa is in 4 l/o 7, 8; in the star and sub of Ra. Ra is in 11; aspected by Ju+ in 5 l/o 6, 9; in the star of Ma in 1 l/o 5, 10; signlord Ve in 1 l/o 4, 11. 9 CSL signifies 11, 9. Third rule assuming the 9th house as 2nd wife is satisfied.

House for 2nd Wife

5. There are two views on the house for 2nd wife as given under:

- 1) 2nd house is assumed as 2nd wife by- (Rationale: 2nd being 8th from 7th signifies death of first spouse or 7th house matters)

6. Child birth is promised as 5 CSL Ve signifies 2, 11, i.e. Ve is in 1 l/o 4, 11; in the star of Me in 2 l/o 3, 12; in the sub of Sa in 4 l/o 7, 8.

Fruitful Significators

7. In selecting the fruitful significators,

- 1) select the planets, only if both the significator and its sub lord signify the 2, 7 and 11 houses, and reject those planets in the sub signifying only 1, 6 and 10 as they are 12th house to the house 2, 7 and 11;
- 2) take the planets which are among the RPs at the time of judgment.

8. For the example chart, the significators for 2, 7 and 11 are given as under:

H No	A	B	C	D
2	Su, Me, Ma, Ve, Ke	Su, Me	Su, Me	Su
7			Ju	Sa
11	Sa	Ra	Mo	Ve

1) Among the significators for 2, only Ve in the sub of Sa signifying 7 is considered as a fruitful significator and all other Su, Ma, Me, Ke are rejected for the following reasons:

- a) Su and Me are in the sub of Ma signifying 1 (12 to 2) and 10 (12 to 11), without signifying 2, 7 and 11.;
 - b) Ma and Ke are in the sub of Ju signifying 6, without signifying 2, 7 and 11.
- 2) Among the significators for 11, Ra is rejected for being in the sub of Ju signifying 6, without signifying 2, 7 and 11.
- 3) Finally the fruitful significators for marriage are Ve, Ju, Sa and Mo.

Ruling Planets

9. The Ruling Planets on 29 Aug 2008 at 09-09-12 PM DST (5hr West of GMT) at 39N05, 77W09 are as given under:

Planet	Sign Lord	Star Lord	Sub Lord
Lagna	Ma	Ve	Ve
Moon	Su	Ke	Mo
Day Lord	Venus

- 1) Ma & Ke are in the sub of retrograde Ju and so they are rejected from the RPs.
- 2) It is to study whether the additional RPs of the sublords of Lagna and Moon are practically helpful in selecting the fruitful significators.

Fixing DBAS

10. Current running Dasa is Mo (from 03 Sep 2001 to 03 Sep 2011). As discussed above in point 3, Mo signifies 7, 11 and is the sub of Ve signifying 11. So Moon Dasa is capable of giving marriage.

11. In Mo Dasa, Ve Bhukti is chosen as shown below:

1) Current running Bhukti is Me (from 04 Jul 2007 to 03 Dec 2008). Me is in 2 l/o 3, 12; in the star of Su in 2 l/o 2; in the sub of Ma in 1 l/o 5, 10. Me is rejected for being in the sub of Ma signifying 1 (12 to 2) and 10 (12 to 11), without signifying 2, 7 and 11.

2) Next Bhukti is Ke (from 03 Dec 2008 to 03 Jul 2009). Ke+ is in 5 and no planet is in the star of Ke. Ke is conj with Ju+ in 5 l/o 6,9; in the star of Me in 2 l/o 3,12; signlord Ma is in 1 l/o 5,10; in the sub of Ju in 5 l/o 6,9. Ke is rejected for being in the sub of Ju signifying 6 (12 to 7), without signifying 2,7 and 11.

3) The following Bhukti is Venus (from 03 Jul 2009 to 03 Mar 2011). Venus in 1 l/o 4,11; in the star of Me in 2 l/o 3,12; in the sub of Sa in 4 l/o 7,8. Ve signifies 2,11 and in the sub of Sa signifying 7. Ve is also among the RPs. So Ve is selected as a fruitful significator for Bhukti.

12. In Ve Bhukti, the choice of Mo Antara is as explained below:

1) Su is in 2 l/ 2; in own star and sub of Ma in 1 l/o 5,10. It is rejected for being in the sub of Ma signifying 1 (12 to 20 and 10 (12 to 11), without signifying 2,7 and 11.

2) Mo signifies 7, 11 and in the sub of Ve signifying 11. Mo is among the RPs and so chosen as a fruitful significator for Antara.

13. In Mo Antara, Sa Sookshma is selected as shown under:

1) Ma and Ra are in the sub of Ju signifying 6 (12 to 7), without signifying 2,7 and 11 and so they are rejected;

2) Ju is not among the RPs;

3) Sa is among the RPs. Sa is in 4 l/o 7,8; in the star and sub of Ra in 11. Also taking into consideration of Punarphoo by aspect of Sa on Mo, Sa is selected as a fruitful Sookshma lord.

14. Thus Mo-Ve-Mo-Sa DBAS (Dec 4 to 13, 2009) is chosen as a possible period for marriage.

Transit

15. Generally an event happens during the joint DBAS period of the significators when transit agrees. Particularly at the time of event, Sun, Moon and joint period DBAS lords are generally found to be transiting-

1) mainly in the star or sub of the same joint period DBAS lords;

2) additionally in the star of the significators of the event (other than the joint period DBAS lords) in the horoscope.

16. It is supposed to check not all planets but only chosen DBAS lords whether they are transiting in the star or sub of the same DBAS lords. Here it is not open-ended to take the signification of transiting DBAS lords which is not promised in the natal chart for them. And then for accurate timing, it is to choose the transiting Sun and Moon, which are mostly found in the star or sub of Sookshma lord at the time of event. For slow moving planets, in addition to stars and subs, the bhavas they are transiting may be also taken into account and needless to say the subs will decide the signification of transiting planets. (KP Reader V, 2004, page 163: "One should not always calculate the Ascendant for the place of birth unless the native is permanent in his birth place.")

17. During the chosen Mo-Ve-Mo-Sa DBAS (Dec 4 to 13, 2009), a favorable transit for marriage after 13:07:22 PM IST on 06 Dec 2009 is as follows:

Planet	Sign Lord	Star Lord	Sub Lord
Su	Ma	Me	Ve
Mo	Mo	Sa	Ju
Ve	Ma	Sa	Mo
Sa	Me	Su	Ve

After long time Pakistan, has a 'Democratic' President and Prime Minister. I want to discuss the Swearing-in chart of President Asif Ali Zardari with some new thoughts and new rules.

Some times we have found that even if Asc sublord of Swearing-in chart indicate Badhaka, Maraka, then too, PM or President complete their Terms. After finding this anomaly, I started thinking more, to come up with more 'accuracy' in Mundane KP Astrology. Keeping this issue in mind, for research purposes, I am going to discuss some "New" Rules.

Rule:1

Asc. sublord of Swearing-in Chart signifying 2,7,12+ Badhaka, a person will NOT complete his Term. It will happen during, DBA of 2,7,11 + Badhaka significators.

Rule:2

If Ruling Planets at the time of Swearing-in Chart(Asc signlord- Asc starlord, Moon signlord- Moon star lord, Day lord) tally with the Country chart's Ruling Planets and the running (DBA) in Country's Chart, then the person WILL complete his Term. We also have to examine the charts in 'reverse' way. If Ruling Planets in the Country Chart(Asc signlord- Asc starlord, Moon signlord- Moon star lord, Day lord) tally with Swearing-in Chart's Ruling Planets and the running(DBA) in Swearing-in Chart, then the person Will complete his Term.

Details of Swearing-in Chart of President Zardari.

Date: 09/09/2008; Time: 01.34.00 PM; Place: President House-Islamabad- Pakistan

Details of Pakistan Country Chart:

Date: 14/8/1947; Time: 00.01 AM; Place: Islamabad- Pakistan

Rule:1

Asc sublord of Swearing chart signifying 2,7,12+ Badhaka, then the person will NOT complete his Term. It will happen during, DBA of 2,7,12 + Badhaka.

Analysis of Swearing-in Chart of President Zardari.

Asc sublord is Ketu. Ketu is in the star of Mer and sub of Moon. Ketu is in 8(Removal), Ketu is in the sign of Moon, Moon is in 1 lord of 8(Removal), Mer is in 10 lord of 7(Maraka, Badhaka), 10.

Rule:2

If Ruling Planets at the time of Swearing-in (Asc signlord- Asc starlord, Moon signlord- Moon startlord, Day lord) tally with Country chart's Ruling Planets and running (DBA), then the person will complete his Term. Also we have to examine the charts in reverse way: If Ruling Planet of Country chart(Asc signlord- Asc starlord, Moon signlord- Moon startlord, Day lord) tally with Swearing in chart's Ruling Planets and running(DBA), then the person will complete his Term.

Rule:3

- 1) If running Dasa signifies, 4(Marka from 10th), 9(Moksha from 10th), 11(Maraka from 10th), the President will die
- 2) If running Dasa signifies 2(2nd is 5th from 10th)5(12th from 6th daily activity).6(9th from 10th), 9th(change in present job 9th is 12th from 10th).

Analysis:

Swearing- in Chart RPs are Jup-Ketu- Mar.

Pakistan Chart RPs are Ven-Sun- Mer-Rah

We find that (RP) planets in Swearing-in charts, are NOT found in Pakistan's chart.

We can come to the conclusion that Asc sublord of swearing chart and RP of Swearing-in and Pakistan's chart indicate that Mr.Zardari MAY NOT complete his term as President.

Swearing-in Chart RPs are Jup-Ketu- Mar.

Dasa Bhukti of Pakistan chart: Ven-Ven. Both are not in swearing-in chart, so it is a difficult period for Mr. Zardari.

Next Sun bhukti is also not in swearing –in chart.

Next Moon bhukti also not in swearing-in chart.

Now we check from Pakistan chart:

Pakistan's chart RPs are Ven-Sun- Mer-Rah

Dasasin Swearing- in chart:

Ven dasa: 16/9/2008 To 16/7/2009: Ven is in Pakistan chart, no danger to Mr.Zardari.

Sun: 16/7/2009 To 16/10/2009: Sun is in Pakistan chart, no danger to Mr.Zardari.

Moon: 16/10/2009 To 16/3/2010: Not in Pakistan RP, so it is difficult period for Mr. Zardari.

Mar: 16/3/2010 To 1/7/2010: Not in Pakistan RP, so it is difficult period for Mr. Zardari.

Rahu: 1/7/2010 To 1/4/2011: Rahu is in Pakistan chart, no danger to Mr.Zardari.

Jup: 1/4/2011 To 1/12/2011: Not in Pakistan RP, so it is difficult period for Mr. Zardari.

Sat: 1/12/2011 To 16/9/2012: Not in Pakistan RP, so it is difficult period for Mr. Zardari.

Mer: 16/9/2012 To 31/5/2013: Mer is in Pakistan chart, no danger to Mr.Zardari.

We have Moon, Mar, Jup, Sat Bhuktis as "Danger" to Mr. Zardari, to select one of them to check Rule 3rd.

Rule:3

If running dasa signifies 2(2nd is 5th from 10th)(5th is 12th from 6th daily activity).6(9th from 10th)(change in present job 9th is 12th from 10th), 9th(12th from 10th).

Analysis:

Let us check Dasa/Bhukti In Pakistan chart:

Running Dasa and Bhukti is Ven .Ven is in the star of Mer and sub of Own.

Ven is in 4, lord of 1. No planet in the star of Ven, and Ven is sublord of 5, 11. Mer is in 3 lord of 2(2nd is 5th from 10th)(5th is 12th from 6th daily activity), 3, 6(9th from 10th)(change in present job 9th is 12th from 10th).

Dasa indicate 2 and 6. So change is there.

Let us check Dasa/Bhukti In Swearing chart:

Runing dasa is Ven dasa: 16/9/2008 To 16/7/2009

Ven is in the star of Moon and sub of Mer.

Ven is in 10, lord of 6(9th from 10th)(change in present job 9th is 12th from 10th).- 11, Moon is in 1, Lord of 8, Mer is in 10, Lord of 7-10.

We seen 10 and 11 and also rule 2 not indicate Dange, so I think this dasa is not danger for Mr. zardari.

Next dasa is Sun: 16/7/2009 To 16/10/2009:

Sun is in the star of Ven and sub of Sat.

Su is in 9(12th from 10th), Lord of 9(12th from 10th), Ven is in 10, lord of 6(9th from 10th)(change in present job 9th is 12th from 10th).- 11, Sat is in 9, Lord of 2(2nd is 5th from 10th)(5th is 12th from 6th daily activity).- 3.

In this dasa we can see both 9, 2, 6 and 10-11, and also rule 2 not indicate Dange, so trouble star form this period but not much danger period for Mr. Zardari.

Next dasa is Moon: 16/10/2009 To 16/3/2010:

Moon is in the star of Ketu and sub of Mer.

Moon is in 1, Lord of 8, Ketu is in 8, Ketu is in the sign of Moon, Mer is in 10, Lord of 7-10.

Rule-2 indicates danger but Moon Dasa does not indicate Danger for Mr. Zardari.

Next Dasa is Mar: 16/3/2010 To 1/7/2010:

Mar is in the star of Moon, and sub of Mer.

Mar is 10, Lord of 5-12, Moon is in 1, Lord of 8, Mer is in 10, Lord of 7-10.

In this dasa we can't see 2, 6, 9. Even Rule-2 Indicate Danger for Mr. Zardari, so I think this period is difficult, but not danger.

Next dasa is Rahu: 1/7/2010 To 1/4/2011:

Rahu is in the star of Moon and sub of Sun.

Rah is in 2(2nd is 5th from 10th)(5th is 12th from 6th daily activity), Rahu is in the Sign of Sat, Sat is in 9, Lord of 2(2nd is 5th from 10th)(5th is 12th from 6th daily activity).- 3. Moon is in 1, Lord of 8 Su is in 9(12th from 10th), Lord of 9(12th from 10th),

This Dasa indicate, Danger, Rule-2 also Indicate Danger so in my opinion Mr.Zardari's presidentship will be lost during this period. For more information we check next Dasa of Jup: 1/4/2011 To 1/12/2011:

Jup is in the star of Ven and sub of Rahu.

JuP is in 1, Lord of 1-4, Ven is in 10, lord of 6(9th from 10th)(change in present job 9th is 12th from 10th).- 11, Rah is in 2(2nd is 5th from 10th)(5th is 12th from 6th daily activity), Rahu is in the Sign of Sat, Sat is in 9, Lord of 2(2nd is 5th from 10th)(5th is 12th from 6th daily activity).- 3. This dasa will also danger for Mr. Zardari's president ship.

IMP : So in my opinion, Mr.Zardari will NOT continue as a President of Pakistan, from 1/7/2010 To 1/4/2011 or 1/4/2011 To 1/12/2011

I want to draw readers' attention to April 2008 KP-Ezine issue , where I had written an article on Pakistan and concluded in that article as follows:

“As per my assessment, new PPP and alliance government will not complete the Term of 5 years and Pakistan will again face Military dictatorship during Sun Bhukti 14/3/2011 To 13/3/2012.”

Tallies with this prediction.

One of my close relative, who is working at Mumbai was communicated about the proposal of his transfer to Bangalore and was asked to search the house at Bangalore for relocation, as the transfer case was in advanced stages of approval. Soon, I got the news and I tried to assess from KP, if the native could be transferred from the job at Mumbai.

With the question in mind “I want to know, if the native would be transferred to Bangalore”, I thought of a horary number 175 myself and prepared the chart on June 05, 2008 at 17-37-28 Hrs at Bangalore.

The rotated chart with respect to the 11th house is presented as follows for analysis.

Coordinates of judgment:

- Essentially, a transfer in the same job to a different city location involves leaving the place of stay and get involved in the new environment. In pursuance to the above, the 10th house should get linked to 3rd and 12th houses in order to account for leaving the place of stay and face a new environment.
- In order to account for the change of place of stay, 4th cusp should link to the 3rd house.
- 11th cusp has the final say on the fructification of the query and should get linked with the relevant houses for achieving the results. Thus, for a change of place, the 4th cusp should get linked to the 3-11th house and for transfer to a new location; the 10th cusp should get linked to 3-12-11th houses.

The analysis of the chart:

A brief snapshot of analysis is presented herewith.

1. Examine Moon and Lagna

This is done to assess physical and mental status of the native.

Note that the Lagna sub-lord is Moon, thus indications seen from Moon will be very pressing for the native.

Moon is not a strong planet, as it has planets in its star, hence its placement is not of much importance. At the stellar level, Moon falls in the star of Rahu placed in 4th house, which indicates that the person does not have the mindset for a change of place.

2. Examine 10th cusp

10th cuspal sub-lord is Mars. Mars as 2-7th lord falls in the star of retro-Mercury as 12th lord placed in 8th house. The retrogression of star lord of 10th sub-lord indicates some stagnation on job front and the placement in 8th house indicate some difficult scenarios on job front.

Since, the star lord does not indicate the linkage of 3rd house, it does not call for any change of place. However, Mars falls in the sub of Venus, which as Asc lord finds its placement in 8th house. This clearly points the tough time, which the native must be facing on the job front (8th house) and his prestige (Asc lord) should have been at stake, though it is outside the scope of this prashna.

Whatever be it, since the 10th cusp does not link to the 3rd house, thus the change of place had not been indicated through a job change.

3. Examine the 4th cusp

Analysis of 4th cusp would indicate, if the place of stay will get changed because of transfer.

4th cuspal sub-lord is Rahu placed in 4th house. On stellar level, Rahu is placed in the star of Mars placed in 10th house as 2-7th house lord. Rahu has Saturn as sub-lord, which again is placed in 10th house as 5th lord.

Rahu is disposed by Saturn and Mars hence the significations of these planets may also be assessed.

Saturn is a strong planet and is placed in 10th house. At stellar level also, it disposes 10th house without any link to the 3rd house. Rahu's significations have already been detailed as above which also did not link to the 3rd house for a job change.

Thus, in no way the 4th cusp is connected to the 3rd house, which does not promote change of place on the expected transfer.

4. Examine the 11th cusp

The assessment of 11th cusp would indicate in overall context about the fruitfulness of the query.

11th cuspal sub-lord is Venus, which is a strong planet as there is no planet in its star and hence its placement will be very decisive. Note that Venus is placed in 8th house, indicating that the transfer will not happen.

At the stellar level, Venus falls in the star of Moon, which as 10th lord gets placed in 9th house, indicating the proposal of transfer in the offing from the employer's side (3rd from 7th-employer). The sub-lord of Venus is Ketu, which is placed in 10th house does not point to the 3rd house, thus denying the change of place.

5. Examine the Dasha spread

The native was running the dasha of Rahu-Venus, which may be analysed.

The significations of Rahu have been discussed in section-1 and that of Venus discussed in section-4 above and it has been noticed that both dasha and bhukti planets are in no way linked to 3-11th house to indicate change of place. Thus, it was understood that the native was not to be transferred to Bangalore.

6. Facts of the case

It was later learnt from the native that there was a definite proposal for a transfer, but the CEO of the company had rejected the proposal when the file reached him.

The native is yet doing the same job at the same location in the same level.

Conclusion:

I conclude herewith with my sincere thanks to Prof. Krishnamurthy, who has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

Short History:

In 1968 Equatorial Guinea, until then an agriculturally based colony of Spain, won its independence, conducting its first General Elections. The nation immediately fell under dictatorship and a steep decline. President Obiang inherited a country that had lost two thirds of its population, where schools and churches had been closed, and the Central Government was in total bankruptcy. President Obiang and his new Government came into power in October 1979.

Macias Nguema was elected as Equatorial Guinea's first President. However shortly after being elected, he abandoned democratic principles and declared himself Ruler-for-life in 1972. This was a dark and gloomy time for the nation. Macias Nguema ruled as a ruthless Dictator for 11 years presiding over a regime that killed and tortured thousands of its own citizens. He died on September 29, 1979; Obiang was elected president on August 15, 1982

The current president of Equatorial Guinea is Retired Brig. Gen. Teodoro Obiang Nguema Mbasogo. The 1982 constitution of Equatorial Guinea gives Obiang extensive powers, including naming and dismissing members of the Cabinet, making laws by decree, dissolving the Chamber of Representatives, negotiating and ratifying treaties and calling legislative elections. Obiang retains his role as Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces and Minister of Defence, and maintains a close supervision of military activities. The Prime Minister is appointed by the President and operates under powers designated by the President. The Prime Minister coordinates government activities in areas other than Foreign Affairs, National Defence and Security.

On December 15, 2002, Equatorial Guinea's four main opposition parties withdrew from the country's Presidential Election. Obiang won the election, widely considered fraudulent, by members of the Western Press. According to a March 2004 BBC profile, politics within the country are currently dominated by tensions between Obiang's son, Teodorin, and other close relatives with powerful positions in the security forces. The tension may be rooted in power-shift arising from the dramatic increase in oil production which has occurred since 1997.

Guinea's first President. However, shortly after being elected, he abandoned democratic principles and declared himself ruler-for-life in 1972. This was a dark and gloomy time for the nation. Macias Nguema ruled as a ruthless dictator for 11 years presiding over a regime that killed and tortured thousands of its own citizens".

Next Rahu Dasa runs from 19/3/1971 to 18/3/1989.

The Supreme Military Council opened a Case on August 18, 1979, and began interviewing witnesses and collecting evidence against the Macias Nguema regime. The charges for the ten defendants included genocide, mass murder, embezzlement of public funds, violations of human rights, and treason. At noon on September 29, 1979, the Tribunal delivered its sentences, which were more severe than what the prosecution had requested for. Macias Nguema and six of his co-defendants were sentenced to death and also confiscation of their property. With no higher court available to hear appeals, the decision of the Special Military Tribunal was final. Macias Nguema and the six other defendants sentenced to death were executed by a Moroccan firing squad at Black Beach Prison at 6pm on the same day.

Dictator or Military Ruler's end

As always Dictator or Military Ruler's ends with death, there are many examples in history, in this line I will try to give my thought on this subject.

Rules:

- 1) If 8th Sublord (Secret work of enemy (in this case we can say opposition party), signifies 5 (12th from 6 Dictator), 9th (12th from 10-Those in Power), 12th (loss) Ruler face trouble and end of his Govt.
- 2) If 10th (Ruler) Signifies 11 (Maraka), 4 (Maraka), 9 (Moksha) and Badhaka, Ruler will end with death.

8th sublord in Equatorial Guinea chart is Mer. Mer is in the star of Mar and sub of Ven.

Mer is in 10 lord of 7-10, Mar is in 9 (12th from 10-Those in Power) (Moksha), lord of 5 (12th from 6 Dictator)-12(loss). Ven is in 11 (Maraka), lord of 6-11 (Maraka).

Death were executed by a Moroccan firing squad at Black Beach Prison at 6pm on September 29, 1979 at that time DBAS was: Rah-Mer-Ven-Ven.

Rah is in 3 no planet in the star of Rahu and Rahu is sublord of 1,9 (12th from 10-Those in Power) (Moksha). Rahu is conj with Sat and aspected by Mar. Sat is in 4 (Badhaka) (Maraka) lord of 2-3. Mar is in 9 (12th from 10-Those in Power) (Moksha), Lord of 5 (12th from 6 Dictator)-12(loss), Jup is in 9 (12th from 10-Those in Power) (Moksha), Lord of 1-4 (Badhaka) (Maraka).

Bhukti was Mer. Mer is in the star of Mar and sub of Ven.

Mer is in 10, lord of 7-10, Mar is in 9 (12th from 10-Those in Power) (Moksha), Lord of 5 (12th from 6 Dictator)-12(loss), Ven is in 11 (Maraka), 6-11 (Maraka).

Antra and Sookshma lord was Ven. Ven is in the star of Jup and sub of Ket.

Ven is in 11 (Maraka), Lord of 6-11 (Maraka), Jup is in 9 (12th from 10-Those in Power) (Moksha), Lord of 1-4 (Badhaka) (Maraka), Ke+ is in 9 (12th from 10-Those in Power) (Moksha). Ketu Conj with Sun and Jup. Sun is in 10 lord of 9 (12th from 10-Those in Power) (Moksha),

Up to Sookshma leaval dasa indicate death of Dictator or Military Ruler's as per rules.

Runing Dasa is Sat up to 19/3/2024.

Sat is in the star of Mer and sub of own.

Sat is in 4 (Badhaka) (Maraka) lord of 2-3. Mer is in 10, lord of 7-10,

This Dasa of Sat again indicates danger to Dictator or Military Rulers. So, in my opinion this Dasa indicates "Danger" for Dictator Teodoro Obiang Nguema Mbasogo.

Runing Bhukti is Mer up to 1/12/2010.

Mer is in 10, lord of 7-10, in the star of Ma (9, 5-12), in the sub of Ven is in 11 (Maraka), Lord of 6-11 (Maraka), Mar is in 9 (12th from 10-Those in Power) (Moksha), Lord of 5 (12th from 6 Dictator)-12(loss),

During this Bhukti, the Dictator faces trouble and will lose his position due to death.

NOTE: In conclusion, I predict danger to the Dictator Obiang, possibly death before end 2010.

When a person involves in an event (of any bhava), the gross quantum of results (either benefic or malefic) that can be accrued from that action is known as the 'Fate' ('Vidhi' in Tamil) of the individual in respect of that bhava. For any event, when the respective Fate of that bhava supports the particular action, the individual can get very benefic results in most of his life-time.

On the contrary, if the Fate of that bhava doesn't favour the same, the individual has to face malefic results in most of his life-time. Our fore-fathers have astrologically classified all the individual actions under the twelve bhavas. According to this classification, each bhava possesses many such significations within itself.

As per the K.B SYSTEM, the starting points of bhavas known as bhava cusps are determining the Fate of the individuals. Because, these bhava cusps are observed uniquely in order to distinguish the results significantly for the births occurring even in very small intervals such as a minute, etc. The bhava cusps of twelve bhavas are considered as 'Entry Gates' for bhavas. Fate is being determined at these 'Entry Gates' of bhavas.

A bhava cusp consists of the Bhava Lord, Star Lord and Sub-Lord. Among these, Star Lord is stronger than Bhava Lord and Sub-Lord is stronger than Star Lord. In short, Fate of a bhava is being determined mainly by the Sub-Lord of that bhava's cusp.

The Sub-Lord of any bhava is fully empowered to design the Fate, either as benefic or malefic results, in respect of that bhava by corresponding to other bhava cusps through its Star Lord ('Saaram') and Sub-Lord ('Bhukthi'). Depending upon the strength of the basement only, we can decide the number of floors in any building. Similarly, Fate should be stronger enough for any bhava.

Therefore, the actions of the individual are restricted to the extent of results determined by the Fate in respect of the respective bhava. The above explanation was made with an aim to make the readers understand that the individuals in their actions can not move an inch beyond the limits determined by the Fate. Let me explain this with an example.

Let us consider a case wherein the Sub-Lord of 10th bhava, links with 2nd, 6th and 10th bhava cusps through its Star and Sub-Lord. As you know, the above 2nd, 6th and 10th bhavas are promoting the welfare of 10th bhava. Therefore, as the Fate of the individual in respect of 10th bhava is good, we can conclude that the individual will do his profession in good manner in his life-time.

On the contrary when the Sub-Lord of 10th bhava linked with, 1st, 5th and 9th bhava cusps through its Star and Sub-Lord, the Fate of the 10th bhava is considered very weak and thereby the individual will be forced to break the profession for a considerable period of his life-time. The reason is that the 1st, 5th and 9th bhavas are happening respectively to be 4th, 8th and 12th from the 10th bhava. This indicates difficulties to the individual in his profession.

An individual can execute those actions (of bhavas) hopefully for a long time, which (bhavas) are supported by the powerful Fate in his/her horoscope. Conversely, the individual either feels difficult to execute those actions (of bhavas) beyond a particular time or faces problems with regard to those bhavas, which are possessing weak Fate in the natal horoscope.

Particularly, the Fate of permanent bhavas viz. 1st, 2nd, 6th, 7th and 10th bhavas should at least be disposed with moderate strength. Because, these are the bhavas that are serving as sources of strength for human life. The chances are very remote to have all the bhavas with considerable strength of Fate. That is why, almost all the persons in the world are facing problems in one respect or another. So far, we have seen the basement of a horoscope namely 'Fate'. Further, let us proceed to see Dasa-Bhukthi i.e. 'Will' ('Mathi' in Tamil).

In conferring the results, either good or bad, to the individuals for their actions during a particular period, the respective Dasa-Bhukthi (under the name Will) also taking a leading role, like Fate. Dasa-Bhukthi as Will are calculated based on the deposition of natal Moon. Dasa Lord is identified as the Lord of the Constellation, wherein the natal Moon deposited. Bhukthi Lord is ascertained by calculating the degree-wise extent of Moon's traverse in that Constellation.

A person's horoscope is nothing but an astronomical record, wherein the Planetary and Bhava dispositions at the time of his/her birth are noted. Treating it as unchangeable, we call it as 'Fate' of the individual. But, as per the law of Universe, there is no such state as unchangeable. All the actions, depending upon the time-situation, are subjected to change according to the Divine Orders.

Therefore, nothing is permanent /fixed in this Universe. The Dasa Bhukthi calculations, which are based on the disposition of Moon are impermanent. Similarly, our thought patterns also. Hence, in order to get accuracy in predictive astrology, the impermanent one (Will or Dasa Bhukthi) has to be synchronized with the permanent one (Fate).

Dasa Bhukthis are building blocks of the predictive astrology. In my humble opinion, in the absence of Dasa Bhukthis Astrology is incomplete. As we know, the 12 bhava cusps are determining the Fate of the individual. But, all the incidents / actions denoted by Fate would not occur at a time in one lot. Dasa Bhukthis are executing those events in their turn at a particular time according to the bhavas they are relating to.

In ascertaining the results of Dasa Bhukthis, K.B Astrology Method is specialist (individual) in nature. As per this method, effects of Dasa Bhukthis (Will) are sourced out from the Bhava cusps (Fate). That is 'Will' shall proceed in the footsteps of 'Fate' and thereby execute its own duty.

Therefore, a planet in its Dasa Lordship is empowered to execute certain actions / significations of those bhavas which are having this planet as Sub-Lord. Further, the Dasa ('will') will execute the results effectively to the extent of the 'Fate' determined by those bhavas.

Nextly, the stellar disposition of the Dasa Lord should be taken note of. Because, the Dasa Lord is also empowered to undertake certain events / significations of those bhavas, which are having the bhava cusps corresponding to the Star Lord of this Dasa Lord.

Nextly, the Sub-Lord of the Dasa Lord is determining the favourable / unfavourable results that can be expected from the bhavas for which bhava cusps are establishing links with Sub-Lord. The basis is as follows: For any bhava, the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 5th, 9th and 11th bhavas there from are promoting the bhava in question; the 4th, 8th, 10th and 12th bhavas there from are denigrating the bhava in question; and 6th and 7th bhavas there from is neutral in nature.

In short, the Dasa Lord will confer the results of those bhavas, which are associated by the Dasa Lord, Star Lord of the Dasa Lord and Sub-Lord of the Dasa Lord. At the same time, the Fate of a bhava determined is restricted exclusively to that bhava alone. But, the Will, i.e. the effects of Dasa Bhukthis are not restricted to any particular bhava alone, instead they can exert influence on the other bhavas also as explained above. Let me explain this with an example.

Let us assume that in a horoscope, Sub-Lord of Lagna bhava cusp is linked to 5th and 9th bhavas through its Star and Sub-Lord. During the above said Dasa of Lagna lord, as the 5th and 9th bhavas are promoting the Lagna bhava, 'Will' proceeds on the path of 'Fate', and thereby very good health without any illness to the individual is ensured. At the same time, this Dasa Lord doesn't fail to influence the other bhavas. When the 5th and 9th bhavas exert influence on the 2nd bhava, the individual has to face financial deficiency during this Dasa. Because, the 5th and 9th bhavas are happening to be 4th and 8th bhavas respectively while reckoning from the 2nd bhava. Similarly, while exerting influence on the 10th bhava (profession), severe set-back in profession is foreseen during this Dasa, as the 5th and 9th bhavas are 8th and 12th bhavas respectively from the 10th bhava.

At the same time, as the 5th and 9th bhavas are in consonance with the promotion of other odd bhavas, during this Dasa the individual's Lagna based karakas will be very good. But, as the 5th and 9th bhavas are supposed to denigrate all the even bhavas, the individual's materialistic life itself suffered considerably during this Dasa. But, suppose the Sub-Lords of 2nd and 10th bhava cusps are corresponding (through their Star Lord and Sub-Lord) to the bhavas, which are favorable to 2nd and 10th bhavas, then Fate in this respect may be considered as powerful. Then, the above said Dasa having connections with 5th and 9th are not fully empowered to destroy the 2nd and 10th bhava significations in its entire Dasa.

During this Dasa period, when the Bhukthi Lord is establishing connections with 4th and 8th bhavas, during that particular Bhukthi, Bhukthi Lord will overcome the Dasa Lord in promoting the individual with regard to his finance (2nd) and profession (10th). Because, 4th and 8th bhavas are respectively 12th from the 5th and 9th bhavas.

The 2nd and 10th bhava significations will not be considerably affected till the Bhukthis of the planets having relationship with 3rd and 7th bhavas (being 12th from 4th and 8th bhavas) are coming to operate. Even then, when the bhukthis of the planets having relationship with 2nd and 6th bhavas are operating, the Bhukthi Lord will overcome the Dasa Lord in conferring the results and prevent / resolve the problems, if any, with regard to his finance (2nd) and profession (10th).

That is, 'Fate' is generalistic whereas, 'Will' (Dasa Bhukthis) is specialistic in nature. 'Will' can confer goodness to any particular bhava only to the extent of the 'Fate' determined for that bhava and thereby it can never overcome 'Fate'. At the same time, it is noteworthy to observe that the Will (Dasa Bhukthis) is strong enough to exert influence on all the 12 bhavas.

Therefore, general effects have to be determined by 'Fate' and individual effects known as time-specific events are ascertained by 'Will', i.e. Dasa-Bhukthis. Here, general effects are denoted by the actions (signified by the bhavas) of an individual, in which he engaged himself for a long-time either favorably or unfavorably. But, the individual effects (either favorable or unfavorable) represented by 'Will' are of short duration in his life-time.

Even though a bhava is powerful by Fate, the actions / events denoted by that bhava can not be completed, in the absence of any support from the then operating Dasa-bhukthis of the individual. The prevailing Dasa-Bhukthis are fully empowered either to complete the action successfully or to put hold the event away from occurrence. At the same time, even though the bhavas are weak by Fate, to some extent the operating Dasa-Bhukthis can prevent the evil effects signified by those weak bhavas during their period, provided the prevailing Dasa-Bhukthis are supposed to promote those events denoted by the corresponding bhavas.

A good Dasa is like a quality vehicle to travel and the Bhukthis are like its pathway. While traveling in a good quality vehicle (good Dasa), even though the pathways (bad Bhukthis) are full of ups and downs, the destination can be reached safely by the vehicle (Dasa) by surpassing the hurdles.

Conversely a bad Dasa is like a damaged vehicle and the Bhukthis are like its pathway. With the damaged vehicle (evil Dasa) the destination could never be reached, even though the pathways (Bhukthis) are very smooth. Therefore, when a Dasa failed to confer good results during its own sub-period (Bhukthi), we can conclude that the Dasa is not at all good to that individual. Because, the Bhukthis are almost inoperative to overcome the Dasa in providing contradictory results.

The Bhukthi lords are slightly empowered either to tone-up or to hold on the actions of the Dasa Lord, that too only in a feeble manner. Similarly, the Antara Lords (sub-sub-lords) will work depending upon the nature of the operating Bhukthis. In short, during the entire course of the Dasa, the effects of certain bhavas which are establishing strong relationship with the Dasa Lord, can be frequently expected.

A Dasa when favourably disposed of (by corresponding to good bhavas) in respect of the Ascendant-related significations (like health, education, conjugal relationships, etc.), the same Dasa should never be failed to denigrate the Ascendant-independant significations (like wealth, profession, property, etc.). Here, when the Ascendant-independant significations are powerful by fate, the individual can reap some benefits during the relevant Bhukthis of the same Dasa by overcoming the Dasa Lord.

That is, when a person involves in the actions of those bhavas which are not contravened by the Dasa-Bhukthis ('Will'), the individual can reap very good results therefrom (the actions) and ultimately the bhava be promoted considerably. The chances for failure of the individual in those actions are very remote. Thus comes the famous saying of our ancestors, "Fate can be overcome by Will".

Next, let me tell in brief as how to utilize the concepts of 'Dasa-Bhukthi-Anthra' (Directions) in astrology. To understand the fixed issues (like longevity, health, finance, conjugal relations, etc.) the Dasa Lord should be assessed. Because, these fixed issues are applicable to all the people at all times. As the span of the Dasa is lengthier than that of Bhukthi, Anthara, etc., the Dasa Lord will exert his considerable influence on the fixed issues in the entire Dasa.

Similarly, the occurrences which are happening in a few years (like marriage, constructing house and child birth, etc.) should be assessed from the Bhukthi Lords; the occurrences which are happening in a few months or so (like recovering from disease, debt, unexpected happy or sorrow, etc.) should be assessed from the Anthara Lords; and the daily occurrences should be assessed by assessing Sookshma Lords.

Among these, Anthara will work according to the Bhukthi and Bhukthi will work in consonance with the Dasa. The Sookshma will work depending upon the Gochara (transits of planets). That is why our ancestors said that the predictions should be made by duly considering the Vidhi (Fate), Mathi (Will) and Gathi (Transits). But, some of our astrologers are used to consider Gochara (Transits of planets) with reference to the natal disposition of Moon, i.e. Rasi (Moon Sign) only.

Even though they know pretty well that astrologically the total Signs (Moon Signs) in the Zodiac are just 12, they are arriving predictions to the entire global mass of around 600 crore by classifying them as just 12 categories. In other words, they are making similar predictions for some 50 crore people of each category. According to my humble opinion, this is not only illogical but also unscientific.

'Will' shall proceed on the pathway of 'Fate' in order to confer the results stored thereon in the form Fate. According to K.B.'s method of Astrology, as Gochara (transit) is determined with reference to the Bhava cusps as well as Directional influences in the form of Dasa-Bhukthis, the Gochara effects will be unique for each and every person and therefore even for the persons who took birth in the minutest time-difference of one minute or so, unique Gochara effects are determined.

A horoscope is a store-house of all the informations regarding an individual's birth to death. We, the astrologers could not predict all those informations in advance. The actions/happenings occurring in human life can be classified as two. First, the actions undertaken by ourselves frequently or for a long period of our life (fixed) and next, impermanent happenings / incidents of our life.

As astrologers, we can predict the results accurately only for fixed actions of human beings. Therefore, while making general predictions for an individual, we should consider the fixed issues only, for which the status of Dasa-Lord should be assessed with due weightage.

Impermanent happenings / incidents of human beings has to be assessed only with reference to the situation and contemporary circumstances. Because, the time of occurrence of such happenings / incidents are mainly determined only with reference to the actions of the individual. Hence, when the individual is involving in an impermanent action, the time of its fruition has to be delineated with reference to the then operating Bhukthis and Antaras.

A person without taking any effort but putting forth to the astrologer a question, which is not at all related to his practical life-style, can very well be compared to asking a Doctor to predict the disease the individual would get after 10 years or so.

For example, the effects of Dasa-Bhukthis of an individual, which corresponds to the 4th and 10th bhavas would be as below. Fourth bhava denotes education, house, land, vehicle and production; and tenth bhava denotes profession, fame and excessive production. During these Dasa-Bhukthis, the effects / significations exclusively of these two bhavas could not be expected. These 4th and 10th bhavas will exert influence on other bhavas also and thereby confer good or bad effects to those bhavas. These 4th and 10th bhavas denote: financial flow as these bhavas are 3rd and 9th from the 2nd bhava; increase in debt, disease and legal entanglements as these bhavas are 11th and 5th from the 6th bhava; profession in competitive manner as these bhavas are 7th and 1st from the 10th bhava.

The 4th and 10th bhavas are increasing the bhava karakas of the 2nd, 6th and 10th bhavas. It is certain that the above mentioned results are sure to happen during this period. But, suppose the requirement of the individual is child-birth, then the job of the astrologer would be simple, if the individual seeks to know whether he can get progeny during this Dasa-Bhukthi (4th and 10th) or not. As the 4th and 10th bhavas are 6th and 12th bhavas reckoning from the 5th bhava, it can be assessed that the chances for progeny during this Bhukthi are remote. But, during this Bhukthi, by delineating the period of Antharas which are corresponding to 3rd and 9th bhavas as favorable for progeny, we can guide the individual properly.

Astrology possesses all the information of the universe in its mere 12 bhavas. Therefore, we should approach an astrologer with an open mind to discuss our problems in order to get proper guidance from the astrologer, as if approaching a doctor for our cure with free mind for counselling.

I, humbly submit this article to my Guruji, one who took care of my development, Prasanna jothida Mani K. Baskaran, Madurai.

Will there be a switchover from Hotel Industry to Cine Field?

On 19.01.2006, a new client came to my residence with a request to examine his horoscope. He said that he had been in the hotel industry since 20 years and had been incurring losses for a few recent years in the industry. Therefore, he has requested me to examine his horoscope astrologically as to continue in the hotel industry or to close it down.

Further, he wished to know whether he could come out with flying colours in the field of acting in Cinema and Television, by quitting once for all the hotel industry. For the past two years, whenever chance arises, he used to act in small roles in Cinema and Television serials since he was very much interested in the field of Art, as reported by him.

Now, let me share the views offered by me to my client after examining his horoscope.

Before that let us see how the fate should be disposed of astrologically for undertaking the hotel business or art field as full time profession.

Sixth bhava denotes Hotel Industry. That is, readers are well aware that the sixth bhava stands for food. In a horoscope, when the sub-lord of the 6th bhava cusp linked 8th and 12th bhava either from the 6th or from the 10th one cannot undertake hotel industry as his profession.

But, when the 6th bhava cuspal sub-lord linked to its favorable bhavas viz. 2nd, 4th, 6th and 10th bhavas. These bhavas are favorable to the 10th bhava also. Then it implies that the fate has been favorably disposed of to undertake hotel business as profession.

The Art Field was represented by the 5th bhava. That is, the 5th bhava denotes the significations, which are giving pleasure to mind viz. prose, music and drama. Similarly, 7th bhava denotes audience or masses and 5th bhava is 11th (pleasure) from 7th bhava. Therefore, it can be inferred that the professions, which are promoting mental pleasure and satisfaction to masses are all governed by the 5th bhava profession.

Therefore, in a horoscope, when the sub-lord of the 5th bhava cusp linked to 8th and 12th bhavas either from the 5th bhava (i.e. 4th and 12th bhavas) or from the 10th bhava (i.e. 5th and 9th bhavas), that person cannot shine in the field of Art long time.

But, when the 5th bhava cusp sub-lord corresponds to its favorable bhavas viz. 2nd, 3rd, 6th, 7th, 10th and 11th bhavas both from the 5th bhava as well as from the 10th bhava, then it implies that the fate has been favorably to shine well in the field of Art in long time.

The above said approach appears to be complex / complicated to the readers. Generally, 10th bhava stands for one's profession. Similarly, each and every bhava have the karaka of 10th bhava. All the professions of the world are represented by the 10th bhava under its 'general karaka'. The specific professions denoted by particular bhavas are known under 'special karaka'. According to that, the field of Art is represented by 5th bhava; Food, Dress and Health related fields are represented by 6th bhava; and House, Vehicle and Education related fields are represented by 4th bhava.

The karakas of all the 12 bhavas piled up in any bhava have been narrated in detail in the book "Jothidathin Adippadai Thathuvam" (The basic principles of Astrology) written by my guru Prasanna Jothidamani K.Baskaran as well as in the book "K.B.Jothida Muraiyil Vidhiyum Mathiyum" (Fate and Will as per K.B.'s Method of Astrology) written by myself. By deep study of those books, readers can understand the bhava karakas in lucid manner.

The 10th bhava determines a person's deserved fate in respect of his general occupation / profession. When the sub-lord of the 10th bhava cusp linked to its 8th and 12th bhavas there from, the individual could not undertake any occupation / profession in good manner.

But, when the sub-lord of the 10th bhava cusp linked to its favourable bhavas (from the 10th) viz. 2nd, 4th, 6th, 10th and 11th bhavas, the individual can earn good income as well as name and fame by his occupation / profession. Duly considering the above in mind, let me share the details regarding the analysis made by me on the chart of my client.

Firstly, let us examine whether the fate of 10th bhava is favorable to the individual or not. In this horoscope, the sub-lord of the 10th cusp is Saturn. Therefore, Saturn is empowered to determine the fate of the occupation / profession stored for the individual by its inter-links established with other bhava cusps through its Star Lord and Sub-Lord.

In this horoscope, Saturn is in the star of Venus and in the Mercury's sub. Venus is the Sub-Lord of 1st, 3rd, 5th and 9th bhava cusps. Mercury is the Sub-Lord of the 7th bhava cusp. Therefore, 10th bhava inter-links with 1st, 3rd, 5th, 7th and 9th bhavas.

These 1st, 3rd, 5th, 7th and 9th bhavas are not favorable bhavas to 10th bhava, i.e. the bhava of profession, is considered. Suppose, if the sub-lord of the 10th bhava cusp inter links to the 5th and 9th bhavas only, then the house of profession may be considered as completely destroyed. Because, 5th and 9th bhavas are 8th and 12th bhavas from the 10th bhava.

Here, as the sub-lord of the 10th bhava cusp links not only with 5th and 9th bhavas, but also 1st, 3rd and 7th bhavas, the fate of 10th bhava is not destroyed completely. I invite the attention of the readers to this point. At the same time, the fate of the 10th bhava should be considered as weak only. Therefore, the fate of the individual is not favorable to continue in his profession in the long run.

Next, let us examine the fate determined for the individual for undertaking the hotel industry. 6th bhava denotes hotel industry, as already I have explained that the 6th bhava karakas in the 10th bhava is hotel industry. Therefore here Sub-Lord of the 6th bhava cusp is Jupiter. Jupiter is in the star of Ketu and in Saturn's sub. Jupiter is not only the sub-lord of the 6th alone, but also sub-lord of 2nd and 4th bhavas and thereby exerts combined influence. Ketu is the sub-lord of the 11th bhava cusp and Saturn is the sub-lord of the 10th bhava cusp.

As the sub-lord of the 6th bhava, Jupiter establishes links with 2nd, 4th, 6th and 10th bhavas, 6th bhava is strengthened considerably. Because, 2nd, 4th, 6th and 10th bhavas are respectively 9th, 11th, 1st and 5th bhavas reckoned from the 6th bhava. I wish to remember the readers, for every bhava the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 5th, 9th and 11th bhavas there from are favourable; 4th, 8th, 10th and 12th bhavas there from are unfavorable; and 6th and 7th bhavas there from are neutral in nature.

While the 6th bhava is getting strengthened on one side, at the same time these 2nd, 4th, 6th and 10th bhavas are supporting both 10th as well as 2nd bhavas. Therefore, the fate is favorably disposed of for earning money through the hotel industry.

Next, let us examine whether the fate of the individual is supporting the field of Art or not. The sub-lord of the 5th bhava cusp is Venus, who is in the star of Mercury and in his own (Venus) sub.

Mercury is the sub-lord of the 7th bhava cusp. Venus is not only the sub-lord of the 5th bhava cusp but also of the 1st, 3rd and 9th bhava cusps. Therefore, 5th bhava cusp establishes links with 1st, 3rd, 5th, 7th and 9th bhavas. The above bhavas are very favorable bhavas for the 5th bhava.

Venus is the significator of Arts. Venus, by being the sub-lord of the 5th bhava cusp and establishes links (through its star and own sub) with the bhavas, which are promoting the 5th bhava. Therefore, the planetary karaka (of Venus) as well as the bhava karaka (established by Venus) are supporting the field of Art, the fate of the individual favors him to shine in the field in the long time.

When the 5th bhava gets strengthened, the links established by it viz. 1st, 3rd, 5th, 7th and 9th bhavas are favourable neither for the 10th bhava nor the 2nd bhava. Hence, undertaking Art as full time profession (10th bhava) and earning through it (2nd bhava) are not possible as far as the fate in this regard is concerned.

Therefore, according to the fate of the individual's occupation, hotel industry is favorable than the field of Art. So far, we have seen the concept of fate alone, which exhibits the determined results stored for the individual in the long run. The directional influences (Dasa Bhukthis) under the name of Will are fully empowered either to prevent the results of fate or to promote them further. Therefore, let us now examine the current and future Dasa Bhukthis of the individual.

Saturn Dasa is in operation for the individual from 07.06.1997 to 07.06.2016. Dasa Lord Saturn is in the star of Venus and in the sub of Mercury. According to that, I wish to remember the readers once again, the Dasa Lord Saturn establishes cuspal links with the 1st, 3rd, 5th, 7th and 9th bhavas.

The above bhavas (1st, 3rd, 5th, 7th and 9th bhavas) are unfavorable both for the house of profession (10th bhava) as well the house of hotel industry (6th bhava). That is, these bhavas (1st, 3rd, 5th, 7th and 9th bhavas) include in themselves the 8th and 12th bhavas reckoned from 6th and 10th viz. 1st, 5th and 9th bhavas. Hence, during the Saturn's main period, the hotel industry has not prospered well.

But, as the bhavas 1st, 3rd, 5th, 7th and 9th, which are linked by the Dasa Lord, are favourable for the 5th bhava and as the Dasa Lord Saturn is in the Star of Venus, the main period of Saturn favors involvement of the individual in the field of Art.

During the Saturn Dasa, Saturn Bhukthi, the individual could not run the hotel business smoothly. He incurred heavy losses. But, during the same period, he got some opportunities to act in a few serials of small screen. This continues up to the Mercury Bhukthi.

It is to be noted here that in the Saturn and Mercury Bhukthis of Saturn Dasa, the individual has not shown proper interest in his hotel business. In the Ketu Bhukthi, which followed the Mercury Bhukthi, he did not get chances for acting in the field of Art. He ignored the few opportunities in the Television channels and searched for chances in Cine field. In the Ketu Bhukthi, he could not get it. But, he observed some improvements in his hotel business during this ketu period.

Because, Ketu is in the star of Jupiter and in the sub of Moon. Ketu is the Sub-Lord of 11th bhava cusp. Jupiter is the Sub-Lord of 2nd, 4th and 6th bhava cusps. Moon, by strongly establishing relationships with 2nd, 6th and 10th bhavas improved the 6th bhava prospects (the hotel industry). But, as the 2nd, 4th, 6th and 10th bhavas are not supporting to the 5th bhava, the chances of acting has been reduced considerably during the Ketu Bhukthi of Saturn Dasa (i.e. from 18.02.2003 to 28.03.2004).

The next Venus Bhukthi, which follows Ketu Bhukthi was favourable for the 5th bhava prospects. Already we have seen that the links established by the Venus are 1st, 3rd, 5th, 7th and 9th bhavas. As these cuspal links are detrimental (unfavorable) to the 6th bhava, the hotel business was affected severely during Venus Bhukthi of Saturn Dasa (i.e. from 28.03.2004 to 29.05.2007).

As Venus is the Sub-Lord of the 5th bhava cusp, the 'Fate' stored for the individual for 5th bhava will be executed as 'Will' of the individual and thereby thrive the native towards Art field. Further, as Venus is the Sub-Lord of ascendant also, his thought patterns and characteristics will be based on 1st, 3rd, 5th, 7th and 9th bhavas. Then, let us see how he was in the hotel industry for 20 years and above.

When the individual was undergone Jupiter Dasa, the hotel business was running successful. Because, Jupiter is the Sub-Lord of the 2nd, 4th and 6th bhava cusps. Jupiter is in the star of Ketu and in the Sub of Saturn. Ketu is the Sub-Lord of 11th bhava cusp and Saturn is the Sub-Lord of the 10th bhava cusp. Therefore, Jupiter establishes strong cuspal links with the 2nd, 4th and 6th bhavas.

Further, being the Sub-Lord of the 6th bhava, Jupiter executed the results of 6th bhava fully. In this horoscope, even though the fate in respect of occupation, i.e. 10th bhava (Saturn) is not well-disposed, the planets which are in the star of Saturn (here Jupiter and Mercury are in the star of Saturn) will execute the results of 10th bhava according to their cuspal links.

Accordingly, Jupiter by being the Sub-Lord of the 2nd, 4th and 6th bhava cusps and thereby strengthens the bhavas so as to proceed the Will on the path of Fate. Therefore, it paved way for good financial status and accumulation of property, etc. Further, Mercury is the Sub-Lord of the 7th bhava cusp, which is in the star of Saturn and Mercury establishes links with 10th bhava cusp. Therefore, he got up lift from the customers of his profession. Because, 7th bhava denotes clients, social relationship and own business.

In the subsequent period (during August 1998), i.e. of Venus Antara in Saturn Bhukthi in Saturn Dasa, the Government has acquired the land of the individual where the hotel was situated and compensated him with an amount. As the cuspal links established by Saturn viz. 1st, 3rd, 5th, 7th and 9th bhavas are detrimental (unfavourable) to 6th and 10th bhavas, particularly as the 3rd and the 9th bhavas are pointing to shifting of business place to new place, all the above incidents happened during Saturn Dasa and Saturn Bhukthi.

As Saturn is the lord of the Dasa, similar results can be expected during the entire period of Saturn Dasa. Since, Saturn is the Sub-Lord of the 10th bhava cusp, Saturn is empowered to confer (here unfavorable) results in respect of 10th bhava by proceeding the Will on the path of Fate in its entire Dasa period.

Further, the Fate of 5th bhava also not in consonance with 2nd and 10th bhavas, he can not undertake Art as his profession for his earning and survival. But, the subsequent bhukthis of Venus viz. Moon, Mars, Rahu and Jupiter in seriatim are in favour of 6th and 10th bhavas, and thereby these bhukthis opposed the Dasa Lord in order to run the hotel business to some extent.

When we look into the subsequent Mercury Dasa, Mercury is in the Star of Saturn and in the sub of Mars. Mercury is the Sub-Lord of 7th bhava and Saturn is the Sub-Lord of the 10th bhava. Mars is in the 7th bhava without establishing any cuspal links with other bhavas.

As Mercury establishes links with 7th and 10th bhava cusps, which are favorable for the 6th and 10th bhavas, the hotel business will succeed well for the native during the Mercury Dasa. Therefore, I have advised the individual to reduce the investments in the hotel business upto the current (at the time of consultation) Dasa-Bhukthi viz. Venus Bhukthi in Saturn Dasa (from 28.03.2004 to 29.05.2007) as far as possible. Further, I have advised him to wait for the end of the above period as the subsequent periods (the directional influences) will turn to be favourable for hotel business.

Therefore, Hotel business is better for the individual rather than resorting to Art field for profession. With an open mind, I have shared this lengthy article with the readers, in order to explain the art of synthesizing, analyzing and differentiating the concepts of Fate (i.e. store house of results) and Will (Dasa-Bhukthis).

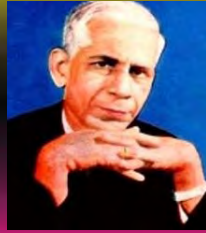

I, humbly submit this article to my Guruji, one who took care of my development, Prasanna jothida Mani K. Baskaran, Madurai.

Dear Kanak Bhai,

I read your KPEzine regularly from Feb'07. It is a everlasting contribution from your side towards KP astrologers. Its a platform to share astrologer's experience with others who would like to understand or enrich their knowledge. I would also contribute my bit some time later in life to astrology and hope to see the magazine reach the masses all over the world.

I wish people like Raichur and KP Astro should also offer a handsome discount for software on your request on 1st NOV to mark the birthday of our Guruji who could have made money by not sharing but selling the knowledge. The software used should be made affordable to our not so rich astrologers. I doubt if all think like you for spreading the science of KP :)

Anyway I am thankful for the beautiful moment which made you start this magazine. May God Bless You and your family. Take care, Thanks,

Best Regards,

Sunaparantha

Prof. K.S. Krishnamurti, founder of K.P. System, was born on 1-11-1908 at Thiru Vaiyaru near Tanjore in Tamil Nadu (10-48 N-Lat/79-15E long) at 12:11 PM IST and STD time at Birth was 14 hrs 38mts 36 sec. The Nirayana chart of Sri Prof. K.S.K. is also attached in the next page.

Prof. Krishnamurti was fascinated by the divine science of Astrology. He studied the Hindu and western system of Astrology thoroughly, but as deeply disappointed at the inadequacy and lack of accurate predictions. He noticed that a planet in its period invoked the results of a house with which it is not connected by occupation, ownership association or aspect, which are the ordinary considerations in the art of prediction.

This opened his eyes to the supreme importance of constellation in predictions. Prof. K.S.K. understood that the difference should be attributed to the exact portion the constellation occupied by the tenanting planet, the constellation had to be divided in some significant, scientific manner. The idea of dividing the constellations in the mysterious un-equal Vimshottari proportion attributed to sage Parasara struck him. Prof. K.S.K. succeeded again in establishing through his researches that the manner (favourable or adverse) in which house results are invoked by a planet is dictated by the lord of the division of the constellation in which the planet is posited (whom he calls as Sub Lord) according to the occupation ownership etc of the latter (SUBLORD)

Prof. K.S.K. noticed the problem arose in the case of twin births. One of the twins gets married and other remains unmarried, why one has children and the other has none in spite of the planets remaining to be in the same degree and minute and in the same Bhava, same Navamsa, same Ashjavanga having same shad bale and everything remain same. Then Prof. K.S.K. found that it is the cusp of 12 Bhava which varies in twin birth and therefore it is the cusp which should indicate whether that house matters will prosper or that house matter will suffer. Supposing the 5th cusp in one falls in such a sub, the lord or which denies birth of children by signifying the matters of houses 1, 4 and 10. Then he has no child. Every chart indicates significators. Significators indicate times. If the CUSP denies, the significators can not give the result. So the CUSPAL SUBLORD is vital.

Prof. K.S.K.'s theory of that the planets co-ruling the moment when a matter is taken up for examination with real urge, will co-rule the moment of fructification of the matter as well is immensely help full in pinpointing the time of events. This is called the ruling planets theory, which will also help the subs of house CUSPS can be fixed accurately. Ruling planets completed with events are considerable as an excellent method of rectification of birth time.

Prof. K.S.K.'s zeal to spread the real through of Astrology has eaten him up completely. Prof. K.S.K. served humanity (God in the world) through astrology and rose the highest heights of predictive power (siddhi by such service)

Now let us discuss the important combinations by making him, as a GRET Astrologer and discovering a scientific system as K.P. System and as to how his cuspal Sub Lord theory finds a place in his birth chart for the benefit of the esteemed readers of K.P.E- Zine

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars.

Prof. K.S.K. born in Makara lagna in Sravana Star and Mahara Rasi. So at the time of birth SAT a strong ruling planet has played a vital role in his chart. Sat low 1 to 2 in 2nd bhava itself in his own star tells about his unerring and accurate predicting.

According to our Gururji Shri K.S.K. the planetary combinations to become a great astrologer is as follows:

2nd house or Bhava indicates Vak sthana 4th indicators, vidhya or education 9th bhava indicators, Astrology, shasthras and religious matter and his interest in astrology, 10th indicators, name and fame, fulfillment 11th indicators in occult science such as Astrology.

The principal CUSPAL SUBLORD ie 9th cusp sub lord should be well connected to the above houses and also the planets, Mercury, JUP, as Sat, one will be able to become a great Astrologer.

In our Gururji's chart the Lagna SUB Lord is Moon is in her own star in Lagna (Starter) and is in the sub of Mars, occupant of 9th Bhava (House of Astrology) indicates his success in the field.

The 2nd CUSP (Vaksthana) Sub-Lord is Mercury also a Karasha planet for Vidya and astrology. Mercury owns 9th Bhava having posted in 9th bhava itself having no Planets in his stars. Mercury is also in the star & sub of Rahu, a significator of 9th Bhava. The sub lord of the 9th cusp is also MERCURY and its signification is discussed above.

4th cusp sub lord (Vidya) is Rahu. Rahu is in the star of Mars lord of 4, 11 in 9th is good. Rahu in Moon sub signifying lagna Bhava. So 4th cusp sublord is also good.

The 10th Cusp indicates name and fame. The 10th CUSP sub lord is Mars, low of 4 to 11 in 9th Bhava (Astrology). Mars in the star of strong Moon in Lagna is good. Mars also in the sub of Venus lord of 10th and signifying 9th bhava. So the 10th cusp sub lord feels his highest station. Name as fame is Astrology.

The 12th Cusp indicate occult science such as Astrology. 12th Cusp sub lord is Venus. Venus lord of 10th is in the star of Sun in 9th Bhava. Venus in the sub of Sat lord of Lagna and signifies 2nd (VAKSiddhi)

So all the cuspal sub lords of house 2, 4, 9, 10, 11 and 12 are well placed for the above bhavas and these cuspal sub lords are very vital for his great success in the field as Astrology as advocated in his sub lord theory.

Prof. Krishnamurti was snatched away by fate on 29/30-03-1972, astrology day Wednesday at about 2.00 am IST. The period then running was Sat Dasa Rahu Bhukti Rahu Anthra and Sat Sookshma, Sat is lord of 2 (Maraka). Rahu is in the star of Mars lord of 11 (Badhaka). Rahu is in the sub of Moon, lord of 7th (Maraka) indicating death of the native.

Some men never die. Sri K.S. Krishnamurti was one among them. The Name of Prof. Krishnamurti our beloved Gururji will be remembered so long as a single soul devoted the knowledge of the deeper Truths of Predictive Astrology exists on this beautiful earth.

On the eve of his birth centenary with great respects to our beloved Gururji I conclude this article. May his blessings be shown to all our K.P. Followers also.

Good Luck

Horary Marriage Prediction

1. Here is an interesting case where Antara lord does not tally with the RPs.

Question: When would I likely to get married (searching for two years)?

Horary No: 34/249

Horary Date: 11/10/2008

Horary Time: 14:05:12 PM IST

Horary Place: L.G. Hospital- Ahmedabad, 23 N 00, 72 E 36

2. Mr. Kanak Bosmia's analysis is as under:

1) Period lords are Ra-Ju-Mo-Ma.

Ra(9), aspected by Ma(6, 7-12), in the star of Mo(10, 3), in the sub of Ve(6, 1-6).

Ju(8, 8-11), in the star of Ve(6, 1-6), in the sub of Ju(8, 8-11).

Mo(10, 3), in the star of Ra(9), in the sub of Ju(8, 8-11).

Ma(6, 7-12), in the star of Ra(9), in the sub of Sa+(4, 9-10).

Ra is agent of Ma(6, 7-12), Sa+(4, 9-10).

2) RPs

Sat_Sun_Rahu_Jup_Mer

Dasa lord Rah is in RPs, and also signifies 7, promising marriage.

Bhukti lord Jup is in RPs and signifies 11, promising marriage.

So marriage is promised during this Jup Bhukti up to 15/6/2009.

3) How would she look like?

7th sublord is Mer, in the star of Moon. Moon is in Kumbha and so she will be slim and good looking.

4) Is it happening any time soon - within 6 months?

As mentioned above, it would happen within 8 months from the date of judgment (most probably in Rah Antara from 06 Feb to 15 Jun 2009).

5) If Antara lord is to be tallied with RP, it would need to select next Sat Bhukti which is not signifies 2,7,11 even though it appears 3 times in RPs. Next Mer Bhukti period may be too far away for a Horary prediction.

3. Another interesting thing in this chart is that the sublord of 9 cusps including 2,7,11 for marriage is Me(5, 2-5), in the star of Mo(10,3) and in the sub of Ju(8, 8-11). So 2,7,11 houses are deemed to be connected and their cupal sublord signifies 2,11 indicating marriage. Let us wait and see what actually will happen.

New KPA 23:26:52 (Courtesy of Swami ji and chart by KPAstro 3.0 is attached.) All processes to get the US Green Card are over and some of his friends have already received it. He is also very likely to receive very soon and the question on 6 Sept 2008 is to predict the probable dates of receiving Green Card.

5. Generally to go abroad, the 12 cuspal sublord should signify 3, 9 (preferable) or 12. In addition, the Asc cuspal sublord should signify 3, 9 or 12 to settle abroad. The significators of 3, 9, 12 are also to be connected to each other.

6. In this chart the 12 cuspal sublord Ju+ signifies 3, 12 and Asc cuspal sublord Ve signifies 12. Among the significators Su, Ju for 3, Sa, Ke for 9 and Mo, Ju+, Ra for 12, Mo is in conjunction with Ke and Sa aspects Mo (Punarphoo). So the Green Card (permanent stay permit with the prospect of citizenship) is promised.

7. After living in US over 10 years since Dec 1977, the US is the native's current residence (house 4). So to get the Green, the houses 1 (self effort), 4 (current residence), 6 (success of effort) and 11 (fulfillment of desire) are mainly to be signified to let him stay on at the current place of residence other than to move him out by the houses 3 (change in place), 9 (foreign going) and 12 (foreign land).

8. The current running Dasa is Rahu (from 26 Jul 2004 to 26 Jul 2022).

Ra(4), aspected by Mo(11, 2), in the star of Ma(7, 6-11); Ra's signlord and sublord is Ve(10, 5-12). Dasa lord Ra signifies 4, 6, 11 and is connected with 12 by sub.

So it is possible to get the Green Card in Ra Dasa.

9. The current running Bhukti is Jupiter (from 08 Apr 2007 to 02 Sept 2009).

Ju+(11, 7-10). No planet is in the star of Ju and Ju is the sublord of cusps 6, 12.

Ju is in the star of Su(8, 3), in the sub of Ra(4) whose signification has been discussed above. Bhukti lord Ju signifies 6, 11, 12 and is connected with 4, 6, 11 by sub.

The event can happen in this Ju Bhukti.

10. The current running Antara is Venus (from 13 Jun 2008 to 07 Nov 2008).

Ve(10, 5-12), in the star of Me(8, 1-4), in the sub of Ra(4) whose signification has been discussed above. Antara lord Ve signifies 1, 4, 12 and is connected with 4, 6, 11 by sub.

It is favorable for the fructification of event.

11. Thus Ra-Ju-Ve DBA would be capable of getting the Green Card. In the Ve Antara, to choose a fruitful Sookshma the signification of current and coming Sookshma lords is checked as below:

1) The current running Sookshma is Jupiter (from 27 Aug to 16 Sept 2008). Ju is already taken as Bhukti lord and it is too early to choose it for Sookshma.

2) The next Sookshma is Saturn (from 16 Sept to 09 Oct 2008). Sa+(1, 8-9). No planet is in the star of Sa and Sa is a self strong planet for 1. Sa is in the star and sub of M(8, 1-4). Sookshma lord Sa signifies 1, 9 and is connected with 1, 4 by sub. It is favorable for the event to happen.

3) The following Sookshma is Mercury (from 09 Oct to 30 Oct 2008). Me(8, 1-4), in the star of Ma(7, 6-11), and in the sub of Ju+(11, 7-10). Me signifies 1, 4, 6, 11 and is connected with 6, 11, 12 by sub. But Me is not in RPs.

4) The last Sookshma of Ve Antara is Ketu (from 30 Oct to 07 Nov 2008). Ke(10), conj with Mo(11, 2); aspected by Sa+(1, 8-9). Signlord is Ma(7, 6-11); in own star and sub of Su(8, 3). Ke is rejected for being in the sub signifying 3 (12 to 4) and 8 (disappointment).

12. With the help of the following RPs, Sa Sookshma is chosen and Ra-Ju-Ve-Sa DBAS is the probable period to get the Green Card.

RPs at TOJ 8 Sept 2008, 16:36:22 PM IST at 27N 117E02 (Courtesy of Swami ji)

Asc: Sa--Mo--Sa (Sgl-Stl-Sbl)

Mo:--Ju--Ke--Ve (which is Ra's signlord)

Day Lord -- Mo

13. A possible date would be 24 Sept 2008 (Ra/Ju/Ve/Sa/Ve), after 12-43-37 PM Washington D.C. time (DST, 5hrs West of GMT), when transit Mo in the star of Sookshma lord Sa moves into the sub of Antara lord Ve, and transit Sun and DBAS lords will be in the star and sub of DBAS lords as follows:

Su: Me-Su-Ve (Sgl-Stl-Sbl)

Ra: Sa-Mo-Ve

Ju: Ju-Ve-Ra

Ve: Ve-Ra-Ra

Sa: Su-Ve-Ju

14. As the house 8 is signified by all Antara, Bhukti and Sookshma dasa lords Ju, Ve, Sa, it is supposed to get the Green Card after some kind of disappointment, like friends already got but not yet got, got late etc.

15. Unfortunately there was a feedback of not yet receiving the job related Green Card in the quota of the financial year ended at the end of Sept 2008. As the Green Card is promised and the present job is also astrologically secured, it is still expected to get it in the new financial year before the end of Venus Antara, 7 Nov 2008, after disappointment and delay due to the repeated signification of the house 8 and Punarphoo effect.

Generally in our society we start every good work in good Muhurta and we care much about it.

In Traditional Muhurta there are five main Pillars (Points to be considered), 1) Tithi (Hindu Date) 2) Vaar (Day) 3) Nakshatra (constellation) 4) Yoga and 5) Karana.

On a special day and time when the above five pillars are agreeable beneficially, we start our good work. In addition to these five pillars, we also check for Lagna, Moon, Sun and Jup, etc.

We start certain work only in some special Tithi, and for some work we never select some Nakshatra.

For example, Traditionally Pushya Nakshatra is considered very auspicious to start any work but it is never considered for marriage purpose because of the reason that lord Rama was married on pushya Nakshatra day and he never had a good peaceful married life. At the time of his Rajyabhishek, he was sent to exile for 14 Years with his wife. At the time of birth of his sons also his wife suffered a lot. When it was time to enjoy life with his wife (After becoming the King), his wife had to undergo Agni-Pariksha.

In Muhurata chart generally Astama Chandra is avoided. In addition there are some parihars Suggested by our Sages to neutralize the malefic effect of the planets. So as per them, even Astama Chandra can also be considered.

There are many rules and so many books are available on Vedic Muhurata.

In 1996/1997, I started studying Vedic Muhurata in one of reputed school of astrology and tried to learn on Muhurata. During my learning I found many contradictory rules and I never found any good satisfactory answer for my questions.

When first time my friend and very good Vedic astrologer Mr. Madhu Nair of Trivandrum insisted me to predict about discovery shuttle and when I started to analyze Discovery chart, I felt that KP muhurt is very easy and perfect. Without any complicated rules and parihars it works very well. We do not need to follow many rules. There is nothing written in KP readers about Muhurata. After some success I fixed some rules for my Muhurata works, and now by this Article I am going to share my findings and experiences with you through this Article.

What is Muhurata Time?

An auspicious time to start any event is a Muhurata. The chart for that special moment is MUHURATA CHART. Here it should be clearly understood that WE HAVE TO TAKE THE MOMENT OF STARTING, WE SHOULD NOT BOTHER WHEN THE EVENT GETS FINISHED. We take only the time when the event start.

Rules for KP Muhurat

1) Retrograde Planets:

There is no Room for retrograde Planets in muhurt. I totally agree with Dr. Keshab Ranjan Kar that Retrograde planet is not actually retrograde but it is our Drashti Bhram, so I never consider retrograde planet in any of my work, natal, Horay or Muhurat.

2) Role of node in KP Muhurat .

In KP Muhurat .Node is very important. When we found Node as a sub lord of relevant bhava, analyze node very carefully as detail given bellow:

A) If any planet is Conjoint with Node, Node gives first the result of conjoint planet, secondly give result of star lord and last sub lord.

B) If any planet is not conjoint with Node check for aspected planet to node. Here we have to look only special aspect, i.e Mars 4,8, Jup 5,9 and sat 3,10. When we check any planet's 7th aspect means that planet conjoint with other node, so we do not consider 7th aspect. In KP muhurat we have to consider only Hindu rasi to rasi aspect. If any planet aspect on Node, Node gives first result of aspecting planet, secondly give result of star lord and last sublord.

C) If any planet not conjoint with node or not aspect on Node gives result of Star lord, then sub lord and lastly sign lord.

If we found condition (A) fulfill we do not try to look for condition "B" or "C", if we found condition "B" then we do not try to look condition "A" or "C", if we do not find condition "A" or "B" then only we consider condition "C".

2) Relevant Bhava:

In KP Muhurat, we consider House grouping as given in KP literature. For example if we are looking for marriage muhurat we will check 2,7,,11 bhava and Main bhava is 7th. We try to fix time when 7th Sublord strongly signifies 2,7,11 and not 1,6,10.

If we try to fix muhurat for advertisement we will check 3,9,11 but main bhava is 11th. In this muhurat we try to fix time when 11th sublord signifies 3,9,11.

Like this we have to fix time when Relevant bhava's main sublord signifies group of bhava. In practical example I will discuss this subject in details.

3) Special Importance given to 11th cusp sublord.

When we fix any Muhurat as per rules in 2nd we will try to check 11th sublord too. If 11th sublord signifies the relevant house grouping, that is better. For example, while we are looking for marriage Muhurat, if 11th sublord also signifies 2,7,11, that is very good.

4) Running dasa:

It is must be that running dasa, Bhukti Anantara and sookasma also signify relevant house grouping. for example in case of marriage muhurat dasanath, Bhuktinath, Antra nath and sookmanath also must signify 2,7,11.

5) Selection of Lagna:

This last rule is very important in KP muhurat. In my practice I found that if Asc sublord of Muhurat chart indicates short life, even other factors are good and strong the event used to end within a short time. One of my friend joined a job in USA, at that time I am working on this KP Muhurat theory, so I asked him the time, date and place of joining job. When I checked the chart I found Muhurat chart of joining Job indicated Balrisha, so I told him that he would be fired from this job within a short period, and actually he was fired from that job, I will discuss this case in details in the practical examples.

This case is very important and eye opener for me. And I come to conclusion that in KP muhurat chart life of event must show long life.

I strongly suggest that never select Char lagna in muhurat chart. Very important point in any KP MUHURAT chart is, never select MESHA, KARKA, TULA AND MAKAR rasi as a Lagna. These four Rasis--MESHA, KARKA, TULA AND MAKAR are CHARA Rasis and for Chara Rasi the 11th cusp is Badhaka Sthana. When we do auspicious work we always think for long and prosperous life of that work, and for long life / longevity of the event we have to look Asc cusp sub lord. For good longevity if we select time when Asc sub lord signifies 1, 5, 11 it means good longevity. And if we take Chara Lagna i.e. MESHA, KARKA, TULA AND MAKAR 11th is not good but becomes a Badhaka. So we should avoid Chara Lagna for any Muhurat.

One of my KPAstrologer friend asks me 1) "if a client wants muhurat for winning in a race. The event is short lived may be for few minutes. what is the use of longevity here?" 2) Similarly for winning a contract, winning elections all are short lived events. The longevity is not the issue for such muhurats. 3) chara lagna is good for something where we want movement and not stagnant. e.g. It is understood from readers that chara lagna must be a requirement for buying a car. We don't want it to be parked always? Hence ruling out chara lagna saying badhaka may not be correct. Living and Non-Living classification is OK but finally non-living things are used for living people.

1) If a client wants muhurat for winning in a race. The event is short lived may be for few minutes. What is the use of longevity here?"

Longevity is very important here, for example we are looking for car race, the race period is very short but what happens if he faces accident in starting of Race and out of race? In this case if the chart shows us long longevity, it means he will complete race. We have also to judge 8th CSL not to show us accident in the chart. And some other factors also to be considered in Race MUHURAT. Each and every event have not same life, we have to use common sense too. If you are asking for betting money on race, then that is another question and it is to be handled by another way, both are not the same.

2) Similarly for winning a contract, winning elections all are short lived events. The longevity is not the issue for such muhurats.

Winning a contract: this is not a short life event, when we got a contract, after that what? Are we interested only in winning contract? After winning contract don't you need to complete that work? Don't you want to earn money from that? Don't you want to get some reputation from your work? Can we only stop after winning contract? For example, we had done 123 contracts with US, I predicted by MUHURAT chart of arrival time of Mr. Bush in India that it would materialize. Prediction comes very correct (details discuss on this chart in practical examples). Now think after years we are still discussing about it, is it a short life event? Same way, winning election is not a short life event because one needs to complete his 5 years term. What will happen if he is forced by party to resign? or Govt. falls and he has again to go to election? Don't you think Long life of this event should be a requirement?

3) Chara lagna is good for something where we want movement and not stagnant. e.g. It is understood from readers that chara lagna should be a requirement for buying a car. We don't want it to be parked always? Hence ruling out chara lagna saying badhaka may not be correct. Living and Non-Living classification is OK but finally non-living things are used for living people.

What will happen when we don't want to park and while going on highway the car is damaged in an accident and not able to run again? Don't we think long life of car should be a requirement? Please understand the difference between the two circumstances. I know it is a little bit difficult to digest but if we think more and more, definitely all are to agree with me.

But in some cases we have to drop the Char lagna idea. For example, a lady is admitted in hospital for delivery and Doctor says for caesarian immediately within 30 minutes, at this time we do not look which lagna is running but we will be careful about Asc sublord any how not to signify maraka and badhaka. Always we have to use our common sense. Without common sense an astrologer can never do good of others.

Now I will discuss practical example and how to calculate KP muhurat.

KP Muhurat Principles

Example I:

Let us calculate the muhurat for Factory Opening (Starting) in Rakhial-Ahmedabad, Gujarat. The date is August 12, 2006. (Long./Lat: 23 N 15/ 72 E 54)

Step-I:

Calculate the lagna transits on that day Using the “Lagna transits in sign and star” in KPAstro, we get the following details

Lagna Transit in Signs & Stars
Location: RAKHIAL, AHMEDABAD, GUJARAT, India
Date: 12/Aug/2006 Day: Saturday Sun Rise: 06:13:19 AM

The Lagna transits in the following signs
The Lagna transits in the following stars at the indicated times (0 - 24 hrs).

Sign Name	LagnaTime	Star Name	LagnaTime
Taurus	00:10:27	Rohini	00:47:34
Gemini	02:08:20	Mrigasira	01:40:28
Cancer	04:21:41	Aridra	02:37:00
Leo	06:37:54	Punarvasu	03:36:15
Virgo	08:49:53	Pushyami	04:36:54
Libra	11:00:41	Ashlesha	05:37:44
Scorpio	13:15:21	Magha	06:37:54
Sagittarius	15:31:26	P.Phalguni	07:37:04
Capricorn	17:36:47	U.Phalguni	08:35:24
Aquarius	19:23:25	Hasta	09:33:19
Pisces	20:56:17	Chitra	10:31:25
Aries	22:26:41	Swati	11:30:11
		Visakha	12:29:56
		Anuradha	13:30:34
		Jyeshtha	14:31:26
		Moola	15:31:26
		P.Ashada	16:29:15
		U.Ashada	17:23:45
		Sravana	18:14:24
		Dhanishta	19:01:15
		Satabhisha	19:44:53
		P.Bhadra	20:26:12
		U.Bhadra	21:06:14
		Revati	21:46:02
		Aswini	22:26:41
		Bharani	23:09:14
		Krittika	23:54:38

We remove Chara lagna from this list. This leaves the following.

Sign Name	LagnaTime From	To
Taurus	00:10:27	02:08:20
Gemini	02:08:20	04:21:41
Leo	06:37:54	08:49:53
Virgo	08:49:53	11:00:41
Scorpio	13:15:21	15:31:26
Sagittarius	15:31:26	17:36:47
Aquarius	19:23:25	20:56:17
Pisces	20:56:17	22:26:41

We have to use commonsense here. The Factory opening will be generally in morning and up to 12 PM. (if this is different in your case, use the appropriate timings). Since the Muhurat must be in this interval, we have to therefore to pick up lagna appropriately. We get the following pruned list.

Taurus	00:10:27	02:08:20
Gemini	02:08:20	04:21:41
Leo	06:37:54	08:49:53
Virgo	08:49:53	11:00:41

In these Four lagnas Taurus is from 00.10.27 to 02.08.20 and Gemini 02:08:20 To 04:21:41 which is too early for opening so now we have only two lagnas Leo and Virgo 06.37.54 To 11.00.41

Let us consider Leo (Simha). We have to now calculate the star and sub lords of the lagna as it progresses in this sign. Using the "Transition Information" in KP Astro, we get the following details

10:28:30 AM	Me	Mo	Su

In this process we start with Sun star.

Time	Sign	Star	Sub	Potential Muhurat?	Reason
08:49:53 AM	Me	Su	Ra	No	Rah is in 7(badhaka)
08:55:12 AM	Me	Su	Ju	No	Jup in 2(Maraka) Lord of 9(Badhaka).
09:02:55 AM	Me	Su	Sa	YES	Sat in 11 Lord of 5,6. In the star of Mer in 11 lord of 1,10 in the sub of Sun in 11 lord of 12.
09:12:05 AM	Me	Su	Me	YES	Mer in 11 Lord of 1,10, In the star of Sat in 11 Lord of 5,6. in the sub of Ket in 1.
09:20:17 AM	Me	Su	Ke	No	Ket in 12
09:23:40 AM	Me	Su	Ve		Ven Lord of 2(maraka)

Next is Moon Star.

Time	Sign	Star	Sub	Potential Muhurat?	Reason
09:33:19 AM	Me	Mo	Mo	Yes	Moon in 6 lord of 11 No planet in the star of Moon and Moon is sublord of 1,5.
09:38:09 AM	Me	Mo	Ma	No	Mar in 12 lord of 8
09:41:32 AM	Me	Mo	Ra	No	Rah is in the star of Jup lord of 7(badhaka)

09:50:13 AM	Me	Mo	Ju	No	Jup in 2(Maraka) lord of 7(badhaka)
09:57:57 AM	Me	Mo	Sa	YES	Sat in 10 lord of 5,6, in the star of Mer 10 lord of 1,10
10:07:09 AM	Me	Mo	Me	YES	Mer 10 lord of 1,10,in the star of Sat in 10 lord of 5,6,
10:15:23 AM	Me	Mo	Ke	No	Ket in 12
10:18:47 AM	Me	Mo	Ve	No	Ven lord of 2(Maraka)
10:28:30 AM	Me	Mo	Su	No	Sun Lord of 12

Next we consider Mars star.

Time	Sign	Star	Sub	Potential Muhurat?	Reason
10:31:25 AM	Me	Ma	Ma	No	Mar lord of 8, no planet in the star of mar and Mrs is sublord of 7(badhaka)
10:34:49 AM	Me	Ma	Ra	No	Rah is in the star of Jup lord of 7(badhaka)
10:43:35 AM	Me	Ma	Ju	No	Jup lord of 7(badhaka)
10:51:24 AM	Me	Ma	Sa	No	In the str of mer lord of 12

From our analysis we have identified Five potential Muhurats.

1) 09:02:55 AM Me Su Sa

Sat in 11 lord of 5,6. in the star of Mer in 11 lord of 1,10 in the sub of Sun in 11 lord of 12.

2) 09:12:05 AM Me Su Me

Mer in 11 Lord of 1,10, In the star of Sat in 11Lord of 5,6. in the sub of Ket in 1.

3) 09:33:19 AM Me Mo Mo

Moon in 6 lord of 11No planet in the star of Moon and Moon is sublord of 1,5.

4) 09:57:57 AM Me Mo Sa

Sat in 10 lord of 5,6, in the star of Mer 10 lord of 1,10

5) 10:07:09 AM Me Mo Me

Mer 10 lord of 1,10,in the star of Sat in 10 lord of 5,6,

We need to investigate these Muhurats further to select the best one for our purpose. Since we are interested in Opening of Factory, we want the 11th CSL to signify 2,6,10,11, 2nd cusp sublord signifies 2,6,11, and 10th cusp sublord signifies 2,10,11. in the appropriate muhurat. In this context we further analyze our five Muhurats with good longevity potential.

1) 09:02:55 AM Me Su Sa

2nd sublord is Mer, in 11 lord of 1,10; in the star of Sat in 11 lord of 5,6; in the sub of Ket in 1. This sublord indicates 11,6 and also 1 and 5.

11th subord is Sat in 11 lord of 5,6; in the star of Mer in 11 lord of 1,10.; in the sub of Sun in 11 lord of 12. This sublord indicates 6,10,11 and also 1,5,12

10th sublord is Ven, in 11 lord of 2,9; in the star and sub of Sat in 11 lord of 5,6.

In this sub we have found 11,2,6 and 5,9.

2) 09:12:05 AM Me Su Me

2nd sublord is Ven, in 11 lord of 2,9; in the star and sub of Sat in 11 lord of 5,6.

In this sub we have found 11,2,6 and 5,9.

10th Sublord is SUN, in 11 lord of 12; in the star of Mer 11 lord of 1,10; in the sub of Rah in 7.

In this sub we have found 11,10 and also 1,12.

3) 09:33:19 AM Me Mo Mo

2nd and 10th sublord is JUP. Jup is in 2 lord of 4,7; in the star of Rah in 6; Rah is conj with Moon in 6 lord of 11. No planet is in the star of Moon and Moon is sublord of 1,5; in the sub of Ven, in 10 lord of 2,9. In this sub we have found 2,6,10,11 and also 1,5,9.

11th sublord is Sun in 11 lord of 12; in the star of Mer 11 lord of 1,10; in the sub of Rah in 6.

In this sub we have found 11,10 and also 1,12

4) 09:57:57 AM Me Mo Sa

2nd sublord is Ket. Ket is in 12, apsected by Sat (3rd aspect) in 11 lord of 5,6; in the star of Sun in 11 lord of 12; in the sub of Own. This sub indicates 11,6, and also 1,5

10th sublord is Ven, in 10 lord of 2,9; in the star and sub of Sat in 11 lord of 5,6.

In this sub we have found 10,11,2,6 and 5,9.

11th sublord is Mer, in 10 lord of 1,10; in the star of Sat in 11 lord of 5,6; in the sub of Ket in 1.

This sublord indicates 10,11,6 also 1 and 5.

5) 10:07:09 AM Me Mo Me

2nd Sublord is Ven, in 10 lord of 2,9; in the star and sub of Sat in 11 lord of 5,6.

In this sub we have found 10,11,2,6 and also 5,9.

10th sublord is Sun in 11 lord of 12; in the star of Mer 10 lord of 1,10; in the sub of Rah in 6.

In this sub we have found 11,10 ,6 and also 1,12

11th sublord is Ket. Ket is in 12, apsected by Sat (3rd aspect) in 11 lord of 5,6; in the star of Sun in 11 lord of 12; in the sub of Own. This sub indicates 11,6 and also 1,5

In these five times mostly we have found all these fives are good but if we look carefully in 09.57.57 time,10 and 11th sub lord signifies 2,6,10,11, all the four good bhavas for business, so I select this time for factory opening MUHURAT.

Special note: in these above five times we have found 1,5,9 too, so keep in mind that in rear case we found all the positive bhavas signified by the relevant bhava, mostly some negative bhavas are also signified by the relevant bhava, but we have to select the most favorable time among them.

One of my friends whose wife was hospitalized because of a severe sickness approached me to find if the native was destined to survive. I replied by looking to some transits, though I wanted to be sure by KP analysis.

In the evening, with the question in mind “Will the native survive?”, I casted an time chart on Sep 28, 2008 at 19-34-25 Hrs IST at Bangalore. The lagna of the time chart was taken as the lagna of the native.

The time chart is presented as follows for analysis.

Coordinates of judgment:

- In the query when the survival of a patient is a question mark, the short life could be a case, if the lagna sub-lord gets linked to the maraca (2-7H) and badhaka houses.
- In any query for patient, a default scenario does exist for the recovery from the disease (5H) and release from the hospital (11H). Thus, if the patient is to recover and released from the hospital, the lagna should be linked with the 5-11th houses.
- 11th cusp has the final say on the query and should be judged carefully. If the patient is to get released from the hospital after death, the 11th house should get linked to the 8th house.
- While the lagna indicates the patient (native), the 7th cusp indicates the attending doctor.

The analysis of the chart:

A brief snapshot of analysis is presented herewith.

1. Examine Lagna for correctness of the chart

This is done to assess the physical status of the native.

Note that the Lagna sub-lord is Rahu, which is the sub-lord of the 7th house (doctor) as well.

Rahu falls in the star of Moon (weaker lord of 5th house) placed in the 6th house indicating the sickness related to the nature of Moon (Soma-nectar). Note that Moon naturally signifies the replenishing of Soma in the body, in the want of which the body decays. Rahu, because of its head cut does gulps for the breath and classically, the Rahu-Moon combination cause severe breathing difficulties. In fact, it was the breathing difficulties because of which the patient was hospitalized.

At the outset of indications, the chart seemed correct and it was safe to proceed ahead.

2. Examine lagna for longevity

Continuing on the analysis of lagna, it is noticed that the lagna sub-lord Rahu primarily signifies 6th house at the stellar level and denies recovery because it is a weaker lord of 5th house (recovery). Rahu falls in the sub of Venus who is placed in the 7th house (a maraca house) as the lord of lagna (native) and 8th house (longevity). Noting the fact that Rahu (lagna sub-lord) also owns Aquarius-a badhaka house (by parasharic canons), the linkage of Lagna sub-lord gets completed to the maraca and badhaka houses and thus portends a serious time ahead, perhaps, leading towards death.

Rahu disposes Saturn and Moon and let these planets be also analyzed.

Saturn is a strong lord of 11th house placed in 5th house meaning the release from the hospital (11H) and that of the disease (5th house). At stellar level, Saturn signifies 1-7-8th houses, as Saturn falls in the star of Venus placed in maraca sign (7th house) as the lord of 1-8th houses. Saturn falls in the sub of 12th lord Jupiter (a strong planet) placed in 9th house. Note that Saturn is also the badhaka lord as well, thus the Saturn's significations of 1-7-8-12th houses as badhaka lord pose a danger to the longevity of the native.

(A) - Planets in Occupant's stars
(B) - Occupant of house
(C) - Planets in Owner's stars
(D) - House Owner

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars

The other disposed planet Moon falls in the star of Sun placed in 6th house, thus the continuation of disease gets indicated, as Moon is in the sub of Jupiter which signifies 12th house strongly (hospital) placed in 9th house (doctor's efforts continuing).

Summing up the indications of the lagna sub-lord, the clear evidence of the continuance of disease (6H) in the hospital (12H) is evidenced, and the threat of the longevity is also evidenced by way of the combined significations of 6-7-8-1-badhaka lord.

3. Examine the 6th cusp

Analysis of 6th cusp would indicate the status of the disease.

6th cuspal sub-lord is Jupiter, which is a strong planet and strongly disposes the 12th house (hospital), which it owns.

Jupiter falls in the star of Venus placed in maraca house (7H) as the lord of 1-8th houses. At the sub level, Jupiter falls in the sub of Rahu, which signifies 6-7-1-8th houses (refer # 2 above). Rahu as analyzed above does not bode well for the longevity.

Thus, the disease seems to continue as such leading to the death.

4. Examine 7th cusp of attending doctor

Rahu is the cuspal sub-lord of the 7th house. As evaluated before, Rahu signifies 6-7-1-8th houses being badhaka lord by itself, thus the treatment may not be of much use to the patient.

5. Examine the 11th cusp

The assessment of 11th cusp would indicate in overall context about the fruitfulness of the query.

11th cuspal sub-lord is Saturn and the analysis of Saturn's significations as 6-7-1-8th houses (given in # 2, para 3) does not portend well for the longevity. Note that the release of the patient from the hospital (11th house) could be after the completion of longevity (8th house).

6. Examine the Dasha spread

The native was running the dasha of Sun-Jupiter-Rahu-Saturn.

Note that all the planets have been analyzed in the succeeding paras and hence it is concluded that the prevailing time is not supportive of the patient either to recover or to survive.

7. Conclusion

By conclusion, it was understood that there was almost no hope of the native's survival.

This analysis was suspended at this point of time and no communication was made to the friend, as it did not sound well in its outcome. I was of course curious to find the results.

8. Facts of the case

My friend telephoned me about a fortnight later and regretted to inform that his wife passed away on Oct 14, 2008 in the hospital, even being in ICU for over a month.

I conclude herewith with my sincere thanks to Prof. Krishnamurthy, who has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

The space-craft which will be launched on 22-10-2008 at 6-20 A.M. at SRIHARIKOTA (Nellore Dist, A.P.). KP.Astro 3.0 Software of Dr.Rangarajan, Chennai is used for erecting this Chandrayana-I chart.

I feel that there is no wrong in the implementation of K.P.Rules for going abroad in this case also.

3rd = leaving the launch pad of Sriharikota to reach the Moon. (The country's first unmanned Moon Machine is assembled or prepared in any manner at Sriharikota. It should leave the launch pad of Sriharikota)

9th = long & strange journey to reach Moon.

12th = landing on the Moon (i.e.) to a new and strange place, entirely new environment. K.P.Rule: 12th cusp Sub lord should signify either 3 or 9 or 12 for stepping into Moon land. Here in this chart, 12th cuspal sub lord Venus is in her own sub and in the constellation of Saturn, signifying 11 – 2 – 4&5 – 1&8 grade wise respectively which are all not relevant houses for stepping into Moon Land. (See the table-Significators-Planet view.).

Lagna rises in Tula which is a movable sign. So 11th is the Badhaka for this lagna. 2nd (i.e.) Scorpio 7th Mesha are Marakasthanas. Venus is in Tula 10-03-54 & 2nd cusp falls in Tula 08-11-08 (i.e.) close conjunctions of Venus and 2nd cusp is visible. The signification of 11 & 2 as "A" grade & "B" grade of Venus shows clearly the Badhaka and Maraka respectively.

Next 3rd and 9th cuspal Sublord is Rahu. He is conjoined with a deceptive planet Neptune® in 4th. (This indicates that a small or a big trouble may arise in the starting of the movement at Sriharikota itself). 4th indicates the native place. He is at 4 in the constellation of Moon at 10. Thus Rahu signifies 4 & 10 strongly starwise. These two houses are also unrelavent to this matter. Rahu is in the sub of Venus. About Venus already discussed. No need of considering deeply the signification of Rahu

Therefore I came to a conclusion that a small trouble may arise at the starting point or movement or postponement of time may take place. Even if it is launched as per correct scheduled, definitely it will not get success in this issue.

It is my personal astrological analysis only. Let us wait for the results.

Editor's note:

Chandrayana - I (Mission Moon) was successfully launched at 06:22 AM, only 2 min later than the scheduled time, but changing the sublords of 4 cusps (3,4,5,12), especially Ju+ (no planet in its star), becoming the cuspal sublord of also houses 3,5, signifies 3 as 3rd cuspal sublord and is good for longevity of the mission by signifying 1,5 and 3,8 as 1st cuspal sublord.

On 28th 2003 one of my client brought his friend to my place and he gave one horoscope of a Karnataka's leading film actor. Then he informed to me that, he is close family friend of him (actor) and he wants to know some facts about the feature of the Actor that is why he brought his horoscope.

He is very popular film actor, but for the past seven years the actor didn't have much opportunity and wanted to verify whether there is any possibility to enter to film field again, and I shall describe the details of my finding of his horoscope.

Before that for the person to act in film what type of horoscope he should have let me explain to the reader first.

5th house in the horoscope explains the art field and about the artist also and the 7th house is the house of the people who enjoy the art. 5th house is the 11th house to the 7th house. This is happiness and satisfaction to the people. That is to make the fans. Therefore if the actor should satisfy the public through his action then only he will permanent in art field.

If the sub lord of the 5th house is inter linked to its favorable Bhavas then only The artist can long in the art field. But if the sublord of the 5th is inter linked to the unfavorable bhavas to the 5th house, one cannot stay long in art field.

The sub lord of the 5th house should also inter linked to favorable houses of the 10th house. Then only the artist can do it as a profession, otherwise even if has lot of talent he cannot stay long as an artist profession.

In total the sub lord of the 5th house through its starlord and sublord should not be inter linked to the unfavorable houses of 5th and 10th that is 8th and 12th houses that is 4th, 12th and 5th, 9th house. So for we have seen the place of 5th house what is bhava fate in the 5th house.

Next we have to see whether the Lagna fate is favorable to the 5th house or unfavorable to 5th house. Because every bhava fate is coming from Lagna fate and all the bhava fates controlled by lagna. Lagna determined native's self (Individual) ability. If lagna is inter linked to 4th & 12th house which is 8th & 12th to the 5th house, he cannot do any long service in Art field and destiny is against 100%.

Suppose Lagna inter link is unfavorable to the 5th Bhava and 5th house inter link is 100% favorable to art field, he can opportunity in cine field only during the dasa bukthi which is favorable to 5th & 10th houses (i.e. 2, 3, 5, 6, 10, 11th houses) very strongly.

In the same way if lagna bhava and 5th bhava fate is unfavorable to art field, and the dasa bhukthi is 100% advantage to the 5th and 10th houses, he can have opportunities only like non prominent roles (and not like hero, heroin villain etc.,) and only as side actor.

In art field what type of field (i.e. acting, music, singer, direction etc.,) can be assessed by Graha (planets) karakas, kalapurusha thathuvam in multi diementional assessment

Now I shall share the details of the horoscope of the actor as what I see.

First I corrected the horoscope by ruling planet and adding one minute to it. Then I started studying the horoscope

In this horoscope lagna sub lord is Jupiter. Jupiter is in the star of Venus and sub of Venus. Venus is the cuspal sub lord of 2, 11th bhavas. lagna bhava is not having inter linked with unfavorable bhava's of 5th & 10th house. So lagna fate is favorable to art field.

As lagna bhava sub lord Jupiter is strongly interlinked to Venus. Therefore the native will be attractive beautiful and will attract public by his beauty (in hero status) as these are the karaghas of Venus.

Next the sub lord of 5th house is Mars. Mars is in the star of Venus in the sub of Sun. Here Venus is cuspal sub lord of 2, 11th house and Sun is the cuspal star lord of 5th house. The above 2, 5, 11th houses are favorable to the field of art.

The link of 5th house to Venus along with bhava karagha is powerful and can stand for long in cine field as long as the dasa does not unfavorably affect the 5th house. More important the Mars dasa, during its period make the native as a leading actor as fate manifest in the dasa cine field.

I informed the family friend that during the Mars dasa from 14.05.1991 to 14.05.1998 the native as actor in the cine field should have had good improvement name, fame, money etc.. He also confirmed same and told that during the period he had many film contracts and had good success. He had good name, fame and success during the whole period of Mars dasa..

Let us analyze the present dasa bhukthi.

Raghu dasa is from 14.05.1998 to 14.05.2018. Raghu is own star and in sub of Saturn. Raghu is the cuspal sub lord of 6th house and 12th house. Saturn is the cuspal sub lord of 4th & 10th houses. So the dasa is inter linked strongly to 4, 6, 10, 12 which are unfavorable houses of 5th house. So the dasa fate is very weak for cine field. So Raghu dasa is not favorable for art profession.

In any involvement in any field like profession for long duration, if the dasa fate is not favorable even if fate is strong that he cannot gain good things from the involvement.

For all in the world the 10th house is house of professional. This is common. Actually the 10th house has 12 bhava karagha field of professional. For example 3rd house communication, information field; 4th house production, education, house construction field, 5th house art, commission field. So there are 12 bhava karagha in 10th house.

In this horoscope dasa lord Raghu since linked to 4, 6, 10, 12 bhavas which are totally unfavorable to the 5th bhava (cine field). As such the native cannot involve in cine field during Raghu dasa as in Mars dasa. Particularly whenever 3, 5, 9, 11 bhavas inter linked bhukthi field to periods native can involve in cine some extend.

3, 5, 9, 11, bhavas are 12th house to the dasa lord Raghu inter linked bhavas. During such bhukthis the bhukthis will act beyond the dasa and help to some extend. Particularly in Rahu dasa, Rahu bhukthi was not favorable to its art field.

I asked the family friend during Raghu dasa own bhukthi (14.05.1998 to 26-01-2001) the native had unfavorable days in cine field and he was confirmed by the friends and also informed to me that he was away from cine field completely.

Jupiter bhukthi the next 26-01-2001 to 20-06-2001. Jupiter is in the star of Venus, sub of Venus. Jupiter is 1, 7th cuspal sub lord. Venus is 2, 11th cuspal sub lord. Therefore the bhukthi is linked to 1, 7, 11 bhavas strongly.

The bhukthi even though linked to 1, 7, 11 houses cannot overtake or resist the dasa completely and help some extend around 30% and some little turning point. So I was informed the friend same.

He recollected the event and said that he acted in two films and had moderate success. Also another two film released which was already he acted in raghu dasa raghu bhukthi .

Next the running Saturn bhukthi is up to 26.04.2006. Saturn is in the raghu star and its own sub. Saturn is the 4,10th cuspal sub lord and raghu is the 6,12th cuspal sub lord. So Saturn inter linked to 4,6,10,12th through star and sub and is in tune (favorable) with dasa raghu.

So that he cannot involve in cine field. During Saturn bhukthi as it matches in links he will not resist the dasa like Jupiter and as such till Saturn bhukthi he cannot involve in cine field and get success as I told

Next Mercury bhukthi is till 12-11-2008. Mercury in kethu star Saturn sub. Mercury is the cuspal star lord of 4,8,12 bhavas ,and kethu 3,9th cuspal sublord. Saturn 4,10th cuspal sub lord. Among the above links the mercury is strongly linked to 3,9,12th houses

The mercury bhukthi since having links with 3,9,12th bhavas will put a break to the dasa lord's 4,10th houses and also 6,12th house will not break.. So from 26-04-2006 to 12.11.2008 he can have a reentry. The native can involve in cine field some extend. I told and started analyzing the next upcoming bhukthis .

Next to mercury bhukthi kethu bhukthi will run upto 1-12-2009. kethu is in own star and Saturn sub .Kethu is the 3,9th cuspal sub lord and Saturn is the 4,10th cuspal sub lord..The above will completely diffuse the 4,&10th houses and 3,9th houses becomes very strong.

Kethu though a short period will be better than mercury and Saturn in the dasa of raghu and will make involvement in the cine field. At the same time bhukthi next to kethu, venus, sun, moon, mars etc., by their links not able to resist raghu by and they are not strongly linked to 3,9,5,11th bhavas. Above mars though having link with 5,11th house as the dasa is having 4,10th house it will not allow 5,11th house to operate we have note.

When I was narrating the details to the family friend he said that the native has got opportunities to act in films and next month sep.2005 onwards the shooting will start and it will be some turning point in his carrier they understood.

Immediately I said if the film if released in around 2006 may during raghu dasa mercury bhukthi it will be some turning point and so requested them to delay the release of the film.

Next guru dasa will be good for art field at the time the native will be around 50 years old and so he cannot act like hero he can choose roles in dignified roles to get fame and name. Since mathi (birth moon position) the raghu dasa came in the middle ages though the fate is strong in the raghu dasa did not allow for involvement in cine field.

I have explained how fate and dasa in horoscope to be analyzed in detailed in an open mind I shared my experience with astro lovers.

I, humbly submit this article to my Guruji, one who took care of my development, Prasanna jothida Mani K. Baskaran, Madurai.

Election commission on 14/10/2008 declared election in five states. They are Chhattisgarh, Rajasthan, Delhi, Madhya Pradesh, and Mizoram.

- 1) Chhattisgarh Election date: 14 & 20 Nov 2008: Vote Counting 8 Dec 2008: currently ruled by BJP.
- 2) Rajasthan Election date: 4 Dec 2008: Vote Counting 8 Dec 2008: currently ruled by BJP.

I decided to check with random number generated by software.

1) Chhattisgarh Election date: 14 & 20 Nov 2008: Vote Counting 8 Dec 2008: currently ruled by BJP.

Question: Will any chance for BJP to come in power again in Chhattisgarh?

Horary No: 207/249

Horary Date: 14/10/2008

Horary Time: 18.46.36

Horary Place: L.G.Hospital-Ahmedabad 23 N 00, 72 E 36

Who will win election?

If 10th (One's position in politics) sublord signifies, 10 (One's Reputation), 3 (One's ability), 11 (One's reputation as a Winner) in the DBA of 3, 10, 11 one can win Election.

10th Sublord is Ven. In the star of Jup and sub of Mar.

Ven is in 9, Lord of 4-9, Jup is in 11, Lord of 2-11-12, Mar is in 9, Lord of 3-10.

We found all three 3, 10, 11 signifies by 10th sublord Ven.

Dasa Analysis:

Running DBA: up to 8/12/2008

Dasa: Mer is in 8, Lord of 5-6-8 Moon is in 2, Lord of 7, Rah is in 12, Rahu aspected by Mar. Mar is in 9, Lord of 3-10. Dasa lord signifies 3, 10.

Bhukti:

Mar is in 9, Lord of 3-10, in the star of Rah is in 12, Rahu aspected by Mar. Mar is in 9, Lord of 3-10.

in the sub of Mer is in 8, Lord of 5-6-8.

Bhukti lord signifies 3, 10.

Antra dasa:

Ven is in 9, Lord of 4-9, Jup is in 11, Lord of 2-11-12, Mar is in 9, Lord of 3-10.

Ven signifies 3, 10, 11.

Let us check for opponent side:

10th sublord is Ven. Ven is in the star of Jup and sub of Mar.

Ven is in 3, Lord of 3-10, in the star of Jup is in 5, Lord of 5-6-8, in the sub of Mar is in 3, lord of 4-9.

We found only 10 but not seen 3, 10 and 5(11 for opponent) and 9(3rd for opponent).

My opinion: For BJP we found 3, 10, 11 and for opponent we found 3, 10, and also 5(11 for opponent) and 9(3rd for opponent). so chance of BJP are very bright, also for BJP. 10th sublord signifies 9 very strongly and BJP targeted as a communal party, I think this 9th signification is in favor of BJP.

Esteemed Mr. Kanak Bosmia, It is difficult to find words to express how valuable your gift of all the past issues of the KP E-Zine has been. These magazines, read from the very beginning, become even more useful than they are individually. Thank you for including enlightening articles on many different aspects of KP.

Tha Htu

Dear Kanak Ji,

It is really a great thing to know you are doing in a non-profitable manner. You must be a gifted person to do such a great service to the science of astrology, especially KP. I assure of my co-operation and service to this great cause. Congratulations once more.

With regards,
MK

Dear Sri Kanak

Thanks a lot for your kp-ezine magazine. I sincerely thank you for giving me as a new member an opportunity to download the old issues of 2007-2008. As a kp student, i am very glad to say that the kp enzine is the real place to visit by anyone who wants to know more on the subject. Here in Italy quite nobody knows about kp astrology.

GOD WILL BLESS U WITH LONG LIFE.

Dear Bosmiaji,

Thank u very much for the November issue. just now i downloaded it and after going through it i will send my comments.

wish u all the prosperity and long life,
T.R.Rao

Dear Mr.Kanakji,

I am thrilled by finding your November 2008 issue of E-Zine with jewels of articles therein. Your lucid way of explaining the importance of Muhurth time fixation so that every one can follow & get benefit of it. It is a fine research and your findings are excellent. Your prediction about ensuing States Assembly Elections are noteworthy and is to be keenly watched. As usual Mr.Tin Winji is rendering yeoman service to the learners by teaching selection of significators, timing of events etc. All beginners as well as advanced students are to take advantage of it. Prediction Techniquw thro' KB system by Mr.A.Devaraj, who propagates the research of Madurai Bhaskaranji grows well and it is boon to those who were not direct students to him. I wish that he should continue till end. Articles of others Mr. VSN Murthy and Vijay Kumar are thought provoking. Finally, Sri Vaikari Ramamurthy has paid a fitting homage to late rev.Guruji KSK during his Birth Centenary. It is all the more floral tribute to Guruji from the person, who closely moved with the late Guruji and had the benefit of hearing the essence of the system direct from his mouth. Let us pray that his blessings will always be there for his followers.

Astrologically yours,

K.S.V.Ramani

I am amazed to find such a wonderful KP E-gine magazine my task is becoming simpler though i am struggling hard for the last two years to understand KP systems thru many of guruji's book i could only grasp little of what the system is about but now i am hopeful and grateful to BOSMIAji weldone at last late guruji got a true torchbearer

Saturn Relevant to Timing of Events

1. In considering the effect of Saturn in the timing of events, the KP guidelines are as follows:

1) Saturn is considered to be a delaying planet and occasionally a denying one depending upon the ownership and accidental occupation at the moment of birth of the native. Whenever Saturn is in any manner connected with Moon or Mars or Jupiter, there cannot be delay. It can delay till its own i.e. Saturn period commences and when Saturn sub-period starts, it fulfills surprisingly suddenly and most satisfactorily. If Saturn is said to be a delaying planet, it does not allow the lords of the previous sub-periods to offer the result which is he is also entitled to give. When Saturn is really very much connected with houses 2, 7 and 11 by being the owner, by being the occupant of the constellation of lord of 7, by aspecting the constellation of lord of 7, by aspecting 11 etc. and conjoined with Mars, aspected by Jupiter etc., then Saturn does miracles with lightning speed. (KP & Astrology 1996, page 38)

2) Delay, dejection, disappointment, denial, etc. are caused by Sani, and strongly so if Sani occupies the 5th house where from it will aspect the 7th, 11th and 2nd houses by its third, seventh and tenth aspects respectively. Whenever Sani happens to be a significator of a particular matter, it will not deny but will cause delay. If it is connected with houses 2, 7 and 11 by occupying the house or owning it or situated in the constellation of the planet posited in any of these houses, it will cause delay at every time- in fixation of marriage, celebration of marriage, etc. It will not deny marital happiness. But if Sani has no connection with houses 2, 7 and 11 but only throws its aspect, this portends denial and even disappointment. Generally, all those in whose chart Sani is placed in the 5th house will have their marriage, delayed and delayed till the very end. (KP Reader IV, page 109)

Saturn's Effect of Delay or No Delay

2. When Punarphoo Dosha is present in the chart due to Saturn-Moon connection in any manner, it is used to consider that there would be delay in marriage or happening of the event. However, Dr. Rangarajan Krishnamoorthy has found in his study of 67 Punarphoo-effected Natal charts that only 32 (47.76%) charts corresponds to delayed marriage and 35 (52.24%) charts corresponds to no delay in marriage, like in the charts of Dr. B.V Raman, Mrs. Sandy Crowther etc. It would be no delay in the cases such as:

1) When Saturn is very much connected with houses 2, 7 and 11 and Mars and Jupiter etc., then Saturn does miracles with lightning speed.

2) If both Moon and Saturn involved in Punarphoo Dosha are connected strongly to 7th house, Saturn gives marriage in its Dasha and/or Anthara.

3) Generally, whenever the 7th sub-lord happens to be Moon marriage comes in an earlier or in proper age never late. (KP & Astrology 1996, page 37)

Choose or Avoid Saturn DBA

3. In considering whether Saturn DBA dasa periods are capable of giving marriage in the Punarphoo-effected charts, the views as given under:

1) Saturn who is a delaying planet will not allow marriage until his Bhukti or Anthara period is over and the event will materialize only in a favorable dasa periods of the succeeding planets.

2) If Saturn becomes a strong significator of the relevant houses under consideration, Saturn Dasa or Bhukti or Anthara should be preferably considered for the timing of event as Saturn takes the credit of giving the events while letting down his predecessor planets. It is supported by the above conditions in #2 and some experience that the event is used to happen in Saturn, Moon DBAS periods. (Dr. K.R. Kar, Shri Vaikari Ramamurthy, K. Subramaniam and Mr. Kanak Bosmia)

3) The bottom line is whether Saturn and Moon strongly signify 2,7,11 houses other than mere connection of Saturn and Moon.

Cancellation of Punarphoo

4. Dr. Kar's theory of cancellation of Punarphoo to destroy the evil effects of Punarphoo by burning Sat or Moon by Sun's ray is found not significantly working by some experience of Mr. Kanak Bosmia, Shri Rajendra Kumar and 15 Puarphoo-nullified example charts in Punarphoo book. (KPEzine July 2007, Astrovision December 2008)

5. Another cancellation idea of 'Saturn giving: a) marriage without delay, if there is adverse Western aspect between Moon and Saturn; b) delayed marriage, if there is Western favorable Western aspect' is to be tried. (KP for Beginners, Vol.V, 1994, page 744/ Punarphoo, 1999, page 74)

6. The experience is that whenever both Saturn and Moon are applying conjunction in the 7th house or 8th house, the date of marriage is post-phoned and in the latter case, the marriage with the first party breaks off and the marriage takes place with change of partner. But where both the planets are in rapt conjunction (exact degree) in the said houses, the dosha is totally nullified and there is no delay at all. (KP for Beginners, Vol.V, 1994, page 755/ Punarphoo, 1999, page 84)

Saturn's Denial of Marriage

7. The above KP ruling in #1.2, "If Sani has no connection with houses 2,7 and 11 but only throws its aspect, this portends denial and even disappointment." is found working in the chart given below.

8. Chart 1: Male, 24 October 1964. 15.12 PM IST, 18N32, 73E52, New KPA (2003) 23:16:32, Asc Aq 14:16:06, Moon Dasa balance 1Y:8M:8D (attached). Saturn in 1st house throws aspect on 7th house by Hindu aspect but Saturn does not signify any of 2,7,11 marriage giving houses, i.e. Saturn is in 12, lord of 1,12 and in the star of Mars in 6, lord of 3,10. Moreover, 7th cusp sub-lord Venus is in the deciding sub-lord of Moon, which is in 4, lord of 6. Thus marriage is denied as per KP.

Saturn's Delay of Marriage till the Very End

9. Another above KP ruling in #1.2, "Generally, all those in whose chart Sani is placed in the 5th house will have their marriage, delayed and delayed till the very end." is also found working in the following chart, causing delay of marriage till the very end of Saturn Dasa, i.e. Jupiter Bhukti of Saturn Dasa.

10. Chart 2: Male, 09-03-1958, 17:30 PM IST, 14N15, 75E41, New KPA 23-10-59, Asc Le 09-53-44, Rahu Dasa Bal 3Y-6M-3D. (attached) Saturn is in 5th house (sign) and aspects all marriage giving houses 7,11,2 to cause the exceptionally prolong delay of marriage only on 27-05-1994 (Sa-Ju-Ju-Su DBAS) though signifiers for 2nd house are Sun, Mercury, Jupiter, Mercury, Rahu, Ketu, for 7th Mars, Sun, Mercury, Saturn, Ketu and for 11th Mercury being capable of giving marriage in earlier Bhuktis.

11. It is to note that Saturn in 1,3,5,7 and 10 counted from lagna delays the time of fixation and celebration of marriage. Saturn placed in the 5th house (house of celebration of marriage) aspecting the 7th cusp by the 3rd aspect delays the wedding till the native gets disgusted and dejected

12. Chart 3: Female, 19-02-1974, 05:20 AM IST, 22N28, 70E04, New KPA 23-24-21, Asc Cp 01:34:28, Sun Dasa balance 4Y:1M:1D (attached) In this chart Saturn is in 5th house (bhava) but 6th sign, not 5th sign. Since Saturn does not aspect marriage giving houses 7,11,2, the above said ruling in #1.2 or 9 is not applicable to this chart. Here Punarphoo is not present to give an excuse and delay of marriage till now is possibly due to some negative signification of Rahu as 7th cuspal sub-lord and lord of the current running Dasa.

Background

1. Mars Dosha lacks a clear mention in any classical authoritative text. Even astrologers don't have agreement on it. Views of the astrologers and astrological texts vary and this has led to confusion. This Dosha is popular only with Hindus. (Umang Taneja: The Textbook of Astrology, page 203 & 207) Each one will have their own say according to their whims and fancies, and due to this it is the general public pushed to run from pillar to post. (Sri M.P. Shanmugam: Astrosecrets & KP, Part 1, 2003, page 42)

2. Generally, Mars occupying 1,2,4,7,8,12 houses (signs) counted from the Ascendant is considered to cause Mars Dosha. Some count the placement of Mars from Moon and Venus also. If it is counted from the Ascendant alone, half of us will be Manglik. If all positions from the Ascendant, Moon, Venus are counted, almost all of us will be Mangliks to suffer from separation or early death of the spouse etc. (Jataka Parijata XIV.34, V.S. Sastri translation pages 863-4), which is not the case. It is not known how this Dosha operates due to lack of systematic records or research supported by the sufficient number of horoscopes.

3. In a study of the Traditional Mars Dosha, not KP Mars Dosha, on the TOB AA- rated 100 foreign born charts of multi-marriages used for the multi-marriage study by Mr. Kanak Bosmia, Shri Raichur has found:-

- 1) No Mars Dosha in 52 charts,
- 2) mitigated Dosha in 38 charts, and
- 3) unmitigated Dosha in 10 charts, ie.10% only.
- 4) So it appears that Mars Dosha is not valid to cause multi-marriage, common evil result of this Dosha, with only 10% appearance of unmitigated Mars Dosha.

One's Fate according to Own Karma

4. All major life events of a native including longevity are to be predicted according to his Natal Horoscope. Therefore longevity of native cannot change by marrying anyone including a so-called Manglik as shown below:

- 1) The reason why Mars alone will do so much harm to the couple which other planet cannot do is that there are some people who unnecessarily exaggerate the evil results of Mars. (KP Reader IV page 52)
- 2) One need not unnecessarily entertain any fear about Mars and its untoward effects. (Ibid page 53)
- 3) One should consider the individual horoscope, study for longevity, harmony, happiness, prosperity, etc., and should not confuse oneself with Dasa porutham and Mars Dosham. (Ibid page 51)
- 4) It is not wise to attribute success or failure in one's life to the fortune or misfortune of one's life. Both have to happen according to one's karma which can be read by an astrologer. (Ibid page 174)
- 5) Each horoscope has to be judged independently. Whatever is found in the chart will alone come to pass. By marrying one having Eka-Dasa or Dasa Sandhi, one will never alter the results indicated by one's chart. (Ibid page 264)

- 6) There is nothing called 'Mars Dosha' in real effect, certainly not as the traditional astrologers and the public believe it to be. Mars Dosha has nothing to do with the life span of the couple as it is assumed wrongly. (Shri K. Hariharan, as per courtesy of Mohan Kumar Ragunathan)
- 7) Since a horoscope is bound by Karmic parameters, matching cannot bring the miracles. But it can be an effective tool to fight premature loss of spouse and other problems that occur between spouses. (Gayatri Devi Vasudev: Clues to Interpreting Charts, page 224)

Traditional Mars Dosha Explained in KP

5. The traditional criteria of Mars Dosha explained in KP Reader IV pages 51-69 'up to 4th paragraph' is the exact reprint of content in pages 215-228 of the original Krishnamurti Padhdhati Vol. 2, 1966, Sagar Publications. In the same page 69, three paragraphs are added to give a clear opinion that not Mars alone, any planet can cause such undesirable effect of disagreement, dispute, divorce etc among the couple provided they happen to be deposited in such a position of the significator of 6 or 10 or 12. (KP Reader IV page 69, '5th paragraph') On the other hand Mars also can give the beneficial results and so Mars like any other planet should not be branded as a fully malefic planet.

The experience is that the house position of Mars in a chart does not make a native Manglik, if Mars is considered a functional benefit for the natal chart. (David Hawthorne, V.K. Choudhry: Astrology for Life, page 113)

6. Sri M.P. Shanmugam has also explained the Traditional Mars Dosha in Astrosecrets & KP, Part 1, 2003, pages 39- 48, and given opinion that in several ways a prediction is given which has neither clarity nor a systematic approach etc. and finally it is the public who suffer.

7. The only one short theoretical article on Mars Dosha is found in all the K.P. & Astrology Year Books from 1995 to 2008, i.e. "Mars Dosha- A Myth" by N. Sarangan (KP & Astrology Year Book 2002, page 48). Quoting the above Gururji KSK's opinion on the role of Mars (KP Reader IV pages 69 '5th paragraph'), it is concluded that the traditional ideas about Mars Dosha are meaningless without taking into consideration of the beneficial aspects received by Mars from other planets, its stellar position etc, and Mars Dosha does not suit our modern age.

8. Mars Dosha is not found or not given any attention in:-

- 1) the writings of referable KP astrologers like Shri C.R. Bhatt (Nakshatra Chintamani), Dr. K.R.Kar (Sub-sub Theory), Shri K.M. Subramaniam (Sub Lord Speaks), Shri Vaikari Ramamurthy (Punarphoo), Shri K. Subramaiaam and Shri K. Hariharan (sons of Gururji KSK) etc .
- 2) the KPDP- KP rules for marriage matching by Sri Kuppu Ganapathi (KP & Astrology Year Book 1997, pages 32-44 , KPEzine March 2007)
- 3) the books of cuspal interlinks through sub or sub-sub,
- 4) in the Vedic Kuta matching (Prasna Marga) etc.

9. Based on the Traditional Mars Dosha summarized in KP Reader IV pages 51-69,

- 1) Some have got the impression that the traditional Mars Dosha is valid in KP, and .
- 2) advocated the traditional way of matching, ie. for a native with Mars Dosha to marry with another one with Mars Dosha (KP Reader IV page 68),
- 3) It is like adding more fire to a house which is already in fire and it does not agree with the KP principle to throw water and send when a house is in fire. (KP Reader VI page 319)
- 4) The same is with choice of gems as per KP, ie. it is wrong to suggest the gem governed by the malefic planet to mitigate the evil effect assuming that the planet in its period will give adverse results to a native and such chosen gem is actually doing harm to the consultant. When a house is in fire, it is to throw water and sand in stead of pouring highly inflammable ones on the fire. Therefore, the auspicious planet's gem is to be suggested. (KP Reader VI, pages 318-320)
- 5) For traditional Mars Dosha one has to consider the house according to the sign of equal 30 degrees each. In KP the division of houses is according to the Placidus house system of unequal houses. It needs a systematic approach of adaptation.
- 6) So many confusing rules to follow for Mars Dosha and its cancellation is not in line with the simplicity idea of KP. No clear reason is found for the cancellation or exceptions of Mars Dosha.
- 7) Without taking into consideration of Mars Dosha, the KP rules are clearly laid down how to judge longevity, multi-marriage, married life etc for each individual horoscope.
- 8) Hence a horoscope should be read following the KP principles and rules only without mixing up with the conventional ways of identifying the Mars Dosha.
- 9) Time might come to apply Mars Dosha in KP, if and only if some one could come up with the reasonable and practically applicable KP rules for Mars Dosha supported by reliable evidences.

Analysis of Mars Dosa as per KP Principles

10. In the "Analysis of Mars Dosa as per KP Principles" by Kanak Bosmia and Rangarajan Krishnamoorthy (KPEzine August 2007), the 11 rules of Mars Dosha have been tested on the TOB AA-rated 103 'single marriage' charts and 69 'multi-marriage' charts. The results of Mars Dosha appearance for each rule is given in the following table:

Mars Dosha Appearance for Each Rule

Number of Marriages	R1	R2	R3	R4	R5	R6	R7	R8	R9	R10	R11
1 (103)	14.56	45.63	0	1.94	0.97	7.77	1.94	5.83	0.97	2.91	3.88
2 (26)	11.54	38.46	0	3.85	0	3.85	0	0	0	3.85	3.85
4 (23)	26.09	73.91	0	0	4.35	4.35	4.35	0	0	4.35	0
5 (15)	6.67	33.33	0	6.67	6.67	6.67	0	6.67	0	6.67	13.33

11. It is a simple testing of rule by rule R1 to R11 in 103 charts 'how each rule is satisfied' or 'how Mars Dosha as per each rule is found' in each group according to the number of marriage. Only the 2nd rule, "Any planet deposited in the star or sub of Mars, and occupying 1, 2, 4, 7, 8 or 12", is found considerably significant. Mars Dosha as per this R2 is found in -

- 1) 47 (45.63%) of 103 one-time-marriage charts,
- 2) 10 charts (38.46%) of 26 two-time-marriage charts,
- 3) 7 charts (73.91%) of 23 four-time-marriage 23 charts,
- 4) 5 charts (33.33%) of 15 five-time-marriage charts, and
- 5) not found in 1 six-time-marriage charts and 2 each seven and nine-time-marriage charts,
- 6) on average out of the above '2 to 5' 69 multi-marriage charts, 34 (49%) charts are Mangliks,
- 7) whether it is single or multi-marriage, the average appearance of Mars Dosha, ie. 46% for single and 49% for multi-marriage, is almost the same around 50% only and so it seems that Mars Dosha has nothing to do with single or multi marriage or Mars Dosha is not causing the multi-marriage which is the most commonly worried blemish of this Dosha. (Dr. B.V. Raman: My Experiences in Astrology, 2001, pages 46-47).

12. Rule by rule finding of Mars Dosha in 103 single or one-time-marriage charts by number of charts and percentage are given under:-

- 1) 15 charts (14.56%) satisfy R1, i.e. Mars Dosha as per R1 is found in 15 charts out of total 103 charts,
- 2) 47 charts (45.63%) satisfy R2,
- 3) zero chart (zero%) satisfy R3,
- 4) 2 charts (1.94%) satisfy R4,
- 5) 1 chart (0.97%) satisfies R5,
- 6) 8 chart (7.77%) satisfies R6,
- 7) 2 charts (1.94%) satisfy R7,
- 8) 6 charts (5.83%) satisfy R8,
- 9) 1 chart (0.97% satisfies R9,
- 10) 3 charts (2.91%) satisfy R10,
- 11) 4 charts (3.88%) satisfy R11.

13. The simple purpose of this study is how each rule is satisfied, for instance highest rate of 45.63% for R2 and lowest rate of zero% for R3. It does not make sense to add the satisfied percentages of all rules, R1 to R11 and say 86.4% is satisfied for Mars Dosha. If the outcomes of whatever available all Mars Dosha rules are added up, all of us or more than cent percent will be Mangliks, which is not the case.

14. These 11 rules are by own say, not found in the KP Readers or reliable KP literature by sound rationale. For instance, the R1: "Mars in own star or in Sun star, and occupying any of 1, 2, 4, 7, 8, or 12" is just written by T.R.RAGHUNATH- MADRAS-44 on his own way without giving any rationale (Astrosecrets & KP Part II, 2003, page 240) or practical study or evidence.

15. If any such written rule is to be accepted as a KP rule by mere appearance in a KP book or magazine, then Kala Sarpa Yoga presented with some kind of sub lord idea in K.P. & Astrology Year Book 2002, pages 33-38, by Shailendra Mishra, might be considered whether it can be accepted as KP or not. Like Mars Dosha, nothing is mentioned about Kala Sarpa Yoga in any classical authoritative text. (Hart de Fouw & Robert Svoboda: Light on Life, page 301-3)

16. As per Dr. Kars's cancellation theory of retrograde or Punarphoo by burning the concerned planet by the ray of Sun, if Mars is in Sun star like in the R1, Mars Dosha should be cancelled. (K.P. & Astrology Year Book 1996, pages 58 & 70)

Conclusion

17. It is to follow the KP rules only in considering longevity, matching, separation, divorce, multi-marriage, happy or unhappy married life etc. without mixing up with the traditional Manglik-to-Manglik matching rule and explain the public not to worry about Mars Dosha as suggested by Shri K. Hariharan.

This is a case from my file of records.

One of my of my colleague had his marital life in trouble for a long time and he was fed up with it. His spouse was doing job out of city and they were not in amicable talking terms for a while.

Out of visible frustration, he approached me on April 21, 2008 and asked me if he had chances to remain with his family or think for divorce.

I prepared the time chart immediately on 21-04-2008 at 10-14-41 Hrs IST at Bangalore for analysis.

The time chart at the time of query is shown as below.

The chart is being analysed as follows:

The Query

In the time chart, Moon falls in the 5th house and is the lord of 2nd house, indicating native's concern about the harmony (5H) and family (2H). Moon happens to be the strong planet hence its placement indicates a deeper concern from mental side. At the physical level, Lagna sub-lord Jupiter is seen placed in 7H (spouse), hence his concern is about the spouse in particular.

Since Moon links itself to the emotions on account of family (2H) and harmony 5H) and the spouse (7H), it was sufficient to proceed with the query.

The co-ordinates for judgment

In a time chart, the harmonious life with spouse is promised if Lagna, 5th and 7th cusps get linked with the 11th house in any way. The healthy marital life shall be realized only if the 11th cusp indicates its linkage with the Lagna, 5th and 7th house without getting linked to the adverse houses. The marital discord starts from the 6th and 12th house involving the 7th house.

Analysis of the chart

Primarily, the query seeks if the harmony may be established between the querist and his spouse. The analysis is attempted as follows.

1. Assess the Lagna

Lagna is assessed through the disposition of lagna sub-lord Jupiter.

Jupiter as the lord of 7th house is placed in 7th house; hence it makes the spouse dominating.

At the stellar level, Jupiter falls in the star of Sun placed in 10th house indicating the ego (Sun) being the issue in causing the discord (10H). As Sun is the weak 3rd lord, it could be some sort of false ego issue from the native himself (3rd house is the expression of Lagna-native). Moon as the sub-lord of Jupiter is placed in 5H and that is how the query is meant for harmony.

Thus, the initial assessment suggests the separation to be due to some ego issue instigated from the native's side.

2. Look at the 3-9th cusps.

It is important to assess about what must have transpired between the native (lagna) and the spouse (7th cusp) causing the discord. Note that the 3rd cusp decides the deliberations from the native's side and that from the spouse's side are indicated from the 9th cusp.

3rd cusp has Sun as the sub-lord. Sun, which also lords 3rd house indicates the rulebook attitude of the native. Since, Sun by itself falls in the star of Ketu placed in 2nd house; the family issues could be the focus of the marital discord. Sun is not a strong planet so the native's assertion may not be very strong, however its stellar lord Ketu would dictate the origin of the issue. Here, Ketu placed in 2nd house suggests that the native's side of family (kumtumba) could be the main issue of tussel and since Ketu strongly disposes the Sun (which has the natural karakatwa of father), perhaps the needed care required for native's father could be an issue igniting the fire of discord.

Sub-lord of Sun happens to be Jupiter who enjoys its placement in own house in 7th house, the spouse's side seem stronger and thus the counseling efforts from native (3H) could not muster the support of the spouse and spouse emerging stronger in her own ways (Jupiter in own house in 7H).

(D) - House Owner

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars.

As assessed in the preceding para, Sun was the cause of ego issue originating from the native's side and the 3rd cusp having the Sun as the sub-lord further affirms it.

Look to the side of spouse's deliberations through 9th cusp. Venus is the 9th cuspal sub-lord which being a strong planet dictates its results through its placement in 10th house (denying agreement because of negating 11th house) gets a clear denial of the native's proposal.

Note that the Venus falls in the sub-lord ship of Rahu, which falls in the 8th house, which causes the spouse to deny the support of native's father (Rahu in 8th house negating native's father as 9th house).

3. Assess the 7th cusp to know the state of affairs from the spouse's side

Saturn is the 7th cuspal sub-lord, is a strong planet and the strong 9th lord.

Saturn as the sub-lord of 9th cusp gets placed in the 3rd house in retrogression. Here, note two results coming out of this combination. Firstly, Saturn afflicts the 3rd house of Sun by way of its inimical nature towards the Sun meaning that the understanding between the native (3H) and the spouse (9H) could be seriously despaired. Secondly, the retrogression of Saturn makes the spouse very assertive and determined to do what she likes in line with the determination shown by the retrograde planets.

Since, Saturn falls in the sub-lordship of Jupiter; it makes the spouse stronger making her to go in the way she likes (Jupiter as 7th lord placed in 7th house-own house).

4. Assess the 11th cusp to look for the final outcome

The 11th cusp decides the overall fructification of the desire of the querist.

Jupiter is the sub-lord of the 11th cusp and the analysis of Jupiter done at #1 above holds good which indicates the mutual ego issues to prolong without yielding any results. Thus, an amicable patch up was not evident soon.

5. Assess the dasha spread

It was noted that Rahu-Venus dasha was in operation till March 2010.

Rahu as dasha lord causes results as per its own stellar related and as per Saturn to whom it strongly disposes.

Rahu falls in the star of Mars placed in Lagna as 6th lord and thus he himself is the cause for the discord to continue making the spouse to think for getting rid of him (6H). Rahu placed in 8th house is sufficient to cause enough pain to the native.

Saturn as the disposed planet does not cause mutual understanding (as per Saturn's results discussed in #3) and makes spouse strong to go her own way.

In this situation, dasha lord Rahu does not support any sort of compromise till 2013 till it lasts.

Venus as the bhukti-dasha also does not hold any promise to the native as the spouse clearly denies her support to the ideas of native (refer analysis at #2, para-5).

Thus, the dasha spread of Rahu-Venus poses no respite to the deadlock on the mutual understanding of the native causing the discord to continue. Since, Venus is the sub-lord of 6-9-12th cusps, the talks could surface the possibilities of divorce as one of the outcome of reconciliation.

I did not proceed to probe the query any further and stopped there itself.

Facts of the case

I indicated my findings to my colleague who responded only with his long silence, though I had observed his moist eyes.

I thank KP methodology to show the light whenever approached.

OM VIGNESHWARAYA NAMAH

A chart of a native has been forwarded to me to see his professional pursuits in cinema field. In KP the dictum is very clear with reference to cinema field, thanks to the extensive research work conducted by Late Gururji Prof. K.S. Krishnamurti.

It has been since 100 years that the God Almighty has presented the genius like Prof KSK to planet earth to make radical positive modifications in traditional Astrology and to propound famous KP System. KP System is a unique method in which the sub-lord plays a dominant role and the rules are articulate and do not change as chart changes. More and more astro students are switching their astro-educational path to KP System, since it gives immense results.

The chart made out duly sticking to the KP rules is appended.

Name: (male) 06th April 1986, Secunderabad at 08-45 am.

For an actor in the Cinema field, the KP rule says that:

5th cuspal sub lord should signify 5,7,10,11 houses and is connected with karakas like Venus, Mercury. The 5th house stands for cinema, music, 7th for fine art, 10th for profession, name and fame and 11th for success, prosperity and fulfillment of desire to become an actor. Venus is the planet who signifies arts, dance, creativity, etc. while Mercury will stand for music & dance, dual personality, gift of the gab, etc. Jupiter bestows success and abundance. Mars makes one a leader.

In the chart under study, 5th cuspal sub lord is Ketu. A Node is stronger to give results, being a catalyst. Ketu is aspected by Jupiter deposited in 10. Jupiter is conjoined with Mercury and aspecting 5th cusp. Ketu is agent of Venus by aspect and sign lord. Karaka Venus is a very strong significator of 6 (success) by lordship and being in the star of Ketu in 6 and also significator of 11 by being sub lord of 11 having no planet in its star. Ketu is in the star and sub of Rahu, which is conjoined with Venus and agent of Mars by sign lord. Mars is lord of 7 and aspecting 11th cusp and the only 5th significator Sun. Thus the 5th cuspal sub lord signifies 6,7,10,11 and is connected with 5, Venus, Mercury, Jupiter and Mars. 11th cuspal sub lord is also Venus. The location of 5th cusp in Leo and 5th lord Sun in Pisces is also favourable to become an actor as Leo, Libra and Pisces signs are influencing the cine line profession.

10th cuspal sub lord is to be considered whether the native will take up the cine line as main profession. 10th cuspal sub lord should signify 5,7,10 houses and be connected to Venus, Mercury.

In the case under study, 10th cuspal sub lord is Rahu. A Node will first give the result of the planet it conjoined with. Rahu is conjoined with Venus, a major karaka and a strong significator of 6 and 11. Rahu is in Aries ruled by Mars, and Mars is lord of 7th house. Mars aspects 11th cusp and 5th significator Sun. Rahu is in the star of Ketu aspected by Venus and Jupiter located in 10 and conjoined with Mercury and Moon. Rahu is strong by being in own sub.

It is therefore concluded that Rahu is connected to 5,6,7,10,11 and Venus and Mercury. Since Mars is connected, he will become a leader. Position of Jup+Moon in 10th house with Mercury is good for attaining higher grades.

Current running Saturn Dasha started from 13-04-2007. Saturn lord of 10,11 in 7 is in own star and sub of Jupiter in 10. Saturn signifies 7,10 and 11 and hence will succeed in Saturn period. Hence readers should make note that Saturn holds a very strong signification to 7 and 10.

During Saturn Dasha, Saturn Bhukti the results shall be normally slow. Saturn will commence giving good results in the late Antara such as Antara of Jupiter in Saturn Bhukti.

Native is expected to do very well in Saturn-Mercury period because Saturn signifies 7,10 and 11 and Mercury also strongly signifies 10. Mercury is conjoined with Jupiter+Moon combination, which is considerably good.

At the lotus feet of Gururji.

This chart belongs to my friend's daughter. She was born on eleventh September, 1976 at 19:05, at Nellore. In general, in K.P. system we consider 2, 7 or 11 houses for Marriage purpose. The seventh cusp sublord should signify the second, seven or eleventh house. In this chart the seventh cusp Sub lord is Rahu, which is in 7 and in own star. Rahu fully signifies seventh house. So Marriage is surely promised.

Then when? This activity will take place in the combined period of 2, 7 or 11 significators. Here Mars, Jupiter are significators of second house. The Sun, Moon, Mars, Mercury, Venus, Saturn and Rahu are the significators of seventh house. The Eleventh house Significator is Saturn.

Thus except Ketu, all planets are signifying 2, 7 or 11 houses. So we have to filter. We've to check who is signifying four, six, eight, ten and twelve houses besides 2, 7, 11. The sun is the signifier of six and eight. The moon signifies 1 & 4th. Jupiter signifies 6, 1, 10th. Venus signifies 1, 8th. Saturn signifies 4, 12th. Mercury signifies 1, 4th houses. So only Mars and Rahu are clearly able to give marriage. In their period marriage may take place as per general rule From July 2005 to November 2005 Mars sub period and then on words up to October, 2006 Rahu sub period will run in Sun major period. But unfortunately in the Moon sub period she committed suicide on 26. 6. 2005 between 4:00 and 5:00 p.m.

As per the cuspal interliks at sub-sub level, if the sub-sub lords of the 1st and 7th cup are linked through their star lords with 5, 7, 11 houses, marriage is promised. Here the 1st cusp sub-sub lord is Venus. He is in Moon star. The Moon got connection with 7 as the star lord of 7th cusp. The 7th cusp sub-sub lord is Rahu. He is in his own star Rahu is in 7 and the star lord and sub lord of 7th cusp. The 7th cusp sub-sub lord also linked with 7. However, by being 4th cusp star lord, 6th cusp sub lord, 8th cusp star lord and 12th cusp star lord, sub lord and sub-sub lord Rahu also got connection with 4, 6, 8 and 12 houses of delay or denial. As Moon and Rahu got connection with 7th house, there are chances for marriage. The engagement has taken place and the invitations are distributed. But unfortunately she committed suicide.

As per KP, it is found to be a typical chart where Saturn occupies the 5th house by rasi and throws the Hindu aspect on all marriage giving houses of 7, 11 and 2nd and as a result marriage may be delayed till the very end of Saturn major period as quoted below.

"Delay, dejection, disappointment, denial, etc. are caused by Sani, and strongly so if Sani occupies the 5th house where from it will aspect the 7th, 11th and 2nd houses by its third, seventh and tenth aspects respectively. Generally, all those in whose chart Sani is placed in the 5th house will have their marriage, delayed and delayed till the very end." (KP Reader IV, 1984, page 109)

The 7th cusp sub lord indicates that the marriage is promised but the signifier Saturn points the time of marriage at the very end of Saturn major period which is impossible in the native's life.

Now the running dasa belongs to Sun who is the signifier of sixth and eighth houses. He is in the star of Venus. In turn Venus signifies three and eighth. Mars is very near to Venus and is in inimical sign. He is in badhaka sthana and being marakadhipathi. The badhaka lord and the lord of 3rd and 8th house are conjoined.

In our system if 1st, 3rd, or 8th sub lords signify 2, 7 and badhaka houses then Alpayurdaya is denoted. This is the condition for Alpayurdaya (short life) in K.P. system. In this chart first cusp sub lord is Moon. Third cusp sub lord is Jupiter. 8th cusp sub lord is Venus. The Moon signifies seventh, badhaka. Jupiter signifies two and six. Venus signifies seven and eight. Thus here all these three planets are able to give short life.

As Rahu and Mars are involved she decided to commit suicide in a secluded place. The 8th lord Venus is in the star of Moon. And, the Moon is in 1st house. So the native died in her Residence.

Mr. Vijay Jolly is a candidate of BJP and he is fighting against present C.M. Sheila Dixit ji in the Delhi Elections to be held in Nov'08. Campaigns of Vijay Jolly are really very interesting. I am very much impressed of with his style of campaigning. Therefore, I decided to check for "Success" of Vijay Jolly in the ensuing elections.

Horary details:

Question: Any chance for Vijay Jolly to win in Delhi Elections?

Horary no: 44/249 (Random, generated by Software)

Date: 25/11/2008

Time: 16.50.30

Place: L. G.. Hospital- Ahmadabad 23 N 00, 72 E 36

Special Note: Question was not asked by Mr. Vijay Jolly but as regular practice, I use Ascendant of Horary Question, not 9th, as an Ascendant.

Who will win an Election?

If 10th (One's position in politics) sublord signifies, 10 (One's Reputation), 3 (One's ability), 11 (One's reputation as a Winner) in the DBA of 3, 10, 11 one can win Elections.

Analysis:

10th sublord is Jup. Jup is in the star and sub of Sun.

Jup is in 8 lord of 7,8,11 (One's reputation as a Winner), No planet in the star of Jup, and Jup is sublord of 4, 10 (One's Reputation), Sun is in 6 lord of 4.

Let us check from Opponent side:

10th sublord is Jup. Jup is in the star and sub of Sun.

Jup is in 2 lord of 1,2,5 No planet in the star of Jup, and Jup is sublord of 4, 10 (One's Reputation), Sun is in 12 lord of 10 (One's Reputation).

In this horary exercise we find that both candidates are found in good position, but Vijay Jolly's sublord Sun does not signify any of required Bhavas, and on the other hand Sheila Dixit ji's sublord Sun signifies 10 (One's Reputation).

My opinion:

In my opinion Vijay Jolly will LOSE this election with a very narrow margin.

Will the Central Govt. (UPA) win the Trust Vote on 22.03.2008?

First of all, I would like to thank Shri. Kanak Bosmia Ji for his wonderful work of publishing KP E-Zine and also request him to consider this article for publishing in it.

I take pleasure in introducing my “MK's Predictive Techniques” by way of my recent analysis of a Time Chart on the sensational event in the political history of our nation.

My below said approach based on principles of KP is rather an amalgamation of KSK's Sub, KB's Cuspal Interlinks, KAR's SubSub concepts, etc., than a new finding. But, in a sense, by the way it is applied, I claim it to be a New Approach and hence the above name.

Will the Central Govt. (UPA) win the Trust Vote on 22.03.2008?

This is a Horary Time Chart cast for the Time of Question (TOQ), not for the Time of Analysis (TOA), as it is usually done in KP.

TOQ: 20.07.2008 - 07.56 Hrs - Salem: 11.39N; 78.10.E.

TOA: 21.07.2008 – 20.44 Hrs.

Event happened on 22.07.2008 evening hours.

Analysis was done after 24 hours of Time of Question.

Prediction by MK-“Yes, it will WIN.” Event happened next day – ‘Yes, it won’.

Coming to the subject, Timing of the Event is not needed here, as it is a one that is already scheduled for a particular day. The event being an election, it is the nature of the result that we want – whether success or failure.

As the Ruling Party UPA's Govt. was specifically kept in mind, Ascendant denotes the native (the Ruling Party). Naturally, 7th House means the opponent.

KP Rule: If the Asc. Sublord signifies 6 + 11, then the native wins; but if it signifies 5 + 12, then he losses and the opponent wins.

If the Ascendant's position is strong and favorable to the native, and when the Dasa, Bhukthi, Anthara periods support, the native will succeed. With this guideline in our mind, let us probe into the chart.

I am attaching the 'MK WORK-SHEET', specially designed for analysis by my method. It reveals the KP Nirayana Bhava Chart with Cuspal and Planetary positions up to SSS level. Also, it shows the full signification (Cuspal Point Signification) as held by the nine planets and Table of Planets' Potentials contained by their positions to be executed in their respective DBAS periods.

What is MK's Cuspal Point Signification(CPS)?

Take each planet and check for which Cusps it has appeared as Signlord, Starlord, Sublord, SSLord and SSSLord. Rahu and Kethu will not appear as Signlords. So, add to them their Signlords. Any planet which is close to the next Cusp by 2° and in 120° (+/- 6°) aspect to any Cuspal Point means it signifies that cusp too.

If a planet is in rapt conjunction or in 120° aspect with any other planet, then it is influenced by that planet's signification too.

Now, as the Ascendant (Lagna) Point has fallen in Cancer Sign 29°33'41", we get (5+2 =) 7 signifiers; i.e., Moon, Mercury, Saturn, Rahu and Mercury (Asc.'s Sgl, Stl, Sbl, Ssl, Sssl at Lagna Point) and Mars and Saturn (as the Occupants of Lagna Bhava).

Out of these, Moon, Saturn and Rahu favor the native while Mars and Mercury are unfavorable by last step of their positional levels (Kethu at their SSSLord or SSS's Starlord levels) as shown in the attached Table of Planets' Potentials, for instance:

Table of the potentials of Rahu

1 Planet's	Rahu*	4,6,1,4,7,11,3,4,12 (6) Moon 3-11 (Sat)	Success
2 Starlord	Mars	4,9,3,7,11,2,(1) Jup	Failure
3 SubLord	Rahu*	4,6,1,4,7,11,3,4,12 (6) Moon 3-11 (Sat)	Success
4 SubSubL	Sun	2,2,6,10,8,5,(12) 4,8	Failure
5 SSSL	Kethu	5,9,9,9,(12) 5-9 (Moo)	Failure
6 SSSL's Starlord	Merc	11,1,3,11,3,6,12,1,7,(11) 8	Success

Table of the potentials of Mars

1 Planet's	Mars	4,9,3,7,11,2,(1) Jup	Failure
2 Starlord	Venus	3,10,5,9,6,10,(12)	Failure
3 SubLord	Moon	1,12,12,5,8,(6) Rah 3	Failure
4 SubSubL	Venus	3,10,5,9,6,10,(12)	Failure
5 SSSL	Satur	6,7,8,1,7,2,11 (1)	Success
6 SSSL's Starlord	Kethu	5,9,9,9,(12) 5-9 (Moo)	Failure

Among these favorable ones, Rahu and Moon have joined hands by rapt conjunction (+/- 2° Orb) to help each other by their potential strengths. As the event is assumed to surely happen in a few days time, Dasa Lord may not influence the event's non-happening. But it can have a say in the longevity of the native, so to say, if not on the interim events of his life. As there are other planets posited in Mars's stars, it becomes a weak significator by itself.

Most luckily for the native, as per this chart, the event is scheduled to happen in the combined sub-periods of the most favorable significator Rahu, solely being the Bhukthi, Anthara and Sookshama Lords (as per 360 D/Y). Moreover, Rahu is strong by himself with no other planet in his stars.

It is very evident from MK's Work-Sheet that Rahu's potential - on its own as a self-strong planet, and again appearing at his own Sub level and lastly being influenced by the deciding factor Mercury (as Starlord of SSSLord of Rahu) - is positive enough to give the ultimate victory for the UPA Govt. in question. Moreover, the rapt conjunction by Moon, another favorable significator (pl see the attached Table of Planets' Potentials for Moon), adds to the potential of the above Rahu. The native will certainly win the election.

Editor's Note

Dear Readers,

HAPPY NEW YEAR 2009 to all our Readers

Next month i.e. February 2009, we will be completing Two Years. Now KP-Ezine family group has 1400+ members which are very good by any standard.

In KPE-zine we in the Board never praised ourselves. We always rejected a thought to promote ourselves through KP-Ezine, but this time I want to say something about our Board members. I have my own BPO business and am a Professional Astrologer, working 16 Hrs a day, Shri Raichur ji is an elderly Astrologer, Shri Tin Win ji is also busy with his own commitments and Shri Narayanan ji is MD of two companies and very much busy with his own companies' work.

Notwithstanding our personal commitments, we all try to publish KP-Ezine on 1st of each month. By chance if I am late in uploading on the 1st, I received many Calls and Mails from anxious readers. Through this message I request all authors of KP-Ezine to send your articles before 10th of the month and also I request you to send one article extra, so in case if your article is received late, we can publish your extra article, depending on available space, to continue publishing your articles in KP-Ezine.

I request Readers to send their valuable comments, suggestions to improve KP-Ezine further in forthcoming third Year. Your feedback adds to our strength.

With Best Regards,

Kanak B. Bosmia

Dear Editor,

Article of Sri Tinwin ji – KP for beginners Timing of Event (3) regarding the Role of Saturn and Punarpoo is very enlightening for KP Followers. Article Mars Dosha is very clear and elaborative for washing out all the misconceptions about Kuja dosha. Article of Sri Vijay ji regarding Marriage problem thru Time Chart is very clear and informative. Sri PHFPM Goapalachary's article on Marriage or death is an eye opener while predicting the events both sides of the coin should be taken care.

KP Panchang by the Editor is very handy for keeping a hardcopy with every KP Asgtrologer.

A flow sheet diagram / Schematic diagram indicating systematic stepwise procedure:

Dear Kanak Bosmia ji,

Thank you very much Sir, My heartfelt thanks to you and your Advisory Board, for including my Article in your esteemed KP-Ezine. I feel privileged and I do admire the way you have edited my words. I can understand your stand behind it.

May I bring to your kind notice a small correction-?

"On Page No: 31 of your KPE-Zine in the "Table of Potential of MARS", wherein the Sublord gets a connection with RAHU to give 'SUCCESS" in the third step too"

May I send more Articles for future issues?

Thanks again,

With regards,

In mundane astrology, Rail is signified by 3rd House. As per KP rules, Accident is signified by 8 (Danger) 12 (Hospitalization), 6 (Injury). If maraka and badhaka involve, it will be fatal.

This rule is for Natal chart, in nation chart, 3rd is Rail and so we have to check 8, 6, 12 from 3rd. In other words if DBAS signify 2 (12th from 3rd), 8 (6th from 3rd), 10 (8th from 3rd) and 4 Maraka (2nd from 3rd), 9 (Maraka and Badhaka 7th from 3rd). There is a possibility of Rail Accident.

The above rules have been applied on 62 major Rail accident after 15 August 1947 to 1 August 2008 to check whether whenever in the nation natal chart we found if DBAS signify 2 (12th from 3rd), 8 (6th from 3rd), 10 (8th from 3rd) and 4 Maraka (2nd from 3rd), 9 (Maraka and badhaka 7th from 3rd), there is a possibility of Rail Accident. The summary of appearance of each concerned house in Dasa Analysis is as shown below.

My opinion:

We do not found the role of 8 (6th from 3rd) and 9 (Maraka and badhaka 7th from 3rd) and so it appears that injury and fatality are not the case.

Only effective Bhavas are 2 (12th from 3rd), 10 (8th from 3rd), 4 Maraka (2nd from 3rd). Hence it is found that whenever in the nation natal chart we found the DBAS signify 2 (12th from 3rd), 10 (8th from 3rd) and 4 Maraka (2nd from 3rd) there is a possibility of Rail Accident.

OM VIGNESHWARAYA NAMAH

KP METHOD IS THE ACCURATE ASTROLOGICAL SYSTEM

About six years back when I was searching for the astrological solutions, I had an opportunity to send the birth details of my son to a famous Vedic Astro-Analyst, who through his website used to answer queries.

The question in my mind was about the educational pursuits of my son, which was the major worry for me. Of course, my son was good at education.

The Astrologer, upon checking the chart, gave me the following reply verbatim:

Since the 4th lord in your son's chart, Mars, is placed in 8th house and is debilitated in the Navamsa, your son will not have education.

Later on, after studying KP System in a famous Astro-School in Hyderabad, I had drawn out the chart strictly following KP method, which is also appended:

Name: (student) Place: Kaduthuruthy, Kottayam Dist, Kerala Date: 26-05-1990 Time: 13-38-00 Longitude: 76-24-00 East Latitude: 9-46-00 North Zone: IST 5.5

KP dicta are very particular and articulate without confusion. One does not need to check many rules or refer many books or any such things.

The rule says that the person will have College education academically completed successfully:--

- 1) When the 4th cusp sub lord (CSL) is connected to 4,9, 11th houses.
- 2) When dasha / bhukti / antara lords are connected to these houses.
- 3) When the transits of planets signify these houses.
- 4) When 4th CSL signifies 3,5,8, and 12 there will be break in education.

In the chart under reference, 4th cusp falls in Scorpio sign in Mercury star and Saturn sub. Hence Saturn or any planets connected to Saturn should give the education, as per KP canon. Saturn is the top significator of 9th house by being in the star of Su in 9th house. Mars is the lone significator of both 4th and 9th cusps by its aspects on 4th and 9th lord Mars.

CONVOCATION CEREMONY

Hence Saturn is favourably placed to give College education to the native. Vimshottari Maha Dasha (VMD) operated until June 2007 was of Rahu. Rahu is very well connected to Saturn by conjoining in Capricorn owned by Saturn and being in the sub of Saturn. Thereafter, Jupiter VMD operated as follows:

Ju	Jup	29-Jun-2007	16-Aug-2009
Ju	Sat	16-Aug-2009	28-Feb-2012

The academic years, which were following the student are as follow:--

10th standard	2005-06
Intermediate 1st year	2006-07
Intermediate 2nd year	2007-08

Dasha / Bhukti lord Jupiter is in the star of Rahu signifying 4,9 as discussed above and aspected by 4th and 9th lord Mars. Since 4th CSL Saturn and Dasha / Bhukti lords Rahu and Jupiter are connected with 4,9, the native got through the exams very well and passed out in Xth standard, Intermediate Examinations and was able to join a Graduate Engineering Course in a famous Government College. KP system is the more reliable Astro-method available as of now, and Astro students and practitioners shall pursue more in KP system in the years to come. At the lotus feet of Gururji. OM TAT SAT

This article was written and presented in KP astrologers' forum, Hyderabad on the occasion of 2nd KP Astrologers' International Summit-Dec 2008.

This article is reproduced with minor updation / corrections herewith in KP Ezine with the oral permission of the President-KPAF, Shri Rajendra Nimje IAS.

I humbly acknowledge the magnanimity of Shri Nimje for permitting the re-publication of this article.

1. Introduction:

During my studies of various astrological principles in Parasharic and Jaimini system of astrology, I have felt that many parameters of that compendium of knowledge could be imported to KP domain which could be analyzed in the framework of KP way of delineation and used alongwith the existing parameters to gather better accuracy of predictive decisions by way of an additional opinion.

One of such parameter is the Sahams, which finds its mention in Tajika system of astrology, brought to light by many revered commentators such as Neelkantha, Venkatesh and Kesava of yore. The details on Sahams may be obtained from the 8th chapter of the book titled "The hindu progressed horoscope by Dr. B.V.Raman".

This write-up is the result of my endeavor to bring the Sahams in KP astrology.

2. What is Saham?

Technically, the saham are the sensitive points in the zodiac that control certain aspects of life. While, the commentator Neelkantha has derived about 50 saham that encompass every aspect of life, yet about 35 saham have been documented that are put to use for delineating the status of various aspects of life such as fame, ability, fortune, business, finances, foreign travel, parents, children, marriage, death etc.

3. Calculating Sahams

A saham is obtained by the unique combination obtained out of the manipulation of the longitudes of planets, lagna, other few house cusps and some specific saham by itself. Each saham is essentially represented by a formula like $A-B+C$ with some associated modalities where A, B and C could represent the longitudes of planets/lagna/other house cusps/specific saham in various combinations.

For a quick understanding of the formula $A-B+C$, it may be viewed as follows a. If A is behind (lesser in longitude) than B, add 360 deg to A to make the result of $A-B$ as positive. If B is behind (lesser in longitude) than A, no addition of 360 deg is required, as the result of $A-B$ shall be positive itself.

b. Add the longitudinal distance arrived by $(A-B)$ as above to C to reach a defined point in the zodiac.

A few important modalities associated with the calculation of saham are as follows.

c. Look whether C falls in between B to A or not, as follows.

i. While counting from B to A zodiacally, if C is not found to be placed in between B to A, 30 degrees are added to the figure obtained by the formula $A-B+C$.

ii. If C is found between B to A, then the figure obtained by the formula $A-B+C$ is taken as it is.

d. The steps a to d as stated above are mandatory. If the total exceeds 360 deg, it is needed to expunge the multiples of 360 deg to bring the net result within the zodiac space (0-360 deg). This completes the calculation of the desired saham.

e. For most of the saham (unless specified), the formula differs for birth in day time and night time by a default pattern as follows.

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars.

- i. Take A-B+C for day births
- ii. Take B-A+C for night births

Thus, for calculation of sahams in night births, undertake the steps (a to d) stated above) by making an interchange between A and B and working out in the same way, as given for the day birth.

For the simplification sake, the table at #3 define the sahams both for the day and night births. It also indicates the exceptions, where the saham is calculated by the same formula both for day and night births.

It may be noted that the Sunrise to Sunset constitute the day and Sunset to Sunrise as the night, thus the birth may be classified accordingly.

f. The sahams do not differentiate with the gender of the native, though differ for the day and night births. Thus, any saham for a male or a female nativity would be the same.

Example:

1. Case of day birth:

Day Consider calculating the Vivaha saham (saham indicating marriage) as Venus-Saturn+Lagna for day birth. Correlating with the formula A-B+C, consider A to be Venus; B to be Saturn and C to be Lagna.

Assume a chart of day birth to have the following longitudes.

- Venus at Leo: 25-00-10 (d-m-s)
- Saturn at Virgo: 07-04-03 (d-m-s)
- Lagna at Leo: 19-13-52 (d-m-s)

Count from Saturn to Venus zodiacally to find the distance, which happens to be 347-56-07 (d-m-s). Add this longitudinal distance to the lagna, which maps to the longitude at 127-09-59 (d-m-s). Note that while counting from Saturn to Venus, Lagna falls in between; hence addition of 30 deg is not required.

Thus, the Vivaha saham is located in Leo: 07-09-59 (d-m-s).

2. Case of night birth:

Consider the same data of Venus, Saturn at Lagna for a night birth. Now the formula applied for calculating the Vivaha saham for the night birth shall be changed to Saturn-Venus+Lagna.

Count from Venus to Saturn zodiacally to find the distance, which happens to be 12-3-53 (d-m-s). Add this longitudinal distance to Lagna, which maps to the longitude of 151-17-45 (d-m-s). Note that while counting from Venus to Saturn, Lagna does not fall in between, hence additional 30 deg are required to be added making the Vivaha saham to fall at 181-17-45 (d-m-s) or in Libra 01-17-45 (d-m-s).

3. Some important sahams

Some of the important sahams and their formula are appended as separate sheet for quick reference.

4. How does conventional astrology use Sahams

In conventional astrological scenario, the sahams have the following usages.

- Sahams indicate certain aspects of life, perhaps all about that aspect.
- Sahams finds specific usage in the varshaphala charts (for finding results of a year).
- Strength of sahams is in proportion of the strength of placement of saham lord and navamsa bala.
- For the results to be obtained, saham need be connected to the lagna.
- Saham lord should associate in benefic tajika yogas (ex. Ithasala yoga etc) to confer positive results. Negative results are expected from the association of malefic tajika yogas (ex. Isarapha yoga).
- The association of benefics with saham and saham lord strengthens the positive indications of the saham, reverse for malefic association.
- In timing the event, generally the results are expected in the dasha/antardasha of the planet, which forms good tajika yoga with the lord of sahams.

- Some evidences are available on the progression of the saham for timing the event.

5. Scope of coverage in this writeup

Out of many saham indicated in the table at #3 above, examples related to Vivah saham (marriage), Putra saham (childbirth), Karma saham (Work, Job), pitra saham (matters related to father) and Paradesh saham (foreign travel) are dealt herewith with practical examples, pertaining to birth and horary charts.

While, the example charts are a few with the constraint of the brevity of the write-up, the logic of delineation procedure may be extended to any saham keeping in mind its intent. I have tested the applicability of saham in many cases and found the results to be very pointed and encouraging.

4. Hypothesis of the applicability of Sahams

In the effort to evaluate the saham in the KP domain, the scope of the applicability of saham in delineation process is defined with the following hypothesis.

a. Sahams control a particular aspect of life thus anything relating to that aspect of life get reflected by it. This is applicable both for birth charts and that of horary origin.

As an example, whether be the query pertains to the marriage timing or towards the quality of marital life; the vivaha saham has to be under scrutiny.

b. The house where a saham gets placed shows its positional status and it works according to its placement at metal level. Example, if vivah saham falls in the 6th house, it indicates some sort of marital tension and works towards discord. Similarly, its placement in 7th or 11th house would cause the vivah saham to show amicability in the arena of marital life.

c. Sahams are defined in terms of the location in the zodiac longitudinally. Thus, any Saham may be defined having a sign lord, star lord, sub lord and sub-sub lord just as cusps and planets are defined. Thus, the Saham may be plotted in the chart with a defined longitude as a sensitive point just as done for Fortuna.

d. It is suggested that the Saham cusp may be evaluated exactly in the same way as is done for other cusps.

In this spirit, the saham cusp may be evaluated for its placement, its stellar significations and the significations at the sub-lord level. As usual, the sub-lord signification of Saham cusp would decide the results. These significations may be evaluated in reference to the primary and other support houses considered for the purpose the saham is meant for.

As an example, the vivaha saham should have an amicable connection with the primary 7th cusp/house in order to indicate marriage.

e. The saham may be looked for a second opinion to the existing rules of delineations and it is likely that it may present a decisive picture to arrive at the conclusions.

f. The study of saham is equally applicable in birth charts as well as in horary charts both derived with the horary numbers (be it within 249 or 2193 scheme) or through time charts. The results obtained with the saham are very impressive.

g. While dealing with the horary charts, depending on the time of judgment, which could be daytime or night time, the relevant formula meant for day/night birth may be applied to calculate the saham.

h. It would be prudent to emphasize that the applicability of saham does not get limited to natal or horary charts alone. This concept is equally applicable on mundane charts of national importance as well.

i. There are a few saham, which involve the usage of the cusp of certain houses. In parasharic astrology, there are multiple theories for defining the cusp of houses, which are based on equal house division and un-equal house division basis. Thus, the application of saham in such a scenario becomes doubtful.

At this juncture, there is a lot of advantage in applying the saham in KP domain, as the houses are clearly defined in terms of cusps.

j. In classical parasharic astrology, saham's are considered the sensitive points in the zodiac with reference to which the transit of planets matters a lot. It means that a benefic planet transiting the saham or in its trines activates the saham to give good results, similarly converse for the transit of malefic planets.

I have yet not covered this aspect in this write-up, but a good success rate is likely to be obtained.

k. It may be noted that Prof Krishnamaurthi had used "Fortuna" in the KP predictive domain, which is nothing but the "Punya Saham" dealing with the fortune of the native in general for birth chart and for fortune related to specific domain of query in horary charts.

In order to differentiate between the day and night birth, the definition of Punya Saham undergoes a change, which may be noted by those who tend to use this parameter for all the birth/horary delineations, as a general support to the other specific saham's and other cusps of the chart.

l. It may be noted that the above hypothesis of saham's import to KP domain is framed keeping the logistics in mind to start with. The hypothesis is open to the modification after the concepts are understood in its intent and tested on a large database of cases.

5. Practical examples

Assorted cases of some aspects of life have been analyzed in this section.

I have taken up the cases that have been written by me in different forums over the time. The charts are selected from a mix of birth charts, horary charts as per time charts as well as based on horary numbers, to prove the applicability of saham's universally.

In order to maintain the brevity in this write-up, all the charts are analyzed by the consideration of saham's only. The readers may read the analysis of the charts given in the original articles in various magazines by conventional KP way and they would find a perfect similitude of results.

5.1 Marriage matter (Horary query) [Case written by me in KP Ezine-Dec 2008]

A native was fed up with the marriage and asked, if staying with wife was a possibility. The time chart drawn at the time of query is given below.

The query was analyzed in the day time, hence the vivaha saham is calculated with the formula as Venus-Saturn+Lagna, which adds up to 296-31-45 (d-m-s). It is observed that Lagna is not placed between Saturn to Venus, hence additional 30 deg are added by rule making the vivah saham (VS) placed in Aquarius 26-31-45 (d-m-s).

Note that the vivaha saham placed in Aquarius is lorded by Saturn-Jupiter-Ketu-Mercury as sign lord, star lord, sub lord and sub-sub lord.

Analysis by way of vivaha saham (VS):

- Note that the question is related to the known marital discord.
- Vivaha saham falls in the 9th house, which essentially deals with the issues in stalemate from the spouse's side (9th house).
- Sub-lord of vivaha saham is Ketu (intrinsically deals with the stalemates or obstructions), which suggest that the marriage could be a serious issue in the life of the native.

* At stellar level, Ketu falls in its own star and sub placed in 2nd house makes the family matter as the cause of the issue.

* Ketu disposes exalted Sun, which lords 3rd house indicating the rulebook attitude (natural karaka) of the native. Since, Sun by itself falls in the star of Ketu placed in 2nd house; the family issues could certainly be the focus of the marital discord. Note that Sub-lord of Sun is Jupiter (strong lord of 7th house) that is placed in 7th house, makes the buck to be on the spouse's side.

A simple look on the vivah saham suggests that the native is following the rule- book of his ideals and spouse's side is strong voting for the discord.

- Look to the side of spouse's efforts through 9th cusp (3rd from 7th cusp).

* Venus is the 9th cuspal sub-lord, indicating her expressions towards the discord. Venus is a strong planet and dictates its results through its placement in 10th house (opting for discord indicated by 10th house).

Note that Venus is the strong lord of 12th house and the deliberations of the spouse (9th house) discourage the native to get into the helplessness (12th house) and spouse maintains the scene of discord (12th house is 6th house from spouse-7th house).

* At stellar level, While Venus falls in the star of Mercury as 4th lord placed in 11th house making the compatibility as the matter in question, the sub-lord Rahu placed in 8th house does not allow the native to draw any support for his ideals from the spouse and get sufficient frustration and hardship (8th house).

- In order to substantiate the matter of discord look to the cuspal sub-lord of 7th cusp of spouse which is Saturn.

* Saturn is a strong planet and a strong lord of 9th house and its placement in 3rd house in retrogression suggests that there could be no solution to be arrived in due course of time because of the deadlock between 9th and 3rd house.

* Saturn at the stellar level falls in the star of Ketu in 2nd house and repeats the same story analyzed above.

• The horary dasha of Rahu-Venus is in vogue at present. In general Rahu does not promote any amicability either by its placement in 9th house or by the disposition of Saturn and Mars. While, Saturn creates deadlock, Mars as lord of 6th house placed in Lagna makes the native headstrong not inclined to seek any solution for good.

It may be noted that the native confessed the above to be the root cause of the problem, as clearly indicated by the vivah saham.

5.2 Infertility matters (Childless couples)

[Case written by me KP astrology international journal, Issue-I, Vol-I, pages 43-53]

The data of birth charts of a childless couple is taken from The Astrological Magazine, April 2007 issue, Page 347, Chart-2 (Husband) and chart 3 (Wife). The couple reportedly did not have any childbirth since 8 years of marital life.

Chart for the husband is as follows.

This is the case of day birth and the Putra saham is defined as Jupiter-Moon+Lagna, which adds up to 54-34-43 (d-m-s) amounting to the Putra Saham (PS) placed in Taurus 24-34-43 (d-m-s). Note that no addition of 30 deg was necessary, as Lagna falls between Moon and Jupiter.

Note that the putra saham cusp falls in Taurus lorded by Venus-Mars-Rahu-Jupiter as sign lord, star lord, sub lord and sub-sub lord.

Analysis by way of Putra Saham (PS)

a. Note that putra saham falls close to the 12th house (8th from 5th house), thus tends to deny children.

b. Sub-lord of putra saham is Rahu.

- Rahu falls in the star of Ketu placed in 4th house negating the 5th house of childbirth.

▪ The sub-lord of Rahu is Saturn which as strong lord of 8th house placed in 9th house in trine to Lagna, denying and causing grief to the native on account to children.

c. Sub-lord of putra saham is Rahu, which disposes Mars and Ketu.

▪ Mars is placed in its own star and sub-lord and as 6th lord (maraca for children) gets placed in 4th house (negating childbirth) again denying children. Thus, Mars signifies 4-6-11th houses.

▪ Saturn is placed in the star and sub of Mercury placed in 12th house (lordship of 1-4th house is of no avail, as the houses are not vacant). Thus, Saturn effectively signifies 8-9-12th houses.

d. Out of the significations calculated for putra saham, all the adverse houses are signified to deny children except some meek hope seen through the signification of 11th house, thereby indicating the negative result to cause child-birth at the gross level.

e. During the last 8 years of married life, the husband was running the dasha of Moon.

▪ Since, the general indications already deny the childbirth, the dasha lord Moon may not alter the dictate.

▪ However, dasha lord Moon gets placed in the star of Ketu placed in 4th house whereas its sub-lord Saturn as lord of 8th house gets placed in 9th house. Thus, the Moon dasha also did not promote the childbirth.

It may be noted that the putra saham did indicate to deny children and the native is childless.

This is the case of night birth and the Putra saham is defined as Moon-Jupiter+Lagna, which adds up to 199-40-24 (d-m-s). Since, Lagna does not fall between Jupiter to Moon, an additional 30 deg was necessary to be added, which amounts the Putra Saham (PS) to be placed at 229-40-24 i.e. in Scorpio 19-40-24 (d-m-s).

Note that the putra saham cusp falls in Scorpio lorded by Mars-Mercury-Venus-Venus as sign lord, star lord, sub lord and sub-sub lord.

Analysis by way of Putra Saham (PS)

a. Putra saham falls in the 6th house, which is the maraca house for children, hence tend to deny children.

b. Sub-lord of putra saham is Venus.

▪ Venus is retro, hence stubborn to show up its desired indications.

▪ Venus is a strong planet and a strong lord of 12th house which tend to deny children (8th from 5th house)

▪ Venus is placed in 3rd house, causing intense desire to have children.

c. Look at the sub-lord of putra saham Venus at the stellar level.

▪ Venus falls in its own star placed in 3rd house (a beneficial house for children as it is 11th from 5th house), causing intense desire for childbirth.

▪ Rahu is the sub-lord of Venus placed in 11th house does give a green chit to the fertility of the spouse.

d. Wife ran through the dasha of Sun and a part of Moon dasha during the last 8 years of marital life.

▪ Dasha lord Sun is very strong as 4th lord placed in 3rd house. The sub-lord of Sun is Saturn, which as 8-9th lord gets placed in 10th house (6th from 5th house) denying childbirth.

▪ Thus, in the backdrop of negativities of general significations, the native could not rear childbirth.

d. While, the fertility of the spouse seems intact, the dasha spread of Sun and Moon over the past 8 years after marriage did not allow the childbirth to take place, perhaps, because of the deficiency in the husband.

Since, both the charts of husband and wife do not show the scope of fertility, they have remained childless even after 8 years of marriage.

Professional matters (Horary query) [Case written by me in KP Ezine-July 2008, page 26]

One of my colleagues approached me to know about the prospects of his child who had been interviewed for a job. The time chart was prepared on June 13, 2008 at 17-17-01 Hrs IST at 12N51, 77E40 and was rotated to 5th house, as the query pertained to his child.

The query was analyzed in the day time, hence the karma saham is calculated with the formula as Mars-Mercury+Lagna, which adds up to 65-02-46 (d-m-s). Add this longitudinal distance to Lagna to get the figure as 408-6-14 (d-m-s). It is observed that Lagna is not placed between Mercury to Mars, hence additional 30 deg are added by rule making the karma saham (KS) placed in Gemini at 18-06-14 (d-m-s) after expunging 360 deg.

Note that the karma saham placed in Gemini is lorded by Mercury-Rahu-Sun-Venus as sign lord, star lord, sub lord and sub-sub lord.

Analysis by way of karma Saham (KS)

- Karma saham gets placed in 4th house, which is a house of rest and contentment. Note that the candidate was fairly satisfied with her performance in the interview.
- Note that the sub-lord of karma saham is Sun.
 - Sun is a strong planet, as it does not have any planet in its star, thus its positional status shall dictate the matter largely. Sun strongly lords the 6th house and is placed in 3rd house, making the native to follow up with the employer.
 - At the stellar level, Sun falls in the star of Mars placed in 5th house as 2-9th lord. Note that the matter of employment remains in the domain of issue of appointment letter from the employer (9th house indicates documents from the employer – 7th house in this case). Also note that 5th house obstructs the 10th house (5th is 8th from 10th house), thus some serious obstruction was on the way in securing the job.
 - Sun falls in the sub of Saturn, a retro planet and a strong lord of 12th house placed in 5th house again. It could mean considerable delay for the employer to make up his mind and may be putting the employment conditions causing the candidate to run away from such a job (12th house).
- To probe further, look to the 10th house on the professional prospects and that of job definition by 6th house.
 - 10th cuspal sub-lord is retro Jupiter. Jup is a strong planet placed in 10th house as its own lord. Sub-lord of Jupiter is Ketu placed in 5th house obstructs 10th house, though some positivity was seen from stellar angle.
 - 6th cuspal sub-lord is Saturn. Saturn falls in the star of Ketu placed in 5th house whereas its sub-lord retro-Jupiter is placed in 10th house. Thus, Saturn strongly negated the 6th house of job (by signifying 5th house) and obstructing the matters of 10th (by signifying 5th house). Thus, fingers get crossed on the job availability through Saturn.

It was learnt later that after a lot of persuasion with the employer, the job offer was obtained but it did not offer much scope of progress, hence was denied by the candidate.

Note that the karma saham clearly projected the picture of blocking the job prospects, supported through the other relevant cusps.

5.3 Parental matters (Horary query)

[Case written by me in KP year book- 2005 published by Krishman publications, Chennai]

This case belongs to scrutinize the father's hospitalization for a native. After obtaining the horary number 230 on enquiry, the case was examined at 15:12 Hrs IST on 10-05-2002 at Bangalore. The chart was rotated with reference to the 9th cusp (making 9th cusp as Lagna for father) for an easier assessment.

The query was analyzed in the day time, hence the pitra saham is calculated with the formula as Saturn-Sun+Lagna, which adds up to 240-24-14 (d-m-s). It is observed that Lagna is not placed between Sun to Saturn, hence additional 30 deg are added by rule making the pitra saham (PS) placed in Capricorn 00-24-14 (d-m-s).

Note that the pitra saham placed in Capricorn is lorded by Saturn-Sun-Rahu-Ketu as sign lord, star lord, sub lord and sub-sub lord.

Analysis by way of pitra Saham (PS)

- Note that father was hospitalized for treatment.
- Pitra saham (saham ruling the matters of father) falls in 3rd house, indicating his struggle for life and his will power to survive.

- Sub-lord of pitra saham is Rahu, which rules the 11th cusp also, thus going to be very decisive to give results.
 - Rahu falls in the star of Mars placed in 7th house (maraca house) as lagna lord, making the maraca effects more pronounced to the native (Lagna).
 - Rahu is in its own sub and its placement in 7th house in closed conjunction with the star lord Mars does promote the maraca effects.
- Rahu disposes Venus and Mars and let those planets be analyzed.
 - Venus as 12th lord is placed in 7th house indicating the hospital (12th house) bringing possibility of death (7th house). Venus falls in the star and sub of Mars placed in 7th house again re-iterates it.
 - Mars gets itself placed in 7th house. Mars falls in its own star and sub of Rahu, both placed in 7th house in close conjunction.
- Look to the 2-7th cusps, which are maraca cusps.
 - Venus is the sub-lord of 2nd cusp and as analyzed above, it points to the maraca results.
 - Mercury is the sub-lord of the 7th cusp. Note that Mercury is the badhaka lord placed in 7th house, making the Mercury to lead in maraca effects. Mercury falls in the star of Moon placed in 5th house which may show up some recovery effects, but the sub-lord Jupiter as strong lord of 2nd house (maraca house) placed in the 8th house puts the final nail on ending the longevity (8H).

Thus, the study of maraca houses does show possibility of native's death.

- The horary dasha of Ketu-Venus-Mercury was running on the day of analysis and pratyantar period of Mercury was to run for 16 more days ending on 26-05-2002.

It may be of interest to note that all the planets framing the dasha sequence were death-giving planets for the patient. The pratyantara period of Mercury was very serious and the patient ended his life on 20-05-2002.

The indications studied through pitra saham on the matters of father did show up accurate results.

5.4 Foreign travel (Horary query)

In this query, the paradesha saham is calculated with the formula as Cusp of 9th house-9th lord+Lagna, which is same irrespective of the day or night (refer table at #3).

Note that the 9th cusp falls at Libra at a longitude 26-00-57 (d-m-s) and 9th lord is Venus. As per the said formula, the result works out to be 511-14-04 (d-m-s), It is observed that Lagna is not placed between 9th lord Venus and 9th cusp, hence additional 30 deg are added by rule making the paradesha saham (PS) mapped to Libra 01-14-04 (d-m-s) after expunging 360 deg.

Note that the pitra saham placed in Libra is lorded by Venus-Mars-Mercury-Rahu as sign lord, star lord, sub lord and sub-sub lord.

Analysis by way of paradesha Saham (PS)

- Paradesha saham falls in the 8th house (negating the 9th house), which prima-facie denies the prospects of foreign travel (9th house).
- Mercury as the sub-lord of paradesha saham is also the sub-lord of the 6th cusp, meaning that the anticipated purpose for the foreign travel could have been for the job requirements.
 - Note that Mercury is a strong planet, as it does not have any planet in its star, hence its placement is dictative. Note the placement of Mercury in 4th house, which points to remain in the motherland and not allowing any journey related to the purpose for which the query was put forth.
 - Looking at the stellar level; Mercury falls in the star of Rahu placed in lagna (indicating matter related to the native), but the sub-lord Jupiter (retro) as lord of 11th house placed in 8th house does not allow any fructification to be allowed in the direction of the anticipated foreign travel.

The ruling of the paradesh saham was very specific and pointed and readers may note that the native could not make his ambitions fulfilled and is far away from any idea of foreign travel since then.

Conclusion:

This write-up attempts the effort to highlight the role of saham in the assessment of charts whether be it the birth charts or that of horary query. Though, the saham is not yet widely used parameter in even tajika system of astrology, I found it prudent to import it to the KP styled delineation, which seemed giving me very pointed results.

This concept need be tested on a larger database and the hypothesis be updated to take the shape of rules, perhaps readers would take up this issue in their regular usage. While, this write-up is limited in examples of birth charts due to the constraints of brevity, I have tested the concept of the application of saham for very conclusive results in many charts on various aspects of life.

I close this write-up with my sincere thanks to The Krishnamurti Paddhati, which is instrumental to give us learning in the wisdom of astrology from newer perspectives.

'AZOOSPERMIA' is a medical term for sterility, unproductive, barren i.e. total absence of sperm in semen. Normal male should have 60 to 150 millions sperms per cubic milli meter of semen, as per medical theory. Count below 60 millions is termed as oligospermia, whereas total absence of sperms in semen is termed as Azoospermia.

Fruit of the marriage and marital happiness lies in begetting a child boy or girl at the earliest after marriage. Not getting a child even after 10 years or more, unless for specific reason, it is a cause of anxiety to both the couple. We have to find out who is abnormal male or female.

Let us find out astrological reasons for such defect. A couple came to me for consultation whether at all they will get a child, as they were married more than 10 years ago and their parents are reported to be more worried for not getting grand child so far.

I am attaching both of their charts and my observation thereon as follows.

For child birth, we have to scrutinize 2, 5 and 11th bhavas for fruitful results; especially 5th bhava, which is 11th to his partner. 1, 4 and 10th bhavas are 12th to the above houses and they give the negative result. The signs Aries, Gemini, Leo and Virgo are Aputra (Barren) signs and they negate the child birth. Sagittarius, Capricorn, Aquarius are semi barren signs. These signs also will not give the result. The only fruitful signs are Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces. Taurus, Libra and Aquarius are the semi-fruitful signs.

Among the planet the Sun is hot and dry planet. Moon, Venus, Mars and Jupiter are fruitful planets. Especially Jupiter is of prime importance for normal semen in male. Mars is important for female. Moon is sex instinct in male. Jupiter is karaka for progeny and Venus is karaka for child birth. Sun and Mars are for male potential and sex vitality. Mercury and Saturn are eunuch planets. Ketu is incendiary by nature and called abortive planet, not good for child birth. The lords of 5, 11, Moon, Jupiter, Venus, Sun and Mars should be in a fruitful signs. They should not fall in abortive Ketu's star and barren signs.

Thus we have to combine the bhavas and planets by their sign, star and sub position. Especially 5th & 11th cusps' sign lord, star lord and sub lord should have inter relations with each other for favourable results. In addition, benefic or malefic aspects to the concerned bhavas and planets are also to be seen.

With the above guidance, both of the charts have been analysed as follows.

Chart 1 (Male): Additional information about this chart is that he fell in love with a girl of different cast (Male Hindu and Girl Christian) and married her after Registration of Marriage. This marriage did not survive long and they got separated and divorced.

The reasons for this are his 5th (love) cuspal sub lord Mars having signification of 1, 4, 8, 11 indicates his love affair and 7th cuspal sub lord Saturn in 2, in star Rahu in 5 as an agent of 5th lord Venus, kalathrakarak has given him intercast marriage. Saturn with no planet in its star and being in own sub is a strong significator of 2, 7 for marriage. But that marriage could not sustain long as Rahu is agent of 10th lord Venus is in 1 and Venus is conjoined with 6th lord Mercury, 8th lord Sun in 1 and Saturn aspects 12th lord Jupiter in 4. That marriage got broken with difference of opinion between them and finally in divorce due to 1, 6, 8, 10, 12 signification. In addition, the 11th signification was also absent for conjugal relation. There is Punarphoo dosha by the conjunction of Moon and Saturn in Aquarius but it is supposed to be cancelled as Moon is in the sub of Saturn. No child was got from the 1st wife.

However, as his 2nd cuspal sub lord Rahu, as agent of Venus, kalathrakaraka, which is conjoined with Sun of 2, 7 significators and in the star of 11th lord Mars gave him second marriage with a girl of his own cast and with the consent of his parents. She is well qualified and has got good job. This can be verified from his chart, if the 4th cuspal sub lord is the significator of 8th or 12th or 4th. Here his 4th cuspal sub lord Mercury is in the star of Sun, lord of 8th, the required house for his marriage with a career girl. His wife is an engineer in a software company.

Coming to the issue of child birth, now it is more than 10 years since his 2nd marriage the couple has no issue so far. Let us find out the reason. The main house for male to get a child, 11th cuspal sub lord Moon is in 2 and in star Rahu in 5 but in the sub of 8th lord Sun in 1, unfavourable to get a child. Then the 5th cusp's sign lord, star lord and sub lord are Venus, Moon and Mars respectively. While Venus is in semi-barren sign along with Sun and Mercury, Moon is 7th lord in semi-fruitful sign, but it is in the sub of 8th lord Sun in 1 and Sun is in 12th to Moon, a disadvantage position. Mars is in 8th in the barren sign, not useful to get a child. The 2nd cuspal sub lord Rahu is in the sub of 12th lord Jupiter in 4. Thus all the 3 houses viz. 2, 5, and 11 are spoilt through their sub lords. As the important planet of Jupiter, karaka for child and also important for sperms in male is in Aries, barren sign, in 4th negative house for 5th and placed in 4th i.e 3rd to 2nd, 12th to 5th and 6th to 11th cusp. These planetary positions indicate that he may be suffering from 'Azoospermia' and his sperms count will be less than normal. When I asked the native whether he got his semen tested under medical advice, he confirmed it with shy in affirmative and said that it contained some deficiency. Thus almost all the important planets and bhavas for getting child are spoilt. I advised him to have consultation with a specialist doctor in the relevant field and see if it can be rectified medically. Nowadays, medical field has so advanced that they are doing research even to give life to the dead.

Presently, he is running Mercury Dasa and Mercury is a barren planet, deopited in the sub of abortive Kethu in 11th, which is the main house for the male native to get a child. Thus the chart is highly afflicted as far as getting a child is concerned.

Chart 2 of Female (Wife of Chart 1): In her chart, for consideration of child birth, her 5th bhava, main Bhavam for female to give child birth, is to be scrutinized. The 5th cuspal sub lord Jupiter is lord 2, 11 in 9. No planet is in the star of Jupiter, which is the sub lord of cusps 4, 5 and 7. Jupiter is in the star of Saturn in 3 and lord of 1, 12, and in the sub of Mo in 6 as lord of 6.

Her 2nd cuspal sub lord is Rahu in 12, conjoined with Mars in 12 as lord of 3, 10 and in the star of Moon in 6 as lord of 6 but close to 7th.. Rahu's sign lord is Saturn and Rahu is in the sub of Saturn in 3, in fact closely conjunct with 4th, as lord of 1, 12.

Her 11th cuspal sub lord Saturn is in semi-fruitful sign, in 3, in fact closely conjunct with 4th, as lord of 1, 12. Saturn is in the star of Moon in 6 but close to 7th and sub of Rahu signifying 12, 10, 6, 4, 1 as discussed above.

By the signification of her 2nd, 5th, and 11th houses as explained above, it is understandable why she has not been able to give a child birth till present. However, her chart is better than Chart 1 of her husband to get a child as all relevant and important planets except Sun are posited in the fertile or semi-fertile signs. This is also the reason for my suggestion to take benefit of the latest medical technology for getting child.

I sincerely pray God to bestow them with their desired wish, fulfilled and wish them good luck.

Such detailed analysis is possible in the wonderful K.P.System. My pranams to our lateGuruji, sri K.S.Krishnamurthy.

1. By occupation and lordship, the Dasa lord and its star lord indicate the houses, whose matters will be enjoyed during the Dasa period. The sub lord of the Dasa lord will indicate whether the results indicated by the Dasa lord and its star lord will be positive or negative. If the planet is conjoined with/ aspected by another planet, it will give the results indicated by another as the weak grade 'E' signifiers.

2. The same can be said about the Bhukti lord also. The Dasa lord is the most powerful commander. No Bhukti lord can offer a result, if the Dasa lord does not permit. What the Bhukti lord can do is to obstruct the Dasa lord from giving results but he cannot alter the result. The Antara and Sookshma lords can carry out the mandate of the Dasa/Bhukti lords, if they have similar significations as the Dasa/Bhukti lords. If not, the event cannot take place in their Antara or Sookshma and will have to wait for another Antara/ Sookshma periods when they can execute the results destined by the Dasa/Bhukti lords. Planets form a cabinet. The prime minister is the Dasa lord. The Bhukti lords are the ministers and the Antara lords are deputy ministers.

3. The Dasa lord can give the result in the case of marriage as follows:

- 1) If Dasa lord/its star lord signifies 2, 7, 11 and its sub also signifies 2, 7, 11, the marriage is fully indicated in this Dasa period;
- 2) If Dasa lord/its star lord signifies 2, 7, 11 and its sub signifies 2, 7, 11 and also 6, 8, 12, the marriage would take place but with a lot of difficulties;
- 3) If Dasa lord/its star lord signifies only 6, 8, 10, 12, then no marriage is clearly indicated.

4. The following example chart- 1 (attached) shows that the Bhukti lord cannot provide the result, which is not allowed by the Dasa lord.

1) Female, 04/07/1927, 2:00 GMT, 41N55, 13E06, Sid Time 21:36:45, KPNA 22:45:18, Venus Dasa bal 16Y:4M:25D (KPAstro 3.0)

2) The native married in January 1949 (Su/Ve Dasa/Bhukti) and divorced in 1971 (Ra/Ju).

3) The 2nd marriage is promised:

- a) 7CSL Ra signifies 2, 7;
- b) 7CSL Ra is in the dual sign Gemini;
- c) 2SCL Ve signifies specifically 7 and also 11.

4) In October 2006 (Sa/Ke/Ke), at age 79, the native announced a wedding plan to marry her 45-years-old companion for 22 years but the plan was called off due to media pressure around the event.

5) Dasa lord Sa does not allow marriage by the signification of 6, 10 and indicates only relation by 11: Sa(6,6-91-11) is in own star Sa(6,6-91-11) and sub of Ve(4,1-6).

6) Bhukti lord Ke is favorable for marriage: Ke is in 7, aspected by Su(2,5) nd sign lord is Ju(11,8). Ke is in own star and sub of Mo+(4,3-4). No planet is in the star of Mo, which is sub lord of 11.

7) Although the 2nd marriage is promised, the favorable Bhukti lord Ke cannot provide the marriage which is not allowed by the Dasa lord Sa.

8) The previous Dasa (27/11/1984 to 27/11/2000) lord Ju also did not allow the marriage in any of its Bhukti and only provided the relationship with her companion since 1984: Ju+(11,8) is in star Sa(6-9-10-11) and sub Ve (4,1-6)

9) Without the 7th signification, only the 11th signification of Dasa used to provide the relation (lover, companion, living together etc) only, not marriage.

5. The example chart-2 (attached) denotes that the Dasa lord can provide the result, which is not supported by the Bhukti lord.

- 1) 05/05/1955, 16-07 GMT, 28N41, 77E12, KPNA 23-8-36, Asc Sc 26-04-19, Ra Dasa bal 17Y-0M-9D (KPAstro 3.0)
- 2) The native married in April 1979 (Ju/Me/Sa/Ju DBAS): Ju(8,2-4) is in own star Ju(8,2-4) and sub Mo+(10,11). No planet is in star of Mo which is sub lord of the 2nd cusp. Me(6,8-10) is in star Su(5, 9) and in own sub Me(6, 8-10). Sa+(11,3) is in star Ju(8,2-4) and sub Me(6,8-10). No planet is in star of Sa which is sub lord of the cusps 6, 12.
- 3) Dasa lord Ju provides the marriage which is not in line with the signification of Bhukti lord Me. In KP it is not a necessary condition for each DBA lord to signify at least one of the required houses i.e. 2,7,11 for marriage. That is the reason for failure of the prediction generally based on the houses which are commonly signified by all the dasa lords.
- 4) Ju/Me DB gives the marriage but Dasa lord Me is not capable of giving marriage as Me does not signify 2,7,11 and in contrary signifies negative houses 6,8,10.
- 5) The results of Ju/Me DB and Me/Ju DB cannot be the same for marriage because of contradictory significations by Ju and Me. The matter of similar significations by Ju and Me may happen in both Ju/Me DB and Me/Ju DB.

6. Dasa/Bhukti will change in the cyclic order of the Vimshothari Dasa But the cuspal position is ever the same and never will change. The cusps indicate whether the matter is promised or not. Significators point the time of event. Both dasa and transit must agree for the event to materialize. The agreement means that the dasa lords in transit should also signify the required houses. An event, which is promised, happens in the joint period of DBAS signifying the required houses. A promised event cannot happen, if the Dasa lords are not favorable.

7. Since an event cannot happen without being promised and the cuspal sub lord of a house is all powerful, it is worthy to test the following rules whenever they are relevant:

- 1) One cannot suffer the accident in the period of the dasa lord signifying 8th, if the 8th cuspal sub lord is the significators of 3 and 11, which promise a life without accidents;
- 2) One cannot suffer all the adverse matters indicated by the 12th house in the Dasa of 12th house significator, if the 12th cuspal sub lord is strongly signifies the improving houses 1,2,3,6,10,11, especially 11th, as in the chart of Mr. Tony Blair;
- 3) The effect of the 11th Badhaka can be relieved, if the 11th cuspal sub lord signifies the 10th house, which is 12th to 11th house, etc.

8. The karaka without the signification of the required houses is not a significator itself but the limited use of the karaka can be considered:

- 1) The dasa lords connected with 4th house and Mars will indicate house. 4th house and Venus indicates conveyance. 4th house and Moon govern mother. 4th house and Mercury indicates education.
- 2) If the 4th cusp and Moon occupy the constellation of significators of the 9,11,3 houses and if the sub belongs to Badhaka, Maraka to the 4th house, the mother will be unhealthy and not live long.
- 3) The karaka planets are helpful in the identification of diseases.

Om Gajananam Namamhyam

The entire world is after beauty and charisma which is of skin deep as per the proverb. In Astrology terms Venus is karaka for beauty apart from Mercury who indicates features of youngness and Moon is feminine character indicates for Beauty. Hence the signs that rules by the above three karakas Venus, Moon and Mercury as Ascendant cusp would indicating charming appearance. Out of the 12 signs, Libra and Taurus ruled by Venus, Virgo and Gemini by Mercury and Cancer by Moon. Airy signs also indicates slimness and attractiveness i.e. Libra, Aquarius and Gemini. In these combinations the most effective combination is Ascendants that falls in Taurus with Rohini star and Virgo with Hasta Star and Libra/Aquarius/Gemini ascendants connection with Venus/Moon/Mercury indicates for beauty.

As per the KP House Grouping Part V of Feb. 2008 e-zine compiled by Sri Tinwin ji,

Congress Party will win in A.P. in the next coming elections to form the Government

I wish all the readers of this esteemed magazine "HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR 2009".

On 16-12-2008 one of my best friends asked me whether the present ruling congress party will win in the next coming elections to be held in shortly most probably in the month of April 2009. Then I told him, "The correct answer will be given to you with in three or four days". Then he said, O.K. and went away.

Horary Number 1009/2193 is taken at random with the help of Dr. Rangarajan's K.P.Astro 3.0 software, windows based. Date of Judgement = 20-12-2008

Time of Judgement= 9-50-12.AM IST.

Place of Judgement = Kurnool,(A.P).

My analysis and detailed particulars regarding the Horary Chart are furnished hereunder for the benefit of the readers of this esteemed magazine.

Rule:- If the 6th or the 11th cuspal Sub-sub lord signifies 6 or 10 or 11, then only one can win in any competition, election, or court cases. If it signifies 5 or 4 or 12, then the opponent will win.

Sub-Sub lord of the 6th is Venus. Venus at 5 is in the star of Moon at 1. Moon lord of 11th at Lagna is in its own star (i.e.) Hasta. Lagna is 15-08-53 in Virgo; Moon is in 13-34-40 in Virgo. Nearer to Lagna as per the orb theory.

1st house indicates Success of the Self, (Success of the congress party in elections)

3rd house denotes oath taking.

6th house stands for Opponents.

10th house indicates ruling as well as name and fame.

11th house stands for the fulfillment of one's desire. (Assembly/Parliament)

1, 2, 3, 6, 10, and 11 houses are called the improving houses (favorable houses)

Venus is judged above by MST-F1. (F1:- A in the star of B.)

If it is judged now by MST-F3:- (A in the sub-sub of B, B in the star of C)

Venus at 5 is in the sub-sub of Jupiter at 4.

Jupiter at 4 is in the star of sun at 3. (Venus is also the sub-sub lord of the 9th cusp.)

Venus aspects 11th means 5th of the opponents. 5th is a place of defeat. So the opponent party has to face the defeat in the next coming elections. If the Sub-sub lord of any cusp is found favorable, then the lord of the cusp and planet there in will be all favorable.

Moon is the Sub-Sub lord of 1, 10 and 11 cusps. As per the F1:- (F1:- A in the star of B.) Moon at 1 is in the star of Hasta which is of its own star. So it signifies strongly 1 (Self Success).

As per F3:- (A in the sub-sub of B, B in the star of C)

Moon at 1 is in the sub-sub of Sun at 3. Sun at 3 is in the star of Ketu at 11. (Fulfillment of ambition)

Seventh cusp Sub-Sub lord is Saturn (7th indicates the opponents)

F1:- (F1:- A in the star of B.) Saturn at 12 is in the star of Sun at 3.

F3:- (A in the sub-sub of B, B in the star of C)

Saturn at 12 is in the sub-sub of Jupiter at 4.

Jupiter at 4 is in the star of Sun at 3. (3rd will be the 9th house for the opponents. As it is not in the group of improving houses, it indicates defeat to the opponents.)

Therefore I came to a conclusion that the present ruling congress party will win in the next coming elections and form the Government. Let us see what will happen.

Editor note: If we do not use geocentric option we found 11th Sub Sub lord as Mar and Mar is negative, it is interesting to watch actual result, and it will help us to choose geocentric option.

Editor's Note

Dear Readers,

Today is a pleasant day for all of us; yes, your KP-Ezine is stepping into 3rd year of its service in promoting the doctrines of our Great Guruji, Sri K S Krishnamurti, profounder of Krishnamurti Padhdhati system of astrology.

Growth of KP-Ezine is due to the great support of KP Scholars, Readers, enthusiasts and many others; you are the catalyst in its / our growth.

Now KP-Ezine family is an ever growing family with 1400+ members and steadily increasing.

Here I need to mention about the great support of Mr Tin win ji, Sri Raichur ji, Dr K Rangarajan ji, Sri R Satish ji, Sri K S Narayanan and others for their regular guidance in scrutiny of the articles, digital publishing related services and maintaining the quality standards.

It is amazing that many authors, regularly script and contribute articles amongst their personal and official hectic tasks with clear analysis, following the KP principles; personal and mundane feedback from you, the Readers, is the testimony of their indepth knowledge in KP system. Special thanks to them.

Proof of the pudding is in the eating; numerous feedback e-mails, phone calls from our large KP-Ezine readers propels our dedication.

Esteemed Mr Kanak Bosmia,

Happy New Year, and thank you very much again for letting us download all issues of the KP-Ezine free of charge. It is a generous gift of the greatest value. The December issue contains fewer articles than usual, but their quality more than makes up for the smaller number of articles. I would like to thank Rotarian P.H.F. P.M. Gopalachary for sharing his valuable experience in differentiating the house significations in his article titled \"2 & 7 Marriage or Death \". U Tin Win has explained with clarity and precision the system behind the various effects of Saturn and Mars. His articles are packed with useful information as always. I am also grateful to other learned contributors who have generously shared their experience with us.

Respected Editor Saab

At the outset, let me wish all the esteemed readers, contributors and respected personalities connected with KP-Ezine, a very happy & prosperous new year 2009.

It has been nice to see that the quality of articles kept up under the kind guidance of yourself and Mr. Tin Win.

The screening of the articles and other materials with utmost precision by the Board is to be appreciated.

It is amazing to note the Herculean work undertaken by you to identify and publish the broad significations of each sign by yourself, and one could see the true and genuine Sagittarius sign and the ever-strong Capricorn figuring in the new year issue. The segregation of natal / horary / mundane issues is really an index finger on the point of view of students aspiring to learn this divine science.

It shows one's immense interest in the subject when one collects large data of events, especially the accidents, etc. ever since the Country attained independence.

We have seen Mr. Vijay Kumar presenting many subjects in the past with accuracy. The current innovation of Parashara Sahams in KP context is really worth a study. The discipline in his writings with a teacher's outlook is really good.

The article by Mr. KSV Ramani should be kept by Astrologers when they do the marriage matching, since marriage is for putra siddhi.

The article of beauty written by Mr. OVN Murthy and the Mundane prediction on Elections in AP written by Mr. VSN Murthy are worthy.

The concept of teaching the subject with detailed and meticulous approach by Mr. Tin Win has to be appreciated as selfless.

Wishing you all the success in the future to come.

Regards

MK Viswanath

Dear Editor,

Article of the Editor on Mundane Astrology – Train Accidents is very excellent with good data collection and correlating the negative signifiers with India's Chart.

Mr. MKV's article on education by KP method is an eye opener and the pitfalls in Conventional reading of chart.

Sri VijayKumar's Article on Sahams is a novel idea which has taken up for further research by the Members of the KPForum Hyderabad.

Child birth a case study by Sri KSV Ramani ji reg. the advice to take up medical help for conceiving is very apt suggestion to client where our KP Astrologers ought to play a major role in guiding the society.

Article of Sri Tinwin ji on DBA is very useful in interpreting the results that are promised by the planets thru its DasaBukhthiAntharaSookshma.

Horary chart of AP Elections by Sri VSN Murthy Kurnool is very interesting we have to see how geocentric latitude option would work to make it as a Rule in KP Horary Chart calculations.

Dear Kanak,

While I thank your sincere efforts to nurture a beautiful e-magazine on KP system, I place my sincere thanks to all the members of editorial board who are carving out the KP Ezine to its blossom. I herewith forward my best wishes on the new year - 2009 to all the readers and patrons of KP Ezine.

I have the observation on the 10th as the last date to submit the article. My humble feeling is that the last date of submission of articles should be relaxed upto 20th of the month as 10th seems too early.

In Jan-09 issue of KP Ezine, I have floated the idea of usage of Sahams and I sincerely request the readers to use it and develop this concept to its usefulness. In all my articles herewith, I would also include the observations on this aspect in addition to the usual canons of delineation.

Thanks,

Vijay Kumar

Locating a missing person - My experience through KP study

Kanak Bosmia

Kanak Bosmia, KP Astrologer / Editor KPEzine, Sahakar-2, Flat No: 28, Jagabhai Park, Ram Baugh, Maninagar, Ahmedabad 380 008
kanakbosmia@yahoo.com , www.kpastrologer.com

In my KP journey I was asked by worried parents about missing Son and a wife about her Husband on three different occasions. All three predictions come correctly using what is discussed in Chandrakant Bhatt's Book –'Prashna Jyotish' Part 1-2) (Gujarati).

In Prashna Jyotish Part-1, Page:73

"First select Asc as per relation with querent. For example, if a wife asks about her husband we have to rotate Asc to 7th as revised Asc. Then, if 11th CSL signifies 2(12th from 3rd), 8(12th from 9th), 11th (12th from 12th). One will come back Home."

In the First Case, a worried mother asked me about her Son. The Lady having no children, adopted her sister's Son, due to 'over-love', the boy lost interest in education and wanted to only play games. In one school exam he failed and his mother got angry at the boy. As the boy does not like it, left home on 23/01,2001 @ 15.30PM without informing anyone.

This was the FIRST case of this type in my KP journey.

Horary details:

Horary No: 120/249

Question: My son left home, is there any chance for him to come back home?

Date: 22/2/2001

Time: 17.46 PM

Place: Ahmedabad 23 N 02, 72 E 37

(Special note: 5th Cusp as Asc)

In this Horary chart, 11th sublord is Sun. Sun is in the star of Rahu and sub of Jup.

Sun is in 1 lord of 8. Rahu is in 5, aspected by Mar. Mar is in 10 lord of 4, 11. Jup is in 4 lord of 3, 12.

11th sublord signifies 8, 11 and indicated that her son will be back home.

We have positive answer so we will now check DBAS for getting answer "WHEN."

Dasa/Bhukti/ etc lords are Ma-Me-Ma-Ke

Ma(10, 4-11), in the star of Sa(4, 1-2), in the sub of Ve(2, 5-10).

Me(12, 6-9), in the star of Mo(1, 7), in the sub of Ve(2, 5-10).

Ma(10, 4-11), in the star of Sa(4, 1-2), in the sub of Ve(2, 5-10).

Ke+(11), in the star of Ve(2, 5-10), in the sub of Ra(5).

RPs at the time of Horary are:

Lagna: Moon-Mer-Sat

Chandra: Sat-Mar-Mer

Day lord: Jup(Ketu is in sign of Jup)

Total Rp are Moon-Mer-Sat-Mar-Ket

Dasa Lord is Mar and Mar is RP and signifies 2 and 11. So Dasa agree with rule.

Bhukti Lord is Mer, in RP and Signifies 2.

Antra lord of Mar. Mar we select as Dasa Lord so I go for next, Rahu Antra, Ra(9), in the star of Ra(9), in the sub of Mo(5, 11). Mar aspect on Rahu, Ma(10, 4-11). This Antra runs up to 1/3/2001 to 25/4/2001.

Hence, I predicted that during this period he will come back.

Actual Outcome: He did come back home on 22/3/2001 @ 15.30 hrs. At that time Sookshma Dasa was Sa(8, 5-6), in the star of Su(5, 12), in the sub of Ra(9). Rahu aspected by Mar (10, 4-11), also Sat is in RP and signifies 8, 11.

Second case:

Short History: Boy left home without any reason, all the family members were wondering, why he left home. The Father of the Boy is good friend of my close relative, so the Father came with my relative.

Horary details:

Locating a missing person - My experience through KP study

Kanak Bosmia

Time: 17.23 PM

Place: Ahmedabad 23 N 02, 72 E 37

(Special note: 5th Cusp as Asc)

“First select Asc as per relation with querent. For example if wife ask about husband we have to rotate Asc to 7th as Asc. Then If 11th CSL signifies 2(12th from 3rd), 8(12th from 9th), 11th (12th from 12th). One can come back Home.”

11th CSI is Mar, Mar is in the star of Ketu and sub of Ven.

Ma(10, 3-10), in the star of Ke(10), Ketu Conj with Mar. in the sub of Ve(2, 4-9). In this case 11th CSL signifies only 2. So I decided to predict he will not come back home.

Other reason to predict negative is, Asc sublord, Asc sublord is Sat, Sa(3, 1-12), in the star of Mo(9, 6), in the sub of Ra(4). Rahu Conj with Mer, Mer is in 4 lord of 5,8. 9th and also is Badhaka in this Horary and Sat signifies 12(Moksha), 9(Badhaka), 8(Accident). Additionally, running Dasa is also Sat, So after both Asc and 11th CSL were negative, I came to the conclusion that Boy is no more and will never come back home, but I told his father that boy will never come back home, he asked about his longevity, I reply he is very happy where he was.

Actual outcome: I meet Father on 25/9/2005 and 25/06/2007 Boy did not come back home as predicted.

Third case

Short History: This case was a very recent one .After some bitter quarrel between husband and wife, Husband left home at night and did not come back home in morning, Both being Doctors and very reputed in society , the Wife did not agree to file a complaint in the Police Station, so she called me and asked my advice about this situation.

Question: My husband left home yesterday night, will he come back or any danger to his life?

Date: 20/12/2008

Time: 09.18.15 AM

Place: Ahmedabad 23 N 02, 72 E 37

(Special note: 7th Cusp as Asc)

“First select Asc as per relation with querent. For example if wife ask about husband we have to rotate Asc to 7th as Asc. Then If 11th CSL signifies 2(12th from 3rd), 8(12th from 9th), 11th (12th from 12th). One can come back Home.”

Lady first asked .. Will he come back.... so I checked first 11th CSL.

11th SL is Ven, in the star of Moon and sub of Ketu.

Ven is in 5 lord of 2,9. Moon is in 12 lord of 11. Ketu is in 11, Ketu aspected by Mar, Mar is in 3 lord of 3,8. Ven signifies 2,8,11 so he will come back definitely.

We got an Answer as Yes; even then the lady asked about her husband's longevity, so I checked Asc sublord.

Asc sublord is Mer; Me(4, 1-10), in the star of Ve(5, 2-9), in the sub of Ra+(5). Rahu Conj with Jup and Ven. Jup is in 4 lord of 4,7, Ven is in 5 lord of 2,9.

Asc sublord does not signify Badhaka at all, but at the same time signified 1,5,9 so he is very safe.

Period lords are Mo-Ra-Ve-Ma

Mo(12, 11), in the star of Mo(12, 11), in the sub of Ra+(5). Rahu Conj with Jup and Ven. Jup is in 4 lord of 4,7, Ven is in 5 lord of 2,9. Dasalord signifies 2,11 so OK

Ra+(5), Rahu Conj with Jup and Ven. Jup is in 4 lord of 4,7, Ven is in 5 lord of 2,9. in the star of Mo(12, 11), in the sub of Sa+(12, 5-6). Bhukti lord signifies 2,11 = OK

Ve(5, 2-9), in the star of Mo(12, 11), in the sub of Ke(11). Ketu aspected by Mar, Mar is in 3 lord of 3,8.

Antra lord signifies 2,8,11 = OK

Ma+(3, 3-8), in the star of Ke(11), in the sub of Ke(11). Ketu aspected by Mar, Mar is in 3 lord of 3,8.

Sookshmalord signifies 11,8 = Ok

Locating a missing person - My experience through KP study

Kanak Bosmia

RP are Sat_Sun_Mer_Moon_Rah
 Daslord Moon is in RP= Ok
 Bhuktilord Rahu is in RP=Ok
 Antralord Ven is not in RP.but Rahu represent Ven os =OK
 Sookshna lord is Mar not in RP.

So I predicted that before 3rd Jan 2009 (end of Sokshama of Mar) he will come back.

When I informed the lady, she asked me is there any way to know where he is now, I told her it is very difficult but I will try.

Where is he?

Asc CSL Mer signfes 4,1,10,5,2,9,7
 4= Parents- in- law, Uncle, Mother
 10=Female relation,
 1= Grandfather or brother, famous relative,
 5=second sister
 9=brother- in- law, partner relative, sister in low, father, Religious place.

Actual Out Come:

He came back on 20 Dec 2009 (same day) and informed that he is in a Temple all night. This is my guess- work about place but, I request readers to check this and inform me will it work or not, it is not advisable to say anything after only one case.

Notable point: this is case of Punarphoo, Sat is in Moon sub even then it happens same day.

We are apprehensive and careful to perceive that the educational part is a very important phase of a person in life, irrespective of the fact that the person is born in any era whether ancient, middle ages, or in modern period. Astrology and a shrewd Astrologer could be a perfect tool to determine educational line of a person or if at all the chart promises education, of course, among many intricate events of a person's life.

Stethoscope of a Doctor could measure heartbeat of a patient, while Astrology could diagnose the "educational heart-beat" of a person. The KP System, which revolves around cusp that marks the beginning of a house and sub lord theory, is the accurate Astrological system available to human kind.

Once a Doctor by profession dropped in at my home seeking astrological advice on the chart of his beloved daughter. It is obvious that only Astrologer or the Creator of the Universe, Brahma himself, could only predict in advance of an event that could materialize in the future.

The chart is analyzed as per the one discussed below:--

Name (Female) Date 15-04-1993 Thursday Time: 16-03-51 hours IST (Reported time 16-04 hours) Sys: KPAY: 23° 40' 03" Place: Hyderabad Longitude: 78-27-00 East Latitude: 17-26-00 North Zone IST 5.5 from GMT Settings Universal Time Sid.
Time 5° 22' 03" Latitude Geographic Cusp System Placidus

Of the two genders, viz. male and female, both should get educated well in order to maintain the equilibrium in the society and also to lift it from the current precarious status as well as for better prosperity for the generations to come. Women are the torch-bearers of an efficient and mature society.

Under this view-point, the chart assumes significance since it belongs to a girl. A "girl child" is a "pearl-child".

In KP system, the rules are very straight-forward and not at all confusing. The students need to only understand its basics to analyze a chart for an event.

The rules say that when 4th cuspal sub lord signifies 4,9,11, the native will have College education, and when 9th cuspal sub lord signifies 4,9,11, higher education is destined. The line of education shall be dictated by the significators of these cusps as per their characteristics. The lords of Dasha / Bhukti / Antara which are operating at the time of event should support along with the transit of planets. Well placed Mercury and Jupiter are the natural significators of education. 3rd cusp will signal the mental inclination to study.

3rd cusp sub lord Venus is a strong significator of 11th by being the sub lord of this cusp without having no planet in its star. 4th cuspal sub lord Jupiter indicates the native's intelligence as lord of 5 in the star of Moon in 5. Jupiter is aspected by Mercury, lord of favourable 2, 11. 9th cuspal sub lord Sun is a self strong planet without having any planet in its star. Sun is in the star of Ketu in 9 and agent of Venus, which is a strong significator of 11th as discussed above. Thus the signification of 9,11 by the 4th and 9th cuspal sub lords can bestow higher education to the native.

The dasa period running at the time of the age from 15 years to 17 years (education in Intermediate) is that of Rahu-Saturn. Rahu is agent of Mars and Saturn aspected by Mars. Both Rahu and Saturn are connected to Mars.

Native was studying in 10th class at the time of analysis, and was likely to pass out of High School during March-April 2008. The advice given earlier to the father of the native toward educational line was Medicine, especially Dentist, as indicated by the 9th cuspal sub lord Sun.

At this juncture it is felt that for a line in medicine, connection of Sun is a must. Sun is neither connected to Jupiter nor Mars. Dasha lord Rahu also is not connected to Sun. Hence it was respectfully declared to the consultant that the line of education is not Medicine, but it should be Engineering. Accordingly, the girl was put into an Intermediate Course of Maths-Physics-Chemistry (or more popularly known as MPC), which could take her to an Engineering Course. At the moment almost one year passed since the analysis was done, the consultant had confirmed that the girl is studying well and scoring more than 90% marks in the internal examinations conducted in-house at the College.

Once the 4th and 9th houses declare that the native is destined for higher education, the current running Dasa lord would complete that matter Rahu is aspected by Saturn in 6, in the star of 11th lord Mercury and its sign lord is Mars in 11 as lord of 4,9.

May God Almighty bless upon this girl and take her to an Engineering Course such as BE or B.Tech and let her pass out successfully with flying colors. At the lotus feet of Guruji. OM TAT SAT

Will Marriage Happen - a KP appraisal

This is a recent case asked to me. One of my colleague asked me on phone "Will the native (his son) marry this girl" having in mind the candidates of marriage proposal. He gave me the horary number as 73.

I prepared the chart on Dec 16, 2008 at 18-27-42 Hrs IST at Bangalore for analysis. In this case, there was no need to rotate the chart and I considered lagna for the boy and the 7th house for girl, as the question was put directly by the name of the candidates. The horary chart at the time of query is shown on next page..The chart is being analysed as follows:

The co-ordinates for judgment

In a prashna chart, if the prospects of marriage between two individuals are to be assessed, following combinations should exist.

- *The lagna indicates one individual and the 7th house indicates the other one for marriage in such a prashna.
- * 7th house also indicates the marital knot. Thus, 7th house need be connected to the lagna and the 11th house.
- * 11th house indicates the fructification of the query. Hence, if the marriage between two natives in view is to take place,
- * 11th house should be connected to 7th house and lagna.
- * If all the connections exist, the dasha-bhukti would indicate the timing.

Analysis of the chart

The analysis is attempted as follows.

1. Check for Moon

Moon is placed in lagna, which may be seen as placed in 5th house as 5th lord from the 9th house (father), thus it is evident that the father is concerned for his child. Since, Ketu conjoins the Moon, there seems to be some concern with the son on his health issues, perhaps on mental faculty. Moon is placed in the 3-7-9-11th cusps indicating the existence of a marriage proposal between the said individuals.

2. Assess the Lagna and 7th cusp

Incidentally, the sub-lord of lagna and 7th house is Rahu. Rahu is a strong planet, as it does not have any planet in its star. Placement of Rahu in 7th house indicates that a proposal of marriage exists. At the stellar level, Rahu falls in the star of Moon placed in lagna. Rahu is in the sub of Mercury, which as 3-12th lord falls in the 5th house. While, the connection provided by Rahu brings forth the matter of marriage in view, the sub-lord Mercury as 12th lord tend to restrict it. Rahu disposes Saturn and Moon.

Saturn is a strong planet as there is no planet in its star. The placement of 8th lord Saturn in 2nd house brings-in obstructions. At the stellar level, Saturn is in the star of Sun placed in 5th house. Saturn is in the sub of Moon placed in lagna.

Moon falls in the star of Mercury placed in 5th house as 12th lord. Moon is in the sub of Rahu placed in 7th house.

Thus, from the initial assessment of lagna and 7th cusp, while the lagna and 7th cusps are fairly connected, the linkage of lagna and 7th cusps with the 11th house is missing. Thus the fingers are kept crossed till now.

3. Assess the 11th cusp to look for the final outcome

The 11th cusp decides the overall fructification of the query.

Jupiter is the sub-lord of the 11th cusp. Jupiter is a strong planet, as it does not have any planet in its star; thus its placement is important. Note that Jupiter as 6th lord is placed in 6th house, which deters the marriage proposal in principle. At the stellar level, Jupiter falls in the star of Sun placed in 5th house. Jupiter falls in its own sub and by way of being 6th lord and placed in 6th house, it categorically denies the marriage.

4. Conclusion

Looking to the analysis as, it was indicated to the querist that the candidate in view for the marriage of his son would not materialize.

Facts of the case

My colleague told me that he himself was not satisfied by the marriage proposal, though he wanted to check astrologically. He refused the proposal and went ahead with the other proposals, which he had for his son.

I thank KP methodology to show the light whenever approached.

Amputation is severance of some part of the body surgically say leg, hand, fingers etc. for various reasons such as due to acute Diabetic, accidents or in the course of job of running electric machines, involving cut of his limb etc. etc. In these cases Amputation is unavoidable, when it is found that there is no other way to save him from getting septic resulting in death. It is very unfortunate for a person to lose any part of the body, which is very essential for his normal movement. And becoming handicapped thereby depending on others for assistance throughout his/her life.

One Indian Army Major Thambuswamy, born on 22-12 1926 at 1-20 PM IST at 13.40 (N) Long, 80.15 (E), (birth data collected from a vedic astrology book) was snow bitten during the war with China in 1962. His feet had to be amputated, with no other way to save him. The amputation took place in December 1962. His Birth chart is as attached, Generated from K.P.Astro 3.0 SW

Now let us analyze his chart for his known life events.

I. Profession: He entered in service in Indian Army for Military service, Mars is main karaka, because of the Planet's martial nature. Mars is also for courage, battle, valour wielding of weapons and he should be strong in the chart and also connected to 10th Bhava, which Bhava is for indication of his profession. Mars in this chart is :

(i) placed in Lagna Bhava (ii) in his own sign in Aries, as owner of that sign, thereby getting good strength. (iii) As per K.P.system for any event. of life, first Lagna is to be scrutinized whether the native is destined for that event. In this chart, Pisces is Lagna of the native, lord of which is Jupiter. He is posited in 11th in the star of Mars in Lagna. Jupiter is with positional status (self strength) i.e. no other planet is in its star. So Jupiter, Lagna lord thro' his star lord Mars gets his trait. Whether it is useful or not, Lagna Sub lord and also Jupiter's sub lord position is to be seen, as Sub Lord alone is the deciding factor. Lagna Sub lord is Saturn in his own star, lord of 11th and 12th and Jupiter's sub lord is Mercury, (Mars, the planet in Lagna is also in the sub of Mercury) who is also in his own star, and own sub. He is lord of 4th and 7th. Both Saturn and Mercury are in 8th in the sign of Mars and aspected by Mars by his special aspect of 8th. Thus Saturn, Mercury, Mars and Jupiter are all interoven in link to Lagna.

Saturn is Sub lord for 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 9, 10, 12. As he is in own star he is strong significator for these houses. Saturn's sub lord Venus also in his own star and own sub, Venus also supports Saturn for all these cusps. 6th signification is for service and 6th lord is Sun with self strength i.e. no other planet is in its star. This shows that his service is for Government (& not private). Saturn aspects 10th Bhava, as its S/L. All these indicate correctly his nature of profession. Viz. entry in the service (Military) in Army. In Army, braveness, courageousness are required for fighting or facing enemy troupe. For this 3rd Bhava is required to be scrutinized. Co-rulers are Venus-Mars-Saturn as sign, star and sub lords. Venus is in his own star and own sub, strongly signifying 3rd Bhava. Star lord Mars, by his nature is for courage and braveness. Mars is in the star of Kethu, who is in rapt conjunction with Venus, 3rd lord. Mars is in the sub of Mercury in own star and in the sign of Mars aspected by him. Sub lord of 3 is Saturn in own star and Saturn is also aspected by Mars, karaka for boldness. All these indicate that he is brave in his profession to fight with enemies. It may be seen that Saturn is also sub lord for 6th cusp, for enemies Rahu a node in 3rd is agent of Mercury and in the sub of Kethu who is in rapt conjunction of Venus, 3rd lord. Rahu also signifies 3 for braveness. As 2, 6, 10 and 11 Bhavas are good thro' their subs, and the 10th lord Jupiter owning Lagna too is with self strength to boost his professional career, the native could get elevation in cadre gradually & come up to Major rank.

II Away from home place due to profession: The reason for his being away from his home place to far off places is also clear. 4th -Bhava is for the native's home place. Its sub lord is Saturn, lord of 12th in his own star and also Sub lord of 12th, Saturn is sub lord for all the three houses of 3rd, 9th and 12th combination for foreign place, away from home place (4th).

III. Feet Affliction: Now, coming to the reasons for his feet affliction and amputation, let us examine in detail Lagna effect and 6th Bhava relating to disease and its nature. Pisces is Lagna for the native. In the natural zodiac, Pisces is 12th to Zodiacal 1st Aries. According to Kalapurusha, Pisces as 12th to natural zodiac, the part of the body is Feet. Saturn is sub lord for Lagna sub and 6th sub here in this chart. When Saturn appears as 6th S/L and also to Lagna, then the nature of disease is chronic. Saturn is lord of 12th and is also in own star. So Saturn has combination of Lagna, 6th and 12th as cuspal sub lord. This indicate trouble in his feet which is of chronic nature. (12th is for 'feet' in body as per Kalapurusha division of body). 6th and 12th Sub Lord Saturn is heavily afflicted by Mars. Saturn is also placed in 8th, house of accident and sufferings. Saturn is karaka for Ice, Cold etc. Hence there is no surprise that his feet is snow bitten.. For this accident and sufferings let us examine his 8th Bhava. The co-rulers are Mars-Jupiter-Mars as sign, star and sub lords of 8th. As per K.P.Rule for accidents, sufferings etc, 8th cuspal sub lord is the deciding authority. Mars should also in some way be connected to 8th house for such accidents and sufferings. In this chart 8th sign lord and sub lord both is Mars, in the star of Kethu, a planet of injury Mars himself is malefic for causing injury. Star lord of 8th cusp is Jupiter in the star of Mars again and in Mercury sub, who is placed in 8th itself along with lagna S/L Saturn. Both Mercury and Saturn in 8th are badly aspected by Mars, 8th lord. Saturn is Sub lord for all 4th trigon houses of 4, 8, and 12. All these houses are combination for accidents, sufferings. Lagna lord Jupiter too is in the star of Mars in Lagna. Thus Lagna indicates this accidents and sufferings. Moon another important Luminary and a significator for 8th house is placed in the star of Saturn, lord of 12th, and sub of Rahu, agent of Mercury in 8th. Moon has become a cause of mental tension. Thus Mars connection has aggravated feet problem and ultimately resulting in amputation. It is thus very clearly seen from the planetary positions in this chart.

IV Running Dasa, Bhukti and Antara at the time of amputation:

This amputation happened in December 1962, when the native was running Venus Maha Dasa, Mars Bhukti and Moon Antara as detailed here :

Venus Dasa from 28-10-1955 to 28-10-1975

Mars Bhukti from 28-10-1961 to 28-12-1962

Moon Antara is from 23-11-1962 to 28-12-1962

Dasa Lord Venus is lord of 2 and 3 houses. Venus is in her own star and own sub, placed in 9th. (Indicating the incident taking place in foreign land). Venus and Kethu are in rapt conjunction and both Venus and Kethu square 12th house meant for 'Feet'

Mars, Bhukti lord is a notorious planet for causing injuries, surgeries etc, is placed in Lagna and the Lagna Lord Jupiter is in Mars star. Finally, Lagna Sub lord is Saturn is 11th and 12th lord in his own star and placed in 8th, an evil house for accidents and sufferings. Thus Lagna indicates the event very correctly. This Bhukti Lord Mars, who true to its nature, caused severance of the feet by its malefic influence on 12th lord and its sub lord denoting feet

Moon, Antara lord is strong significator of 8th both thro' her star and sublord. Moon is aspected by Mars, special aspect of 4th. Moon in the sub of Rahu, agent of Mercury in 8th. Moon has fully obeyed the command of Mars for surgical amputation.

V Continuation in service: After loosing feet, it is difficult to continue in service that too in Army, where active participation is needed. Main Dasa lord Venus in her own star and Sub is placed in 9th, 12th to 10th house of profession. Venus is sub lord for 5th cusp and is a strong significator. 5th is 12th to service. By rapt conjunction with Kethu, agent of Jupiter, Lagna lord, Venus gets signification of 1st house too, which is 12th to 2nd house. also, These significations obtained by Venus, the Dasa Lord, he could not be in continuous service., in view of the Dasa lord's signification of negative to 2, 6, 10, 11 required for service, and negative significations of Dasa lord Venus indicates no service. However, Venus obtaining 11th cuspal sub lordship, would have seen him with good compensation in service, as this unfortunate event happened while in service and affliction was due to nature of service and not due to self infliction.

A study on Father - 9th or 10 House

Tin Win

Tin Win
tw853@yahoo.com

Background View

1. According to Maharishi Parashara, the 9th house represents one's experience of father, while the 10th house governs matters pertaining father. This is how one could have a lot of care from the father even while one's father is facing difficulties. In the Brihat Parashara Hora Shastra, Ch. 11: Judgement of Houses, father is indicated by the 10th house and Chapter 12: Effects of Houses, father is indicated by the 9th house. The actions of one's father and his place are judged from the tenth house in Varaha Mihira: Daivagyna Vallabha, Chapter 2. Umang Taneja's opinion is to take 9th when native is dependent on father and 10th when native is not dependent on father.

2. Cyril Fagan wrote in "Solunars" that the 10th house signifies the native's reactions to his father. David said that the 9th house is the father as a person, and the 10th house is what the father does. Jewell Starsinger said that the ninth and the fifth houses indicate the father. In Robert Hand's experience, the 10th house does not always signifies one's biological father and neither the 4th nor 10th signifies either parent consistently. Noel Tyl's "Four Ways to See the Parents" are Saturn and the Node together, the signifiers of the parental 10-4 angular axis (or 4-10, it makes no difference in this day and age), related angles of the horoscope and the Sun and the Moon. (Appendix- 1)

Common Practice in KP & Vedic Astrology

3. It is a common practice of both KP and Vedic astrologers to consider the 9th house to represent the father and the reasons are as given under:

- 1) In the ancient Hindu culture, one's father used to give his knowledge to his offspring as a guru. In this light, dhama, pita (father) and guru are all seen from the 9th house.
- 2) As the 10th house is taken for profession, name, fame, leaving it, the 9th house is taken for father.
- 3) Counting the 9th house as the 1st, the 5th there from indicates the native. (However, such counting is not applicable to the 4th house of mother.)
4. It is noted in the KP Readers that it is wrong to take 10th house for father and always to take the 9th house for father, and promotion as a result of 10th house is Maraka for the parents. (10th is 2nd for 9th and 7th for 4th.)
5. However, some argue mainly by counting house to house like M.P. Shanmugam that if the 4th house denotes mother, the 7th from 4th i.e., 10th would be more appropriate to denote father as taken by the Westerners.

Controversy in Western Astrology

6. In fact, there has been a ranging controversy in Western astrology for these last 200 years to which house is which parent. Even though modern Western astrology associates the father with the 10th house (Robert Hand, Robert P Blaschke, Amy Maddalozzo, Southern Cross, Cornelia Jones) and as per classical Western astrology, the 4th house rules the father (William Lilly, John Partridge, John Gadbury, Charles Jayne, Llewellyn George, Anthony Lewis, Lea Breuer, Serena Powers, Curtis Manwaring, Bob Marks, AstroGraph SW). Traditionally the father figure is signified by the Sun and Saturn (Ptolemy, al-Biruni, Charles Jayne, Robert Hand, Sarah, Helene Schnitzer, Christa Kröll) but for Claudius Dariot, John Gadbury, William Lilly, John Partridge, William Ramsey, the Saturn signifies father. In Andrzej Wesolowski's opinion, Sun is the signifier of father for day born and Moon for night born. (Appendix- 1)

7. Alan Leo said of the Sun opposition to Saturn (conjunction as well) that unless in mutual reception, it would be very unfortunate for all things signified by the two planets, bringing misfortunes in business, loss of public favor, likelihood of the father's death, loss of father's money or separation from or disagreement with him.

Some Findings

8. By going through the astrological literature and web sites, it is found that:

- 1) The overwhelming majority of both KP and Vedic astrologers considers 9th house for father. (Appendix- 2)
- 2) Only some astrologers take 10th house for father. (Appendix- 3)

9. Some findings of empirical studies are as given under:

- 1) A KP study of 40 charts shows that the lords of Dasa, Bukti and Antara running on the date of death of father better fit to the KP death inflicting Badhaka, Maraka and Moksha signifiers by considering the 9th house for father other than 10th house. (Appendix- 4)

A study on Father - 9th or 10 House

Tin Win

- 2) In a Western Church of Light study of 100 charts regarding death of father as per progressed aspect, it concluded that the 4th house rules the father and the 10th house mother. (Appendix- 1, no 6)
- 3) As per a Vedic study of 10 cases by R. Santhanam on "Premature Loss of Father", 9th house and Sun for father are valid. (Appendix- 2, no 43)
- 4) A Vedic study of 10 cases by Liana Haywath "Casting Father's Unknown Horoscope from Children's Charts" indicates the validity of 9th house for father. (Appendix- 2, no 35)
- 5) In a KP study of live events of the Indian Prime Ministers by Kousalya Sattainathan, father's death is proven to be related to 9th house. (Appendix- 2, no 21)

Conclusion

10. Any strong evidence has not been found to switch the common practice of considering 9th house for father to 10th house.

APPENDIX- 4: STUDY ON DEATH-INFLECTING DASA LORDS FOR FATHER

1. Abbreviations used in the table below are:

- 1) Asc (col 3) = Asc of native
- 2) DOD (col 4) = Father's date of death
- 3) DS (col 5) = DBA (Dasa, Bhukhti, Antara); due to space limit, 1 = Sun, 2 = Moo, 3 = Mar, 4 = Mer, 5 = Jup, 6 = Ven, 7 = Sat, 8 = Ra & 9 = Ket
- 4) In col 6 to 8, KP grade "A to D", signifiers of DBA lords counted from native's Asc. (Grade "E" signifiers are not considered. Rah/Ket's signification takes into account of the house occupied, occupation and lordship of star lord, planets conj & aspect, and sign lord.)
- 5) Death-inflicting Maraka (2,7) & Moksha (12) houses from: (a) 9th house of father are 10,3 & 8 houses, and (b) from 10th house of father are 11,4 & 9 houses as counted from native's Asc respectively.
- 6) 9 (col 9) = Badhaka house for father (11th for Movable Asc, 9th for Fixed Asc and 7th for Common Asc) counted from Asc of native taking 9th house for father.
- 7) 10 (col 10) = Badhaka house for father counted from Asc of native taking 10th house for father.
- 8) R (col 11) = Result; S = same result by 9th and 10th house of father; 9 = taking 9th for father better fits to the death inflicting signifiers; 10 = taking 10th for father better fits to the death inflicting signifiers.

2. Out of 40 cases,

- 1) the results are the same for 15 cases;
- 2) 9th house of father is better justified in 15 cases; and
- 3) 10th house of father is better justified in 10 cases.

3. The KP death rules are also found valid. Both natal and horary charts are applied in KP prediction of parents' death. Charles Jayne said in "The Technique of Rectification" that death of parents, if such death has occurred, have traditionally been among the best events for rectification.

Table indicating Signifiers of death-inflicting dasa lords for father taking 9th and 10th house is given in following pages:

Editor's note :

"It is pointed out by senior advisor that in KP Reader VI, Horary, page 314, Rahu is the Karaka for jail and great importance must be attached to RAHU while judging whether one goes to jail or not and the sublord of the 12th cusp should be RAHU."

As I am practicing astrology since six years, most of my friends take my advice and ask me to predict. This case was solved using Krishnamurti Paddhati method and using only Ruling Planets at the time of judgement.

My friend who works as a sales executive in a reputed surgical company was having problems with his executive. As is the case in most marketing companies his executive was not sending him his promotion letter to extract more sales. So my friend, who knew that he is being promoted asked me the question about him receiving that letter.

Rules:

1. Ruling Planets at the time of judgement match at the time of event under consideration.
2. If the event is to take place within a few days, take the position of moon forward so as to match with the ruling planets at TOJ.

I solved this query on 5th dec 2008 at 17:39:34 at my office nakshatra jyotish sansthan
Lat: 23 N 16 , Long : 77 E 27 taking KP Ayanamsha Value 23:53:30

Ruling Planets

Lagna – taurus Shukra – rohini star ie Chandra – Shukra sub
Chandra-aquarius Shani – shatbisha star ie Rahu Shukra sub
Day lord – Shukra

As Shukra is very powerful among the RPs and the event was expected within a few days. Moon was in kumbha at that time. Moon next transits in guru sign meena, guru was not among the RPs so I thought to leave this sign. Next was mesha which has the star of shukra which was very strong in ruling planets. Now question rise here why I do not select star in Meena lagna, as I take in Mesha lagna. Jup and Mar both are not in RP, but in Meena lagna we have three star Jup-Mer- Sat, and in Mesha lagna we have three star Ketu-Ven-Sun. Ven is very strong in RP so I select Mesha lagna and Ven Star. Also taurus lagna was about 22:11' at the TOJ and three planets Surya Mangal and Budh were exactly opposite to it in the seventh house i.e in scorpio. Looking at that mangal was at 19:57' which is very near to the seventh cusp, so I fixed that when moon transits mesha rashi and shukra star my friend will receive that letter i.e on 10th dec 2008. Now to decide moon sub I took rahu sub as at TOJ moon was in Rahu Star So I fixed it at Mesha Sign Shukra Star & Rahu sub which started from 08:11 IST bhopal but during this time transiting lagna was of guru i.e sagitarius as guru was not amongst the RPs, dhanu ascendent will not work so I fixed the ascendant to be makar as Shani was amongst the RPs. This ascendant started from 09:25 AM so I fixed the time of my friend receiving letter near this time around 09:30. Actually what happened in course of time was very surprising. On 10th dec 2008 at 09:30 am when my friend actually went in the verandah his neighbour came upto him and gave him letter. Neighbour told him that yesterday postman arrived at about 1500 hrs and seeing nobody at my friend's house gave this letter to him.

My prayers to KSK and thanks to KP otherwise it would not be possible at least for me to predict with that accuracy.

What are the reasons for AIDS?

OM UCHCHISTA MAHAGANAPATHYE NAMAH

Before I commence this note, I wish to convey my sincere thanks with gratitude to Guru TW for his gratuitous suggestion and encouragement together with ten AIDS charts to analyse, which urged me to this task.

AIDS cannot be directly classified as a Venereal and Sexually Transmitted Disease, as it's propagation is not limited to only on sexual matters in some cases. For example, any body can be infected with AIDS by blood transfusion, a doctor may be a capture while treating a patient of AIDS, an unborn baby may be attacked due to the mother's virus and so on. But the main root of the reasons of AIDS has run to the sexual engagement environments too. By the way the reason for transmitting is immaterial at this juncture but the infection of the ailment is important for astrological aspects.

AIDS is a Viral disease called the HUMAN IMMUNODEFICIENCY VIRUS or HIV. The word "Immunodeficiency" gives us a clue to broaden our way of findings the reasons for AIDS. The main reason for a good health and prevention of disease is the immune system of the body which is in the blood and it's cells, especially in White Cells. The very famous medical investigation of blood, known as WBC & DC, witnessed for this. The cause for Immunodeficiency, should be checked with it's controller called Lymphatic System of the human body. So my main opine is to consider the Karakas for Lymphatic System and other objects which are synchronised with it.

Pisces rules Lymphatic System, whereas the Moon governs the lymph. In other words, the 12th bhava denotes the Lymphatic System and 8 bhava for blood clot related to AIDS and 10 for blood impurities. (Medical Astrology for All by K. Subramaniam, Rulership Book by Rex Bills)

Further it is worth to mention that the KP Rule for incurable disease, ie; " If the Sb/L of the 6th cusp is 12th bhava and becomes a strong significator of 6th and lagna, then the native will definitively suffer from an incurable ailment." (Medical Astrology for All) is not matched fully in the charts under study. But the Sb/L of 6th is connected in anyway to the 12th in support of the rule. On this aspects I have lined up the formulary objects as follows.

Table I

As	For	Bhava / Planet
Main reason 1	Blood	8
Main reason 2	Blood & Lymphatic System	12
A disease	Sickness	6
An incurable	Body weakness & emaciation	10
Life ending	Hospitalization & Separation	12
Karaka	Blood	Mars
Karaka	Lungs, Nervous System	Mercury
Karaka	Brain, Liver, Lungs	Jupiter
Karaka	Sexual activities	Venus

Comments

1. Saturn Karaka for chronicle illness has not played a remarkable role in almost all the charts under study.
2. The 4th house, which denotes the End of Life and one's final Illness, is not a house of signification by the sub lord of cusps 6, 8 or 12 in all charts.
3. In the charts No.4 and 7, the sub lord of the 6th cusp does not have any direct signification to 6, 8, 10 or 12 but indirectly connected as sub lord and sub sub lord.
4. Aspects and conjunctions have not been taken into account in this study as the signification of almost all houses can be found always.

Rating of Significations

Sb/L of	6	8	10	12
6	50%	30%	30%	30%
8	30%	30%	40%	50%
12	50%	40%	70%	30%

Conclusions

1. If the sub lord of the 12th (life ending/separation from the family or this world) cusp signifies the house 10 (incurable illness) and 6 (disease) and connected to Ma or Me or Ju or Ve, one may suffer from AIDS.
2. If the sub lord of the 8th (serious disease/AIDS) cusp signifies the houses 10 or 12 and connected to Ma or Me or Ju or Ve, one may suffer from AIDS.
3. If the sub lord of the 6th (disease) cusp signifies the 6th house and connected to Ma or Me or Ju or Ve, one may suffer from AIDS.

I never think that this is the final and most correct analysis. It is only an initial attempt to discover the rule through the simple approach on the basis of a limited number of the available charts assuming that the AIDS is an incurable disease till present. I am not a money maker of this science and hence I don't have any licensed SW yet. The members with enough facilities have an opportunity to go further in this research and find out the more reliable rule(s) by checking the commonalities among much more charts and so I humbly invite them to try the same. As a student of KP, I have paid my utmost attention to this with the knowledge gained through the forum of KP System group and publications of Shri KSK. In further study, it is also suggested to consider the clash of Mercury and Mars and Ketu's involvement with these planets causing the impurification of blood.

As a follower and student of the KP System, it is a pleasure to forward this study in the Birth Centenary Year of our beloved Guruji Jyotish Marthand Shri K. S. Krishnamurti as a mark of a commemoration. I wish to thank all the members of the KP System group who cooperated and donated their knowledge to me by sending various information and suggestions to fulfill this study. Finally I make my Pranam to all with my bow-down head.

Dear kanak ji,

Your endeavour to promote KP System of Astrology will surely go a long way in benefitting the astrological society especially the ones following KP system. Sir, I am from Uttarakhnad and a follower of KP system for last three years. As there are none I know of following this system in Dehradun, your ezine is the only medium which keeps me updated regarding new research activities in KP system. The diversity of articles in your ezine is unmatched and nothing can beat the thrill of getting something new in knowledge of KP system. It is a rare experience everytime we read your ezine. I eagerly wait for every months ezine. Sir with our Gurujis and your blessing I would like to become well versed in this system which I think is the only true and scientific path in the astrological world. Kindly include an article on physical traits and looks of individual as per KP system. I wish you all the success in the future.

Dear Mr Kanak Bosmiaji,

At the outset let me congratulate you for entering third year successfully. In the Feb issue, after reading Mr Tinwin's article on 9th or 10th house for father I could not resist my temptation of sending this mail. He has written this as a review article citing more than 75 references and this shows how great his repository of collection and recalling. Even in scientific circle publications people take months to write review articles involving this magnitude of data base. I want to congratulate him and he is doing yeoman service for making this study in a completely scientific way.

Dear Editor,

Sri MK Viswanath's article on Education with clear analysis is very interesting. I hope previously it was given to understood that Sri MK is doing research on identifying many disciplines which are coming up nowadays with regard to higher education.

Article of Sri Tinwin ji on 9/10 houses relating to Father is very analytical and established scientifically which many beginners initially find doubt on this matter reg. 4th mother then how 9th is father.

Regards,

Imprisonment - a study of 100 prisoner charts

A Few Words about Astrological Statistical Research

1. The proper statistical analysis in astrological research was pioneered in the 1950s by M Gauquelin in France and DA Bradley in the USA. Further statistical research had been done by B.I. Silverman, G.A. Tyson, E.H. Hare, J. Mayo, O. White and H.J. Eysenck and others. As Geoffrey Dean has said in Recent Advances in Natal Astrology, only recently have there been available adequate methodologies and computer techniques.

2. A practical application of most commonly used statistical tests in astrology like chi-squared test based on difference in distribution, t- test based on difference between means, F- test based on ratio of variances, the control group chosen by a two stage sampling frame of Leslie Kish (Survey Sampling, 1965), regression analysis, correlation matrices etc can be found in a Master degree thesis in the Michigan State University: Astrology as Science, a statistical approach by Mark Urban-Lurain, AFA, 1984. The calculations were done by the modified astrological research computer program of the American Federation of Astrologers (AFA),

A Simple Approach of Study

3. As the astrological research computer program is not yet available, we apply a simple approach in our research study by checking chart by chart up to the standard requirement of minimum 100 AA charts (also mentioned by Judith Hill in "Medical Astrology, A Guide to Planetary Pathology") as done by our Gurus and Church of Light (Astrology, 30 Years Research) without t-test, F-test, control group etc. It is expected to achieve our acceptable confidence level by reducing the variance of errors and omissions through increasing the sample size.

Observation of 100 AA Charts

4. By using the filter, 544 charts of prisoners, out of them 370 AA charts are found in the AstroDatabank 4.0. As per KP Astro 3.1 charts, Rahu is found as the 12th cuspal sub lord (12CSL) in the charts of serial number 3, 12, 20, 23, 31, 33, 34, 38, 41, 45, 48, 57, 66, 71, 75, 78, 83, 84 and 89 in the observation of up to 100 charts, as shown in the Appendix Table.

5. As per the cumulative frequency of imprisonment chief karaka Rahu's appearance as 12CSL, provided in the following table, Rahu's appearance is found to be stabilized around 19-20 %.

Appearance of Rahu as 12CSL

SN	Appearance in Percent	Up to Charts	Remarks
1	10	10	1/10
2	15	20	3/20
3	13	30	4/30
4	20	40	8/40
5	22	50	11/50
6	20	60	12/60
7	19	70	13/70
8	20	80	16/80
9	21	90	19/90
10	19	100	19/100

6. Each planet's chance of appearance as 12CSL is 11.1% (1/9) and each planet's frequency of appearance in 100 charts under study as 12CSL (CSL), star lord of 12CSL (Stl) and sub lord of 12CSL (Sbl) is as given in the table below.

Imprisonment - a study of 100 prisoner charts

Appearance of Planets as 12CSL and its Star Lord and Sub Lord

SN	Planet	CSL	Stl	Sbl
1	Sun	5	12	3
2	Moon	4	14	7
3	Mars	5	12	4
4	Mercury	17	6	17
5	Jupiter	14	10	10
6	Venus	15	14	18
7	Saturn	18	9	17
8	Rahu	19	10	19
9	Ketu	3	13	5
	Total	100	100	100

7. The appearance of Saturn is very close to Rahu, chief karaka for imprisonment, in all three levels of 12CSL and its star lord and sub lord, followed by Venus and Mercury. It can be a natural malefic or benefic planet.

8. In addition, in the KP's Astrology & Prime Ministers by Kousalya Sattainathan, none of 11 Indian PMs (Jawaharlal Nehru to A.B.Vajpayee) has 12th cuspal sub lord Rahu even though most of them were imprisoned for political reason. The 12CSL of Indira Gandhi for the TOB close to the supposedly rectified by Guruji KSK.in the same book page 96 and Mahatma Gandhi in Notable Persons & KP by K. Hariharan, page 83 (justification for imprisonment) is Saturn.

Findings

9. For imprisonment, the 12th cuspal sub lord may not be always Rahu but can be Saturn or another planet (in KP House Grouping- Part 4, KPEzine Jan 2008) has been found justified.

10. The signification of 2,3,8,12 houses by the 12CSL and its star lord and sub lord is clearly found valid in over 90 of 100 charts under study, as shown in the Appendix Table.

11. Consequently, in KP the signification of concerned house grouping is a deciding factor for an event to be promised and happen, and the karaka can play only a supportive role.

Job Change - a KP appraisal

This case belongs to one of my office colleague who had received a job offer and wanted to quit. Though, the negotiations were almost over and job prospects were favorable, yet she was curious to know, how would she fare in the new job.

She approached me on Dec 02, 2008 right in the morning and asked me to know the professional prospects in the new job. I immediately prepared a time chart at 10:06:57 Hrs on 02-12-2008 and subjected it to scrutiny.

Coordinates of judgment

- Lagna in a time chart for job change represents the native and 7th the employer. 3-9th cusps indicate the negotiations being held between them on the perks/terms of the job.
- The prospects in a time chart relating to the profession are primarily governed by the 10H, as this house decides the way the flow of karma takes place for matters relating to profession. The 6th house indicates the actual job conditions of the job in hand.
- It may be noted that the analysis of cusps of various houses along with the planetary significations represent the fixed promises of the chart but the results are dispensed by the suitable dasha-bhukti in consonance with the transits.

The Query

In the time chart, Moon is placed in 12th house in Capricorn indicating some sort of a mental block to be in a different environment and becoming uncomfortable. Moon in the star of Sun placed in 11th house gives motivation for change but its sub-lord Saturn placed in 8th house deters her mind and brings frustration because of a tough life in the new job and thereby resisting internally.

It all indicated a scenario of frustration and apprehensions even after getting a breakthrough in the job, which was obvious for a lady who otherwise was settled in the present job. From the logistics point of view, I took the chart Ok to proceed further for analyzing the outcome of the job change.

Analysis of the chart

- Look at the promise indicated by the lagna.

Ketu is the lagna sub-lord. Ketu is a strong planet because of having no planet in its star. Placement of Ketu in 7th house (employer) indicated the employer in the dictating position as yet. The lady confirmed that the final deal of compensation package was yet to be arrived.

At the stellar level, Ketu falls in the star of Mercury placed in the 11th house promising a decent job in hands but yet wavering by apprehensions because of the nature of changeable Mercury. Ketu in the own sub placed in 7th house had kept the key in the hands of the employer.

Ketu disposes Moon (sign lord) and Mercury (Star lord).

Moon is already analyzed in the preceding para, which showed the wavering mindset of the querist.

Mercury falls in its own star placed in 11th house but its sub-lord Venus placed in 12th house again makes the native lost somewhere.

In short, the indications of Lagna do not promise a clear-cut migration to a new job and enough anxiety is seen in the mindset of the native.

- Look at the 10th cuspal sub-lord indicating the promise of the new job.

10th cuspal sub-lord is Venus, which is a strong planet and its placement in 12th house does not portend a rosy picture and shows that the new job could be a burden on the native and could be draining her.

At the stellar level, Venus falls in the star of weak 8th lord Sun placed in 11th house, which is OK. The sub-lord of Venus is Rahu and its placement in Lagna does not make the native earning through it (Lagna negating the 2nd house of earnings).

- Look at the 6th cusp for the actual job definition

Jupiter is the cuspal sub-lord of the 6th cusp and being strong, its placement in 12th house in close conjunction with the Venus (Sub-lord of the 10th cusp) does indicate the native lost and disappointed.

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars

At the stellar level, the promises are Ok as the Jupiter was in the star of Sun and in the sub of Mars both placed in 11th house.

Looking to the 6th and 10th cusp together, it seems apparent that the job in hand is Ok but it involves some issues by way of which the native feels overburdened and uncomfortable.

- Look at the salary package through the 2nd cusp

Saturn lords the sub of the 2nd cusp and as per its intrinsic nature, it would finalize the package slowly or at least keep certain incentives pending on performance basis.

Saturn being in the star and sub of Sun placed in 11th house did promise a steady and slow rise in the package and that was obvious in a private sector.

- Look at the 11th cusp for the overall fructification of the query.

Rahu (a strong planet) is the 11th cuspal sub-lord, which by way of its placement signifies lagna and the native seemed utmost concerned for her comfort zone.

At the stellar level, Rahu falls in the star of Moon placed in 12th house and its sub-lord Mercury gets placed in 11th house as 6-9th lord, which is good for a change in the job.

Rahu disposes Saturn (Sign lord) and Moon (Star lord).

While, Moon is already analyzed indicating an unstable and frustrated mindset for a change, let us gauze the indications of the Saturn. Saturn falls in the star and sub of Sun placed in 11th house, which seems OK.

Thus, there could be a possibility of her joining the job even though the mindset was against the apprehensions for overburden and insecurity (12th house)

- Look at the dasha breakup.

I was yet not able to decide till this point of time, if she would finally join the job and thus, I approached to see the dasha spread. Dasha of Sun was in force till Feb-2010.

Dasha lord - Sun falls in the star of Saturn placed in 8th house as 2nd lord. Sun falls in the sub of Jupiter placed in 12th house. Thus, the dasha lord does not indicate a change of job and fructification of the desire of the querist.

Conclusion

It was communicated to the native that the job is available to you but you seem to be worried about the job conditions in terms of the involved burden & loss to your personal freedom, lesser pay packet to your expectations and fear of higher skill expected out of you.

It was also indicated that even if the job was available, yet it could not be joined as dasha does not promote at this point of time.

Some facts of the case

After a few weeks, I came to know the following facts.

- The job was available but final perks were not decided yet.
- The job conditions were very hectic and she had the main worry of upbringing of her family in such a situation.
- The managerial skills were required in addition of the technical skill she had because of which she was not feeling confident.
- At last, she worked in the company for a week by taking leave and came to the conclusion that she cannot cope up there.

She is continuing in the same position in the present assignment without anybody (other than me) knowing about the possible job offer, which had existed for her.

Conclusion

Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

During the KP Astrologers Forum's fortnightly meeting conducted on 22-Feb-2009 chaired by Sri Rajendra Nimje, IAS., Charts on Medical Astrology were taken up. Two natal charts regarding ulcers were discussed in detail. One chart belongs to a native who underwent an operation of Left Ovary Cyst at New Jersey US recently.

Analysis:

In Kalapursha the Natural zodiac 7th house is ruled by Libra n lord is Venus which in medical terms denotes Kidneys, Uterus, Ovaries, Uthrea. Venus natural karaka for gynaecology matters. From Ascendant 7th house rules these parts governed in the anatomy of the body.

Chart I – Smt Kanchana,

(DOB: 11.11.1982, TOB: 02:35:00, POB: Challapeta, Vizianagaram Dt, AP. Lat. 18.18N Long.83.20E KPNA 23-31-39 Thursday Birth Star: UttaraPhalguni-1, Rasi: Leo, Asc. Virgo).

The native is running Rahu Dasa, Jupiter Bhukthi, Mercury Anthara during 16.10.2008 to 18.02.2009. Rahu is in Rah->Mer in Gemini being agent of Mercury in 2, lord of 10n1 and aspected by Mars lord of 3n8 in 4th in conjunction with Kethu indicates some problems of health and requires operation. Jupiter who is lord of Bhadhaka owning 4n7 in 2nd in conjunction with Venus, Sun & Mercury in own star Jupiter and sub Venus lord of 2 in 2nd Mrarka for Virgo Ascendant has intensified the health problem. The parents were under tension about the longevity of the native, but KP has given a confidence as the Asc. Sublord is Mercury who is in turn in star of Rahu (not Bhadhaka Jupiter Visakam) being agent of Mercury signifying 1,3,5,7,9,11 houses as the cuspal sublord of them without having any planet in its star assured the longevity. As Venus is main karaka for ovaries deposited in his own sign Libra in conjunction with Jupiter Sun 12th lord (indicator of hospitalization) along with Mercury. All these 4 planets in conjunction have made the native to suffer abdomen pain during this period and any number of oral prescriptions has given temporary relief only. In Mercury Anthara who is lord of Lagna in 2nd in conjunction with Jupiter, Venus n Sun in the star of Rahu who is lord of Dasa in 10th in his own star and sub of Saturn lord of 5n6 who is deposited in Libra has given Cyst on Left side (as Rahu is on the Left section from Ascendant). However the native underwent a surgical operation on 30th Jan 2009 at NJ US when the Moon is transiting in Ashlesh (Mercury) star and finally got relieved from the pain.

Here if we analyse the 6th co-rulers Sat->Mar->Moo connection to 4th Mars as lord of 3n8, Saturn as lord of 5n6 in 1st cusp Libra and Moon in 12th in Sun's star who is very much part of the conjunction has played role in identifying the area of trouble and operation very successfully well in advance before the Doctor's diagnosis. Panamas to Guruji KSK ji.

Even some astrologers, like other ordinary men, doubt, whether all the events of life of a person can be predicted. But fortunately the doubt is cleared with the blessings of Guruji K.S. Krishnamurthy. He gave us the KP System. Later many of his followers proved it in many cases.

In the year 1985 I was running a Telugu Astrology Magazine "Bhagyarekha", by name. From its 11 number in 1st volume I reproduce a case study.

On 4th Feb., 1985, one of my friends asked me to study his friend's horoscope, who was in bed for more than one month. We both went to his house. After the introduction and other things are over I asked for his horoscope. I was told by the family members that they don't know even his birth particulars. Then as usual I asked the patient to choose a random number between 1-249. He selected 243.

Next day i.e., 5th Feb., 1985 at 10.30 p.m. I began to work in Nellore. Those days we don't have computers and softwares. Based on Kp ephemeris and Astrological table of houses published from Hariman Book publishers from Madras I prepared the chart.

As per KP if 1st cusp sub lord signifies Maraka and Badhaka houses it causes early death. Here Ven the 1st and 6th sl situated in Sat star. So we can assume that the disease is a chronic one. Sat and Ket are in 8th house. Sun Merc Ven and Sat are Malefics for Pisces Lagna. As Asc is Dual sign the 7th house from it, Kanya becomes Badhaka house besides being Maraka house. So Merc is the MarakaDhipathi and Badhkadhipathi.

The planets deposited in the stars of planets who are in maraca and badhaka houses,

Or the planets who are in the houses,

Or conjoined with those planets,

Or the planets who are in the stars of lords, of these houses, cause death.

Here the badhaka sthana is Kanya. Its lord is Budha. Budha is in Moon's star Sravana in Sat Rasi Makara and in the Sub of Rahu. Budha is with Ravi Guru.

Let us consider RP. That is Tuesday. Lagna is Kanya. Star is Aslesha. Rasi is Karka.

Day lord Kuja, Sign lord Moon, Star Lord Budha, Lagna Lord Budha and lagna star lord is Kuja. Thus Mars, Moon, Merc becomes the ruling planets.

1st star lord is Merc and Sub lord is Ven
3rd star lord is Moo and Sub lord is Ket
6th star lord is Ven and Sub lord is Ven

Here Ket as a representative of Ven caused death in sub sub period. So I predicted that the patient may breath his lost before March, 1985.

Actually his death took place on 27th Feb., 1985.

The day was Wednesday. Star was Rohini. Asc was Sagitt. Dasa was Merc Rahu Rahu Ketu.

Presidential Election in El Salvador - A New Face to Salvadoran Politics?

Short History

A New Face to Salvadoran Politics?

The highly anticipated U.S. Presidential Election has brought a wave of hope for change and confidence that the political process under an Obama Presidency will be put to work on the side of the people. A parallel case is seen in El Salvador, where people are hopeful that a positive shift in politics will be seen in the Salvadoran Presidential Election on March 15th, 2009.

The two main contenders in the Presidential race are Rodrigo Avila, who belongs to the ruling right-wing National Republican Alliance Party (ARENA), and Mauricio Funes, who is a member of the leftist Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front (FMLN). Already, this election cycle appears distinct from the past because, for the first time in nineteen years, polls of perspective voters tend to favour the latter candidate Funes.

Despite political change and some economic growth, the majority of Salvadorans remain dissatisfied with ARENA's domestic policies. El Salvador's poorest families face enormous income inequality, which has continued to rise since 1999. High levels of crime have badly tarnished the image of the country by diminishing assets and programs for the poor, devaluing property and reducing employment rates. Many Salvadorans looking for change doggedly oppose ARENA, stating that the party uses violent tactics to enforce its neo-liberal policies and governs in favor of the country's elite, which continues to promote the interests of those deemed responsible for the atrocities in El Salvador's years of bloody civil war in the 1980's.

A poll conducted by the Public Opinion Institute of the Central American University revealed that 63 percent of the population believes that ARENA should no longer govern the country, and 80 percent of the country feels that the conditions of El Salvador have generally worsened under the current Government.

The abovementioned statistics gives some indication that Rodrigo Avila's chances of victory in March'09 Election are somewhat slimmer than ARENA had expected, partially as a result of the fact that Avila is relatively mediocre in the political sphere. Avila is a former Deputy Director of the National Police, who has focused his campaign on the slogan, "A more just Country, progress with Equity."

Avila has promised that he will establish a number of different projects, one of which is The National Child Nutrition Program. This social welfare program would provide extra food for families with children between 0-5 years of age. Avila also promises to increase pensions, improve family finances and preserve economic freedom. He has further guaranteed that he will avoid privatization of Public Health Services, and plans to reinstate the Temporary Protected Status (TPS), which helps Salvadorians who entered the U.S. illegally to remain in this country for an extended period of time. Although Avila has his fair share of plans for El Salvador, it seems as though the electorate is beginning to turn its back on ARENA's failed policies, and becoming more willing to give the FMLN a chance to steer the country.

Presidential Election in El Salvador - A New Face to Salvadoran Politics?

Kanak Bosmia

No planet in the star of Jup and Jup is sublord of 2,5,6,8,9,12.

10th sublord signifies 3,10,11. So promise of Victory is what we can see. But before we come to any conclusion, we will check Opposition's side.

For Opposition's (Avila) side;

10th sublord is Mar. Mar is in the star of Moon and sub of Mer.

Mar is in 7 lord of 5,6,10(One's Reputation). No planet in the star of Mar and Mar is sublord of 10(One's Reputation). Moon is in 6 lord of 2. Mer is in 7 lord of 1,3(One's ability).

Both Sides look Strong, so we will go further into DBAS analysis.

Period lords(Funes) are Ve-Ve-Me-Ju

Ven is in 3(One's ability), Lord of 5-6-10(One's Reputation), in the star and sub of Mer is in 1, lord of 7-9

Sir,

I really feel fortunate to be member of your KP Ezine. Since last 5/6 years I have been studying KP system which I learned from my great guruji Shri Shahasane sir. As I am not professional and do not have much experience I could not predict the event confidently. But Your KP Ezine give me new perception and confidence as well as great guidance of distinguished personaliyy to take the challenge and predict the event which comes true.

I have no words to express my feelings for such KP Ezine. Only I can pray God that your this venture may continue and give you long and helthy life to serve the people and yes get the guidance thru your KP Ezine to the people like us.

Thank you very much once again.

Request to go on sending me the KP Ezine to enhance my knowledge about KP. We are really owe to our great Guruji Shri KSK for his endeavor for finding out such great easy method.

Anil Rathor.

Congratulations to Tin Win for a job well done with his Imprisonment - a study of 100 prisoner charts In KP-Ezine - March 2009. It is really good to see such a well presented and significant piece of legitimate research---something that is solely lacking in Jyotish in general and KP in particular. Hopefully, Tin Win's work will inspire others to contribute research of their own.

Good job Tin Win!

Buz Overbeck

Dear Sri Kanak ji,

Article of Sri Tinwin ji a case study of Imprisonment (with 100 prisoners charts) distinguishing 12 sublord not only Rahu but Saturn or any other planet as per Part IV of Jan. 2008 issue, which was referred by me in my Article about Judicial Remand and Bail published in the ezine is a very interesting Research Study on this sublord of Rahu not only but also other planets.

Article on Longevity by Sri Gopalachari from Nellore, which was published in the year 1985 in his telugu magazine Bhagya Rekha regarding horary chart for determing the longevity is very clearly enlightened. I request the author to bring futher articles published during that period to this ezine.

I am very much happy to see the publication of the Author Sri Kanak ji KP Muhurtha a novel technique.

KP for Beginners Part II - Reading a KP Horary Chart

Tin Win

Tin Win
tw853@yahoo.com

Step I. Casting a KP Horary Chart

1.1. Question

1. Get a clear question in good faith to get a correct answer. Alan Leo says in Horary Astrology that no question should be asked, no horary figure cast, unless the mind is truly serious and quite anxious concerning the matter, otherwise erroneous judgment will certainly result.

1.2. Horary Number

2. Concentrate on the question and choose a Horary number between 1 to 249 (1 to 2193 sub-sub developed by Dr. Kar). Get the required Horary number by opening a book of 300-400 pages and noting page number on the right hand side of the book. (KP Reader VI p 104) The astrologer can also use a random number generated by the computer SW. The querent gives a number that fits well with his karmic patterns by divine guidance for his or her strong urge to know the correct answer to a question. (KP Reader VI p 253)

3. Using a Time chart does not fully utilize the KP Horary Astrology, which depends on the number given by the querent and every number refers to a particular sign, star and sub as the Ascendant. (KP Reader VI p 89, P.M. Shanmugham: Astrosecrets & KP Part I p 260) Without choosing a Horary number, the querent's urge is not reflected in the Time chart.

4. The given Horary number (seed) is to be used within two days. If the astrologer is not able to work on the chart within two days after getting the number, it is necessary to ask another number from the querent for the question. (Umang Taneja: Prashna p 14)

1.3. Date and Time of Judgment

5. Take the date and time of judgment when the astrologer commences analyzing the chart whatever may be the date and time of query by the consultant. This moment when the astrologer sits for judgment is similar to the moment when the whole body of child has got separated from the womb of the mother. (KP Reader VI pp 88, 243) This moment, not the time of first cry (Astrosecret Part I p 281), seems to be the time of birth as per KP.

6. The time of judgment should be taken when astrologer actually starts working on the chart. If astrologer is not able to judge the chart immediately after casting, it is necessary to recalculate the chart at another time of judgment when he is in position to make prediction. If the place of judgment is the same, then all the 12 cusps will remain the same and they will change for a different place of judgment. So feed the Horary data in the computer only when astrologer is ready to analyze the chart immediately after casting. (KP Reader VI pp 312; K.P. Kuppu Ganapathi: Guidelines for Preparing and Judging a Horary Chart, KPE-zine, February 2007 para 3; Umang Taneja: Prashna p 14)

1.4. Place of Judgment

7. Take the place of judgment where the astrologer is located irrespective of the place from which the querent has asked the question by phone, E-mail, letter etc. (KP Reader VI pp 89, 230, 242)

1.5. Casting a KP Horary Chart

8. Cast a KP Horary chart by using the following KP settings [KP Reader V p 18 (Old Edition p 178), Reader VI pp 330, 242-3]:

- 1) KP Ayanamsa (preferably KP New Ayanamsa of 2003),
- 2) Placidus house system,
- 3) Mean Node,
- 4) 365 d/y Vimshottari dasa and
- 5) Geographic latitude of place of judgment.

1.6. Rotation of the Chart

9. If the question is for the querent himself or herself, make all calculation and analysis from the Ascendant of the Horary chart. If the question is for the younger brother or sister, rotate the chart and take the 3rd house as the Ascendant for that younger brother or sister; for mother take 4th; for first child take 5th; for maternal uncle take 6th; for spouse (wife/husband) or partner or opponent or second child take 7th; for father take 9th; for elder brother or sister or friend take 11th; for paternal uncle take 12th; for any unknown person take 9th house as Ascendant and work out. (KP Reader VI p 213, 216) For the well known public figures or celebrities, even not known personally, the Ascendant, not 9th house, is used by Kanak Bosmia with success, for example prediction of Abhishek & Aswarya marriage.

Step 2.Verification of Query

10. Check Moon, the indicator of querent's mind, whether it properly reflects the question by the signification of houses owned and occupied by Moon, its star lord and sub lord, for example 2,7,11 houses for marriage, 3,9,12 for foreign going. Connection by sub lord is found very important. (Hints for Judging a Horary Chart in Astrosecrets and K.P. Part II p 215 para 5)

11. In KP, the owner or lord of a house is the owner of the (rasi) sign where the cusp falls. (KP Reader VI p 274) Consequently, occupation and lordship of Badhaka, Maraka are Placidus bhava based, not rasi based and they are different from rasi based positions, when some signs are intercepted or blank without any cusp falling in those signs.

12. In addition to Moon, check the signification of the cuspal sub lord of Ascendant which also reflects the mind of querent.

13. If it is found that the question is properly reflected by the signification of anyone of required houses by the cuspal sub lords of Moon and Ascendant, then only proceed the analysis of the chart, otherwise not to proceed further. The query has to be genuine. If the person is not serious about his or her query, then accurate prediction cannot be given.

Step 3. Judging Whether Matter is Promised

3.1. Checking the Cuspal Sub Lord of the Concerned House

14. Check the cuspal sub lord of the concerned house, for example 7th for marriage, 12th for foreign going as per KP house grouping. The cuspal sub lord of a house under query indicates whether the matter signified by that house is promised or not. The matter in question is promised, if the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled i.e., (KP Reader VI pp 171, 178, 192, 210, 254, 301)

- 1) the concerned cuspal sub lord or its star lord or its sub lord is not retrograde;
- 2) the cuspal sub lord is the significator (i.e. especially in the star of the occupant or owner) of anyone of required houses under consideration for the matter in question.

15. Here retrogression of the star lord is generally mentioned as it is the indicator of nature of the event. However, retrogression of the sub lord is also to be considered since the sub is final and deciding factor in KP. [Dr. Kar: KP & Astrology (KPA) 1996 p 51, K.M. Subramaniam: KPA 1997 p 51, C. R. Bhatt: Nakshatra Chintamani p 104] After thorough research it had been found that a ruling planet failed to offer results when it is in a sub of retrograde planet and so it is to reject the ruling planet in the sub of a retrograde planet. (Ruling Planets & KP edited by K. Subramaniam, K. Hariharan pp xvii, pp 38-39)

16. If both the star lord and sub lord of the concerned (7th) cuspal sub lord are connected to the negative houses (6,10,12) only, then the matter (marriage) cannot be promised. (P.M. Shanmugham: Astrosecrets & KP Part I p 263)

3.2. Controversy of Retrogression

3.2.1. What is Retrogression?

17. Retrogression means moving backward. The Sun and Moon never retrograde. Rahu and Ketu always move backward and so they are not considered as retrograde planets. Only the remaining 5 planets, Mars, Mercury, Jupiter, Venus and Saturn, move direct but sometimes they are found moving backward and considered as retrograde planets. (KP Reader VI pp 146, 221)

18. Planets never really move backward and their movement is always in one direction. Planets, when retrograde, appear to be moving backward to us here on Earth from Geocentric position, i.e. taking Earth as center. This reverse motion is only a visual illusion as the slower planet coming backward due to the own motion of the Earth's orbit. Like a train passing a moving car, passengers in the train experience the illusion that the slower car is moving backward due to the speed at which the train is moving.

3.2.2. Views on Retrogression

19. However, this virtual (not actual) retrogression has been stated in the classic texts, Bhavatha Ratnakara, Brihat Parashara Hora Shatra, Horasara, Jataka Parijata, Jataka Tattwa, Phaladeepika, Sanketanidhi, Saravali, Uttarakalamarita and the articles on the role of "Retrograde Planets in Astrology" in the Astrological Magazine (AM) of Bangalore, March 1967 to November 1974, by Vedic astrologers, Bepin Behari, V.A.K. Iyer, Ajanta Jain, R. Lakshmanan, R. Santhanam, P.S. Sastri, V.K. Sinha, B. Suryanarayan Rao etc. And among divergent views retrogression has been mainly considered as an indication of strength (chesta-bal) because a planet, when retrograde, is nearer to Earth and can have its greater impact.

20. Grace Inglis has concluded in his Retrograde Planets in line with Buell D. Huggins and Garth Allen that a retrograde planet is not much different in natal chart. After illustrating 32 examples, Buell D. Huggins is of the opinion that retrograde planets may apply only to Horary Astrology. (AM September- special issue on retrogression- and November 1974)

21. In horary studies, planets stay in dynamic motion as follows:

1) If the question is ruled by a retrograde planet at the time of query, the condition will change when the planet goes direct. If the ruling planet is direct and will soon turn retrograde, the event asked about may not happen. Retrograde planets in horary brings things and people back. (Helen Adams Garrett: More About Retrogrades, 1991)

2) For example, if a planet retrogrades in the 7th house the querent gone out of station will return for the query about the return. (S. Kannan, AM January 1972)

3) Retrograde planets never give all that is expected. (Charles Carter: Horary Astrology, 1942)

4) Retrograde is found fatal to the success of question. (Alan Leo: Horary Astrology, 2006 Edition p 132)

5) An angular planet going retrograde or into combustion may wreck its ability to act in a positive fashion. (J. Lee Lehman: The Martial Art of Horary Astrology p 264)

3.2.3. Retrogression in KP

22. In KP, retrogression does not matter in the natal chart analysis but it does not give results in the Horary analysis, if the significator is in the star or sub lord of retrograde planets. In a Horary chart bhava sputa are for ever a constant set up and planets are always on the dynamic move.

23. The retrograde cuspal sub lord of the concerned cusp, if deposited in the star of a planet in direct motion, the event will materialize after some obstacles and delay when it is in direct motion and passed beyond the point wherefrom retrograde motion started. (KP Reader VI pp 145-146, 170, 178)

24. If the cuspal sub lord (whether in direct or retrograde motion) is deposited in the star of retrograde planet, the event cannot materialize. [KP Reader VI pp 146, 171, 178, 222, 262-4, 287, 301, Kuppu Ganapathi para 31, Astrosecrets Part II pp 214-22 para 33, K. Hariharan: Steller Effects on Human Life pp 262-64, T. Rajendra Kumar in KPA 2005 p 51, RP & KP pp 87-9; Dr. Arstu Prabhakar: New Dimensions of K.P. Astrolog (Horary); Styanarayana Naik: K.P. Dynamics (Horary)]

25. If the cuspal sub lord (whether in direct or retrograde motion) is deposited in the sub of retrograde planet, the result will tend to be favorable after some delay and impediments when they get direct in motion. (KP Reader VI p 202, C.R. Bhatt: Nakshatra Chintamani p 104, RP & KP pp 87-89, Vijay Kumar: KPA 2004 p 25, T. Rajendra Kumar: KP Horary in KPA 2008 p 123 & 2009 p 44)

26. If the cuspal sub lord (whether in direct or retrograde motion) deposited in the star or sub of retrograde planets,
1) it cannot give the result when that cuspal sub lord is not a strong significator of the concerned house;

2) but the event can materialize when that cuspal sub lord is a strong significator of the concerned house. [C.R. Bhatt: Prashna Jyotish Part I & 2 (Gujarati book) pp 56, 185, 279, 319-320 (Courtesy of Kanak Bosmia); Pankaj Himvan: KPA 2009 p 12] Regarding a strong significator, order of signification for planets and Rahu/Ketu, criteria in selecting fruitful significators, planets without any planet in their stars, planets being in own stars or subs, planets signifying houses which are supported by the signification of sub lords are to be preferred.

27. With the slogan of "If retrograde in natal is nothing, why not in Horary also?", Dr. Kar had introduced the theory of cancellation of retrogradation by burning the adverse effects of retrograde planets through the rays of Sun. (Dr. Keshab R. Kar: Some Thoughts on Retrogradation in KPA 1996 pp 50-63) It was supported by K.M. Subramaniam. (KPA 1997 p 51) However, it is also found that the sub lord of the principal cusp, if retrograde or if deposited in the star or sub of a retrograde planet, can negate the result even though the retrograde planet is connected to Sun by the way of star lordship, or being within 30 degrees to the Sun. (T. Rajendra Kumar: Inference from a Honest Retrospection, KPA 2005 pp 50-52)

28. There are Vryadhipathi theory of retrograde planets giving the result of other houses (P. M. Shanmugam: Astrosecrets & KP Part I pp 91-92; Rao Brothers in O.V.N. Murthy's Role of Badhaka in Astrovision, January and February 2009), and Nadi theory of retrograde planets giving the result of previous house of their placement. (S. Naik: K.P. Dynamics p 36; PVR Rayudu: Marriage Age - A Nadi Method) Tertiary Progressions method (Richard Huck: Astrology of Death pp 63-76) is entirely based on the experience that a planet is strongest when it is stationary among eight stages of retrograde motion. (Joan Wickenburg: Your Hidden Powers: Intercepted Signs & Retrograde Planets p 31)

29. Some scholars ignore the result of the retrograde planets by putting several examples in support to their opinions [K.M. Subramaniam (KPA 1997 p 51, Sublord Speaks- I p 84-5), Kanak Bosmia (KP Muhurat p 3), Sunil Gondhalekar (Four Step Theory p 54), Umang Taneja (Prashna), S P Khullar (Horary Astrology p ix)] But D.C. Ghose had found in hundred of Horary cases that the retrograde planet has failed to offer the due result. (Result of Planets in Retrogression, KPA 1995 p 6)

30. Guruji KSK has brought us to that level of thought and used to say “My friends, we have come up to this- you should continue the research and you may reach to further truth”. (KPA 1995 p 7 and 1996 p 63) So further research of a minimum of one hundred carefully documented Horary charts is required by taking a long time to form a credible opinion on retrogression whether it does matter or not in the Horary analysis. Mere reference of just several cases against plenty of supporting cases may not be sufficient yet to totally ignore retrogression widely mentioned in the astrological literature of East and West, especially its impact in short term prediction by Horary.

3.3. Checking the Cuspal Sub Lords of the Ascendant and 11th Cusp

31. In a Horary chart, the Ascendant indicates the efforts of querent; while the 11th cusp shows the fulfillment of desire or success in general. If the cuspal sub lord of Ascendant or 11th cusp be the significator of the matter asked or the beneficial house 1 (success in one's effort), 2 (monetary gain), 3 (help from other), 6 (gain to querent), 10 (reputation) and 11 (profit, fulfillment of desires), the querent can get success in general. (C. R. Bhatt: Nakshatra Chintamani p 105)

32. So check whether the cuspal sub lords of Ascendant and 11th cusp are the significator of the matter asked or the beneficial houses to the querent and if so, it is a supportive indicator for the materialization of the event under query. If the 1st cuspal sub lord signifies 11th house, then fulfillment of desire is promised. (T. Rajendra Kumar: KPA 2005 p 52)

Step 4. Selecting the Fruitful Significators

4.1. KP Signifiators

33. The concerned cuspal sub lord indicates whether the matter under query is promised or not. If it is promised, the significators point the time of event. (KP Reader V p 224/ Old Edition p 211) So note the significators of the houses which signify the matter asked.

34. The significators of a house in order of the strength of grade A,B,C,D & E are given as under:

- A. Planet in the star of the occupant of a required house (for instance 2,7, 11 for marriage) (strongest significator)
- B. Occupant of the house
- C. Planet posited in the star of lord of the house
- D. Lord of the house
- E. Planet(s) conjoined with or aspected by the above significators (weakest significator used as a last resort)

Note: It is “aspected by” A,B,C,D significators but not “aspecting” A,B,C,D as said by some. [K.P. Readers III p 342 (Old Edition 2nd Part p 174), IV p 118, V pp 154, 214 (Old Edition p 149, 201), VI pp 157, 197]

35. A practice of considering the star lord and sub lord of the star lord of a planet is not in line with the KP basic principle: “Planet is the source, constellation indicates nature of the result and the SUB is a deciding factor whether the matter is favorable or not.” [Original KP Vol 2, Sagar Publications, 1965 p 41, KP Reader III 136 (Old Edition 129), V 136 (Old Edition p 129)]

4.2. Selection of Fruitful Significators

36. Out of these significators, select fruitful significators as follows:

1) Significators which are common with the Ruling Planets at the time of judgment. The Ruling Planets at the time of judgment and those at the time of fructification of the event are the same. ((KP Reader IV p 201, 208, 274; Kuppu Ganpathi para 17, KP & RP p ix) A significator that strongly signifies the required important houses for the matter can be considered even though it does not appear among the ruling planets. (K.C. Mahapatra: A Systematic Step-wise Procedure for K.P..., KPA 2001 pp 104-113);

2) Significators which are in the stars of the occupant or lord of anyone of required houses under consideration (for instance 2,7, 11 for marriage);

3) Significators which are the cuspal sub lords of the required houses;

4) The cuspal sub lords of the required houses become the strongest significators of those houses, if there is no planet in their stars. A planet without any planet in its star is the strongest to give the results of the houses by occupation and being

KP for Beginners Part II - Reading a KP Horary Chart

Tin Win

the sub lord to them. (KP Reader III p 309, KPA 1991 July p I & November p 8, Vikari Ramamurthi, R. Mukunda Rajan, Kuppu Ganapathi, Kanak Bosmia);

5) Significators which appear many times amongst the ruling planets/ significators or connected with various significators;

6) Significators which are the sign lord, star lord and sub lord of the cusp of the concerned house under query;

7) Significators which are the joint period DBAS rulers at the time of judgment.

37. On the other hand, the significators which signify 12th to the required houses of the event by their sub lords are not effective significators, for example house 7 for marriage signified by the planet or its star lord is not an effective signifier, if its sub lord signifies house 6 (12th to 7). The same approach may not be always correct for the significators which signify 6th, 8th to the required houses of the event by their sub lords even though generally planets placed in 6, 8 or 12 to any house do not contribute to the matters influenced by that house. (KP Reader VI p 297) A strong and single negative signifier of the event should be rejected. (KP Reader IV p 145)

38. Reject the signifier which is in the star of retrograde planet because it cannot give the results of its star lord during its period or sub period etc. (G.C.Vijayakumar: KPA 2007 pp 47-8)

39. If a planet is posited very close to the next cusp within 3.333 degrees, the signification of the next house only is to be considered. If the orb is tighter and there is no planet tenanted in the next house, the effect of the next house will be stronger. [Original KP Vol 2, Sagar Publications, 1965 p 281; KP Reader IV, page 108, K.M. Subramaniam, T. Rajendra Kumar (KPA 2000 & 2003), C.V.Tyagaraja Iyer (KPA 2005), K. Subramaniam (Astrology for Beginner, Vol. 3), Carl Woebcke (You and the Universe), Michael McClain] The view of giving the results of both the previous and next houses is given by C.R. Bhatt (Nakshatra Chintamani), Anant Raichur, Sunil Gondhalekar and Robert Hand (Horoscope Symbols). (A Note on the Influence of a Planet near the House Cusp, Astrovision, June 2008)

40. In KP if the sub lords of more than one cusp are the same, then they are deemed to be connected. For example if 1st and 11th cuspal sub lords happen to be the same planet, it gives strong indication of being mutually related and promise of fulfillment of desire. (T. Raajendra Kumar: KPA 2002 p 25)

41. The nature of planets is to be considered as karaka (chief signifier), slow or fast moving planet and others. For example, Sun stands for father, Government, profession, Moon for mind, mother, journey, liquids, Mars for courage, brothers and sisters, operation, accident, house/building, quick grasping, engineering, Mercury for education, communication, power of speech, commerce, two minds, Jupiter for wealth, progeny, children, education, law and judgment, Venus for marriage, spouse, vehicle, luxury items, Saturn for longevity, services, servants, delay, land, mental, Rahu for imprisonment and Ketu for Moksha, danger. (KP Reader III pp 235-6, 259; Reader VI pp 188-9, 223, 230, 277, 303)

42. A karaka planet signifying the relevant bhava is stronger than other planets to offer the result. However, a karaka planet itself, without signification of the required houses by occupation and lordship, cannot not be considered as an outright signifier for the matter it governs even though it result is said to be the chief governor of the matter. In KP karaka planets can play a supporting role only, but not a major role like in Verdic, for instance without 12th cuspal sub lord being Rahu, chief karaka for imprisonment, one can be jailed, if the required house grouping of 2,3,8,12 is signified; Venus alone without 2,7,11 signification cannot give marriage; Jupiter alone without 2,5,11 signification cannot give child birth. (KP Reader III pp 235-6, 259, Reader VI pp 181, 313-4).

4.3. Rahu/Ketu Significators

43. Rahu or Ketu (whether it is a planet or star lord or sub lord) the following significators are taken in the KP Readers depending on relevance to the event under consideration regardless of their sequence of order (Rahu/Ketu Rules in KP in KPE-Zine, May 2007):

- 1) House occupied by Rahu/Ketu,
- 2) Planet in conjunction with Rahu/Ketu,
- 3) Planet in aspect to Rahu/Ketu,
- 4) Star lord of Rahu/Ketu and
- 5) Sign lord of (rasi) sign occupied by Rahu/Ketu.

44. The signification of 2 to 5 is generally by occupation and lordship of the relevant planet and its star lord. Conjunction in the same (rasi) sign and Hindu aspects without orb are used. Rahu or Ketu does not aspect any planet or house since it is not a planet having physical body but it is only a sensitive intersecting point in the pathway of Sun and Moon. (Kuppu Ganapathi) So in case of conjunction or aspect with other planets, Rahu/Ketu will give whatever the conjoined or aspecting planet is to give but not that planet to give whatever Rahu/Ketu is to give.

45. A practice is found that if any planet is deposited in the star of Rahu/Ketu, then Rahu/Ketu will offer the results of that planet. (Astrosecrerts Part I p 308; KPA 2002 p 40) However, as per KP that planet will give whatever Rahu/Ketu is to give but not Rahu/Ketu to give whatever that planet is to give. That is why Rahu/Ketu can give the result of a house by occupation, only when there is no planet in its stars. [KP Reader V pp 212, 274-5 (Old Edition pp 200, 236), Reader VI p 190, 282; C.R. Bhatt: Nakshatara Chintamani p 19]

4.4 Ruling Planets

46. Ruling planets are the planets which rule the moment at the time of judgment of any question. The original 5 ruling planets are listed below in their order of preference (Original KP Vol 2, Sagar Publications, 1965 pp 273-4, 412; KP Reader VI p 123, RP & KP pp ix, xvii, 32; Dr. Satya Prakash Chowdhary: Ruling Planets in KP):

- 1) Ascendant star lord
- 2) Ascendant sign lord
- 3) Moon star lord
- 4) Moon sign lord
- 5) Day Lord (Hindu Day from sunrise to next sunrise)

47. If Rahu or Ketu is conjoined or aspected by a ruling planet, or if Rahu or Ketu is posited in a sign owned by one of the ruling planets, then Rahu or Ketu should be included as a ruling planet. If Rahu or Ketu appears to be a ruling planet, its sign lord is replaced by it. In case the sign lord is also a strong significator, it can be taken along with Rahu or Ketu.

48. Some KP astrologers also consider the sub lords of Ascendant and Moon as ruling planets and they use 7 ruling planets. (RP & KP pp 65, 79, 108)

49. Planets in conjunction or aspect to the ruling planets can also be considered as ruling planets, especially if the planet is strong and located in the ruling Ascendant itself.

50. The ruling planets in retrograde do not prevent the event to take place but will only give the result when they become direct in motion. Reject the ruling planets which are posited in the star or sub of retrograde planets. (KP Reader VI pp 167, 171, 176, 187, 202, 224, 274)

51. It is a common practice to work out the ruling planets at the time of casting the chart or time of judgment of query even though the question is solved with the help of a Horary number.

It is the best method of choosing the fruitful significators which are common with the significators. (KP Reader VI pp 274, 138, 141, 200)

52. Another opinion is that the ruling planets of Horary Ascendant as per chosen number help to reach right conclusion. [Dr. Prabhakar: New Dimensions of KP Astrology (Horary) p 64] Reason is that the Ascendant cusp derives the fate of querent and fate cannot be changed. (Dr. Kar in KPA 2001 p 22)

Step 5. Checking Dasa, Bhukti, Antara, Sookshma (DBAS)

53. Check whether the current DBA lords are:

- 1) common with the Ruling Planets at the time of judgment; and
- 2) significators of the matter under query;
- 3) if so, it indicates the materialization of event.
- 4) DBA is not applicable for events which are to happen in a day or two. (KP Reader VI p 136)

54. Check up whether Punarphoo, implying delay, the materialization of the event on subsequent attempts, or Saturn causing delay (KP Reader VI pp 179-180), exists, which needs consideration in fixing the timing of event.

55. The event will materialize during the conjoined period (DBAS) of the selected significators when the transit agrees, i.e., Sun, Mon and/or the joint period rulers (DBAS lords) are transiting in the star or sub of the same joint period rulers. If the Dasa allow an event, the event can happen in that Dasa. If the Dasa does not allow the event, check the next Dasa which allows the event to take place. Once Dasa allows the event, check the current Bhukti and if this Bhukti allows check the nearest Antara, Sookshma and then the Transit, which will indicate the nearest timing of event. In case if current Bhukti does not allow the event, check next Bhukti which allows the event to take place and then check also Antara, Sookshma the same, and then the Transit.

56. If a planet (in direct or retrograde motion) is a significator of anyone of required houses, for instance 2, 7, 11 for marriage, and it is deposited in the star of a retrograde planet, that planet cannot give the result in its period or sub-period. But another significator of required houses, whether it is in direct or retrograde motion, will give the result, if this significator is in the star of a planet in direct motion. (KP Reader VI pp 146-147, 282) In another theory retrogression is used in checking the transits of DBA lords, which should not be in the concerned star and sub of retrograde planets for the materialization of an event. (Sunil Gondhalekar: Four Step Theory pp 48-54)

KP for Beginners Part II - Reading a KP Horary Chart

Tin Win

Step 6. Transit Check

57. Basically in KP transit the source of matter is indicated by the transiting planet and what will happen is shown by its star lord; whether it will materialize or not; whether it is favorable or not is indicated by its sub lord according to the occupied and owned houses. [KP Reader V p 161 (Old Edition p 153)] A planet transiting in a star signifies the matters shown by the star lord due to its occupation and lordship and the different subs passed by that planet indicate the various stages and success or failure of the results shown by the star lord. [KP Reader V pp 186-7 (Old Edition pp 177-8)]

58. In KP generally fruitful periods are selected by the Vimshottari dasa system and transits are used to check whether they agree with dasa and to pinpoint the timing of events as tools of precision to complement the dasa system.

59. At the time of event, Sun, Mon and/or the joint period (DBAS) rulers are generally found to be transiting in:

- 1) the star or sub of the same joint period rulers;
- 2) the star or sub of the fruitful significators of the particular event (other than the joint period rulers) in the chart. [KP Reader III p 198 (Old Edition 2nd Part p 42), Nakshatra Chintamani p 37, T. Rajendra Kumar: KPA 2003 pp 45-46]

60. The first condition (42.1) is consideration of only the chosen DBAS lords whether they are transiting in the star or sub of the same DBAS lords, implying to consider the signification of transiting DBAS lords which is promised in the natal or horary chart. Regarding relocation chart, it is said in KP Reader V p 162 (Old Edition p 155) that one should not always calculate the Ascendant for the place of birth unless the native is permanent in his birth place. And then the transiting Sun and Moon are helpful to choose the appropriate Sookshma or accurate timing of event.

61. The DBAS brings a matter to happen very close to the timing of event and any matter to be completed will have to be operated by transits of trios: Sun, Moon, Ascendant. That is in case of fixing Sun transit, then Moon transit should fully co-operate with that of Sun transit and finally the Ascendant transit should be on the sensitive zone of the zodiac. (Astro secrets Part I pp 275-6)

62. An accurate timing of an event can be fixed by transit as follows (KP Reader V p 163, Reader VI p 131, RP & KP p 69-72):

- 1) If an event is likely to take place within a few hours, move the Ascendant counting from the Ascending degree of the moment of judgment to the sensitive and fruitful zone of zodiac, i.e., sign lord, star lord and sub lord governed by each of the selected fruitful significators, for instance for running conjoined period of Ven-Moo-Mer DBA, refer Venus sign, Moon star, Mercury sub or Moon sign, Mercury star, Venus sub or Mercury sign, Moon star, Venus sub; or
- 2) If the event is expected to happen within some days, move the Moon to such a sensitive zone; or
- 3) If it is to take place in some months, move the Sun; or
- 4) If it is to happen in some years, Jupiter should be moved to find out the time of event.

63. In finding the time of event by the Ruling Planets method the sensitive zone is where one ruling planet becomes the sign lord, second ruling planet becomes the star lord and third ruling planet become the sub lord and the above same principles are to be applied in moving Ascendant, Moon, Sun and Jupiter.

In this case, the parents of both boy and girl had me after the marriage was fixed at the end of Feb 2009. While, the boy's parents were not happy with this alliance, the girl's parents were aggressive to somehow make it happen. The mix of satisfaction and frustration was taking its toll and turmoil was going on in the mind of the boy's parents.

I was therefore very watchful by my intuition and one day I decided to calculate "If the boy would marry the girl in question" and took horary number 40.

I prepared the horary chart for number 40 on Feb 16, 2009 at 10-16-25 Hrs IST at Bangalore for analysis. In this case, the chart was rotated to 11th house to represent the boy and 7th house thereby represented the girl.

The rotated horary chart is shown in next page.

The co-ordinates for judgment

In a prashna chart, if the prospects of marriage between two individuals are to be assessed, following combinations should exist.

- * The lagna indicates one individual and the 7th house indicates the other one for marriage in such a prashna.
- * 7th house also indicates the marital knot. Thus, 7th house need be connected to the lagna and the 11th house.
- * 11th house indicates the fructification of the query. Hence, if the marriage between two natives in view is to take place, 11th house should be connected to 7th house and lagna.
- * If all the connections exist, the dasha-bhukti would indicate the timing.

Analysis of the chart

In this chart, Lagna indicate Boy and the 7H represent Girl in reference.

The analysis is attempted as follows.

1. Check for Moon

The horary number is taken by me to read about the marriage of the boy with the girl in question, thus the position of Moon would reveal my urge to know about the marriage celebration of the boy.

Since, Moon is the starlord of 7th and 11th cusp, it indicates matters related to the marriage of the boy. I took the horary chart as OK to proceed with the analysis.

2. Assess the Lagna and 7th cusp

Incidentally, the sub-lord of lagna and 7th house is Venus.

Venus falls in the star of Saturn, which is retro and placed in 6th house. While, this does not portend a rosy picture for the marriage to get commenced, the placement of Jupiter as the sub-lord of Venus in 12th house negates the outcome. Incidentally, Saturn is the weaker lord of the 11-12th houses and would not be able to assert for the positive outcome.

3. Assess 3-9th cusps

3rd and 9th cusps may be examined for what the boy and girl feel and express for the marriage respectively.

Incidentally, the sub-lord of these cusps is Jupiter.

Jupiter (as strong lord of lagna) falls in the star of Moon, which as 5th lord is placed in 8th house, very close to the 8th cusp. This shows blockage of emotions from boy's side for the marriage. Jupiter falls in the sub of Saturn, which is retro and placed in 6th house thereby sealing the prospects of marriage.

While, Jupiter signifies 8-10-1st houses from boy's side, it works out to be 2-4-7th house from girl's side.

It seemed that boy had more frustration than the girl from the ongoing marriage proceedings.

4. Assess the 11th cusp to look for the final outcome

The 11th cusp decides the overall fructification of the query.

Mercury is the sub-lord of the 11th cusp and as a dual natured planet, it was to show changing state of affairs.

Mercury is a strong planet, as it does not have any planet in its star, thus its placement is important. Note that Mercury as

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars

7th lord is placed in 10th house, which deters the marriage proposal in principle.

At the stellar level, Mercury falls in the star of Sun placed in 11th house, which is good in principle and that was a reason that the talk of the marriage was alive. Unfortunately, Mercury falls in the sub of Ketu and its placement in 4th house was sufficient to deter the proceedings of the marriage.

With the indications as above, it categorically denies the marriage to commence as planned.

5. Note the dasha spread

Note that Jupiter-Ketu dasha started on Dec 25, 2008 to run for a year. Since, none of the dasha or antar-dasha promote positively for the marriage commencement, it was concluded that the marriage fixed to commence in Feb-2009 would not take place.

Facts of the case

It was learnt that the marriage had already been postponed once in the end of 2008 and it was the second time that the marriage postponement took place, which was to commence in the end of February-2009.

Till date, the future of the marriage is not known.

I thank KP methodology to show the light whenever approached.

I believe in the statement of Dr. Kar about Retro- Planets, and generally I do not consider retro planets in my analysis. In this regard, I want to discuss below two cases which have the same question.

Question: When will I be able to sell my House?

Horary No: 222/249

Date: 14/10/2000

Time: 06:30:00 PM

Place: L. G Hospital- Ahmedabad 23 N 00, 72 E 36

Rule:

If 10th Sublord signifies 3,5,10 one can sell- off his property.

In this Horary chart, 10th sublord is Rahu, Rahu is in the star of Jup(Retro) and sub of Ketu.

Rah is in 5 Rahu and is in the sign of Mer. Mer is in 8 lord of 5,8. No planet in the star of Rahu and Rahu is sublord of 4, 7, 10, 11, Jup is in 3, lord of 2-11, Ket is in 11 and is in the sign of Jup.

10th sublord Rahu is signifies 5,10 so he will be able to sell his House, In KSK Reader 6 page: 146 para 4,

“Planet in direct motion if deposited in the constellation of a retrograde planet, one cannot have success”

In this case 10th Sublord is in the star of retrograde planet Jup so as per rules he never will be able to sell his House, but actually he sold his House in August 2004. He clearly mentioned to me that he wanted to sell, when he could get a Price, which he wanted. So it is clear that in a very short period he would not be able to sell this house.

Running dasa is Ketu and ends on 9/4/2001, So I go to the next dasa of Ven. This dasa run up to 9/4 2021.

Ven is in 9, lord of 4-9, in the star of Jup is in 3, lord of 2-11, in the sub of Moon is in 2, lord of 6.

Sun Bhukti ran from 8/8/2004 to 9/8/2005. He sold his House in middle of August 2004.

Now the point to be noticed is, even when relevant Bhava's starlord is retrograde, result is still positive.

Second example:

Question: When will I be able to sell my Factory?

Horary No: 79/249

Date: 11/7/2001

Time: 06.31.00 PM

Place: L. G Hospital- Ahmedabad 23 N 00, 72 E 36

One more important thing to discuss about Reader 6 page: 146 last para “If planet is the significator of 2 or 7 or 11 and it is deposited in the constellation of a retrograde planet whether it is in direct motion or retrograde, that planet cannot give marriage in its period or sub period.”

In this case he sold his factory on 24/9/2003, at a time when the running dasa was Jup (till 6/1/2005). Jup is in the star of Mar which is retrograde. Even though in retrograde star, planet Jup gave a positive result.

I have still some more examples, but I think these two are sufficient to check with the Rules.

You experience, comments and criticisms are most welcome.

OM Gajaanam Namamhyam

During the KP Astrologers Forum's fortnightly meeting conducted on 08-Mar-2009 chaired by Sri Rajendra Nimje, IAS., Charts on Medical Astrology were taken up. Two natal charts regarding Heart Ailments were discussed in detail.

Heart is the important organ for sustaining life in the body. Heart forms as a first organ after conceiving, in the tenth week of the pregnancy as per medical analysis. Everyone is very particular and frightened about heart and its problems. Heart problems are of two categories one is the functioning of the heart for supplying of blood to all parts of the body - any coronary problem leads to heart attack these are very well known as blocks in the arteries expressed in percentage by cardiologists. Second problem is valve functioning or congenital problem such as valve problems, holes in the heart chambers, etc. Normally a good heart beat is 120/80 systolic and diastolic. Any heart problem needs open heart surgery in the olden days and presently due to technical advancement only by-pass and valve problems needs open heart surgery and coronary blocks are cleared by angioplasty, balloon cutting and stent in coronary arteries.

In Medical astrology in Kalapursha (Natural Zodiac 4th house Cancer and Leo rules the heart and 4th cusp from lagna governs heart. When the rasi Leo, Aquarius and the 4th cusp in the natal chart is afflicted by Saturn, Rahu or Mars indicates heart problems, Saturn in Leo is not favourable, In Kalapursha 4th house is Cancer ruled by moon and Leo ruled by sun represents heart problems, any affliction to Cancer and Leo apart from 4th house from lagna would definitely lead to heart problem.

As per the "Medical Astrology for all written by Sri K Subramaniam, in Medical anatomy the following sub-divisions of Leo are sensitive for heart diseases 1. Kethu star – subs of Kethu, Moon, Mars, Saturn and mercury, 2. Venus star sub of sun, 3. Sun's star sub of Rahu.

In natural Zodiac 4th house cancer ruled by moon governs chest, breast, mammal glands, heart, lungs, blood circulations and karaka for mind involves in thinking which is the root cause for tensions and consequently leads to high blood pressure. Mars governs blood circulation and if afflicts sun and moon in Leo/ Cancer / Aquarius and connected to evil houses 6, 8, 12 would lead to heart complaints.

- (1) Cancer rules breast, chest, ribs, stomach and digestive organs
- (2) Leo rules heart, spinal column
- (3) 4th bhava rules heart, lungs, chest and blood
- (4) Sun rules heart, eye sight, stomach, blood
- (5) Moon rules breast, eye sight, and mind.
- (6) Makha star rules heart, aorta, spinal chord
- (7) Purvaphalguni rules heart and spinal chord

Now a days our neighbor Pakistan is facing enormous problems. The situation currently in Pakistan indicates that both President Zardari and P.M. Geelani have little possibilities to complete their terms of office..

Analysis:

I. Swearing-in-time of Mr. Geelani new PM of Pakistan:

Date: 25-03-2008

Time: 12-04 PM

Place: Islamabad-Pakistan

Lon/Lat: 33 N 42 / 73 E 10

As mentioned in my book: KP Muhurat page no: 71, Rules, as mentioned below:

I) Success in political career

- A) Asc sublord should signify 1,5,9,11 for long life of event. (If you select Sthir swabhav lagna (Fixed Sign) do not consider 9th)
- B) Asc sublord should signify 1,6,9, 10,11 for success in political career
- C) 11th sublord should signify 1,6,9, 10,11 for success in political career.
- D) Do not select Chara Lagna (Moveable Sign).
- E) Dasa and Bhukti should signify 1,6,9, 10,11

Analysis:-

A) Asc sublord should signify 1,5,9,11 for long life of event. (If you select Sthir swabhav lagna (Fixed Sign) do not consider 9th) Asc sublord is Sat, Sat is in the star of Ket and sub of Jup. Sat is in 3 lord of 8,9. Ket is in 2(Maraka), Ket Conj with Sat. Jup is in 7(Badhaka/Maraka), and lord of 7(Badhaka/Maraka) 10.

Asc sublord indicate Badhaka/maraka, so short life of event.

B) Asc sublord should signify 1,6,9, 10,11 for success in political career; As we discussed above Sat signifies 9, 10.

C) 11th sublord should signify 1, 6, 9, 10 11 for success in political career. 11th Sublord is Ven. Ven is in the star and sub of Jup.; Ven is in 9 lord of 5, 12. Jup is in 7, and lord of 7 10.; 11th sublord signifies 9,10.

D) Dasa and Bhukti should signify 1,6,9, 10,11; Running dasa was Jup till 13/11/2008; Jup is in 7(Badhaka/Maraka), and lord of 7(Badhaka/Maraka) 10. in the star of Ven is in 9 lord of 5, 12(Maraka), in the sub of Mer is in 9, lord of 1-4. Because Rule B and C indicate good signification, we understand that during this short time he will not lose his Post and we have now to check another Dasa also.

Next dasa is Sat till 28/8/2009 Sat is in 3 lord of 8,9. Ket is in 2(Maraka), Ket Cinj with Sat. Jup is in 7(Badhaka/Maraka), and lord of 7(Badhaka/Maraka) 10; This dasa also indicate both badhaka Maraka and 9.10

Next dasa is Mer till 13/5/2010. Mer is in the star and sub of Jup.

Mer is in 9 lord of 1-4, Jup is in 7(Badhaka/Maraka), and lord of 7(Badhaka/Maraka) 10.

Mer Dasa indicate Badhaka Maraka and 9 but Mer is in sub of Jup and Jup signifies Badhaka/Maraka.

Conclusion: So in my opinion, P.M. Geelani will lose his position during the period 28/8/2009 to 13/5/2010.

Is 8th House for Marriage or Divorce in KP?

Tin Win

Tin Win
tw853@yahoo.com

2,7,11 Houses for Marriage

1. In KP house 2 (family members), 7 (legal bondage, spouse) and 11 (permanent tie of friendship and partnership in life) are to be judged for marriage, as explained in pages 109-110 and 117 of KP Reader IV. This rule is generally followed by KP astrologers including C.R. Bhatt (Nakshatra Chintamani), K.M. Subramaniam (Sublord Speaks- 1 to 3), P.M. Shanmugam (Astro secrets & KP Part I), Dr. K.R. Kar (KP & Astrology Year Books).

1,6,10,8,12 Houses for Divorce

2. As per KP Reader V page 176 (168 in Old Edition), significators of houses 2,7,11 are to be considered for marriage and the houses 6,12,10,8 are for divorce.

3. The same is said in Astro secrets & KP Part III page 11 that for marriage significators of houses 2,7,11 are beneficial; for divorce, 6,10,12 and 8 are beneficial; page 22, houses 1,6,10 and 8 are not favorable for marriage.

4. Separation from the partner due to disharmony or difference of opinion is to be considered by 1,6,10 houses only and 8 is also to be considered, if quarrel is involved. Finally to get divorce after long quarrel and fighting in court 1,6,10,8,12 houses are to be considered, as found in divorce cases of Further Light of Nakshatra Chintamani by C.R. Bhatt, and in Sublord Speaks- 1 to 3, 1,6,8,10,12 houses are detrimental for marriage and matrimonial life which may head towards divorce. Divorce with mutual consent is possible without 8 and 12 houses. (Umang Taneja: Marriage and Relationships)

5. Even Dr. Y.S.N. Murthy, who had said that 8 (house of sex) and 12 (bed comfort) are required for marriage and sexual pleasure (KP & Astrology 2001 pp 81-82), had considered 2,5,7 or 11 house for marriage and 1,12,4,6,8 or 10 house for separation (KP & Astrology 2001 pp 75-77). 8th House in Support of Divorce

6. Hence 8th house (quarrel, disappointment) is found in support of divorce but not in support of marriage although it does not negate marriage and not threaten separation from the partner.

Other Views

7. However, some KP astrologers are of the view of that signification of houses 5 and 8 by the 7th cusp sub lord can also give marriage since 5th is 11th to the 7th and 8th is 2nd to 7th. Considering 5th house for marriage in the case of love marriage is understandable. Among KP astrologers taking 5th house for marriage, Kousalya Sattainathan has said in her KP's Astrology & Prime Ministers, page 6 that for marriage houses 1,7,5 and 11 are to be considered. If it is not a printing error of 1st house for house 2nd house, there is no way in KP to take 1st house (12th to 2nd) for marriage. Capable KP astrologers taking 8th house for marriage without signification of 2,7,11 are rare to find in the KP literature in English.

8. According to other theories, Four Step theory considers 5th house (11th to 7th) and 8th house (2nd to 7th) as supporting houses for marriage, in addition to 2,7,11 main houses; Cuspal Interlinks theory considers 5,7,11 houses for marriage and 2nd house is not taken as a house of danger and death to the 7th house; in System Approach (SA), 8th house is considered as one of many marriage significators.

Promise of Marriage

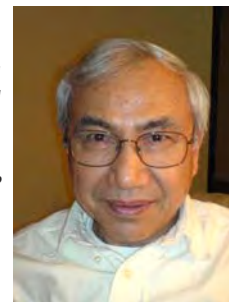

9. The 7th cusp sub lord indicates whether marriage is promised or not. If marriage is promised, the required significators of DBA lords point the time of marriage when it agrees with transit. (KP Reader V p 21)

10. In judging whether marriage is promised or not, only 2,7,11 houses are preferable to consider. Basically marriage can be denied, if 7th cusp sub lord signifies only 1,6,10, 4 negative houses without signification of any of 2,7,11 marriage houses. As long as 7th cusp sub lord signifies any of marriage houses, marriage cannot be denied even though negative house are signified. And so marriage denial may not be judged effectively, if more houses other than 2,7,11 are considered for marriage.

Timing of Marriage

11. In fixing timing of marriage (DBA), food for thought is that more houses other than 2,7,11 can be involved in all kinds of capacities depending on specific circumstances, for instance 5 for love marriage, love affairs, fulfillment of pleasure, 8 for sexual enjoyment, dowry, father's expenditure for her wedding, 3,9 (3rd from 7th) for negotiation or contract for marriage, 12 for bed comfort, 3,9 or 12 houses for a bride leaving her parents' residence to join the bridegroom's family in a far place or foreign country in the case of marriage to foreigner.

12. DBA is not applicable for events which are to happen in a day or two i.e. daily events. Analysis of DBA is essential for

Is 8th House for Marriage or Divorce in KP?

Tin Win

not only in fixing timing of marriage but also in judging marriage denial. Because promise of marriage cannot be materialized, if signifiers of Dasa lords are not fruitful for marriage during marriageable age of native.

13. The most commonly used Vimshottari dasa system of Maharishi Prashara is one of three pillars of KP for calculation of subs and forecasting system. James Braha has said that perhaps the greatest feature of Hindu astrology is the dasa system of prediction (Ancient Hindu Astrology for Modern Western Astrologer p 217).

Issue for Research

13. Regarding the DBA of prediction, an issue for research is how some events have taken place without signification of any required house by the DBA lords, their stars and subs as per house lordship and occupation.

14. General rules cannot not fit to each and every event of a natal chart. A cent percent accuracy in the astrological prediction would be possible, if and only if everything in one's life is predestined at the moment of birth by past Karma. However, as a compromise, the results of one's limited free will in this lifetime may not be denied within the fated effects present at birth through the planetary positions in his or natal chart according to past Karma. (see KP Reader II p 19) Muhurat may be helpful to get the desirable results of free will. Moreover, Horary or Ruling Planets also may not guarantee to all to be always helpful.

Bottom Line

15. The bottom line is that 100% correct prediction cannot be given with the literature available and with the knowledge that we may gain by studying them alone. (KP Reader II p 46)

This case belongs to the ward of my friend who was working in an MNC and had to receive the offer of regular appointment from apprenticeship by March-2009. I was returning from Shimla on Nov 26, 2008 and during the flight makeover time at Delhi airport, I received a call from him who was curious to know whether she would continue in the present job. He gave me horary number 113.

I casted the chart at Delhi airport for horary number 113 and rotated it to the 5th house.

The rotated chart is as follows:

Coordinates of judgment

- Lagna in this chart represents the native and 7th the employer. 3-9th cusps indicate the negotiations taking place between them on the perks/terms of the job or any other matter.
- The prospects in a horary chart relating to the profession are primarily governed by the 10H, as this house decides the way the flow of karma takes place for matters relating to profession.
- 2nd house indicates the salary.
- The 6th house indicates the job at hand.
- It may be noted that the analysis of cusps of various houses along with the planetary significations represent the fixed promises of the chart but the results are dispensed by the suitable dasha-bhukti in consonance with the transits.

The Query

In the horary chart, Moon is placed in 10th house indicating the matter pertaining to the job. Moon falling in the 3rd and 9th cusps also indicated some dialogues taking place between the native and the employer.

With the above, I took the chart OK to proceed for further analysis.

Analysis of the chart

• Look at the promise indicated by the lagna.

Rahu is the lagna sub-lord, which is strong because of having no planet in its star. Placement of Rahu in lagna makes the native a headstrong in his opinions.

At the stellar level, Rahu falls in the star of 7th lord Moon placed in the 10th house favoring the employer to allow the native to continue. Mercury as sub-lord of Rahu is 6th lord placed in 11th house does promise the native to continue.

Rahu disposes Saturn (sign lord) and Moon (Star lord).

Saturn as 2nd lord (Salary) is placed in 8th house, hence the salary could have been an issue in this employment. Saturn is placed in the star and sub of 8th lord Sun; hence the resolution of salary figure may not be in the favor of the native.

Moon is analyzed briefly in the preceding para and shows the dialogues going on between the native and the employer.

In short, the indications of Lagna do promise the continuance of the job with the salary as point of focus.

• Look at the 10th cuspal sub-lord indicating the promise of the job.

10th cuspal sub-lord is Jupiter, which as 12th lord gets placed in 12th house and does not portend a rosy picture of job prospects and shows that the job could be a burden on the native without enough compensation.

At the stellar level, Jupiter falls in the star of 8th lord Sun placed in 11th house, which does not promise enough longevity of the job in hand. The sub-lord of Jupiter is Moon and its placement in 10th house does make the native to continue for the time being.

• Look at the 6th cusp for the actual job definition

Saturn is the cuspal sub-lord of the 6th cusp and as analyzed in the preceding para, it makes the salary an issue of frustration.

Looking to the 6th and 10th cusp together, it seems apparent that the job in hand may continue on extension, though the salary may be the cause of concern and if not fixed to the native's satisfaction, the native may break off from this job, as the native seems headstrong.

• Look at the 11th cusp for the overall fructification of the query.

Venus is the 11th cuspal sub-lord and as 5th lord it points the upcoming changeover. Venus falls in its own star placed in 12th house losing the hold on the job and its sub-lord Saturn gets placed in 8th house as 2nd lord causes the salary as an issue to break over.

Thus, there could be a possibility of the native's continuing the job for some time being as indicated by the 10th cusp but the possibility of becoming permanent with good salary seems remote.

• Look at the dasha breakup.

Jupiter-Mercury was running till Dec 24, 2008. Thereafter, Jupiter-Ketu was to run.

Dasha lord-Jupiter as analyzed above does allow the native to continue in the job but with a crib of salary.

Bhukti lord – Mercury is placed the star of 2nd lord Saturn and its sub lord – Sun in 11th house. Thus, it was concluded that Mercury bhukti would not allow the native to discontinue the job.

Next bhukti was that of Ketu. Ketu placed in 7th house had to roll the ball to the employer for negotiating the compensation package. Here, the 9th cusp is to be examined to know the outcome from the employer's side.

Mars is the sub-lord of the 9th cusp and its placement in 11th house makes the employer to favor the native to continue. However, Mars falls in the sub of Rahu placed in lagna but it does not favour substantial compensation package (as analyzed in the preceding para) and the native was to take a final call whether to continue or not.

No analysis was done further to it.

Findings

It was communicated to my friend that his ward may continue the job but on unsatisfactory salary package, which could be a serious issue of concern. It could be possible that the native could deter continuing in the job herself.

Some facts of the case

I communicated the findings to my friend from Delhi itself. I found the status of the case as on date as below.

- The job was on apprenticeship and was due for regularization.
- The payment was as a mere stipend.
- Towards March 2009 end, the negotiations happened on the insistence of the native and an unsatisfactory compensation package was offered.
- The native decided not to continue in the MNC and resigned in 1st week of April 2009 and is due to be released by May 06, 2009.

Conclusion

Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

During the KP Astrologers Forum's fortnightly meeting conducted on 26-Apr-2009, Charts on Medical Astrology were taken up. Two natal charts regarding Breast Cancer were discussed in details. One native underwent operation on early detection in 2005 and got cured. Second native underwent operations but could not sustain her life; she vacated the body on 11th April 2009.

In Medical astrology Natural Zodiac (Kalapursha) 4th Rasi Cancer, Moon as Rasi Lord rules the Breast, Chest, Ribs, digestive organs, stomach. Moon as lord of this sign rules mammal glands, eye sight, mind, alimentary canal, water in the body, kidneys and 4th cusp from lagna governs these parts. When Moon, Cancer Rasi, 4th cusp from lagna is afflicted and connected to evil houses 6-disease, 8-chronic disease, 12-hospitalisation would lead to Breast ailments. Jupiter is the planet for benign growth, Rahu / Kethu affliction leads to cancerous growth.

- (1) Cancer rules breast, chest, ribs, stomach and digestive organs
- (2) 4th bhava rules Breast, Lungs, etc.
- (3) Moon rules breast, eye sight, mind.

- (6) Ashlesha (Ailiyam) Lungs, Oesophagus, Liver Pancreas

As per the "Medical Astrology for All" written by Sri K Subramaniam S/o Sri KSK Guruji, regarding Breast Cancer occurs with more frequency in females due to the proneness of this disease to breast uterus. Moon's affliction in Cancer rasi would lead to uterus and stomach problems and also breast. Kethu rules over the cells and tissues would lead to incurable diseases. Saturn, Mars connection to Moon would lead to cancer of Uterus/Breast. If the 6th Sub-lord is Moon and afflicted by malefics and also connected to 4th cusp would lead this disease.

Chart 1 – Smt Chandra Kanthi,

(DOB: 02.12.1969, TOB: 01:27:00, POB: Razam, Srikakulam Dt, AP, Lat.18.27N Long.83.40E, KPNA 23-20-49, Tuesday, Birth Star: Makham-4, Rasi: Leo, Asc. Virgo 9-64-04)

The native suffered from Breast Cancer, which was diagnosed in its early stage and got operated and now she is very happy and maintaining good health.

6th cusp corulers are Sa-Ra-Ju; Jupiter being bhadhaka lord of 4n7 in 1st house in star of Mars, lord 3n8th, is connected to chronic disease of 8th by Mars. Jupiter indicates cancer growth as a negative house lord of Virgo Ascendant. Saturn n Rahu as sign lord and star lord very well posited in 8th / 6th houses further intensify the disease. Now let us verify the karaka Moon who is in 12th house along with Kethu and again in Kethu star Makham has intensified the same. 4th cusp corulers are Ju-Ke-Sa, Jupiter is 6th CSL, Kethu in 12th along with Moon, Saturn as lord of 6n5 in 8th incurable disease. During Moon major period, Moon is connected with 12th and Kethu but Moon as lord of 11th as well as 5th cusp sublord without having any planet in its star and the sublord Mercury as lord of 1n10 in 3rd house had promised the longevity. Venus sub period is from 3/2004 – 11/2005 (in Nov. 2005), Venus is in star of Jupiter as 6th CSL for the disease to be detected in its early stage n operated and saved the patient from the problem. Medical Astrology - 3 - Breast Cancer

O V N Murthy

6th cusp corulers are Ve-Ra-Mo; sublord Moon being double karaka for breast and cancer disease is also sublord of 6th, as lord of 3 in 6th house itself, in star of Jupiter being lord of 8n11 in 3rd house, which is natural zodiac sign Cancer of both the cancer disease and breast, has strongly indicated the breast cancer. Other two planets Venus (sign lord) in Mars star as lord of 7n12 in Badhaka 9th and Rahu (star lord) in 6th house along with Saturn as lord of Badhaka 9th in Saturn's star itself. 4th cusp sublord Saturn in 6th house as lord of Badhaka 9th in conjunction with Rahu signifying Badhaka, Maraka and 6,8,12 strongly indicated the said disease. Mars as lord of 7n12 aspects Cancer Rasi, 4th house and lord of 4th Sun from Badhaka 9th and Saturn as lord of Badhaka 9th also aspects 4th house from 6th. During Kethu Dasa (Kethu in Mo-Ju) she suffered from the breast cancer and underwent operation. And Venus Dasa as soon as started gave death because Venus is lord of 1n6 in 1st and in star of Mars as lord of 7th and 12th (Maraka and Moksha) in 9th house which is Bhadhaka for a fixed ascendant Taurus. Venus' sublord Jupiter who is lord of 8n11 in 3rd Cancer Rasi indicated the demise. 1st CSL is also Venus indicating short life. Some like Cornell also take Venus as a ruler for breast.

Empirical Investigation of a new KP Rule on Political Elections Panama Presidential Election Dr Andrew Dutta

www.astroandrewkp.org

Introduction

Very recently we commemorated the birth centenary of the inventor of the Krishnamurti Paddhati (KP) late K. S. Krishnamurti. The technique of KP is now almost half a century old and is evolving as one of the most robust methods to offer astrological predictions. This is due to the fact that serious KP astrologers and researchers are putting in lots of effort to prune existing rules given in KP textbooks and also developing new rules that bear greater degrees of reliability and predictive validity. However, such activities are happening only at the individual level where personal passion and love for the science is the determinant.

In the last few issues of KP EZine, we witnessed the effort of the Editor Sri Kanak Bosmia in spelling out a new rule on political elections. It was mentioned that a political party or a political aspirant would get success 10th (One's position in politics) sublord signifies, 10 (One's Reputation), 3 (One's ability), 11 (One's reputation as a Winner) in the DBA of 3, 10, 11 then success is assured.

Therefore, this is an ex ante article written in order to find out how well the new rule apply to a variety of political situations. Since the article is ex ante, we will be able to see the results for ourselves and later analyze the findings for the good or worse for the new rule. I personally think this is the need of the hour for KP technique since we now need to find out newer and newer rules and constantly re-check them as far as possible.

Investigations

In order to find the efficacy of the new rule, a political event was chosen from the international arena. It was as follows:

Panama Presidential Elections- 3rd May 2009:

As per <http://www.morochos.net/2009/04/panama-presidential-election-may-3-2009.html>

"Panamanians will elect a new president on May 3, 2009. For this election the main competitors are Balbina Herrera, of the rulling Revolutionary Democratic Party, and Ricardo Martinelli, of the Democratic Change party. According to the latest opinion survey, Martinelli has 46% of the electorate, so he is the favorite to win. Balbina Herrera has 35% of popular support...."

Here we go by the statistical rule of selection by elimination. This we do by putting the KP Horary questions "Will Balbina Herrera win the presidential elections of Panama 2009?" at 3:03 pm on 24th April 2009 in 85 E 48 20 N 18 with KP Horary number of 80 generated randomly by the software using Geocentric Latitude correction and KP Old Ayanamsa.

The 10th cusp sublord was Saturn. Saturn was in 2nd house, owning house 7 and 8. Saturn was in the star of Venus and sub of Jupiter. Venus was posited in 8th house, Though Venus is the owner of the 11th house, it is also the owner of 4th house. 10th CSL signifies 11.

For opponent side:

The 10th cusp sublord was Saturn. Saturn was in 8th house, owning house 1 and 2. Saturn was in the star of Venus and sub of Jupiter. Venus was posited in 2 house, Though Venus is the owner of the 5 house, it is also the owner of 10 house. 10th CSL signifies 10.

We found that Balbina Herrera side looks stronger, but before we come to any conclusion, we have to check DBAS on 3/5/2009.

For Balbina Herrera side:

Ket is in 12, Ketu is in sign of Moon, Moon is in 9, lord of 1 in the star of Sat is in 2, Lord of 7-8, in the sub of Moon is in 9, Lord of 1. Ketu dasa does not signifies 3, 10, 11 at all. When dasa does not signify relevant bahavs Bhukti/Antra etc are not worthy to check.

For Martinelli Side:

Ket is in 6, Ketu is in sign of Moon, Moon is in 3, lord of 7 in the star of Sat is in 8, lord of 1-2, in the sub of Moon is in 3, lord of 7.

Dasa/Bhukti lord signifies 3= OK

Mer is in 4, lord of 6-9, in the star of Sun is in 3, lord of 8, in the sub of Rah is in 12. Rahu Conj with Jup. Jup is in 1, lord of 3-12.

Empirical Investigation of a new KP Rule on Political Elections Panama Presidential Election

Dr Andrew Dutta

Antralord Mer signifies 3= OK

Ven is in 2, lord of 5-10, in the star of Sat is in 8, lord of 1-2, in the sub of Mer is in 4, lord of 6-9.
Sookshma lord Ven signifies 10.

My Opinion:

After checking both side's DBAS I come to conclusion that Balbina Herrera will lost election and Ricardo Martinelli, definitely win this election.

What Will Happen to My Court Case?

Dr H S Nagi

Dr H S NAGI

9/43 Punjab Agricultural University,
LUDHIANA

Mobile - 94177-17910

A solicitor in UK was going through an enquiry against him. He posed me this question what will happen to him in the court. He furnished number 13 (1-249) for calculations.

I calculated on 21-4-2009 at 18-58-32 at Manchester (UK).

Rule

For court case and winning in any competition one has to check 6th cusp sub lord . it should signify 1 or 6 or 11 to win the case. And 5 or 7 or 12 to lose the case. Same thing should be checked for 11th cusp sub lord.

Checking 6th cusp sub lord

6th cusp falls in Sun sign , Venus star and Venus sub. Venus is posited in 12 (heavy expenditure), as lord of 2 and 7. Venus is in rapt conjunction with Mars, Mars is lord of 1 and 8.

Venus is in constellation of Saturn (R) in 6th house. Saturn is lord of 11th also.

Though retrogression of Saturn confused me but I positively but half heartedly said you will come out successful but have to pay penalty. Why I said this, because of involvement of 8 and 12, it shows heavy fine.

Checking 11th cusp sub lord

11th cusp sub lord is Mars in 12, as lord of 1 and 8. Again confirming loss of money.

Mars is in Saturn star. Saturn is in 6th house and lord of 11 also. So through star lord Mars gains signification Of 6th and 11th houses. Mars is in Mercury sub, Mercury is posited in 1, as lord of 3 and 4.

Result

The case was decided on 23-4-2009. Out of 21 allegations, the queerest came out successful in 20. In one case he was fined more than one lac pounds.

Editor's Note:

This is one more case showing that the event can materialize when the cuspal sub lord is a strong significator of the concerned houses although the cuspal sub lord is deposited in the star of retrograde planet as said by C.R. Bhatt in his Prashna Jyotish.

Return of Missing Girl

On 12 February 2009, the worried father of a girl came to me to ask when his daughter will come back home. His daughter was missing since 31 January 2009. The horary number given by the father is 45.

Date of judgment: 12/2/2009

Time of judgment: 19:50:20

Place of judgment: GOMTIPUR- AHMEDABAD

Long/Lat: 72 E 37, 23 N 01

As per Gujarati Book of Chandrakant Bhatt "Prashna Jyotish" part 2 page 73 or Nakshatra Chintamani page 150, if 11th cuspal sublord signifies 2 (12th from 3rd), 8 (12th from 9th), 11 (12th from 12th), a person comes back home during the joint period of 2,8,11.

11th CSL is Jup, and Jup is in the star of Moon and sub of own.

Jup is in 8, lord of 7-8-11, no planet is in the star of Jup and Jup is sublord of 5,11,12.

Moon is in 4, lord of 3.

11th CSL signifies 8,11 strongly.

RPs :Asc: Sun,Ven, Rahu,

Moon: Mer, Sun,Ven

Day lord: Jup

Running Dasa Period lords are Su-Ve-Sa-Su.

Su(9, 4) is in the star of Ma(8, 6), in the sub of Me+(8, 1-2-5).

Dasa lord Su signifies 2,8 and is also among RPs.

Ve(10, 12) is in the star of Sa(4, 9-10), in the sub of Ra+(8). Rahu Conj with Mar, Mer, Jup.

Ma(8, 6), Me+(8, 1-2-5), Ju+(8, 7-8-11),

Bhukti lord Ve signifies 2,8,11 and is also among RPs.

Sa(4, 9-10) is in the star of Ve(10, 12), in the sub of Ke+(2).

But Antra lord Sat is not among RPs, and so I check for next Antra of Me.

Me+(8, 1-2-5) is in the star of Su(9, 4), in the sub of Sa(4, 9-10).

Me signifies 2,8 and is also among RPs.

During this Me Antra we have 9 Sookshmas but among RPs we have Sun and Ven as very strong RPs. As discussed above about Sun and Ven, Ven comes first and so I select Ven Sookshma, from 20/3/2009 to 29/3/2009.

Actually she returned home on 22/3/2009 as I predicted.

Note:- As Father asked the question very eagerly, I do not rotate lagna for his daughter, as suggested by Kanakbhai Bosmia. It comes out the same house grouping of 2 (family), 8 (4 to 5) and 11 (reunion) as in the case of missing son coming back home in KP Reader VI page 310.

Kanak Bosmia, KP Astrologer / Editor KPEzine, Sahakar-2, Flat No: 28,

kanakbosmia@yahoo.com , www.kpastrologer.com

BJP leader Sri Lalkrishna Advani and Sri Murali Manohar Joshi filed their nominations today i.e.8/4/2009. News appeared on TVs and the announcer discussed about Special Time of Nomination 12.39 p.m. i.e. Abhijit Muhurat. I had discussed a similar case of Sri Kumarswamy Govt.(Karnataka) in my KP Muhurat Book.

First Case : Sri Lalkrishna Advani

Date 8/4/2009

Time: 12.50.38 (as show on TV Clock)

Place Gandhinagar- Gujarat

Long/lat; 23 N 13, 72 E 41

I) Popularity/success in politics

- A) Asc sublord should signify 1,5,9,11 for long life of event. (If you select Sthir swabhav lagna (fixed Sign) do not consider 9th)
- B) 9th sublord should signify 9,10,11,2,6. Sublord should be Sat or Mar.
- C) 10th sublord should signify 9,10,11,2,6. Sublord should be Sat or Mar.
- D) 11th sublord should signify 9,10,11,2,6
- E) Do not select Chara Lagna (Moveable Sign).
- F) Dasa and Bhukti should signify 9,10,11,2,6.

- I Asc sublord should signify 1,5,9,11 for long life of event. (If you select Sthir swabhav lagna (fixed Sign) do not consider 9th)

Asc sublord is Rahu. Rahu is in the star of Moon and own sub.

Ra+(7) No planet in the star of Rahu and Rahu is sublord of 1,11 Cusp., Rahu is Conj with Jup , Ju(8, 6-10), in the star of Moon (3, 1-2), Lagna is karka so badhaka is 11th, Asc sublord Rahu Signifies 7 Maraka, 11 Badhaka, 2 Maraka. It show us short life of event.

- 2 9th sublord should signify 9,10,11,2,6. Sublord should be Sat or Mar.

9th Sublord is Mer. Mer is in the star of Ketu and sub of Sun.

Me(10, 4-12), in the star of Ke(1), Ketu is in Moon Sign, Moon is in 3 lord of 1-2. in the sub of Su(10,

- 3 9th Sublord signifies 10,2.

10th sublord should signify 9,10,11,2,6. Sublord should be Sat or Mar.

10th Sublord is Jup. Jup is in the star of Mar and sub of Own.

Ju(8, 6-10), in the star of Ma(9, 5), in the sub of Ju(8, 6-10).

- 4 10th Sublord Jup signifies 6,9,10.

11th sublord should signify 9,10,11,2,6

11th sublord is Rahu. Rahu is in the star of Moon and own sub.

Ra+(7) No planet in the star of Rahu and Rahu is sublord of 1,11 Cusp., Rahu is Conj with Jup , Ju(8, 6-10), in the star of Moon (3, 1-2),

- 5 11th sublord Rahu Signifies 11,6,10,2

All sublords signify good for political carrier but life of event is very short so I like to predict Advani will file again his nomination after very short time of election, in other words, this time we face election again very soon.

L.K.Advani

Second Case: Sri Murli Manohar Joshi.

Date 8/4/2009

Time: 12.39.00

Place: Varanasi

Long/Lat; 25 N 20, 83 E 00

Other situation indicate good but life of event is short, so I like to predict he will file again his nomination after very short time of election, in other word this time we face election again very shortly.

Also as mentioned on TV about Abhijit Muhuraat, I clearly mentioned in my Book page no: 115

“The main point in this chart is lagna is Mesha, according to me “Never select Chara lagna in KP Muhurat chart”. Also when we select Abhijit muhurat or Sun in 10th, approximately 13th January to 13th Feb or 13th May to 13th June or 13th July to 13th August or 13th October to 13th November, we get Chara lagna as Asc. So during these months or when Sun is in Chara Rasi MESHA, KARKA, TULA AND MAKAR does not select Abhijit Muhurat as per KP. Because at the same time we get Chara lagna. In any chart we found same Swabhava (Nature) in Kendra, so when we select SUN in char rasi in 10 (Kendra) we found lagna is also Chara.”

Finally I observe from above two charts, that Indian public will have to be ready for another National Election within a short span of Time.

KP for Beginners - Part 12 - How to Read a Natal Chart? Tin Win

Tin Win
tw853@yahoo.com

Step 1: Casting a KP Natal Chart

1.1. Birth Time Rectification

1. Unless the querent raises specific doubts in his or her birth time, it is not to correct the birth time unnecessarily. Only because our predictions fail often, it is not reasonable to jump to the conclusion that the birth time is wrong. This is not advisable to change the horoscopes frequently by changing Subs of certain houses according to one's whims and fancies. (K. Baskaran: Secrets of R.P. & The Birth Time, 1999)

2. Reliability of so many BTR methods is not yet supported by sufficient evidence and birth time itself is inconclusive whether to take the moment when the whole body of child has got separated from the womb of the mother (KP Reader VI) or the time of first breath or first cry (Astro secrets Part I). In the RPs based BTR methods, the changing RPs depending on time, place and astrologer and urge may not always be helpful to everybody. BTR is therefore to be done carefully and responsibly.

1.2. Settings in Casting a KP Natal Chart

3. Cast a KP Natal chart using the following settings:

- 1) KP Ayanamsa (preferably KP New Ayanamsa of 2003),
- 2) Placidus house system,
- 3) Mean Node,
- 4) True positions of other planets,
- 5) 365 d/y Vimshottari dasa,
- 6) Geographic latitude of place of birth,
- 7) Orb of 3.333 degrees is applicable, if a planet posited close to next cusp within this orb is to give the result of the next house as found by experience of Guruji KSK and other astrologers.

4. There is not any significant difference between the KP Old and New Ayanamsas. The KP New Ayanamsa gives a formula for calculating the ayanamsa value correct to seconds, and for any date in the year. The old KPA was presumed to be constant for the full calendar year. The Straight Line Ayanamsa is very close to Lahiri Ayanamsa value, which is different around 5-6 minutes from KP Ayanamsa. Mostly used Placidus house and Vimshottari dasa systems are two of three pillars of KP. 365 d/y Vimshottari dasa has been used with success by almost all capable astrologers of both KP and Vedic. True Node is true for only two days in a month. The angle, which determines the Ascendant, is much more accurately given by Geographic latitude than by Geocentric latitude. (N Blunsdon in Recent Advances in Natal Astrology by Geoffrey Dean) The expectation of better accuracy by using Geocentric latitude is not yet supported by sufficient evidence. Except in the border line cases, the commonly used astrological SWs generally give the same planetary and cuspal star and sub lords, which are mainly based for KP analysis.

Step 2: Obtaining KP Significators

5. Obtain the KP significators of grade A, B, C and D from the computer print out or by self observation. The grade E significators by conjunction and aspect of grade A, B, C, D significators are weak and can be used as a last resort. In the case of Node, besides its signification by occupation and its star lord's occupation and lordship of houses as shown in the computer print out, the signification of the conjoined, aspecting and sign lord planets by occupation and lordship of houses is also to be considered as relevant. From those planet wise significators, the house wise significators can be easily derived.

Step 3: Judging Whether a Matter is Promised

6. Check the cuspal sub lord of the concerned house whether the matter under query is promised or not, for marriage whether 7CSL signifies 2 or 7 or 11 house, for foreign going whether 12CSL signifies any or more than one of 3, 9, 12 houses. (KP House Grouping: Part 1 to 5 in KPE-zine Oct 2007 to Feb 2008) It is here to consider the signification at the CSL planet level, its star level and sub level by their occupation and lordship of houses. As long as any of the required houses (2,7,11 for marriage) is signified even along with negative houses (1,6,10,12 for marriage), a matter (marriage) is assumed to be promised. Only if the concerned (7th) cuspal sub lord is connected to the totally negative houses (1,6,10,12) only, then the matter (marriage) is not promised.

KP for Beginners - Part 12 - How to Read a Natal Chart?

Tin Win

Step 4: Selection of Fruitful Significators

7. Out of the significators mentioned in step 2, select the fruitful significators as follows:

- 1) Significators which are common with the Ruling Planets,
- 2) Significators which are posited in the stars of the cuspal sub lords of required houses for a matter under consideration, 2,7,11 for marriage,
- 3) Significators which are the cuspal sub lords of the required houses,
- 4) Significators of planets without having any planet in their stars, which are strongest to give the results of the houses by being the sub lord to them. (Golden Rule: Take the planets which are posited in the sub of the significators whose constellations are not tenanted),
- 5) Significators appearing many times amongst the Ruling Planets and significators.

8. Ruling Planets or other methods of selecting fruitful significators can to be used in fixing timing of event by DBAS.

Step 5: Timing of Event

9. Only when an event is promised, to find the time of materialization of an event, select the conjoined period (DBAS) of the selected fruitful significators when the transit agrees. Starting from the current running dasa period, it is a step by step check of DBAS to get a conjoined period which allows the event at all dasa level and then the transit check. The effect of Punarphoo and Saturn is also to be considered in fixing the timing of event. In practice some events take place without signification of required houses at all dasa levels of DBAS. This is a main reason of failure of our predictions. Without signification of required houses at the supreme Dasa level, the event cannot materialize but it can happen without signification at Bhukti or Antra level, if the required houses are signified at the Dasa level. Here an issue for research is how some events have taken place without signification of required houses at the supreme Dasa level.

10. One reason of marriage denial is that Dasa lords are unfavorable for marriage during the marriageable period of the native although marriage is promised. Fulfillment of both promise and dasa is crucial. Without having birth potential to have a high status (as per Ascendant strength mentioned by P.M. Shanmugham in Astrosecrets & KP Part I and applied for Narendra Modi in KPE-zine Feb 2008), one cannot become a PM by mere running of a favorable dasa period.

Step 6: Transit Check

11. Whether the transit agrees with the selected DBAS is to be checked by looking at whether Sun, Mon and/or the joint period rulers (DBAS lords) are transiting in the star or sub of the same joint period rulers.

12. Further, to arrive at closer timing of an event, fine tuning of planetary transits is to be done as follows:

- 1) If an event is likely to take place within a few hours, move the Ascendant to the sensitive zone of zodiac, i.e., sign lord, star lord and sub lord governed by each of the selected fruitful significators, for instance for running conjoined period of Ven-Moo-Mer DBA, refer Venus sign, Moon star, Mercury sub or Moon sign, Mercury star, Venus sub or Mercury sign, Moon star, Venus sub; or
- 2) If the event is expected to happen within some days, move the Moon to such a sensitive zone; or
- 3) If it is to take place in some months, move the Sun; or
- 4) If it is to happen in some years, Jupiter should be moved to find out the time of event.

Om Gajaananam Namamhyam

During the KP Astrologers Forum's fortnightly meeting conducted on 24-May-2009 chaired by Sri Rajendra Nimje, IAS, Charts on Medical Astrology were taken up. Six natal charts regarding Eye Diseases were discussed in detail. Two charts are related to defective vision, two charts are related to congenital defect where blind by birth and one chart each is loss of vision because of accident/ blurred vision.

In medical astrology, 2nd house governs right eye and 12th house indicates left eye of the native. Sun is karaka for the right eye for male and left eye for female, and Moon for left eye for male and right eye for female. In natural Zodiac, Taurus rules right eye and Pisces left eye and vision is controlled by Venus. When 2nd /12th house or Taurus /Pisces and planets Sun, Moon, Venus are afflicted and connected to evil houses 6-disease, 8-chronic, 12-hospitalisation would lead to eye diseases. Planets Mars & Rahu connection would lead to defects in the vision. ("Medical Astrology for All" by Sri K Subramaniam S/o Sri KSK Guruji)

Chart 1 – Sri Appalla, (Right Vision)

(DOB: 21.06.1969, TOB: 23:30:00, POB: Visakhapatnam, AP, Lat.17.42N, Long.83.22E KPNA 23-20-26, Saturday, Birth Star: Pubba-3, Rasi: Leo, Asc. Aqua 27-58-15).

The native suffered defective vision in the right eye due to optic nerve problem. He underwent an operation during DBA Ra-Sa-Ve (20/5/2006 – 11/11/2006). After the operation he lost total sight of the right eye. Analysis of 2nd sub lord Moon (karaka for Right Eye for Male) etc and DBA Ra-Sa-Ve that impaired the vision of Right Eye permanently is given in the table below.

(DOB: 14.09.1967, TOB: 12:25:00, POB: Secunderabad, AP, Lat.17.27N, Long.78.30E KPNA 23-18-57, Thursday, Birth Star: Uttarashada-4, Rasi: Cap, Asc. Sco 24-53-27).

The native is suffering with Right Eye vision it needs lot of effort for visualizing the object. Analysis of karakas for Left Eye for Male and Dasa lord Jupiter indicating the vision problem during burning of Retina partially by viewing Solar Eclipse. See the role of Mars in 12th damaging the vision through burning of Retina in a peculiar situation is provided as under.

Empirical Investigation of a new KP Rule on Political Elections - Lithuania

Dr Andrew Dutta (Sri Indrajit)
www.astroandrewkp.org

Introduction

In the May issue of KP EZine, the article titled “Empirical Investigation of a new KP Rule on Political Elections” predicted with the help of a new KP rules enunciated by the Editor of this magazine that Balbina Herrera will not win the Presidential Elections of Panama. This prediction turned out to be true, giving an impetus to try out more such predictions using the same rule. For the benefit of readers, the rule developed by Shri Kanak Bosmia ji is provided once again: a political party or a political aspirant would get success if 10th (One’s position in politics) cusp sublord signifies, 10 (One’s Reputation), 3 (One’s ability), 11 (One’s reputation as a Winner) in the DBA of 3, 10, 11.

Investigations

It is available over the internet that a presidential election will be held in Lithuania on 17 May 2009, with a run-off to be held on 7 June 2009 if necessary. European Commissioner Dalia Grybauskaitė is by far the most popular candidate, with almost three quarters of the voters in favor of electing her. According to the opinion polls Dalia Grybauskaitė is an undisputed leader in the race for the President. So, we can apply the new KP rule for the KP Prashna “Will Dalia Grybauskaitė win the presidential elections 2009 of Lithuania?”

This Prashna was analyzed at 3:21 pm on 7 May 2009 in KHANDGIRI 20N16 and 85E47 with Geocentric Lat correction and KPNA after drawing a random horary number (24/249) from the software.

During analysis, Moon was in the 6th house indicating that the time was ripe to undertake this horary. The 10th cusp sublord is Mercury®. Mercury is in 1st house, owner of empty 3rd and 6th house. Mercury is in Sun star, Venus sub. Sun is the owner of 5th house and posited in 12th. Venus is in 11th house, owner of 1st and 2nd. 10th CSL signifies 3, 11.

During the time of election, the DBAS will be that of Mar-Ket-Jup-Rah.

Dasa lord Mars is in the star and sub of Mer®. Mar is in 11 lord of 7,8. Mer® is in 1 lord of 3,6. Dasa lord Mars signifies 3, 11.

Bhukti lord is Ketu. Ketu is in the star Sat® and sub of Sun. Ketu is in 3, Ketu is in the sign of Moon, Moon is in 6 lord of 4. Saturn® is in 5th being the owner of 10th and 11th. Sun is the owner of 5th house and posited in 12th. Bhukti lord Ketu signifies 3, 10 and 11, all relevant Bhavas.

Antra lord is Jup, Jup is in the star of Mar and sub of Mer.

Jup is in 10, lord of 9,12, Mar is in 11 lord of 7,8. Mer® is in 1 lord of 3,6. Antra lord Jup signifies 3,10,11, all relevant Bhavas.

Sookshma lord is Rahu. Rahu is in the star and sub of Moon.

Rah is in 9, Rahu is in the sign of Saturn® which is in 5th being the owner of 10th and 11th, Moon is in 6 lord of 4. Sookshma nath Rahu signifies 10,11.

My opinion:

So, Dalia Grybauskaitė will win the Presidential Elections in Lithuania in 2009.

Remark: It is interesting to watch the role of retrograde planets in this case as dasa nath Mars is in the star and sub of retro planet Mer, Bhukti nath Ketu is in the star of retro planet Sat and Antra nath Jup is in the Sub of retro planet Mer.

On page 213 of KP Reader Six (Horary Astrology) it is written:

“What is lottery? It is a gain without pain, bringing casual income. Such an attempt will be made during a period of a planet connected to third house. Counted from ascendant third house indicates lottery. The query may be for the querist himself or for some relative of friend. If the query is for himself, make all calculations from the ascendant. If it is from younger brother or sister, take third house from ascendant as the ascendant from the younger brother or sister. If it relates to mother, take fourth house. To son or daughter take fifth, to wife or partner take seventh. To father take ninth, to elder brother or sister take 11th and find out.

To know whether one will win at all, judge the 11th cusp and find out whether the sub lord of the 11th cusp is either retrograde or deposited in a constellation whose lord is retrograde. If either is retrograde one cannot win. If sub lord of 11th cusp and its star lord are in direct motion and if sub lord of eleventh cusp is also a significator of 2 or 6 or 11, then one will win.”

The querent asks me whether she can win the lottery.

Horary number- 43

Place- Manchester

Date- 8-5-2009, Time -18-38 BST

Analysis

The 11th cusp falls at 22-11 in Aquarius.

It is Saturn sign, Jupiter star and Saturn sub.

Sub lord of 11th cusp is Saturn which is retrograde.

The rule or condition is not fulfilled.

Result is NO.

Actual Result- she does not win.

Remark: It is a case of retrograde effect in Horary and not fulfilling another necessary condition that 11th cusp sub lord is connected with 3 of lottery. (KP Reader Six page 214; Dr. K.R. Kar on page 71 of K.P. & Astrology 1996).

Will I Pass My Driving Test?

Dr H S Nagi

In Manchester, during one TV Live show, my presenter asked me this question, whether I'll pass my driving test. To get driving licence, one must pass the written test first and then next step is the driving test. This part is more difficult, it makes the person more tense, because in some countries one has to deposit hefty amount of money as fee, if one fails in that means losing the money. One can avail as many chances as one wishes. But one has to book the test first paying fee of 31 pounds for theory test and 62 or 75 pounds for practical driving test in UK. In US only license fee of $ 45 for most drivers in Maryland state is charged after passing the test. My presenter told me that she already failed in the test. Now it is her repeated attempt.

This type of question is mostly asked in abroad. And in KP for driving test no rule has yet formulated. So it was matter of confusion for me to apply any rule. So I decided to follow rules for getting ticket or certificate to get the driving license. Because driving license is a permit given to you to drive a vehicle in the form of licence. So third and eleventh are the most relevant houses. I applied the following rules.

- 1- Whether one has the courage to appear for the driving test?
For this judge the third house. If the sub lord of the third cusp is Moon, one does not take bold decision and try to adjust in the present circumstances.
If it is Saturn one lacks confidence and will be very cautious, if Mercury the native will be in two minds.
Planets – Sun- Mars – Jupiter and Venus, gives courage and confidence to appear for the driving test
- 2- Whether one will pass through and get driving license?

Check the third cusp sub lord. If third cusp sub lord signifies 3 or 6 or 11 house, and 11th cusp sub lord signifies 3 or 6 or 11 house in any manner, then one will get the driving license.

Example chart

Horary number given between 1 – 249 is 10. Date- 28-04 2009, time - 10 – 08 am, place Manchester.

Whether one has courage ?

Checking 3rd cusp sub lord. It is Venus. So she has courage and confidence to appear for the driving test. Signification of 6, 11 by 3rd cusp sub lord also indicates that she is bold enough to take the test.

Whether she will able to get driving license ?

Check the 3rd cusp sub lord. It is Venus. Venus is posited in the star of Saturn. Saturn is lord of 11 house and posited in 6. In this manner sub lord of 3rd cusp Venus is connected to 6 and 11 houses.

The second condition is to check 11th cusp sub lord. If it is connected to 3, 6 or 11 house, then one will be able to get driving license or any document.

11th cusp sub lord is Venus. Venus is in Saturn star. Saturn is in 6 and lord of 11. In this manner, Venus is also connected to 6 and 11 houses.

The test was on 5th of May. On that day Moon was in Sun star. And in the horary chart Sun is a significator of 1 and 6 by occupation and lordship respectively.

Result- She passed driving test.

Editor's Note: Although 3rd and 11th CSL Ven is in the star of retro Sat the result came out favourable.

On 11 October 2008 at 17:50 PM at Ahmadabad, the younger brother asked me when his elder brother would recover from bad health, giving the following birth details.

Date of Birth: 31/05/1942

Time of Birth: 4:45 AM

Birth of place: DHRANGADHRA- Gujarat-India

Long/Lat: 23 N 00, 71 E 28

At the time of query Rahu dasa and Venus Bhukti were running.

Dasa lord Rahu is in Venus star and Sun sub. Rah is in 5, Virgo sign of Sun. Sun is in 1, lord of 5. Venus is in 12 (Moksha), lord of 2 (Maraka), 7 (Makara). 2, 7, 11 are death inflicting houses and 1, 5 are recovery or saving houses for health.

Venus Bhukti was running up to 12 May 2011.

Ven is in Ketu star and Moon sub. Ven is in 12 (Moksha, bed ridden sickness), lord of 2 (Maraka), 7 (Badhaka). Ket is in 11 (Badhaka). Moon is in 8 (serious illness, danger to life), lord of 4 (end of everything). Venus Bhukti is fully bad for longevity.

Sun Antra run would be running from 11/11/2008 to 5/1/2009.

Sun is in Moon star and Saturn sub. Sun is in 1, lord of 5. Moon is in 8, lord of 4. Sat is in 1, lord of 10 (retirement from this world), 11 (Badhaka). No planet is in the star of Sat and Sat is sub lord of 6 (illness), 11 (Badhaka).

Danger to his life is found during Rah-Ven-Sun DBA and so his longevity is checked.

In his horoscope, Ascendant sub lord is Mercury. Mer is in the star of Mar and sub of Ven. Mer is in 2 (Maraka), lord of 3, 6. Mars is in 3, lord of 1, 8. Venus is in 12, lord of 2 (Maraka), 7 (Makara). Asc. sublord signifies 6, 8, 12, Maraka but not Badhaka along with 1, 3, 8. Hence the longevity of the querent's elder brother is found to be middle life (up to 66 Years) as per the longevity rules given below: If the Asc. sub lord signifies:

- a) 6, 8 or 12 and Maraka, Badhaka houses, a short life (up to 33 years),
- b) 1, 5, 9, 10 houses, a middle life (up to 66 years),
- c) 1, 5, 9, 10 along with 3, 8 houses, a long life (beyond 66 years).

Moreover, in the horoscope 6th cusp sub lord is Saturn. Sat is in the star of Sun and sub of Ven. Life threatening Venus Bhukti and Sun Antra would be running.

So danger to his life was predicted during the period of 11/11/2008 to 5/1/2009 (Rah-Ven-Sun DBA).

Actual outcome:

He passed away on 2/1/2009. On that day Sookshma lord was Ven, which is very bad for longevity as discussed above.

Short History

Presidential elections will be held in Iran on June 12th 2009. It will be the 10th presidential election to be held in the country. The current incumbent is Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, who is running for re-election. The Iranian reform movement has attempted to unite behind a single candidate. Former President Mohammad Khatami had been the leading candidate until he left the race and endorsed Former Prime Minister Mir-Hossein Mousavi. Former Speaker of the Majlis Mehdi Karroubi, another Reformist, also intends to run:

Horary Details

Horary No: 240/249

Horary date: 4/5/2009

Horary time: 13:53:14 IST

Horary Place: KANKARIYA- AHMEDABAD (23 N 00, 72 E 36)

As per my Rule:

Rule:

If 10th (one's position in politics) cusp sublord signifies 10 (one's Reputation), 3 (one's ability), 11 (one's reputation as a winner) in the DBA of 3, 10, 11, then success is assured.

Analysis:

10th CSL is Mer, in the star of Sun and sub of Ketu.

Mer is in 2 lord of 4,7. No planet is in the star of Mer and Mer is CSL of 9,10. Sun is in 2 lord of 6. Ketu is in 5, no planet is in the star of Ketu and Ketu is CSL of 5,11. Ketu is in Moon sign, Moon is in 6 lord of 5.

10th CSL signifies 10 (one's reputation), 11 (one's reputation as a winner),

For opponent:

10th CSL is Sat, in the star of Ven and sub of Jup.

Sat is in 12 lord of 5,6. Ven is in 6 lord of 2,9. Jup is in 5 lord of 4,7. No planet is in the star of Jup and Jup is CSL of 1,7.

Opponent's 10th CSL does not signify 3,10,11 at all and so it does not need to check DBAS.

My opinion:

Mr. Mahmoud Ahmadinejad will be the winner of 10th presidential elections.

OM GAN GANAPATAYE NAMAH

Krishnamurti Paddhati has nowadays found its utility in almost every aspect of life whether it is marriage, child birth, job or for such matter when the bus will arrive, when someone will receive letter etc. I as a follower of KP principles use it for any type of query whether it is related to me or not. Cricket is religion in our country and cricketers are treated with utmost love and affection by the people of this country. Last year i.e. Dec 2008 England was playing against India at Chennai. England set a huge target of about 387 runs in last innings. Pitch was deteriorating and it looked that England would win the Test Match against India. So I took help of KP principles in predicting which team would win.

The horary chart was calculated taking the horary no 214 on 14 Dec 2008 at 19:34 hrs IST at Nakshatra Jyotish Sansthan, Bhopal, Lat 23:16 N, Long 77:27 E. Of course I am not part of Indian cricket team but if the Ascendant sublord and Moon signify the relevant houses, then I can proceed with my analysis. I follow this rule on most cases whenever possible.

RULES

- 1 To win in competition the 6th sublord or 1st sublord must signify 1st, 6th and 11th house.
- 2 For opposition, 7th and 12th house must signify 7th, 12th and 5th house because 1st, 6th and 11th house from the 7th house are 7th, 12th and 5th from the Ascendant.
- 3 Ruling Planets must also be considered to decide the winner. RPs must also signify either 1st 6th and 11th or 7th, 12th and 5th house.
- 4 If Ruling Planets are not connected to 1,6,11 or 7,12,5 then a draw is expected.

Analysis

First of all we need to check whether the query is reflected in the chart through Moon or Ascendant sublord i.e. Moon must signify the relevant house such as 1,6,11 or 7,12,5. Moon is a strong significator of 5,6,11 as it is in 5, lord of 6 and in the star of Jupiter in 11, lord of 2,11. Also looking at the Ascendant sublord Jupiter in 11, lord of 2,11, in the star of Sun in 10, lord of 7, it also supports the query and further analysis is given below.

Sublord of 6th house Mercury is in 10, lord of 5,8. Mercury is in the star of Ketu in 6, aspected by Jupiter in 11 and in the sub of Saturn in 7, lord of 1,12. No planet is in the star of Saturn and Saturn as a sublord of 11th house is a lone significator of 1st house. So 6th CSL signifies all required houses 1,6 and 11.

Ascendant (overall status of performance) sublord Jupiter in 11, lord of 2,11. It is in the star of Sun in 10, lord of 7 and in the sub of Rahu in 12 but conjoined by 11th significator Jupiter and its signlord Saturn is in 7, lord of 1,12. So Ascendant sublord also signifies required 1, 11.

Hence it strongly reflects Indian win and let us see from the opponent side as follows.

7th CSL Jupiter in 11, lord of 2,11 is in the star of Sun in 10, lord of 7 and in the sub of Rahu in 12 conjoined by Venus in 12 and Jupiter in 11 and its signlord Saturn is in 7, lord of 1,12. 7th CSL signifies relevant 7, 12.

12th CSL Ketu is 6, aspected by Jupiter in 11. Ketu is in the star and sub of Mercury in 10, lord of 5,8. 12th CSL signifies relevant 5.

Now we check the Ruling Planets at the time of judgment as give under.

	Sign Lord	Star Lord	Sublord
Lagna- Mithun	Mercury	Jupiter	Ketu
Moon - Mithun	Mercury	Jupiter	Ketu
Daylord – Sun

Looking at the Ruling Planets one can easily determine that it is strongly supporting the 1,6 and 11th house significations. Hence I arrived at conclusion that India would win the Test Match, which it did with Sachin Tendulkar scoring a century in 2nd innings.

My prayers to Shri Ucchishtha Mahaganapati and KS Krishnamurtiji.

Is Srilankan Government's Statement about Prabhakaran's Death is True? Anurodhkumar

Rules: KP Readers-6 Page 171

"We have to find out the sublord of the third cusp; note in which constellation the sublord is deposited. If the sublord of the constellation in which the sub lord is deposited happen to be Saturn, the report is false: But it is Mars tyen it is mischievous and false. If it is Jupiter, it is true:and if the lord happens to be any planet connected with saturn in any manner, the report is false; but connected with Jupiter, the report will be correct. This is the way to find out whether a rumour is belivable or not."

In this horary chart 3rd cusp s/l is Jup.

1. Jup in the star of Mars and sub of Ketu = Jup shows truth factor in the statement.

2. Jup being in Mars star and Ketu sub (Ketu is also aspected by Mars)= False-hood is there in the statement.

3. Jup = truth and Mars = falsehood => Facts are twisted for making them suit to the situation.

4. Jup is on the sign of Saturn which is again in the sub of Jup = Truth factor is there but mixed with false-hood.

Conclusion:

Srilankan govt.'s claim about Prabhakaran's death is true.

Facts presented to the world are twisted for her own advantage.

Velupillai Prabhakaran, who led a ruthless struggle for nearly three decades for a separate Tamil Eelam in Sri Lanka, was killed in last week's final battle in the northern region, the LTTE admitted for the first time on Sunday. <http://news.rediff.com/report/2009/may/24/ltte-admit-prabhakaran-is-dead.htm>

Pranam,

Dear Shri Kanak Bosmia Ji,

Men may come and men may go.
Among them some do goods, some do bads;
Some do best, some do worst;
Some look back; some do not.
When look back some have to see something good
Some have nothing to see.

If a man do something, which shines like the Sun and Moon, He is the man of immortal, As all the by passers may have an undimmed path to make their journey to success, with the light of the good deeds of him.

You are in the category of BEST, as You have made the feat of your own, with feasibility study - for those , who thirst of KP System.

Dear sir,

I am extremely happy to read eBook of KP NAVARATNA-MALA-1. It is an exhaustive work and a fitting service to the society and the noble astro-science contributing to the precise predictions in KP astrology. Our revered Guruji's blessings will be showered on you selfless people and I wish you long and healthy life to enable you serve the KP followers and the society at large. If I may point out, the mala is short of Ragu and Ketu regarding the planetary karakatwas. May be some notes on the peculiar characteristics of these two with regard to signs and bhavas could have made it more complete?

Dear Kankbhai

Thanks for your service in astrology. Will you please give details of " theory of short prediction" by shri Kar In your e-zine ?

Drar Shri Kanakji,

This refers to the Readers'View in which Shri K.S.Naath has questioned about your prediction about Ms.Mayawathi's becoming PM. There is nothing wrong in analysis thro' KP
Muhurat. In Sept. 2008, there were 2 more strong candidates
(1) Dr.Manmohan Singh & (2) Shri L.K.Advani for the post of PM. If the question is "who will win the post of PM" perhaps the result would be different, as it involves competition between the 3 and the person who has his/her 6th Bhavam strong could have emerge in the KP Muhurat analysis. In this case you have analysed only about Ms.Mayawathi and not her

I. Foreign Going Rule

I.1. Basic Foreign Going Rule

1. One can go foreign only if the sub lord of the 12th cusp is connected in any manner with house 3 (change of residence) or 9 (long distance travel) or 12 (life in an altogether new environment and separation from family), preferably house 9 during the DBA signifying 3,9,12 when transit agrees.

2. The above basic rule of foreign going is found applied with success in examples of the following references.

- 1) KP Reader III p 321 (Old Edition, Practical Part p 155)
- 2) KP Reader VI pp 264, 301
- 3) CR Bhatt: Nahshatra Chinyamani pp 96, 144

- 18) R Gopal: KP & Astrology 2005 p 21
- 19) TS Bisht: KP & Astrology 1997 p 25

3. This rule is also found valid for almost all charts with only one exception in the study of 100 foreign settlement charts ie. the 12th cusp sub lord is connected with any of house 3, 9 and 12.

I.2. Getting Passport, Visa, Green Card

4. If 3rd and 11th cusp sub lords signify 3,9,11,12, one can get passport, visa, green card or permanent resident card to go foreign during the DBA signifying 3,9,11,12. (KP Reader VI pp 320-1; Further Lights on Nakshatra Chintamani pp 86, 95) If the querent has already been abroad for several years, houses 4,11 in place of 3,12 are to be considered to stay on there.

5. If 1st and 11th cusp sub lords signify 1,11, then one can get green card during the DBA signifying 1,11. (Kanak Bosmia: K.P. Muhurat p 149)

I.2. Purpose-wise Foreign Going Rules

I.2.1. Foreign Job Rule

6. If 12th cusp sub lord signifies 3,9,12,6 (service) or 7 (business) or 10 (profession), one can go foreign for job or business or assignment during the DBA signifying 3,9,12,6 or 7 or 10 when transit agrees. (KP Reader VI p 301)

7. If 9th, 6th and 11th cusp sub lords signify 6,9,12, then one can go abroad for business during the DBA signifying 6,9,12. (K.P. Muhurat p 123)

I.2.2. Foreign Higher Study Rule

8. If 12th cusp sub lord signifies 3,9,12,6,11, one can go foreign for higher study during the DBA signifying 3,9,12,6,11. If 11th cusp sub lord is connected with the house 9, success is promised. [KP Reader III p 319-21 (Old Edition Practical Part pp 153-5; KP Reader VI pp 263, 266, 272)]

9. If 5th, 8th and 11th cusp sub lords signify 5,8,11, then one can go abroad for higher study during DBA signifying 5,9,11. (K.P. Muhurat p 107)

10. If 5th cusp sub lord signifies 9 or 12 without 3, one can go foreign for higher study. (Kanak Bosmia)

I.2.3. Foreign Marriage Rule

11. If 12th cusp sub lord signifies 3,9,12 and 7th cusp sub lord signifies 2,7,11, one can go foreign for marriage during the DBA signifying 3,9,12, along with 2,7,11. (Further Lighth of Nahshatra Chinyamani pp 144-5)

12. If 6th, 3rd and 11th cusp sub lords signify 3,6,9, then one can go abroad for marriage during the DBA signifying 3,6,9. (K.P. Muhurat pp 98, 150)

II. Foreign Settlement Rule

13. One can settle abroad if:

- 1) 12th cusp sub lord signifies house 9,3,12;
- 2) 1st cusp sub lord also signifies house 9,3,12;
- 3) house 3,9,12 are connected to each other for better possibility.

14. The above rule, based on the approach of N. Santhanalingam (N. Pandu) in KP & Astrology pp 39-41, is found valid in more than two-third of 100 surveyed charts of foreign settlement.

15. If 1st and 12th cusp sub lords signify 9,3,12, one can settle in foreign during the DBA signifying 9,3,12. (K.P. Muhurat p 77)

16. The location of 12th cusp or 12th cusp sub lord in Fixed or Movable or Common sign is not found valid for foreign settlement as around one-third of 100 surveyed charts is found more or less equally allotted to each of three groups of sign. (KP Reader VI p 303)

III. Rule for Return to Motherland

17. One can return to motherland from abroad, if the 12th cusp sub lord signifies house 3 (leaving the place where one stays either temporarily or permanently), 9 (making a long journey) and 11 (reunion with kith and kin) during the DBA signifying house 3,9,11. (KP Reader IV, p 207 and the same house grouping in Chamatkar Chintamani of Bhatt Narayana)

18. House 9 has the rational justification because return from abroad will include long journey like going abroad. House 11 is clear for reunion with kith and kin, which would cover reunion with family members represented by house 2. House 4 is one's permanent residence. Leaving it is shown by house 3 (12th to 4). If a person is staying for a long time in one country, it may be treated as his residence indicated by house 4, and then house 3 has relevance as leaving one's residence for the return to motherland. In fact house 3 and 9 are considered, of course with 12, for going abroad and now they are considered with 11 for the return to motherland.

19. Other rules are as given under:

- 1) House grouping of 2 (family), 4 (motherland) and 11 (reunion with kith and kin) (K. Hariharan: Notable Persons & KP, p 47);
- 2) House grouping of 2,8 and 11 (12th to 3,9,12);
- 3) House grouping of 2,4,8 and 11 based on a/ 2,8,11 (12 to 3,9,12, undoing) staying home or end of frequent foreign travels; b/ 2 (family), 4 (home) and 11 (reunion) for return of missing person; and c/ the 12th cusp sub lord signification of house 4 (mother land) may not allow to settle abroad.
- 4) If 12th and 11th cusp sub lords signify 2,4,8,11, one can return to motherland for permanent settlement during DBA signifying 2,4,8,11. (K.P. Muhurat p 150)

20. In a study of 63 DBAs for return to motherland of 20 charts, the frequencies of appearance of house 2,3,4,8,9 and 11 are found as given under:

- 1) 9th-- 30 (out of 63 ie. 49%),
- 2) 3rd-- 26 (41%),
- 3) 11th--26 (41%),
- 4) 2nd-- 26 (41%),
- 5) 4th---23 (36%).
- 6) 8th---18 (29%),

where top three are consistent with the house grouping of 3,9 and 11 houses.

OM Gajaanam Namamhyam

During the KP Astrologers Forum's fortnightly meeting conducted on 14-June-2009 chaired by Dr.VV Mohan., some charts on Medical Astrology were taken up. Two natal charts regarding Mental Retardation were discussed in detail.

In medical astrology, 1st house being Thanu Bhava any affliction to this house would lead to disability of the relevant karakathawa. Moon is karaka for mind and Mercury is karaka for intelligence, any affliction to these planets would lead to impairment of mental faculties. Mental Retardation is a condition diagnosed before the age of 18 years that includes below average of skills necessary for daily living otherwise is known as less intelligent quotient. 1st cusp sublord connection to 6 indicates diseases, 8 indicates congenital diseases and 12 indicates continuous medical care and disabilities. Moon at the time birth gives the clue for congenital diseases. If Moon is connected to the above houses at the time of birth, it would give problems at the same time, which is known as congenital health problems in medical terms. ("Medical Astrology for All" by Sri K Subramaniam S/o Sri KSK Guruji)

Analysis:

Chart 1 – Sri Apple, (Mr)

(DOB: 31.12.1975, TOB: 04:44 AM, POB: Bagh Amberpet, Hyderabad, AP, Lat. 17N23, Long.78E30, KPNA 23-25-54, Wednesday, Birth Star: Jyesta-3, Rasi: Scorpio, Asc. Scorpio 16-42-39)

The native is mentally retarded since birth. 1st cusp sublord Mercury who is also karaka for mental faculties (IQ) is l/o 8 & 11 in 2, in the star of Su and sub of Ju l/o 2. Moon, karaka for mind (mathi) is l/o 9 (Badhaka), in the star of Me and sub of Ra in 12. 1st cusp and Mo are conj. by Ve l/o 7 & 12 and aspected by Ma from 7 as l/o 6. Such combination at the time of birth strongly indicates Mo's connection to Maraka, Badhaka, 6, 8 & 12 causing congenital mental disability. The native suffered meningial fever and fits in childhood which had made irreparable damage to mental faculties.

Chart 2 – Sri Banana (Mr)

(DOB: 12.03.1981, TOB: 22:13 PM, POB: Bagh Amberpet, Hyderabad, AP, Lat. 17N23, Long.78E30, KPNA 23-30-16, Thursday, Birth Star: Mrigasira-1, Rasi: Taurus, Asc. Libra 23-02-02).

At the time of birth the native was a normal child but Moon in Ma-Ma as l/o 2 and 7 and Dasa lord at birth Ma in Ju-Ra which is agent of Mo (karaka for mind in 8) caused a head injury and consequently mental damage to become mentally retarded. 1st cusp sublord Sa is in 11 (Badhaka) as l/o 4 & 5, in the star of Mo (karaka for mind in 8) and sub of Ju who is in 11 l/o of 3 & 6 establishing a strong connection to Mo through Mo star. 8th cusp sublord Venus is l/o 1 & 8 in orb of 5, in Ju-Sa is also connected to Mo in 8. 6th cusp sublord Rahu (agent of Mo) in 9, in Sa-Ju, connected to Mo has also made the problem of mind.

OM TAT SAT

A person was waiting to get his money due since last ten days.
Everyday he was told to get money on next day.
He was desperate to get money.
He asks, will I get money today ?

Horary number: 25

Time of judgment: 7- 01 am BST

Date: 2-6-2009

Place : Manchester (UK)

Rule

Money matter comes under domain of second house. If sub lord of second house signifies 2 or 6 or 11, then one receives money.

Analysis

In the example chart second cusp sub lord is Jupiter. Jupiter is in direct mode. Jupiter is in star of Mars. Mars is also in direct mode. Jupiter signifies 11th house. Jupiter is in the sub of Venus, which signifies second house. It indicates receiving money. Sub lord of second cusp is a significator of 11 and 2. So he will receive the money.

Is it possible today?

Let us check star lord of Moon.

Moon is in its own star and in sub of Jupiter.

Moon is placed in sixth house and its sub lord Jupiter is a significator of 11th, showing he will surely get money.

Result- he got the money.

A young girl came in UK two years back on study basis.
As a student one can work here for 20 hours a week.
Now her study was completed and she had applied for work permit.
Five months passed but she was still waiting for reply.
Naturally one becomes tense if his or her future is depending upon one letter to be issued, and after a long wait the person wants some assurance, and who is better than astrologer who can give assurance. As a student of KP I worked out for her a horary chart.

Number- 22
Time - 14-24 BST
Date - 09 – 05 - 2009
Place - Manchester

Rule

All kinds of correspondence, letters, papers, writing, means of communication, ticket, certificate, visa, work permit etc. belong to third house. If sub lord of third house signifies 3 or 11, one gets desired letter or document. And 11th sub lord also should signify 3 or 11 for positive answer.

Analysis

Testing third cusp

Third cusp sub lord is Saturn. Saturn is lord of 11th house. In this manner Saturn is signifying 11th house.

Testing eleventh cusp

Eleventh cusp sub lord is Mercury. Mercury is lord of third house. So matter will be in her favour.

Prediction

With the above simple application of KP rules I tell her she will surely get work permit.

She asked me when ?

At the time of judgement both Saturn and Mercury were retrograde.

Saturn becomes direct on 17 May and Mercury turns direct on May 31, 2009.

I told her 'you will get visa and work permit after May 31, 2009 but before June 16, 2009' when Mercury will cross its present position. I didn't check Dasa, Bhukti and Sun, Moon transit.

Result- she got visa and work permit on June 5, 2009.

Remark: For materialization of one of many matters governed by the 3rd house, besides signification 3 or 11 by 3rd and 11th cusps, matter wise signification of required houses, 3,9,12 for visa, 2,6,10 for job is also to be considered as indicated below by the above mentioned 3CSL Sa and 11CSL Me:

Sa(5,11-12) in star Ve(12,2-7) and sub Ju(11,9-10)

Me(1,3-4) in star Su(12,6) and sub Ke(4) whose star lord is Sa(5,11-12)

My client Mr. Ghansyambhai Khokhar's friend Dhirubhai Gajera participated in the lokshabha election as Surat Congress candidate and his opponent is the BJP candidate Darshanben Jardoshi.

So my client Ghanshyambhai asked me who would be elected, saying confidently that Dhirubhai Gejera's win was cent percent sure. He gave me no. 177 and I erected the horoscope as below.

Number – 177 (1 to 249)

Date of query – 27/4/2009

Time of query – 11/50/59

Place – Ahmadabad

Who will win May 2009 election?

If 10th (one's position in politics) sub lord signifies 10 (one's reputation), 3 (one's ability), 11 (one's reputation as a winner), one can win election in the DBA of 3,10,11 significators.

Ref : KPE-zine March 2009 article of Kanakji Bosmia.

10th sub lord is Saturn, Saturn is in the star of Venus and sub of Jupiter
Saturn is in 8, lord of 2,3. Saturn's star lord Venus is in 3 (one's ability) and lord of 6,11 (one's reputation as a winner). Jup is in 2 lord of 1,4. Hence 10th sublord signifies 3,11.

For opponent (Daxaben Jardoshi, BJP candidate) side:

10th sub lord is Saturn, Saturn is in the star of Venus and sub of Jupiter
Saturn is in 2, lord of 8,9. Saturn's star lord Venus is in 9 and lord of 5,12. Jup is in 8 lord of 7,10. So 10th sublord signifies 10.

Both sides were found strong. So we had to check the running DBAS Mo-Me-Ra-Ke.

Dhirubhai Gajera, Congress candidate

Mo(6, 8), in the star of own Mo(6, 8), in the sub of Me+(5, 7-10).

Dasa lord signifies 10=Ok.

Me+(5, 7-10), in the star of Su(4, 9), in the sub of Sa(8, 2-3).

Bhukti lord signifies 3,10 = Ok

Ra+(1), Rahu Conj with Jup, Ju+(2, 1-4), in the star of Mo(6, 8), in the sub of Mo(6, 8).

Antralord does not signify 3,10,11 at all. So it is not favourable for Dhirubhai and further check of Sookshmailord is not necessary.

For opponent side: Daxaben Jardoshi

Mo(12, 2), in the star of Mo(12, 2), in the sub of Me+(11, 1-4).

Dasa lord signifies 11 = Ok

Me+(11, 1-4), in the star of Su(10, 3), in the sub of Sa(2, 8-9).

Bhukti lord signifies 11,10,3=Ok

Ra+(7), Rahu Conj with Jup Ju+(8, 7-10), in the star of Mo(12, 2), in the sub of Mo(12, 2).

Antra lord signifies 10 = Ok

Ke+(1), in the star of Sa(2, 8-9), in the sub of Su(10, 3)

Sookshma lord signifies 3,10 = Ok

Because dasa lords do not not favor Dhirubhai, I predicted his friend's loss and opponent's win.
Actual Out come: Dhirubhai Gajera lost election.

Short History:

Economy

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Zimbabwe#Economy>

Zimbabwe maintained positive economic growth throughout the 1980s (5.0% GDP growth per year) and 1990s (4.3% GDP growth per year). However, the economy declined from 2000: 5% decline in 2000, 8% in 2001, 12% in 2002 and 18% in 2003. The government of Zimbabwe faces a variety of economic problems after having abandoned earlier efforts to develop a market-oriented economy. Problems include a shortage of foreign exchange, soaring inflation, and supply shortages. Zimbabwe's involvement from 1998 to 2002 in the war in the Democratic Republic of the Congo drained hundreds of millions of dollars from the economy.

Inflation rose from an annual rate of 32% in 1998 to an IMF estimate of 150,000% in December 2007,[citation needed] and to an official estimated high of 231,000,000% in July 2008 according to the country's Central Statistical Office. This represented a state of hyperinflation, and the central bank introduced a new 100 billion dollar note. As of November 2008, unofficial figures put Zimbabwe's annual inflation rate at 516 quintillion per cent, with prices doubling every 1.3 days. Zimbabwe's inflation crisis is now (2009) the second worst inflation spike in history, behind the hyperinflationary crisis of Hungary in 1946, in which prices doubled every 15.6 hours. By 2005, the purchasing power of the average Zimbabwean had dropped to the same levels in real terms as 1953. Local residents have largely resorted to buying essentials from neighbouring Botswana, South Africa and Zambia.

Private enterprise in Zimbabwe has weakened lately. Government spending is 56.4 % of GDP. It has partly been financed by printing money, which has led to hyperinflation. State enterprises are strongly subsidized, taxes and tariffs are high. State regulation is costly to companies, starting or closing a business is slow and costly.

The labor market is highly regulated, hiring a worker is cumbersome, firing a worker is difficult and the unemployment has risen to 80 % (2005). Since 2000 president Mugabe has confiscated lands of white farmers, and this former net exporter of grain has now been plagued by hunger. The country has a high level of corruption.

Currently one United States Dollar is equal to 37,456,777 Zimbabwe Dollars.

If 2nd(Cash Flow, Currency, Earning capacity, Money market, Revenue, Financial matter, Income), Signifies 2(Cash Flow, Currency, Earning capacity, Money market, Revenue, Financial matter, Income), 6 (Daily income), 10 (Worldly Position, The Economy), 11 (Gain, Business's money supply, Economical advancement). AND NOT CONNECTED TO 5 (12th from 6th Daily income), 8(Economic Crisis, National Debt, Financial Loss) , 12(Loss, Money manipulation).

In Zimbabwe chart 2nd CSL is Ven. Ven is in the star of Moon and sub of Ketu.

Ve+(5, 5-10), no planet in the star of Ven and Ven is CSL of Bhava 1, 2, 5, 11 in the star of Mo(5, 7), in the sub of Ke(2). Ketu is in the sign of Sat and Sa(8, 1-2).

2nd CSL signifies 2(Cash Flow, Currency, Earning capacity, Money market, Revenue, Financial matter, Income), 11 (Gain, Business's money supply, Economical advancement). And also 5 (12th from 6th Daily income), 8(Economic Crisis, National Debt, Financial Loss). It shows mixed result of some wealth.

When DBA changes wealth level also will change. As mentioned in the above short history, Zimbabwe maintained positive economic growth throughout the 1980s (5.0% GDP growth per year) and 1990s (4.3% GDP growth per year). However, the economy declined from 2000: 5% decline in 2000, 8% in 2001, 12% in 2002 and 18% in 2003.

Let us check Dasa during those periods.

Rahu Dasa started from 10/4/1995 up to 10/4/2013.

Ra+(8), Rahu Conj with Mar, Jup and Sat. Ma(8, 4-11), Ju+(8, 3-12), No planet in the star of Jup and Jup is CSL of Bhava 6, 12. Sa(8, 1-2) is in the star of Ke(2), Ketu is in the sign of Sa(8, 1-2). in the sub of Ve+(5, 5-10).

This Dasa indicates 2, 11 and 5, 8, 12 and after 2000 the economy had declined,

Next Jup Dasa : 10 April 2013 to 10 April 2029

Ju+(8, 3-12), in the star of Ke(2), in the sub of Ra+(8). Rahu Conj with Mar, Jup and Sat. Ma(8, 4-11), Ju+(8, 3-12), No planet in the star of Jup and Jup is CSL of Bhava 6, 12. Sa(8, 1-2).

This Dasa also indicates positive bhava 2, 11 but very strongly signifies 8, 12, 5 at all level.

My opinion: it is very difficult to achieve economic recovery in Zimbabwe till 10 April 2029. Reader can check next Dasa for more information.

Any Role of Retro Planet in KP Horary? Interesting Case of Kidney Racketeer Dr Amit

Kanak Bosmia

Sahakar-2, Flat No: 28, Jagabhai park, Ram baug
Maninagar, Ahmedabad 380 008, Phone 079- 2543 1165 Mobile: 98251 31165

Generally I do not like to discuss an old case which I discussed in group, but because it is very interesting about the role of retro planet in Horary chart, and so I discuss this case.

Question: Will Police able to arrest Dr.Amit (Kidney racket case) ? When?

Horary No: 248/249

DOJ: 4/2/2008

TOJ: 13.05.20

POJ: L.G.Hospital – Ahmedabad 23 N 00/ 72 E 36

Points are considered in my analysis

1) Police in horary chart is 6th Cusp 2) Impersonator is 12th Cusp 3) Law/Court is 9th cusp 4) Court arrest Order is 11th (9th Court and order of court 3rd from 9 = 11th) 5) Runaway person is 7th cusp.

Rules:

1) If 6th SL (Police) signifies 1 (self effort) and 11 (Success), Police can able to arrest runaway person. In the DBA of 1,11

2) If 11th SL (court order) signifies 6 (Victory on enemy), 11 (success). During DBA of 6, 11. One can arrest by Police on court order.

3) If 7th SL signifies 5 (Gain to opponent), 10th (4th from 7th come back home) 6th (12th from 7th Lost reputation.) During DBA of 5,6,10. One can arrest by Police on court order.

Analysis:

1) If 6th SL (Police) signifies 1 (self effort) , and 11 (Success), Police can able to arrest runaway person. In the DBA of 1,11

6th SL is Mar. Mar is in own star and Mer(R) Sub. Mar is in 3 lord of 2,9 Mer(R) is in 11 and lord of 4,7(Runaway person). 6th SL signifies 11 so Police will be able to find out and arrest Dr.Amit.

2) If 11th SL (court order) signifies 6 (Victory on enemy), 11 (success). During DBA of 6, 11.

11th SL is Sat. Sat(R) is in the star of Ket and sub of Mer(R). Sat is in 5 lord of 11, 12. No planet in the star of Sat(R) and Sat(R) is sub lord of 11th and so Sat is a strong significator of 11th. Ket is in 5th Conj with Sat(R) and aspected by Jup by 9th aspect. Jup is in 10 lord of 1,10. No planet in the star of Jup and Jup is sub lord of 1,4,5,7. Mer(R) is in 11 and lord of 4,7(Runaway person).

11th SL signification of 11 as well as 5 means the person should be arrested after a lot of difficulties.

3) If 7th SL signifies 5 (Gain to opponent), 10th (4th from 7th come back home) 6th (12th from 7th Lost reputation.) During DBA of 5,6,10.

7th SL is JUP. Jup is in the star of Ven and sub of Moon. Jup is in 10 lord of 1,10. No planet in the star of Jup and Jup is sub lord of 1,4,5,7. Ven is in 10 lord of 3,8. Moon is in 10 lord of 5.

7th SL signifies 5 (Gain to opponent), 10th (4th from 7th come back home).

Dasa lord Ven:

Ve is in 10, lord of 3-8, in the star of Own, in the sub of Ra in 11. No planet in the star of Rahu and Rahu is sub lord of 3,9,10. Rahu is in the sign of Sat in 5 lord of 11, 12. No planet in the star of Sat and Sat is the sub lord of 11.

Ven signifies 11 (tally with Rules no 1 & 2), 5,10 (tally with Rule no 3). So dasa is OK.

Bhukti lord is Moon. Up to 10 Feb 2008.

Moon is in 10 lord of 5. in the star of Ven in 10, lord of 3-8, in the sub of Mon Own.

Any Role of Retro Planet in KP Horary? Interesting Case of Kidney Racketeer Dr Amit

Kanak Bosmia

This Bhukti does not signify 11 or 1 so there is no chance of arrest Dr.Amit during Moon Bhukti up to 10/2/2008.

Next Bhukti will be Mar. up to 10 April 2009.

Mar is in 3 lord of 2,9 Mar is in Own star and sub of Mer in 11 and lord of 4, 7(Runaway person).

This Bhukti signifies 11 and match with 1 & 2 rules, 3rd rule give us same result, so when 2nd give us positive result we consider this Bhukti OK.

For Antra period.

After Mar antra we have Rahu antra. For 4/3/2008 to 8/5/2008

Rahu is in Mar star and Ven sub. Rahu is sub lord of 3,9,10. Rahu is in the sign of Sat in 5 lord of 11, 12. No planet in the star of Sat and Sat is sub lord of 11. Mar is in 3 lord of 2,9. Ve is in 10, lord of 3-8.

This Antra signifies 11 (tally with Rules no 1 & 2), 5,10 (tally with Rule no 3). So this Antra is OK.

In my opinion Police will be able to arrest Dr.Amit during 4/3/2008 to 8/5/2008.

In this case Sat and Mer are retro but I do not consider retro effect in my work as always.

Actual Out come:

NEWS :Thursday, 07 February , 2008, 22:07

Kathmandu: Dr Amit Kumar, the alleged kingpin in the multi-crore rupees kidney transplant racket in India, has been arrested in Nepal, the "Himalayan Times" newspaper reported tonight.

Remark by author: prediction came correct but the timing was wrong. Rule 3 tally with Moon Bhukti, but I do not consider it and go for next.

Story of the Accident

Mr. Saman is a toddy taper by profession and he used to climb up a large number of Jaggery Palm (Kitul) trees for a day for tapping. On the 30th March 2009, as usual he started his workday life of tapping and climbed up a tree at about 11:15 a.m. and started to tap with his sharp knife.

Suddenly he slipped off his leg from the branch where he was sitting and loosed his both hand and felt down from the tree on to a shrub under the tree, where he got damaged to his face. A piece of stick of the shrub has collided with his left cheek and has penetrated into the inner flesh of the face under the nasal bone and reached up to the lower area of the right eye. He was taken to the hospital by the neighbors with the broken piece of stick in his cheek. The surgeons had removed a 13cm piece of stick from his cheek and saved his life from this terrible accident.

Rules

1. If the sub lord of the ascendant is deposited in the constellation of the significator of the 8th house, he will meet with accident. If the sub lord of the ascendant is the significator of 12th house, he may be admitted in a hospital. Death is indicated only by significators of Marakasthana and Badhkasthana. (KP Reader VI page 155)

2. The sub lord of the 8th house is to be deposited in the constellation of the planet which is the significator of 8th house. If the significator happens to be also the significator of the 6th house, then he will have fever, etc., following the accident. If the same sub lord is the significator of the 12th, he will be admitted in a hospital. If the sub lord happens to be the significator of Badhaka Sthana and Maraka Sthana, he will succumb to it, provided his longevity not further more promised. If the longevity is promised, he will get over this, and the condition of the patient would be threatening. Some may be unconscious; some may be given blood transfusion and also oxygen. Therefore we have to judge both longevity and also the duration of disease. (KP Reader VI page 159)

3. If the sub lord of the Asc., 8th or 12th cusp, be the significators (in the star of the occupant or owner) of 8 or 12, the native is likely to meet with an accident. If the sub lord of the Asc., 8th or 12th cusp, be the significators (in the star of the occupant or owner) of 1, 5 or 11 the native surpasses the danger, during the joint period of the significators of 1, 5, 11. (Further Light of Nakshastra Chinthamani of Mr. C.R. Bhatt page 35)

4. Accidents will take place during the DBA periods of the sub lords of the Trigonal 4-8-12 houses. (Kudanthai Nathan in Astrosecrets and KP part II page 94)

The Birth details of Mr. Saman

DOB – 14-10-1969

POB - Matara- Sri Lanka, Long. 80E32, Lat. 5N56

Analysis

The sub lord of Ascendant is Sa in 2 l/o 11, 12. Sa is in the star of Ke and sub of Me. Ke is in 6 and star of Ve in 6 l/o 3, 8 and Ke's sign lord Su is in 7 l/o 6. Me is in 7 l/o 4, 7. Moreover Sa aspects 8th cusp by his 7th aspect and 4th by his 3rd aspect and 11th by his 10th aspect. So ICSL indicates a deadly accident by signification of 2 (Maraka), 4 (end of live), 6 (injury), 7 (Badhaka, Maraka), 8 (accident, danger) and 12 (hospitalization), and at the same time survival from accident by signification of 11, 3, 8 for medium life up to 66 years.

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars

The sub lord of 8th cusp is Ra in 12 and no planet is in its star and it is the sub lord of cusps 2,5,8. Ra is in the star of Ju in 7 l/o 1,10. Ra's sign lord Sa is in 2 l/o 11,12. Ra is in the star of Ke in 6 and Ketu's sign lord Su is in 7 l/o 6. 8CSL also indicates both a terrible accident by signification of 2,6,7,8,12 and survival from this accident by signification of 1,5,11.

On the date of accident, ie. 30-03-2009, the native was running the DBAS of Ve-Ve-Su-Me. Dasa and Bhukti lord Ve is in 6 l/o 3,8. Ve is in the star of Su in 7 l/o 6 and sub of Ju in 7 l/o 1,10. Anthra lord Su is in 7 l/o 6. Su is in the star of Ma in 10 l/o 2,9 and in the sub of Ju in 7 l/o 1,10. Sookshma lord Me is in 7 l/o 4,7. No planet is in the star of Me which is the sub lord of cusps 3,9,12. Me is in the star of Su in 7 l/o 6 and in the sub of Ve in 6 l/o 3,8. The DBAS lords clearly indicate a fatal accident by signification of 2,4,6,7,8,12 and only 1 is insufficiently signified for survival from the accident.

However, the life saving signification of 1CSL and 8CSL supported by transit had saved the native's life from this deadly accident. At the time this accident around 11.15 a.m. of 30-03-2009, all DBAS lords Ve, Su and Me were transiting in the star of Sa in 2 l/o 11,12 to be survived by signification of 11.

House 3 signified by 1CSL and DBS lords here in this incident can be interpreted as climbing up of a tree under the category of movements and transitions as per the E-Magazine Nawarathnamala of Kanak Bosmia Ji. Further the star lord of 3rd cusp is Su, who denotes palm tree, where the native was at the time of the accident.

Chief signifiers for accident Sa (blows, collisions, contusions, crushing, dislocation and fall) and Ma (bites, burns, shooting, stabbing) had also been found to play their role in this accident.

Thus the efficacy of the rules of the KP System has proved correct and my Pranam to Rev. Guruji Shri KSK, who laid this cemented path to the followers.

Om Gan Ganapataye Namah

In last seven years of my experience as an astrologer, this case shows that we cannot change what's written in our destiny. This case was solved during the time when I was learning Krishnamurti Padhdhati Astrology. One of my friends asked me about his marriage. During that time he was having an affair and it was not clear whether it would turn into marriage. Moreover they belong to a totally different background, my friend is a South Indian, native place in Kerala and his girl friend was a local resident of Bhopal.

Query :When will marriage take place ?

Horary : 208

Date : 28-08-2006

Time : 21:25 IST

Place : Bhopal Latitude 23 N 16 Longitude 77 E 26

Rules:

1. For marriage, the 7th cuspal sublord should signify 2,7 or 11th house.
2. Marriage will take place during the Mahadasha, Bhukti and Antara of the strong significators of 2,7 or 11th house.
3. Ruling Planets are also be considered to time the marriage .
4. Transits of significators must also be considered.

Analysis:

For horary queries the planet Moon must signify the houses under consideration. Let us look at Moon. Moon is placed in 8th house, it is in the star of Mars which is placed in 7th ; hence Moon signifies 7th house. So now we can proceed with our analysis.

7th Cusp (Marriage) Leo 0:0:0 :- Sun Ketu Ketu - The sublord of the 7th cusp is Ketu. Ketu itself is placed in the 7th house; it is in the star of Sun owning 7 and occupying 7. Hence it is a strong signifier of marriage. It is in the sub of Jupiter which is placed in 9th house and owns 2,11 & 12th houses. Hence the sublord Ketu promises marriage and as 9th and 12th houses are also involved, it shows a long journey and change of place for marriage.

5th Cusp (Affair) Gemini 04:48:46 – Mer Ma Ve – The Sublord of the 5th cusp is Venus, it is in the star of Mercury which is placed in 7th house and owns 5, 6 & 8th houses. 6th house signification indicates problems related to marriage and 8th house is considered for disappointment, obstacles, disputes etc.

11th Cusp (Fulfillment of Desire, Permanent Relationship) Sag 04:48:46 :- Jup Ket Mar – The sublord of the 11th cusp is Mars which is placed in 7th house and is in the star of Sun which is also placed in 7th house, hence it is a very strong signifier for marriage.

2nd Cusp (Family) Pisces 08:47:44 :- Ju Sa Ve - the sublord of the 2nd cusp is Venus which is also the sublord of 5th cusp indicating marriage with obstacles .

Dasha , Bhukti, Antara

At the time of judgement Mars Dasha was running up to 25-12-2007. Dasa lord Mars is placed in 7th house and is in the star of Sun which is also placed in 7th house. Hence Mars is a strong signifier of 7th house and thus
